

Joseph Akin was the son of James Akin and Patience Howard who lived in Quaker Hill, Dutchess Co., NY. He was a true pioneer as described below. The resulting family has been studied quite intently by a number of researchers and I have attempted to combine the results of their work with my own research. The relationships in this branch of the Akin Family Tree are quite complicated. Joseph's brother Beniah came to Chautauqua County somewhat later than Joseph and these two Akin families married into the Wilcox family creating a very confusing result. Magnifying this confusion is the duplication of names such as the two Patience Akin women, the two Elijah Akin men, two John Howard Akin men, and so on. I have created a diagram to graphically describe some of these relationships.

Generation No. 1

1. JOSEPH⁵ AKIN (JAMES⁴, DAVID³, JOHN², DAVID¹)^{1,2} was born 08 Apr 1761 in Quaker Hill, Dutchess Co., NY, and died 01 Jan 1842 in Kiantone, Chautauqua County, NY^{2,3,4}. He married ELSY HOLLOWAY^{5,6,7}, daughter of WILLIAM HOLLOWAY and SARAH LEWIS. She was born 15 Dec 1760 in Dutchess County, NY, and died 26 Apr 1833 in Kiantone, Chautauqua County, NY⁸.

Notes for JOSEPH AKIN:

Joseph Akin came from Rensselaer to Chautauqua County in 1806 with his large family and in order to reach the place which he had chosen for his residence, he had to make his own road from Griffith's on Chautauqua Lake, (where Jeremiah Griffith Esq., also from Rensselaer County, had just established himself) to Stillwater Creek. Joseph Akin was the first permanent settler on the Stillwater, and lived for some time in an almost unbroken wilderness. Jamestown was not settled until 1810, when the first settler, John Blowers, in the employ of Judge James Prendergast, erected his log cabin near the boatlanding. [Chautauqua Democrat 1/25/1860]

Joseph Akin purchased Lot 29 where his son-in-law, Charles Russell, and grandson, John Howard Russell, now reside. James and Elijah Akin and other sons settled near their father on the Stillwater, lower down stream. [Anderson, Arthur Wellington, "The conquest of Chautauqua, Jamestown and vicinity in the pioneer and later periods as told by pioneer newspapers and persons Jamestown, N.Y.", unknown, 1932, 486 pgs., Page 2]

It seems that Joseph laid out lots for a village that he named Akinsville about the time that Judge Prendergast laid out Jamestown, but Joseph would not sell his lots outright, but instead offered long leases to anyone that would improve them. Prendergast, on the other hand, sold his lots on liberal terms and gave clear title, and credited almost anyone. Consequently, Jamestown grew while Akinsville did not. It is believed that but two houses and a blacksmith shop were built in Akinsville - one of the house being Laban Case's tavern. This notion of leases was probably brought from Rensselaer County where most of the land was leased by patroons or other land proprietors. This system was becoming very unpopular in the eastern counties and probably even more so among settlers in the west. [Young, Andrew W., "History of Chautauqua County, New York from its first settlement to the present time with numerous biographical and family sketches", Buffalo, N.Y., unknown, 1875, 803 pgs., page 446]

A different slant on this comes from [Edson, Obed, "History of Chautauqua County, New York", Boston, Mass., W.A. Fergusson, 1894, 1014 pgs., p. 942] which says that Joseph Akin was going to build a town of Akinsville, but the survey of the township into lots was not completed and he could not obtain a clear title to the land to sell his lots. In 1814, he abandoned his plan to build a town. He did build a bridge about 1814 on the Stillwater Creek and the first town meeting of Ellicott in 1813 was appointed at "Joseph Akin's house in Stillwater."

In an email written 13 May 2002, Donna Wendt wrote: "I've located the "Akinsville" site of Joseph Akin. It is now called "Stillwater" and is at the site of the intersections of NY roads 60, 49, and 380 just south of Jamestown. Not much is there. A new golf driving range is attached to a home on Road 60. There are a couple businesses, but mostly the country is dairy cows and 200 years ago, I'm sure there were timber stands all over. "

The Chautauqua County GenWeb Site has a listing for Stillwater Cemetery that contains the name of Aury Akin, son of Joseph and Elsie, who died 4/27/1839 at age 24. If true, Elsie would have been 55 years old. Therefore, I doubt the data on this person.

