Henry Evilsizer was bound to a Henry Culp and a Henry Culp is listed as a single man in Tinicum Twp 1775, Bucks Co. PA. (Henry Culp is found earlier in Bucks Co, Hilltown Twp, PA tax Lists) Although he has never been proven as a child of Jacob, he is included in the 1784 household count, and Jacob gives him up to the overseer's of the poor in Rockingham Co, VA

Bob and Flossy spent all day in the cemetery to dig up the dozens of pieces of his stone to find age 65 years 5 months. They found the footstone HE and death date of March 20. These rubbings are scanned onto the CD-Rom. Millerstown contains two churches, German Reform and Universalist. On the southwest corner of the homestead farm of the late S G Brecon once stood a log meeting house. Known in its time as Mount Vernon, but the building has long since passed away and the Society now worships in Lena, Miami County. This is the location of the graves of Henry and Elizabeth.

The man who has a house next to the cemetery told us last spring that there had been a foundation of a building close to the road and he had had the township trustees get rid of it. He told them if they would do that he could properly take care of the site and the cemetery behind it. He does keep it well mowed and taken care of.

I haven't found any other place where it mentions a meeting house called Mount Vernon although I haven't checked with any church in Lena, Miami County, OH. I know nothing more about it.

Research Notes (Wife)

Parentage not proven I found a long time ago an Elizabeth Idle b 10Jul1784 bap 15Aug 1784 daugh ter of Peter and Maria: sponsors were: Carl Lubold and wf Elizabeth. Th is was recorded in St. Paul's Amity Twp. Berks PA. We have nothing that states that Elizabeth born in BERKS Co, Pa 10Jul17 84 is the one and same Betsy that Martin signed the bond for. This would m ake her age at death 59, but she was 57, proven by a Pellon rubbing. Wh en I found her birth date at St. Pauls and there WERE Evilsizers's in t he same church at same time, I threw that out to Flossie as a possibilit y. She agreed it COULD be. BUT unless she found proof, I don't know if o ne and same. There were other Edel families in Berks at same time.At any r ate she was NOT a sib of MARTIN's

The record in St. Paul's names Elizabeth parents as Peter and Maria. Ede l. Now if we could find proof that Peter was a relative to Martin wh om we do think was born in what is now Lancaster. He was however in Buc ks by 1778 and then in 1790 moved to VA. We never found a Peter Eitel in V A. So many ???

Now another clue was that Henry was bound to a Culp and a person with sa me name did appear in the 1790 Bucks Co census. There are a lot of thin gs that say, she COULD be but we lack proof, unless Flossie found it and d idn't tell me.

There are several errors floating around concerning Martin Idle/Eitel a nd his family, many are just plain wrong data and some are conjecture, nei ther of which I would incorporate as FACT.

It's funny all of this came to my attention through an Idle researcher fr om CA. He had received an "updated" Idle list which contained the FACT th at Betsy in VA, WAS Elizabeth born in Berks, BUT had her as the sist er of Martin, NO the one born that date in Berks was daughter of Peter. Un less 2 girls with same name born in same place , exact same date differe nt parents. The record for Martins birth lists his parents as JOHN and Eli zabeth not Peter and Maria. Another error on the list sent to Terry was th at Christina Idle born 1775 Berks married a William Morris in Fincastle, W RONG again, Christian b 1775 married a Jacob Morris in St. Paul's, Ber ks in 1795. Phyllis Dingeman

Today was a long day but it was somewhat productive for all of us Evilsizo rs. Flossie received a book from Pat Stickley of Burial places in Champai gn County. This book was compiled by Caroline R. Nixon and Emma Nixon Bolt on in 1936. It states that Henry and Elizabeth Evilsizor were buried in t he Wells Cemetery on Elm Tree Road near Fletcher, Champaign County, Ohi o. We had heard this before but could never find their tombstones. Ala s, today we found the stone of Elizabeth. The writing on the sto ne is as follows; Elizabeth wife of Henry Evelsizor(note the spelling) D ied Sept.6 1843 aged 57 years. We did not, however, find a stone for Hen ry. I dug next to Elizabeths stone, on the left, and found lots of piec es of what looked like slate, but no writing. We will look for an obit n ow that we know her death date. Bob & Flossie Hulsizer
