Henry arrived in Halifax on June 21, 1749. He arrived with wife Cornelia and two sons Henry and David and a servant. First wife died in 1750 and he remarried in 1751. His sons were Ezekiel, William, Jonathen (who moved to States) Joseph, Gilbert and a daughter Cornelia. My ancestor is Ezekiel who had a son Stephen. He had two wives first Anne 1821 and Alice 1827. Am still trying to find out what happened to Stephen.

Henry came from a wealthy family (they were in the soap business) in London and owned a lot of real estate in Halifax. In 1766 he was called home to settle his father's estate. Took ill on the trip to England and died.

Afternoon Eileen, I have Ezekiel b 1814 married to Esther Stewart with the following children FLorence, Campbell, John, Henrietta, Thomas, Sarah and Esther. What year was your Stephen born? My wife is related to Sibley's of Wittenburg thru the Taylor Family and I have an ancestor on my side who's name is Elisha Sibley born abt 1818, which I can not find a connection to any of the Sibleys anywhere.

SIBLEY, Gilbert, Treasury Loyalist, 1795

Gilbert Sibley was born in Halifax, N.S. 1763 to Henry and Sarah Haislup Sibley. Henry had accepted resettlement from London, England 1749 as part of Cornwallis' program. Gilbert apparently is classed, along with his mother, as a Treasury Loyalist being personally vetted by Lord Dalhousie's program.

Would TL appeals contain personal genealogical data that might help narrow Gilbert's father's birthplace in England, or were they merely basic applications? Gilbert had at least one child Joseph baptized 1796.

I have searched for his descendants for a year now. Any Sibley searchers connected?

I am a descendant of David Sibley through his son John Sibley By Elizabeth Thopson of Digby.

The land David had Between Brighton and North Range was in Digby county, possibly on the Bloomfield Cross Road.

A reference through the Digby County Genweb sight list David having 300 acres here. Also on the Digby County sight, David is listed as the son of Henry Sibley who came to Halifax in 1749, and that he was born in London in 1739. If he married Elizabeth in 1797 that would make him 68. His son John is listed as being born in 1805 making him 75 at the time. So because of these records I believe we are dealing with 2 David Sibleys.

I don't know which one would be Elisha's father.

Child of David Sibley and Elizabeth Thopson is:

- 10 i. John³ Sibley, born 1805.

5. Ezekial² Sibley (Henry¹)¹ was born Aug 15, 1756. He married Mary West 1821.

As near as I can figure out Stephen was born in the early 1780s. His father Was Ezekiel (born 1756) who was the son of Henry 1. My mother was a Sibley and her father was Muir Sibley, son of George David and Ellen Ellice.

I have nothing on Elisha but I will give you an e-mail address of Dianne Sibley (dianne.sibley@ns.sympatico.ca) who I believe has done research on Elisha.

If you need info on others in the Clan let me know.

Henry was my grandfather's (Muir Sibley) gr gr gr grandfather. Stephen was the son Ezekiel Sibley (Henry's son).

There six children including Stephen the others were Ruth; Newcombe; Joseph; William and Henry.

So far Stephen has remained a mystry. We know he settled in Wittenberg and when his 1st wife Ann died he remarried and I believe he moved to the Annapolis Valley. From there he just seems to have disappeared off the face of the earth.

Newcombe had three sons who immigrated to Australia. Robert Blackwood, James William and Jonathan (the latter two were doctors).

Children of Ezekial Sibley and Mary West are:

- 11 i. Ruth³ Sibley.
- 12 ii. Stephen Sibley, born Abt. 1770. He married (1) Ann. He married (2) Alice.

I am a decendant of Henry Sibley too (great-great-great-great grandfather).

Our records indicate that Stephen was one of Henry's sons and that Stephen had a son named William (along with others, but I only researched my line). Stephen was known as the "pioneer" and was the 1st settler of Wittenburg, NS.

- + 13 iii. Henry Sibley, born 1788; died Jun 01, 1862.
- 14 iv. Joseph Sibley, born Oct 25, 1790 in Eng, Cornwall; died Feb 01, 1862. He married Jane Woodworth; born Nov 14, 1789; died Nov 12, 1881.
- + 15 v. Newcombe Sibley, born 1792 in Can, N.S..
- 16 vi. William Sibley, born Dec 25, 1796.