Notes for JAMES AKIN II:

All but the first child of the family of James and Phebe Ruth were born in the Town of Carroll, Chautauqua Co., NY. Note, however, that the part of the Town of Carroll where they lived became the Town of Kiantone about 1852. Therefore there is the unavoidable confusion about Carroll versus Kiantone.

Phebe was living with her daughter and son-in-law, Stephen P. and Patience Wilcox in 1860 at age 72. [1860 US Census]

Notes for JOHN HOWARD AKIN, SR:

In the Jamestown Journal dated 19 Mar 1852, "Suicide; We learn that Mr. John H. Akin of Busti committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn on Thursday night last. He was about 50 years of age, a farmer of temperate habits, and in easy circumstance. No immediate cause was assigned for the act. He leaves a numerous family of children."

His second wife had died a few months before either during childbirth or soon after. There were three young children born to John Howard Akin and his second wife, Harriet Forbes Akin: Marshall who would have been about 7; Francis who would have been about 4; and De Witt Clinton who was a baby. According to the notes of Donna Wendt in 2002, Marshall and Francis grew up with Rhoda their older step-sister. De Witt Clinton grew up with his Cousin, Ransom Akin and his wife, Laura Bratt Akin. Ransom was the son of Edward Akin, brother to John Howard Akin, Sr.

Notes for JAMES P. AKIN III:

Jane Rutherford Smith in an Akin Forum posting states:

James M. Akin was my great grandfather, and I have a rather circumstantial trail to his history. A James M. Aikin was born to James Aiken (born c.1812) and wife Elsana in 1850 in South Valley, Cattaraugus Co., NY. When Elsana died, James left his son with an uncle and came to California. A James Akin married Phoebe A. Logan in Eldorado Co., CA on November 3, 1856. In the 1860 Census James Akin was located at Michigan Bar, Sacramento Co., operating a toll bridge, with wife Phoebe and two stepchildren, surname Logan. In 1870 James (Sr.) is again listed as a bridgekeeper, with the addition of a second James Akin, age 20, in the household. On March 24, 18, 1872, James P. Aken, age 60, who had arrived in Visalia from Michigan Bar, died in Visalia. Ina Stiner's 1934 collection of Porterville Genealogies lists James M. Akin's father as James Akin. In 1880 James M. Akin was a boarder in the home of J.A. Kincade in Tule River Township. In July of that year he married Sarah A. Hudson. In 1882, a child named Adell Elsana Akin died at age 10 months.

Notes for ELSANA WILCOX:

Notes for ELLIOTT BRATT:

In 1870, a young Elliott was living with his parents in Kiantone, Chautauqua Co., NY. In 1880, Elliott was living with his sister, Elizabeth, and brother-in-law, Samuel Woodward, in Windom, Cottonwood, MN. In 1900, he was back in Jamestown, Chautauqua Co., NY married to Nellie M. In 1910, he and Nellie were in Kalispell, Flathead Co., MT. In 1930, they were living in Chico, Butte Co., CA. In the obituary for Frank L. Bratt, Elliott is identifies as living in Ventura, California.

There is no original record of Elliott's birth yet found. We are left with the census ages which vary considerably. The first census Elliott was in was 1870 in which he was listed as being 6 years old which would imply a dob of 1863/4. He is listed as being one year older than his brother Edward. In 1900, both the month and year of birth was given. In Elliott's case, it was Jul 1865. Edward's dob was given as Sep 1866 which means one year between them. This date is very close to the date from the Bratt Genealogy that Donna Wendt and Joyce Bratt came up with for Edward's dob. As a result, I have used the Jul 1865 date for Elliott's dob.

More About ADAMS DAVIS and RHODA AKIN:
Marriage: 1844

Child is listed above under (34) Adams Davis.

