History of Franklin County Georgia

Franklin County, was created in 1784 from lands obtained from the Cherokee Indian Nation, and named for Benjamin Franklin. It covered a large part of upper Georgia, from the present day borders of Rabun and Towns counties to Clark and from the Savannah river to the Oconee in Hall and Jackson counties. The county seat of Carnesville was laid out in 1805 and named for Thomas Peter Carnes.

History of Jackson County Georgia

Settlement of this area began in 1784 with a small group of Revolutionary War veterans and other pioneers who ventured into the newly ceded lands of Franklin County. The first permanent communities were on Sandy Creek at Groaning Rock, Yamacutah (near present-day Commerce), Hurricane Shoals, and in 1786 on the Middle Oconee River near the Tallassee Shoals. The population had swelled to 350 by the time the county was formed by legislative act to February 1796.

Named for Revolutionary patriot and Georgia statesman James Jackson, the county originally covered 1800 square miles. However, from 1801 until 1914 portions were taken to form parts of the present counties of Clarke, Oconee, Madison, Gwinnett, Hall, Walton, Banks, and Barrow. Jackson County today contains only 337 square miles.

History of Clarke County Georgia

Established in 1801. Named for Elijah Clarke, leader of the ill-fated Trans-Oconee Expedition and Revolutionary War hero.

A year after cession of the land that became Clarke County from the Cherokee in 1783, the state endowed the future University of Georgia with 40,000 acres of that land near an old trading path. The school, created by the Georgia legislature on January 17, 1785, actually pre-dates the United State of America by 4 years. Abraham Baldwin, who had been pivotal in the legislative process was chosen as president.

The school actually began the same year as the county, 1801, with the purchase of land for a campus. At this time the surrounding town of Athens had not been formed and would not be formed until the first class graduated in 1804.

The county features the rolling hills characteristic of the Piedmont of North Georgia. The Oconee River bisected the county and it was where the old trading path crossed the Oconee that the earliest people settled.

History of Oconee County Georgia

Oconee County, Georgia was formed from Clarke County in 1875. Much of the early history can be found in Clarke County. The county seat of Oconee County is Watkinsville, which was the original county seat of Clarke. The residents of Watkinsville objected to the county seat being moved to Athens in 1875. Hence, Oconee County was created.

History of Barrow County Georgia

Formed in 1914, the county was named for David Crenshaw Barrow a University of Georgia(Athens) professor who was later name chancellor, serving in that position from 1907 to 1925.

The area that today is Barrow County was settled prior to the start of the 19th century. An Indian trail ran through the area (closely following Hog Mountain Road) that attracted settlers. At the Native American village of Snodon, Umausauga invited whites to stay in 1786 after they impressed him with a gift of fish hooks, which he used and enjoyed. The area known as Winder today was called "Jug Tavern" and Commerce was known as "Groaning Rock."

A man name Wilson built one of the first cabins in the area, but this was Indian Territory, so shortly after his arrival the state of Georgia built a frontier fort to protect the settlers. Fort Yargo, one of three forts in the area, is now a state park.

Created from portions of Jackson, Gwinnett and Walton Counties, Barrow was the scene one of the few Union defeats during Sherman's Atlanta Campaign.
Generation 1

Jonathan Kinney according to the 1820 land lottery and the 1840 census of Jackson County Georgia was born between 1790 & 1800, died probably before 1850 at least by 1856. He married 19 Oct 1821 Jackson County Ga. To Sarah (Sally or Sallie) Browning (b.1806) her parents were both born in Maryland and she is most likely the daughter of Benjamin Browning and Margaret (Fulton?). Benjamin’s brother Eli B. Browning born 1772 Maryland received a head right of 20 acres in Jefferson County, GA 1798 and purchased large amounts of land presumably for his brother Benjamin and sister-in-law Margaret Browning (1751-1850) on Crooked and Club Creeks in Jackson County, GA 1802. Eli B. Browning later won land in Monroe County per the 1821 land lottery and lived there till his death in 1857. His will dated Feb. 2, 1853 list his brother Benjamin now deceased and his brothers children Solomon, Susannah, Nancy, Melinda, Benjamin, and Sallie. Benjamin Browning of Jackson County estate is first administered 1815 by John C. Smith and later Sep. 2, 1850 by Benjamin Browning Jr. and Ransom Nichol(d)s. Solomon Browning born 1779 VA or Maryland (1850 & 1860 census differs) married Nov. 13, 1817 to Jael Ellis who per the 1850 census was born 1792 Maryland. Nancy Browning born 1794 Georgia married Ransom Nichols born 1786 NC 1850 are living in Clarke County, GA. (Ludwell Nichols is listed as arriving in Jackson County with the early Settlers the summer of 1786 with our Kinney) Melinda Browning sometimes found as Relinda or Belinda was born 1800 GA married Nov 27 1814 in Jackson County, GA to John C. Smith born 1784 VA and can be found in Jackson County 1850. Benjamin Browning Jr. born 1805 is not married in 1850 but living with most likely his mother Margaret Browning born 1751 Maryland.

