 took place June 8, 1838, in Scott Township, Steuben County, Ind....An interesting ceremony was performed March 9, 1862, it being the marriage rites of Azariah Hadley the youngest son serving as a private in an Ohio regiment. Her maternal grandparents were Peter and Catherine (Haynes) Upp, and her paternal grandparents were Peter [sic] and Mary (Risinger) Fackler. Mrs. Hadley’s parents were natives of the same county...and thence moved to Huron County, Ohio, in 1837. Mr. Fackler was a farmer and blacksmith. He died in November, 1875, some years after the death of his wife, who had entered into rest in 1868....Their daughter Elizabeth....taught school seven near Scotia, Greeley County, Nebraska, September 14, 1873, and is a son of Mansell and Mary (Rood) Davis... At Ord, this state, in July, 1901, Mr. Davis was united in marriage with Miss Besse Fackler, who was born in Illinois and who there attended high school at Astoria, and having continued her studies in the University of Nebraska after the removal

Houston] took place November 15, 1853, with Miss Margaret Major....The second marriage of Mr. Houston was celebrated October 12, 1858, with Miss Frances A. Fackler, in Leavenworth City, Kan., and two children, Charles F. and Martha E., have resulted from this marriage....The ancestors of the Fackler family came to America from Germany, and the father of Mrs. Houston, Jacob Fackler, was born in Hagerstown, Md....Grandfather Fackler, a Captain in the Revolutionary army, later became a merchant in Richmond, Va., moving from there to Staunton, Va., where he carried on the same business until his death....Jacob Fackler, whose birth occurred in Maryland, in 1771, died in Saline County, Mo., in 1855. When he had attained his majority, he entered into the mercantile business with his father in Virginia, and there married Miss Matilda Morris, of Louisa County, Va., in 1810. She was a daughter of Guthrie Morris, a prominent resident of that county. When seventy-five years old, Mr. Fackler came from Virginia to Missouri on horseback and bought a farm six miles south of Marshall, where he lived until 1850....The mother's death occurred in September, 1844.
