From: Wie es Früher War - Erzählunge, Berichte und Chronik von Landersdorf und aus dem "Land Um Stauf" (translated), pg 338-339:

10. owner: Michael Wissinger

As he handed over his farm in Ruppmannsburg, he bought as "order" farmer the farm house nr. 1 in Goellersreuth at April 11th, 1872 for the value of 10000 fl (see below). In July 1872 he married as a widower at the age of 67 the 46-years-old Catharina Dengler from Reinwarzhofen. Wissinger was farmer at the "Spuellerhof" in Ruppmannsburg and there in 1. marriage with Eva Maria Ellinger from Alfershausen. She died in 1863. The couple had 8 children there. Which of them moved with the parents to Goellersreuth is not documented. Most of them should have been married. It's for sure that the son Michael came to Goellersreuth, too, because he became his successor. Michael Wissinger had pleasure of his farm for 6 years, then he died 1878 at the age of 72 years. His second wife Catharina (birthname Dengler) died 1898 and was then 72 years old.

9. owner: Leonhard Bernreuther Leonhard, born in 1824, bought the farm from his father Georg Friedrich Bernreuther with contract from June 27th, 1848 for 7000 fl. In February 1849 he married Elisabeth Sieghardt from Stetten. They had 6 children, three of them died as baby. Three girls stayed alive, none of them got the farm. This wasn't possible, because at the time the following owner Wissinger bought the farm, they were only 12, 17 and 19 years old. We could guess that the Bernreuthers after the sale leaved Goellersreuth. Where they moved to is not known. The family and the name Bernreuther are ending in this farm history.

Pages 337: farm story about house nr. 1 at Goellersreuth, farm name: "Spueller"

This farm name was brought from Ruppmannsburg to Goellersreuth. In the following explanations appears the first Wissinger, which - coming from Ruppmannsburg - bought this farm in Goellersreuth in 1872. This farm at Ruppmannsburg where he came from was named "Spueller" and so it's named until today. After the move to Goellersreuth the people in the village took this name over. Before that, the farm name was "Gerchfriedel". It was derived from the name of the 7th owner Georg Friedrich Bernreuther.

The father hadn't decided until his death over the line of succession between the children. His 2. wife seemed to be not justifiable to be a heir. Because of this the children from the 1. marriage handed the farm over to their brother Michael (born in 1845 in Ruppmannsburg) at september 27th, 1879 for the price of 10285 marks. He married Anna Maria Winkler from Offenbau in november 1879. They got 7 children, 2 died as babies. The others were:

*1880 Michael, became successor of the farm

*1881 Georg, married 1906 the landlords' daughter Hoerlein from Reinwarzhofen *1882 Johann, married 1913 a Nestmeyer from Hagenich *1887 Margarete, married 1910 a Knoll from Aue, house nr. 42 *1897 Anna Maria, married a Horndasch from Stetten

An unmistakable "Sign" of the three "Spueller"-sons: They wered very broad-brimmed "sunday"-hats on holiday. The mother, Anna Maria, birthname Winkler, died 1923 at the age of 74. The farmer and father Michael Wissinger was 87 years old as he died in 1932.

From: Ranier Wissinger

I am Rainer Wissinger, I was born in 1967 and I am single. Here a few points regarding my Genealogy. My Father, Grandfather and Great-grandfather are all from Ruppmannsburg. First names and birthdays are only available up to my Great-grandfather. When the first Wissinger came to Ruppmannsburg is not certain. The old Church books state that due to the depopulation caused by the Thirty Years War and the Austrian Exulantan Movement, many Austrian Protestant exiles migrated to Franken. Local research has shown that in about 1600 a Farmer Clan of the Wissingers settled in Upper Austria, at Hausruck, Mittelbebirge (Middle Mountain Range). Many Austrian Exiles (Exulantan) with different family names came to Franken from Upper Austria
