FGS RESEARCH FROM MADGE COCHRAN PRYOR
Massom son of James Jeanes, Tabitha Prather - Madge

James Ovid Jeanes my gggg-grandfather. Massom is the son of Edward Jeanes Sr., and Martha Prather. James Ovid Jeanes was married to Tabitha Prather. I don't have my daughters paper with me on Massom. I just have the one with his father, mother and siblings on it. Guess what? they were first cousins. Hows that grab you? James Ovids parents were Joseph Jeanes/Janes and Martha Odell - SHIRLEYB5@prodigy.net

DOB and Burial, Jeanes family cemtery, McNairy Co TN, from Amy Foster

Goodspeed's Tennessee History
McNairy County Biographical Index

Josiah JEANS, one of the best-known men of McNairy County, is one of the six children born to James and Tabitha (PRATHER) JEANS. The father was born in Virginia and went to South Carolina when a young man, and there married a native of the State. He came to McNairy County at an early day and engaged in farming until the time of his death. The mother's death occurred at the same place; she was a sincere Christian and member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Our subject was born in South Carolina in 1804, was raised on his father's farm, receiving his education in the common country schools. In 1836 he immigrated to McNairy County, located near Falcon on the farm upon which he has since resided. By labor, energy and careful management, he has risen from poverty to one of the most substantial men of the county. He owns 500 acres of land, making him one of the most extensive farmers in the section. In 1828 he married Miss Elizabeth PRATHER, who became the mother of six children, three of whom are living: James Newton, Josiah T., of Arkansas, and Laura Jane, wife of John CARTER, of Falcon. Mrs. JEANS died in the spring of 1880, and in April, 1881, Mr. JEANS married Miss Susan NORMAN, of Mississippi, who was born in East Tennessee in 1824; she is a consistent and earnest member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Mr. JEANS is an old and stanch Democrat; his first presidential vote was cast for Gen. JACKSON in 1828. No man is better known or more generally esteemed.

John R. REEDER, a farmer, miller, ginner, and prominent man of McNairy County, is a son of Jacob and Sarah (WESSON) REEDER, was born in Lawrence District, South Carolina, in 1822. His great grandfather was a native of Germany, immigrated to the United States where he raised a family of sixteen children, the grandfather of Jno. H., being the youngest boy-all of whom lived to marry and rear children. The father, Jacob, was born in South Carolina in 1799, was married when about twenty-one years of age to a lady of his native State who was born about 1800 and died about 1856. In 1825 Jacob moved to Lauderdale County, Ala., where he engaged in agriculture up to the time of his death in 1861. He and his wife were devoted and esteemed members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. John H. was raised and educated in the common schools of his native State. February, 1842, he married Miss Rosana, daughter of Frederick JONES of Lawrence District. She was born in 1820; became the mother of eight children, four sons and two daughters still living: Wm. A.; Sarah, widow of Cicero JEANS; James A.; Lydia, wife of J. S. RAMER:

Notes	HUSBAND - Masson JEANES (Continued) sons and two daughters still living: Wm. A.; Sarah, widow of Cicero JEANS; James A.; Lydia, wife of J. S. RAMER: John Henry, Jr., and Jones C. In 1843 Mr. REEDER came to this county, but remained only a year, returning to Alabama in 1844; he came back and located near Gravel Hill in 1848, where he now owns 213 acres of good land, fertile and well improved. In 1886 he moved to Ramer, where he is at present engaged in saw-milling and ginning. He is a man of great energy and untiring industry; has accumulated his possessions by hard labor and good management. He was in the mercantile business from 1865 to 1875 and in all his undertakings has met with success. He is a life-long Democrat; gave his first presidential vote to James K. POLK in 1844. He was elected magistrate in 1870, and held the office six years to the satisfaction of the people. He has been a Mason a number of years. He and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, both held in highest respect by the community. WIFE - Susan CRADDIE FGS RESEARCH FROM MADGE COCHRAN PRYOR DOD year from Amy Foster

 1880 Census, Sevier Co AR

WIFE - Anna Louisa MOBBS
 Great Aunt Madge Pryor writes...I dont remember much about her. I was 12 years old when she died in 1947. She was born in 1865. Her mother was a Cherokee Indian. Louiza married Robt.Wm. Jeanes in 1881. they had 10 children. My mother was Bessie Mae. I remember Granny would come for a visit about twice a year. She would stay about 2 weeks. She could not do much except sit, but sometimes we could get her to talk about her life. She wore her dresses long, to the top of her shoes, and a long apron over her dress. her apron had one pocket, in which she kept a small tin can about 2 inches high. She kept it full of snuff and someone would get her a twig from a blackgum tree. One end would be softened into a brush of sorts. She would dip her brush into the snuff and then put it between her cheek and gums. In telling her stories she would have trouble recalling the events of the people, then she would say " pshaw, I can't remember." I can still hear her say "pshaw." She had a soft,low way of speaking, and as she talked she would twiddle her thumbs. I wish I could remember her stories she told. I wish I had known her better.