46. PHINEAS HOWARD⁷ AKIN (*JOHN HOWARD*⁶, *JOSEPH*⁵, *JAMES*⁴, *DAVID*³, *JOHN*², *DAVID*¹)³¹⁵ was born Abt. 1834 in Chautauqua County, NY, and died Abt. 1904 in Erie, PA. He married PERMILIA TILSON. She was born in Erie Co., PA.

Notes for PHINEAS HOWARD AKIN:

An accomplished violinist, he had a 7-piece orchestra and played for all of the local functions. [Some Akin Cousins, p. 96]

From Donna Wendt in an email dated 13 May 2002: "I saw the tombstone of Phineas and Permelia Akin (pg 96) in the Mt Pleasant Cemetery a miles east of their "Tillotson Village" home. The Tillotson crossroads is at Hwy 8 and an East-West road that goes east into Spartansburg - the Cemetery is on this road. Maybe it's Mt Pleasant Rd? It just west above Oil Creek Lake. The big farm of Adams Davis and Rhoda Akin runs north from the crossroads up Hwy 8 on the west side. The inscription for Phineas Akin is only "1833 --- " The Akin book gives birth as "ca. 1834" There is no death date on the tombstone for him. The Akin book says he died in Erie. Perhaps he is buried in Erie. But his wife shares the nice big granite tombstone - it says "Wife Permelia Akin 1840 - 1902" - so perhaps he fixed up the tombstone when she died then he died a year later in Erie and never made it back to the family plot?"

Notes for PERMILIA TILSON:

In an email dated 13 May 2002, Donna Wendt wrote: "Permelia was the violinist. Her maiden name is written "Tilson" in the book [Some Akin Cousins], but it might be Tillotson because of all the Tillotsons in the community. Per a cemetery survey Perry Tillotson died 5 May 1864 in the Civil War. Rhoda's Civil War letter mentions Tillotson, I believe, and Adams would be her husband. I don't have the letter in front of me."

Child of PHINEAS AKIN and PERMILIA TILSON is:

108. i. HORACE HOWARD⁸ AKIN, b. 24 Apr 1862, Erie Co., PA; d. 04 Dec 1947, Union City, PA.

She was born 07 Jan 1843 in Riga, Monroe Co., NY, and died 07 May 1936 in near Dodge Center, Dodge, MN.

Notes for DAVID AKIN:

David Akins was the one who left Chautauqua Co to teach in Wisconsin. There he met Sarah, a student in his class at Kingston, WI. He developed "lung hemorrhage" and returned to NY and stayed with his brother - John Howard Akins, Jr - I believe - and was invited to "sit in the sun in the apple orchard" He got well and returned to WI to marry Sarah Ells and then they homesteaded in Skyberg, MN. [From Donna Wendt, an ancestor of David and Sarah.]

Notes for BERTHA MAY AKIN:

While looking in the probate records here in MN I've found that four, maybe five, of the 12 children of David Akins (son of John Howard Akins, born Chautauqua Co) had mental problems. Two of the kids were admitted to a state Institution for Defectives for "feeble mindedness" (Bertha and Frank). [Email, Donna Wendt dated 10/5/2002]

Notes for JAMES ORLAN AKIN:

While looking in the probate records here in MN I've found that four, maybe five, of the 12 children of David Akins (son of John Howard Akins, born Chautauqua Co) had mental problems. One adult child (James) had an insanity hearing, but his file is gone. James was the one that eventually was executor for his parents, maintained the farm, and probably had the most sense. In old age, he asked his Squier cousin to be his guardian in the "Faribault Rest Home" where he had transferred from the Rochester State Hospital. [Email, Donna Wendt dated 10/5/2002]

Notes for JESSE PETE AKIN:

While looking in the probate records here in MN I've found that four, maybe five, of the 12 children of David Akins (son of John Howard Akins, born Chautauqua Co) had mental problems. One adult child (Jesse P.) was committed for violence, illusions and threats. Jesse died of a fractured skull after accidentally falling while at the Hastings State Hospital - age 33. One medical examiner noted that Jesse's insanity was hereditary. [Email, Donna Wendt dated 10/5/2002]

Notes for LUCINDA AKIN:

Lucinda married "out of her race" and was disowned by her brothers and sisters. It is known that she lived in Chautauqua Co., NY with her husband and several children who were born between 1860 and 1888. Names not documented. [Some Akin Cousins, p. 101]

Notes for HERMAN WOODARD:

Herman Woodward is listed as a Creole Farmer in the NY State 1865 Census for the Town of Harmony, Chautauqua Co., Vol II, Harmony through Westfield [transcribed by Lois Barris, 1999].

