Obituary Notices: Warren Daily Tribune

Dec. 18, 1919; 1:4

Died Suddenly in Youngstown Today; Harry Marsh of South Street, was summoned to Youngstown today by a message informing him of the death of his son, Henry W. Marsh, which occurred there this morning at 6 o'clock. The announcement of the death of Mr. Marsh is learned with deep regret by many friends in Warren. He was a soldier in the recent war, and has suffered a great deal with diabetes for the past two years. No particulars of his death have been learned yet, but the father went to Youngstown immediately and will bring the body back to Warren with him. Further announcement will be made tomorrow.

Dec. 19, 1919, 9:7

"Henry W. Marsh - Relative to the death of Henry W. Marsh, notice of which appeared in Thursday's Tribune, the Youngstown Telegram says: Henry W. Marsh, 308 Pasadena, died in St. Elizabeth's hospital at 6 a.m. Thursday of diabetes.

Mr. Marsh, a son of Henry and the late Jennie Marsh, was born Aug. 6, 1894, in Warren, and had lived in Youngstown five years. He was last employed as clerk at the Ohio Works of the Carnegie Steel Co. He enlisted with the United States regular army and served four years on the Mexican border. Besides his father he leaves two brothers, Charles B. Marsh, 308 Pasadena, and Frank C. Marsh, who is in the navy; a half sister, Mrs. G. Fishel, city, and three half-brothers, William and Robert Watrous, Cleveland, and Raymond Watrous, Buffalo. He was a member of First Baptist church in Warren. Interment will be in Warren. Funeral services will be held at the First Baptist church Saturday at 3 p.m. All soldiers are asked to attend.

"To attend Funeral of Ex-Service Man - all members of Ritezel Carrison Army and navy Veterans and all ex-service men are requested to meet in the armory Saturday afternoon at 2:30 to attend the funeral of Henry W. Marsh. The funeral will be held in the Baptist church."

Dec. 20, 1919, 5:7

Funeral of Henry Marsh - Ex-soldiers, sailors and marines paid a tribute of respect to the memory of the late Henry W. Marsh who died on Thursday morning in St. Elizabeth's hospital in Youngstown, when they attended the services held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the First Baptist church. A large concourse of relatives and friends also joined in the service. Rev. A. A. Nellis, who served as a chaplain with the soldiers in France, delivered the eulogy, and music was contributed by the church choir. The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings sent by sympathizing friends, and the pall bearers were members of A. J. Judd's Bible School Class, of which the deceased was a member, and included Albert Cox, George E. Day, Howard Boyer, John Parry, Daniel Watkins, and John Salen. The body was laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery. Mr. Marsh died of diabetes, which he contracted in camp and was detained in an eastern hospital when the other members of his company went abroad."