Jonathan and Sarah “Sally” had at least 11 children according to the 1840 & 1850 Jackson County Census.

Sarah Kinney had Family Bible in High Shoals

According to “family lore” and information said to be from Sarah Kinney's family bible (in High Shoals)

Brother's Ben, Tom and John Kinney came from N.C. in covered wagon, and settled in Bartow Co. Georgia. John Kinney moved to Crooked Creek Church in Jackson Co.  (If the 3 brothers Ben, Tom and John were the children of Jonathan and Sarah they would have settled Bartow County, Georgia coming from Jackson County, Georgia not North Carolina as stated in the “family lore.”  This is supported by the 1850 through 1880 Jackson County Census shows Jonathan and Sara both born in Georgia, married in Jackson Co. Ga. and all their children being born in Georgia.  The entry in the Kinney Bible, which I have never seen nor been able to find out who possess, must be miss quoted or written in error well after the facts occurred.  I must refer to Jonathan's ancestors possibly his father and Uncles and/or have the locations of North Carolina and/or Bartow County incorrect.  In the Book "Early History of Jackson Co." by Wilson, published 1914 on page 111 & 112 I found a section about the Talasee Colony and an Elkin Kinney.

p.111 2nd paragraph "About this time, (Following the death of the leader of the Bohurons and the disappearance of his lieutenant (previous paragraph)), the long expected company of emigrants arrived. They were led by William Clark, a man of great energy.... The company consisted of one hundred and twenty-seven men, women and children. Thirty-nine remained at Talasee, twenty-seven went to Beadland, and the others to various points now in Walton and Gwinnett Counties. Of the number that remained at Talasee there were 21 able bodied men, among these men was Elkin Kinney. The area known as "Beadland later becomes Barrow County Georgia.

Could the passage quoted from Sarah Kinney’s bible speaking of the area known as Barrow County? It is interesting since Barrow County was not created until 1914 well after Sarah Browning Kinney Smith would have passed. Information about the first Kinney who came into the area of Jackson and Clarke Counties says he moved to the area known as Crooked Creek. The early records of the settlement were burned in a cabin fire. The only surviving records were transcribed by a young boy learning to write and contain many proven errors. Most common among the errors is the conjunction of 2 last names into a person’s full name. It is now suspected that Elkin Kinney was in fact 2 men named Elkin and Kinney.

Jonathan Kinney's will is probated on November 3, 1856. William Kinney is administrator. Jackson Co., GA. The 1850 census does not list Jonathan along with Sarah Browning Kinney. He could have died before then and the family did not probate his will until much late or he may have been away at the time of the 1850 census. I have found a Jonathan Kinney on the Oregon Trail in 1851. Could our Jonathan caught gold fervor and headed out west by 1850? I have found documentation of other Kinney's leaving their family at this time in search of California gold and returning after the "rush". An interesting fact is the land that Jonathan won in 1820 in Habersham County was sold by him just before gold was discovered in that county. Also, William Kinney II son of revolutionary William Kinney I of Rowan County, NC moved to Habersham at and lived there only during the time Jonathan owned land there. William II later won land in Carroll County and moved his family there leaving behind several of his older children who had married and owned land of their own in Habersham County.

Sarah Sally Browning Kinney married a 2nd time to James Smith 16 Sep1856 by William Bell J.P. She is referred to as “Mrs. Smith the widow of Jonathan Kinney” in 1865, 1867 when Jonathan Kinney’s estate is divided.

Generation 2

John Kinney (Jonathan) was born Jan. 3 1823 in Redstone on Athens Road and departed this life June 29, 1870 Jackson County, GA at age 47 of blood poisoning, buried at Crooked Creek Baptist Church, Redstone/Athens, GA. He married May 15 1859 in Jackson County, GA to Georgia "George" Ann (Georgiann) Pierce (Ovid Smith penciled in "Huldah") who was born Jan. 23, 1839 in Georgia according to the 1850 census and departed this life April 29, 1884 in Jackson County, GA. She was an orphan, who lived with her sister and brother-in-law, "Anna" and William Murphy in the upper part of Jackson County, Georgia. Georgia Ann is listed on the 1850 Jackson County census in the Murphy household. Since there are two Williams and neither are listed with an "Anna" it is not clear as to if either listed is the sister of Georgia Ann. Georgia Ann is 11 years of age in 1850. Martha Murphy the wife of William Murphy, Jr. is 26 years of age and said to be born in South Carolina according to the 1850 census. Mary Murphy the wife of William, Sr. is 48 years of age and said to have been born in North Carolina on the 1850 census. There is record of a Anna Pearce marring a William Murphy, 4 Jan 1824 in Jackson County. This makes the Martha Murphy age 26 in 1850 to young to be Anna Pearce the sister of Georgia Ann. Is Georgia Ann's sister "Mary Anna?" After their marriage John and George Ann bought 100 acres of land in the Crooked Creek Community in the lower end of Jackson County. John died June 29, 1870. After 11 years of marriage, George Ann was left a widow with six children to raise, plus one on the way. She sold the land at Crooked Creek and moved to the Walnut Church Community. On December 3, 1873 she bought 99 acres of land bordering the Walnut River for $4 per acre. It was there that she raised her family. George Ann died at age 45, April 29, 1884. John Kinney according to the 1860 Jackson Co. census was a carpenter.

