 FGS MADGE COCHRAN PRYOR
 Howard County, AR - Marriage Records Page: Book B, Page 365_R. W. JANES, 24, Howard Co., Louisa MOBBS, 18, Howard Co., 28 July 1881 by James B. Hill, MG, B-365

HUSBAND - Robert William JEANES
 FGS RESEARCH FROM MADGE COCHRAN PRYOR
 1880 Census, Sevier Co AR

WIFE - Anna Louisa MOBBS
 Great Aunt Madge Pryor writes...I dont remember much about her. I was 12 years old when she died in 1947. She was born in 1865. Her mother was a Cherokee Indian. Louiza married Robt.Wm. Jeanes in 1881. they had 10 children. My mother was Bessie Mae. I remember Granny would come for a visit about twice a year. She would stay about 2 weeks. She could not do much except sit, but sometimes we could get her to talk about her life. She wore her dresses long, to the top of her shoes, and a long apron over her dress. her apron had one pocket, in which she kept a small tin can about 2 inches high. She kept it full of snuff and someone would get her a twig from a blackgum tree. One end would be softened into a brush of sorts. She would dip her brush into the snuff and then put it between her cheek and gums. In telling her stories she would have trouble recalling the events of the people, then she would say " pshaw, I can't remember." I can still hear her say "pshaw." She had a soft,low way of speaking, and as she talked she would twiddle her thumbs. I wish I could remember her stories she told. I wish I had known her better.

Pat Flanagan - Dec 7, 2000 Leona Fay Evans Chapman the daughter of William Edgar and Mary Jeans Evans died in Houston Dec1,2000. She was born in Sheverport,La June 11, 1948. She has been ill for a long time she had lung cancer.

Ella Mae was named for Ella Jeans Buchannan. Sanford J.W. was named after Sanford Cooper Jeans and my guess about the initials would be John Wesley Jeans. Reeder was named after a family member. Dad thought the world of Nathan and Sarah so it would not surprise me if that is where the name came from but he too had initials for a middle name J.C. (No idea). Writings of Donia Handley Jeanes-

.MOTHER

Mother married Jefferson Reed in 1908. On March 2, 1909 Ova was born. Eliza was born October 31, 1908. Monroe Jackson was born September 12, 1915, Hearl Sylvester was born on January 25, 1918. Ova is dead, she died in 1943 and left 3 children. Hearl's death is unknown. He died sometime after Mothers death, he died in a mental hospital in Little Rock. He left a wife and two boys. One of the boys was name Billy.. At this writing in 1977, I guess my half -brothers Eliza and Monroe are still living. I haven't heard from them once since Mother died December, 1957. Monroe has a son, Monroe Jackson Reed Jr. and a daughter, Shirley Ann Reed.

Mother met Jefferson Reed, her second husband. They lived in the Mississippi River Bottoms. This could have been near Osceola, Arkansas. Their home was flooded and they had to wade out of their home leaving most all their things behind. They were taken by boats to Memphis, Tennessee. While there Mother and Hearl took pneumonia. Jefferson took the other three children to a motel across from the hospital Mother and Hearl were in. One day while crossing the street he was struck down by a hit and run driver who was in a truck. It fractured his skull and he never was himself again. After a year Mom could not hold out longer to care for him. The two oldest sons put him in a mental hospital in Little Rock. I don't remember how long he was there. He was found on the floor dead. The boys took care of his funeral and would not let Mother go as she was ill at the time.

She lived in a trailer near Monroe for a long time. She met Papa Dye and married. She spent what I am sure, a reasonable happy life. They had a thirty-five acre farm with plenty of fruit trees. They grew calves for the market. Mom had stored canned fruit in two cellars. She dried peaches and apples.

I can't remember the year she married but I lived at Lennox Hill. I remember Monroe's wife, Annie Mae, writing me thinking Mother had lost her mind! Mother told me she felt so alone. She felt like a built in baby-sitter for Monroe's two children. She took another chance for a little happiness. She always told me how good Papa Dye treated her.

Mother died of bladder cancer, December, 1957. She suffered real bad for about three years. I visited her home in Red Bay, Alabama while she was so ill. They had her transferred to a hospital in Mississippi. My step-father, Mr. Dye, her third husband took me to see her. It really pained me to see her so wasted and in so much pain. Papa Dye in his younger days had worked for the railroad and was a retired railroad man. He put her in three different hospitals trying to find a cure for her. It took most of his life savings.

I found their will. The place was to be sold and divided at his death between her three children and his three children. I told him he had done things for Mother I could never have done. I freely gave him my part. Maybe they took it to put him away nicely. He deserved it.

