INVENTORY OF ESTATE WORTH $500, OR LESS.

State of Indiana, Fulton County, Sct:

The undersigned shows that she is the widow of William A. Carr deceased, late of said County and State; that the estate of said decedent, subject to administration, both real and personal, is not, as she believes and avers, worth over the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, exclusive of legal incumbrances thereon; wherefore, she asks that the same may be appraised and vested in her as such widow.

Dated this 7th day of December 1895

The above petition filed by me this 7th day of December 1895
Minnie Carr
Henry W. Hard, Clerk.

State of Indiana, Fulton County, Sct:

To George Gregison and Francis Rogers of said County, Greeting:

Whereas, Minnie Carr widow of William A. Carr deceased, late of said County and State, has filed a petition, as above shown, setting forth that the estate of said decedent, subject to administration, both personal and real, is not worth more than Five Hundred Dollars, exclusive of legal incumbrances thereon, and asking an appraisement thereof.

Therefore, I have appointed George Gregison to act in concert with Francis Rogers selected by said widow (both disinterested householders of said County), as appraisers of said estate.

You will therefore proceed to inventory and appraise each solvent demand due the deceased, and each and every article of personal estate (other than those exempt by law from administration), and each tract of real estate, which Inventory and Appraisement, when completed, you will return, together with this precept, to this office.

WITNESS, The Clerk and seal of said Court, this 7th
day of December 1895

Henry W. Hard Clerk.

An Inventory of all the Personal and Real Estate of William A. Carr deceased, taken and appraised by George Gregison and Francis Rogers on the 17th day of December 1881, by virtue of the precept hereto attached.