In 1870, he is listed as Hanan Woodard, age 40, Mulatto, and is a farmer of a farm worth $4000. His children are all listed as Mulatto. He is living with his family near Panama in Harmony Twp., Chautauqua Co., NY.

He married ROWENA CALE^{353,354} 08 Jun 1871³⁵⁵, daughter of JESSE CALE and SARAH MOREY. She was born 08 Nov 1854, and died 19 Jan 1937.

Notes for DE WITT CLINTON AKIN:

Reared by an older cousin, Ransom Akin, son of Edward Akin. [Some Akin Cousins, p. 102] This was also confirmed by Donna Wendt who wrote in an email dated 13 May 2002: "When my ancestor John Howard Akin committed suicide in 1852 DeWitt was an infant. His mother Sally Harriet Forbes died shortly after his birth. He was raised, (adopted?) by Ransom. "

As Lois Schultz pointed out in her manuscript, "We have listened to, and have been very disturbed by the 'old wives tales' regarding who the nother of this man was. Finally, after a long and hard search, we have verified to our satisfaction, at least, that he was the youngest and last child born to John and Harriet Forbes Akin. His mother died shortly after childbirth." Lois points out that the Letters of Administration for the estate of John Howard Akin lists De Witt Clinton Akin as his legitimate heir. The other important evidence is the information in the census records. I have found De Witt in the 1860, 1870, 1900, and 1910 US Census and the 1892 NY Census. All of these cesus records list his age consistant with a birth prior to Harriet Forbes' death in Sep 1851. Of particular interest is the 1900 US Census that documents his date of birth as October 1850, about a year prior to Harriet's death.

Notes for NORMAN P. BUCKLIN:

Norman is listed as H. B. Bucklin in the 1800 US Census for Osceola Co., Iowa; however, it lists his daughter Blanch age 4 born in Illinois whom we know he was living with in 1900 in South Dakota. While not proven, I believe that this is Norman Parker Bucklin. This census shows his wife to be Leona who is age 19. She could not have borne all of the earlier children because of her age; therefore, I have made the assumption that the children born in Illinois were born to his first wife, Alice, and the Iowa child, Ralph, was born to Leona. All of this remains to be proven.

Child of NORMAN BUCKLIN and LEONA is:

- i. RALPH⁹ BUCKLIN⁴⁶³, b. Abt. 1879, Iowa.

Marriage Notes for BEULAH BRATT and CLARK KAYNER:

In the 1930 U.S. Census for NY, Erie Co., Aurora, (www.ancestry.com), p. 5a, Clark is shown as being single, and his mother, Diantha, is living with him. One web site states that Beulah and Clark were married in 1912, but if so, they were not married very long. None-the-less, Beulah shows up in the 1910 census as being single living with her parents and using her maiden name, but shows up as Beulah Kayner in the 1920 census again living with her parents. In 1930, she shows up in California living alone and operating a millinery shop. She died in New York in 1963.

Notes for STEPHEN FLOYD AKIN:

The information other than date and place of birth is somewhat suspect. The 1880 census shows a Floyd Akin, b. abt. 1861 in NY, working in the oil fields of Pennsylvania [Bradford, Mckean Co., PA, p. 161.2000]. Then in 1900, there is a Floyd Achen, b. 1860 in NY, working as an oil driller in Ohio [Montgomery Twp., Wood Co., OH, p. 9a]. Finally, in 1910, Floyd S. Aiken, b. abt 1861 in NY, is working as an Oil Contractor in Nowata, Nowata Twp., OK. In 1920, Floyd Aiken, b. abt 1864 in NY, is working as a Oil Well Inspector in Toledo, Ohio. In 1930, Floyd Aiken is retired in Toledo. Throughout the 1910 - 1930 period, he is married to Bertha and his son is living with them. So, I conclude that these census images are all of the same family, but I cannot prove that this is Stephen Floyd Akin, s/o Alfred and Sarah.