FGS RESEARCH FROM MADGE COCHRAN PRYOR

Pat Flanagan - Dec 7, 2000 Leona Fay Evans Chapman the daughter of William Edgar and Mary Jeans Evans died in Houston Dec1,2000. She was born in Sheverport,La June 11, 1948. She has been ill for a long time she had lung cancer.

Ella Mae was named for Ella Jeans Buchannan. Sanford J.W. was named after Sanford Cooper Jeans and my guess about the initials would be John Wesley Jeans. Reeder was named after a family member. Dad thought the world of Nathan and Sarah so it would not surprise me if that is where the name came from but he too had initials for a middle name J.C. (No idea). The third brother was Hiram Junior, not to be confused with being a Jr. but that is his middle name.

mother she speaks of is Aquille York that married first, Henry C. Handley and Donia Handley was born 18 July 1900.

Writings of Donia Handley Jeanes-

.MOTHER

Mother married Jefferson Reed in 1908. On March 2, 1909 Ova was born. Eliza was born October 31, 1908. Monroe Jackson was born September 12, 1915, Hearl Sylvester was born on January 25, 1918. Ova is dead, she died in 1943 and left 3 children. Hearl's death is unknown. He died sometime after Mothers death, he died in a mental hospital in Little Rock. He left a wife and two boys. One of the boys was name Billy.. At this writing in 1977, I guess my half -brothers Eliza and Monroe are still living. I haven't heard from them once since Mother died December, 1957. Monroe has a son, Monroe Jackson Reed Jr. and a daughter, Shirley Ann Reed.

Mother met Jefferson Reed, her second husband. They lived in the Mississippi River Bottoms. This could have been near Osceola, Arkansas. Their home was flooded and they had to wade out of their home leaving most all their things behind. They were taken by boats to Memphis, Tennessee. While there Mother and Hearl took pneumonia. Jefferson took the other three children to a motel across from the hospital Mother and Hearl were in. One day while crossing the street he was struck down by a hit and run driver who was in a truck. It fractured his skull and he never was himself again. After a year Mom could not hold out longer to care for him. The two oldest sons put him in a mental hospital in Little Rock. I don't remember how long he was there. He was found on the floor dead. The boys took care of his funeral and would not let Mother go as she was ill at the time.

She lived in a trailer near Monroe for a long time. She met Papa Dye and married. She spent what I am sure, a reasonable happy life. They had a thirty-five acre farm with plenty of fruit trees. They grew calves for the market. Mom had stored canned fruit in two cellars. She dried peaches and apples.

I can't remember the year she married but I lived at Lennox Hill. I remember Monroe's wife, Annie Mae, writing me thinking Mother had lost her mind! Mother told me she felt so alone. She felt like a built in baby-sitter for Monroe's two children. She took another chance for a little happiness. She always told me how good Papa Dye treated her.

Mother died of bladder cancer, December, 1957. She suffered real bad for about three years. I visited her home in Red Bay, Alabama while she was so ill. They had her transferred to a hospital in Mississippi. My step-father, Mr. Dye, her third husband took me to see her. It really pained me to see her so wasted and in so much pain. Papa Dye in his younger days had worked for the railroad and was a retired railroad man. He put her in three different hospitals trying to find a cure for her. It took most of his life savings.

I found their will. The place was to be sold and divided at his death between her three children and his three children. I told him he had done things for Mother I could never have done. I freely gave him my part. Maybe they took it to put him away nicely. He deserved it.

Papa Dye buried Mother where he could be buried beside her and his first wife. Monroe did not like the idea but I had no objections. She was laid to rest in a cemetery in Red Bay, Alabama.

Eliza, Mom's oldest son would not come to see Mom after she died. This really hurt Monroe. Earl was in the mental hospital in Little Rock. Monroe called and asked them to release him for the burial. They said we would have to be responsible for him. His mind was in a bad way and losing his Mother as he did would affect him. They advised us not to tell him until he could cope with the news. Only Monroe and I were at her funeral. We bought the funeral wreath. It was so beautiful. Monroe allowed me to pick it out and he paid for it. None of Mother's brothers or sisters came. Her Mother, Dad and Barner, her oldest brother, were dead. At this writing, I don't know if any of her family is still alive. I never had the pleasure of knowing my Mother's people.

The father of my mother was Taylor York. The mother of my mother was Tulla Loyd York. There were seven children born to this union: Quilla Ann, Lizia, Barner, Savana, Ada, Della, and Oliver. Quilla married my father Henry Columbus Handley, Lizia married a Jones, Savana married a Redfox, Ada married John Lafeaver, Della married Acie Lafeaver, my father's first cousin. This is all I know of my Mother's family. I have often wondered what they would have been like.