Papa Dye buried Mother where he could be buried beside her and his first wife. Monroe did not like the idea but I had no objections. She was laid to rest in a cemetery in Red Bay, Alabama.

Eliza, Mom's oldest son would not come to see Mom after she died. This really hurt Monroe. Earl was in the mental hospital in Little Rock. Monroe called and asked them to release him for the burial. They said we would have to be responsible for him. His mind was in a bad way and losing his Mother as he did would affect him. They advised us not to tell him until he could cope with the news. Only Monroe and I were at her funeral. We bought the funeral wreath. It was so beautiful. Monroe allowed me to pick it out and he paid for it. None of Mother's brothers or sisters came. Her Mother, Dad and Barner, her oldest brother, were dead. At this writing, I don't know if any of her family is still alive. I never had the pleasure of knowing my Mother's people.

The father of my mother was Taylor York. The mother of my mother was Tulla Loyd York. There were seven children born to this union: Quilla Ann, Lizia, Barner, Savana, Ada, Della, and Oliver. Quilla married my father Henry Columbus Handley, Lizia married a Jones, Savana married a Redfox, Ada married John Lafeaver, Della married

Acie Lafeaver, my father's first cousin. This is all I know of my Mother's family. I have often wondered what they would have been like.

Father

Henry Columbus Handley was born December 18, 1876. He is the son of William Clark Handley and Martha Brown Handley. When my father was young they moved from Alabama to Arkansas.

Born to that union was three girls and two boys. Henry, Rhennie, Allie, Bowie and a girl that died young. Rhennie married a Baker, Allie married a Nickels and Uncle Bowie married a girl named Cordia. They lived at Bogota, Texas. They had three sons, William Burtie, Lorenzo, and Grady. Lorenzo never married. Grady lived at Deport, Texas.

Grandmother Martha was very small, between 100 - 110 pounds, sweet and kind to Papa was working for Dr. Ben Jones cutting firewood. He told Dr. Simpson he would have to go to Dr. Ben Jones' to get his pay so he would have enough to pay him. He said, "Get into my car and I'll take you up there". I had a fit! I said, "Don't get in that thing it will hurt you". The Doctor honked that big horn as he drove off laughing at me. I found out it wasn't so bad after all. Papa never married again. He lived most of his life near Nashville. He came to live with us but it didn't work out. Jeff resented my Dad living with us. Ada Martin, Mattie Jeans Wallington's daughter, had one of her twin daughters there, Christine. I am a twin, I have a brother. Christine and Judy use to send me their hand-me-downs which I loved to get. My Aunt Mattie sewed for them. She would come see us when we were small and I would beg her to make me a dress. Very fond memories. Those Jeans genes do run deep but I am here to tell you ole Nick was quick of temper. Nick would get to telling something and get so upset if you didn't agree with every word. If Bessie ever had evil thoughts they were about Nick. (Smile) She told me a story about believing he was still in her house after he had passed and she knew when he left. She heard him leave. Sounded like he went right through the top of the roof. Some people might wonder about your Grandmother's beliefs but I knew her well enough to know if he had lingered, he was there! I bet that woman could cast out devils right and left. I say that with great love. She was pentecostal and if her God said she could do something, believe me, she gave it a try. I suppose I am the same way. Jeff use to say "What is, is. "What ain't, ain't" but that is not what Bessie believed. She knew she had the faith to move mountains and move them she did! I never tired of her stories. I remember telling her, "Aunt Bessie if you ever have a dream about me, I want to know about it." I would not have gotten between her and her Lord for one second. Once she began telling her stories I just wanted to sit and listen. I have lived long enough to know apples do not fall to far from the tree. I raised a son without his father being around. I remarried when Paul was 6 and had been separated from his father since he was 3 but I didn't spare him from being a copy of his father. Plus he has the Jeans genes and the combination in hard to sit in the same room with sometimes. Happy to make the connection. The Cochran cousins really are the only family I can relate with as Lena had 3 boys older than us and Cooper lived in DeKalb. Jeff & Donia didn't drive so if family didn't take us to visit we stayed close to home. Bessie and Dock as we called him, were within walking distance and many Sunday evenings were spent at their home. One memory I have is of finding some chocolate on the dresser in their bathroom and sneaking a piece. Later I found out it was x-lax. I was about 6 years old. (I never admitted it.) Best regards, Barbara Jeans McNabb CHILD 4 - Reeder JEANES Barbara McNabb barbarajmcnabb@hotmail.com Pat Flanagan - watch repairman. He had a shop on Broad st. Texarkana, Tx.