Notes for WILLIAM HAMPTON ESKEW:

The 1910 census shows that William Eskew was living in Gardena, Los Angeles Co., CA with mother Sara E., and step-father, John H. Smith who was a carpenter for house building. It was the 2nd marriage for Sara and the 3rd for John H. Smith. Sarah had 4 children, one living in 1910. She was born in Missouri. Her father was born KY and mother in VA. (Probably shortly after the census "Bill" was roommate with Leonard Pearce (my Grandfather) - when they both worked at the lumber yard - they lived at the boarding house of Edith Akins Blanding. Edith was sister to Bill's future wife, Gertie Akins-dw)

In 1920, William is married to Gertrude and they are living in Wasioja, Dodge Co., MN. (Gertie wrote that they went back to Minnesota so she could take care of her ailing parents. She was a nurse).

118. MAUDE E.⁸ AKIN (*DE WITT CLINTON*⁷, *JOHN HOWARD*⁶, *JOSEPH*⁵, *JAMES*⁴, *DAVID*³, *JOHN*², *DAVID*¹)⁷²⁶ was born 25 Jun 1873 in New York, and died 1939. She married (1) CHARLES W. AMSDELL^{727,728} Abt. 1893⁷²⁹. He was born Aug 1871 in New York⁷²⁹, and died 09 Feb 1940 in San Diego, San Diego Co., CA⁷³⁰. She married (2) WILLIAM R. AMSDELL^{731,732} Bef. 1910. He was born 1883 in New York, and died 1956.

Notes for MAUDE E. AKIN:

Ann Olheim, <anno@frontiernet.net>, discovered that Maude Akin may have been married twice - each to a different Amsdell man. She found that in the 1900 US Census, Maude is married to Charles Amsdell.

They are living in Kiantone, Chautauqua Co., NY. Charles is 28, born August 1871, and Maude is 26, born June 1873. Charles was a clothing merchant. They had been married 7 years. Living with them is a son, Clinton R., age 5, born June, 1894. Clinton is buried with Dewitt and Rowena Akin in Stillwater Cemetery. He died in 1906, according to the headstone. I found Charles Washburn Amsdell, born 8 Aug 1871, in the California Death Index. He died 2 Feb 1940 in San Diego, CA. He is living there in the 1930 census (name is spelled Ansdell) with a wife Julia. The "age at first marrigae" is left blank for him. It is on sheet 1b for San Diego, San Diego Co., CA.

Ann then found Maude in the 1910 Census. Maude is in Jamestown, married to William R. Amsdell. William is age 28, Maude is 34 (she lost a couple of years in age.) William is a counterman in a restaurant. Here's where it gets interesting. They had been married two years, and the census indicates this was the first marriage for both. It also says that Maude had not had any children.

In 1920, William and Maude are living in Kiantone with Rowena Akin, Maude's mom, with children Beatrice and Wilifred (that's how his name is spelled in the 1920 census and on his headstone in Stillwater Cemetery.) William is now 36, and Maude is 45. Beatrice is 8, Wilifred age 7. William's now an inspector for a wheel and axle company.

In 1930 they're still living in Kiantone, on Frewsburg Road. Now they own a house, and Rowena is living with them. William's the operator of a gasoline station. Maude says she was 34 at the time of her first marriage. William is now 46, Maude is 55, Beatrice is 18 and Wilifred is 16.

Notes for ELMER NELSON:

There were two Elmer Nelsons living in Chautauqua County during the early 1900's. One was born in 1905 and the other in 1909. It is more likely that the Elmer Nelson that married Beatrice Amsdell was the one born in 1905 since in 1930, a few months before they were married, Beatrice and this Elmer lived only a few households apart. The 1930 census shows Elmer in Household #130 while Beatrice is in Household #124 - both in Kiantone, Chautauqua Co., NY. This is not conclusive, but a good bet.