Father

Henry Columbus Handley was born December 18, 1876. He is the son of William Clark Handley and Martha Brown Handley. When my father was young they moved from Alabama to Arkansas.

Born to that union was three girls and two boys. Henry, Rhennie, Allie, Bowie and a girl that died young. Rhennie married a Baker, Allie married a Nickels and Uncle Bowie married a girl named Cordia. They lived at Bogota, Texas. They had three sons, William Burtie, Lorenzo, and Grady. Lorenzo never married. Grady lived at Deport, Texas.

Grandmother Martha was very small, between 100 - 110 pounds, sweet and kind to everyone. She had brown eyes and black hair that was inclined to curl. I loved combing her hair. Her health was bad after loosing twins that had to be taken. Both were born dead. Even in her bad health she undertook to raise another child

My father could play a violin, guitar, piano dulcimer and French harp. My grandfather played the organ and violin. I had no talent in that line. I liked poetry and singing. God gave me a moderate voice and I was thankful for that much. It seemed to lighten the job as I did my chores in the garden and field to sing or whistle.

We were living in Nashville, Arkansas when I saw my first car in 1910. Doctor Simpson had been to some city and bought a car and had it shipped to Nashville. This was the first car in Nashville. My father owed him a doctor's bill. He came to our house to collect. Papa was working for Dr. Ben Jones cutting firewood. He told Dr. Simpson he would have to go to Dr. Ben Jones' to get his pay so he would have enough to pay him. He said, "Get into my car and I'll take you up there". I had a fit! I said, "Don't get in that thing it will hurt you". The Doctor honked that big horn as he drove off laughing at me. It took me quite some time for me to make up my mind to ride in one. It would be after I married. Uncle Jim Buchanan had a big red car. I found out it wasn't so bad after all.

Papa never married again. He lived most of his life near Nashville. He came to live with us but it didn't work out. Jeff resented my Dad living with us. He moved into an "Old Folks Home" in 1949 on Prince Street in Texarkana. He lived there until he died in 1958. He is buried in the Sylverino cemetery on Highway 71 south of Texarkana.

Pat Flanagan - Jan 3, 2001 Donia was my grandmother. She was married to Jeff Jeans in Ar 1916. Her first child Ella Mae Jeans Evans is my mother. Donia's was born to Henry Columbus Handley and Aquilla York in Ar. Henry was born in 1876 in Al died 1958 in Texarkana, Ar. My great-great grandfather his father William Clark born unknown died in 1942 in Ar. His saying was " I golly" and could play and kind of instrusment. Grandmother Jeans was raised by her grandparents and she left a journal.

I saw cousins there that I had not seen since I was about 9 years old. Ada Martin, Mattie Jeans Wallington's daughter, had one of her twin daughters there, Christine. I am a twin, I have a brother. Christine and Judy use to send me their hand-me-downs which I loved to get. My Aunt Mattie sewed for them. She would come see us when we were small and I would beg her to make me a dress. Very fond memories. Those Jeans genes do run deep but I am here to tell you ole Nick was quick of temper. Nick would get to telling something and get so upset if you didn't agree with every word. If Bessie ever had evil thoughts they were about Nick. (Smile) She told me a story about believing he was still in her house after he had passed and she knew when he left. She heard him leave. Sounded like he went right through the top of the roof. Some people might wonder about your Grandmother's beliefs but I knew her well enough to know if he had lingered, he was there! I bet that woman could cast out devils right and left. I say that with great love. She was pentecostal and if her God said she could do something, believe me, she gave it a try. I suppose I am the same way. Jeff use to say "What is, is. "What ain't, ain't" but that is not what Bessie believed. She knew she had the faith to move mountains and move them she did! I never tired of her stories. I remember telling her, "Aunt Bessie if you ever have a dream about me, I want to know about it." I would not have gotten between her and her Lord for one second. Once she began telling her stories I just wanted to sit and listen. I have lived long enough to know apples do not fall to far from the tree. I raised a son without his father being around. I remarried when Paul was 6 and had been separated from his father since he was 3 but I didn't spare him from being a copy of his father. Plus he has the Jeans genes and the combination in hard to sit in the same room with sometimes. Happy to make the connection. The Cochran cousins really are the only family I can relate with as Lena had 3 boys older than us and Cooper lived in DeKalb. Jeff & Donia didn't drive so if family didn't take us to visit we stayed close to home. Bessie and Dock as we called him, were within walking distance and many Sunday evenings were spent at their home. One memory I have is of finding some chocolate on the dresser in their bathroom and sneaking a piece. Later I found out it was x-lax. I was about 6 years old. (I never admitted it.) Best regards, Barbara Jeans McNabb