6. John² Sibley (Henry¹)² was born Bef. Mar 12, 1758 in Eng³, and died 1835 in ME, Passadumkeag. He married Jane Pochard Dec 08, 1782 in ME, Pownalborough, daughter of Abraham Pochard and Margaret Paris. She was born Mar 20, 1760 in ME, Frankfort, and died Aft. 1850 in ME, Passadumkeag.

Notes for John Sibley:

His father died at sea when he was young. His mother put her children with other families and went back to England. They had 12 children four girls and eight boys.

In 1776 John became involved with Jonathan Eddys movement to make N.S. the 14th American colony to break ties with England during the American Revolution. Jonathan Eddy laid siege to Fort Cumberland in the fall of 1776. The siege failed. John left N.S..

On Sept. 4, 1777 John enlisted 3 years in the Continental Army as a private in Capt. Smarts co., Col. Calvin Smiths regt. He was at the battle of Monmouth and the taking of Burgoyne. He was also at Valley Forge in 1778 and reported on command at Boston Neck in March and April 1779. He was reported deserted July 12, 1780. (I think his pension was turned down because of this.)

John married Jane Pochard December 8, 1782 at Pownalborough, Maine. He was of Wiscasset, Maine at the time of his marriage. John and Jane had twelve children, four girls and eight boys. They lived in Fairfield, Canaan, Warsaw (Pittsfield), and Passadumkeag, Maine.

John applied for a Revolutionary War pension on March 12, 1834. This record is where we find out where he was born. He stated he was born in 1755 in Halifax, N.S.. Passadumkeag, Maine incorporated as a town in 1835. When they did there census after incorporation Jane was listed as widow Jane Sibley. So John died about 1835.

The following was found in the St. John New Brunswick Library: 12 May 1870 Visitor

Memorial Sketch of Mrs. James Masters

- Her original name was Sibley, but her parent's were not a Baptist in sentiment. In 1818 she offered herself to the first Cornwallis Church, Nova Scotia and was joyfully received and was baptized by its pastor, the late Edward Manning. On her removal from Cornwallis, she went to Woodstock, New Brunswick and spent three years with no Baptist Church. On leaving Woodstock she came to St. John where she resided until her death. She immediately on reaching the city united with the German St. Baptist Church, then the only Baptist Church in the city. She took her dismissal with many others to join the Brussel St. Church under the pastorate of Rev. Samuel Robinson. She was the mother of two sons, Arthur and James masters and eight daughters, one of whom is the wife of Rev. Burpee of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia.

Notes for Clarissa Emeline Godfrey:

Death by Lightning - On Sunday morning, 27th inst., Mrs. Wallace, wife of Mr. Charles Wallace, of Lower Village, Stewiacke, was struck by lightning and killed instantaneously. Deceased had just put a little Granddaughter out of her arms, and gone to the cupboard to prepare for breakfast. The Electric Fluid is supposed to have Struck her head and passed out of her foot - one of her toes having the skin broken and bearing marks of injury. The house was considerably damaged. Mr. Wallace was hurt, but not materially. No other member of the family received any damage, as we understand. The deceased has left a large family of children. - Chronicle.

I found the following thought you be interested.

The following was found in the Truro Daily Newspaper - dated Thursday the 29th of October 1896.

WEDDING BELLS

KERR - SIBLEY

A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Muir Sibley, Duke Street, Truro, Tuesday evening, Oct. 27th, when Miss Susie J.K. Sibley, of Meagher's Grant, Halifax Co., and Mr. Charles Kerr of Musquodoboit were united in marriage. Rev. A. L. Geggie was the officiating clergyman. Quite a number of immediate friends of the high contracting parties were present.

The bride was gowned in a handsome travelling costume of Dore Grey and was attended by her little cousin, Miss Nan Sibley. The presents were numerous and handsome.

After a sumptuous supper the happy couple took the CPR for Halifax followed by the best wishes of their many friends.
