27. Taken To County Infirmary article, Marysville Journal-Tribune, Marysville, Union, Ohio, 13 February 1908, The wife and four children of Sheridan Impson, a former resident of Marysville, were sent to the county infirmary last week from Leesburg Township, but were later taken to the home of Mrs. Impson's sister, Mrs. Fraizer, on the Mexican Miller Farm, near North Lewisburg, the sister having volunteered to care for them. The Leesburg township authorities reported that Mr. Impson had left his family last week in search of work, and that they were in a destitute condition. Impson was located in this city (Marysville) by Police Chief Murphy and he convinced the authorities that he had not abandoned his family, but was endeavoring to find employment by which he could contribute to their support.