A Mr. Taylor who lived in the same community and was a contemporary of Georgia Ann Pierce and described by Laura (Kinney) McEver as one of the prominent elderly farmers of Jackson County, Georgia knew Georgia Ann Pierce Kinney. He asked Laura, "Did you know your grandmother? You didn't? Well, she was one of the finest women I have ever known." Mr. Taylor also said she was an orphan as does the 1850 Census for Jackson Co. confirm.

According to family lore Emma's father, William McNeal, inherited 50 slaves and gave his wife Nancy a maid for a wedding present. In fact the 1840 census does show 1 young slave girl in their household just after they married yet there is not proof of them ever owning 50 slaves. Nancy Frances Burgess made, dyed & wove her own quilts. She is said to have had all the slave sale records burned on the death of her husband William McNeal. Emma was the 7th or 8 child of 14 children. Her brother John McNeal was killed in the civil war.
Watt Kinney cleared his land in Jackson County, and then built his house and barn from the timbers he cut. He first built a log house and saved out the best timbers and loaded them on a wagon and carried them over to "Bud" McNeal's mill to saw them into lumber to build the Kinney home place. He was considered one of the best farmers in the community and developed a highly productive farm. His seed corn sold at a premium. He and Emma were noted for their hospitality. The visiting preachers always stayed with Watt and Emma. Watt (G. W.) was a self but well educated man. He encouraged his children to get all the education they could afford. He helped to form a literary society in his community and served as its president. His baby brother, Herschel, was secretary. They discussed and debated subjects of their day. A copy of some of the debate notes, topics and conclusions are in the possession of a descendant, William Park Bell, son of Averrie Wilson Bell. They are found in Watt's Day Book. G. W. "Watt" Kinney is said the have had the first cotton gin in the south.

Emma died of a stroke may 22, 1942 in Jackson County, Georgia and Watt died May 24, 1951.

EULOGY by Rhonda Marie O'Daniel (York)

As a child I grew up with a large extended family. The memories are full of aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents, great aunts and a spirited great grandmother. I thought this was a normal family-as I have matured, I would have to use the word NORMAL very loosely! How many families do you know that has 2 great aunts and a great grandmother who take a platoon boat out to go fishing and then dock it after they are through so they can spend the night on it, just to do it all over again the next day? Aunt Myree’s eyes would light up as she told fishing stories. I can still see her bright, cheerful smile and her beautiful red hair that was never out of place after spending a day on the lake.

Aunt Myree took up golf in her early 50’s. She really loved the game. There was something intriguing to her nephews and her nieces husbands about having a golf game with Aunt Myree. She was such a classy lady and a stickler for the rules. No gimmees were allowed when you played a round with her. It was fun as a child to hear the stories and the laughter after one of the uncles had played golf with her. Up until she broke her leg, she preferred to walk the course and pull her golf bag cart behind her. She played a lot with her sister Leora. I hope her energetic genes have been passed on to me.

She was very creative and talented like her mother and sisters. Home Depot had nothing on them- I believe the Baird women coined the term –DO IT YOURSELF! Aunt Myree could take the ugliest nothing and turn it into the most beautiful work of art. If you have ever been into her home, you can see the results of her talented labor. She is remembered for her immaculate yard. Webster’s dictionary defines immaculate as perfectly clean, without flaw or error, example-Myree Lemon’s yard. Just kidding about the last part, but if the dictionary had pictures to show what the word meant, her yard would be there. Her neat and unique home was like walking through a museum. It was so much fun to walk through her house and see all the beautiful and special things she had. She was such a gracious host. Aunt Myree always had homemade treats and refreshments when we visited. I don’t think I inherited that gift from her.

She shared her gift of baking with me for my wedding by providing her special homemade cheese rings for the reception. Aunt Myree did not attend my wedding or any of the great nieces and nephews weddings. Her marriage to Uncle Bill was very special and meaningful to her. When they would attend weddings they would repeat their vows to each other during the ceremony. When Uncle Bill died, she stopped going to weddings.

They didn’t have any children of their own, but she loved her nieces and nephews as if they were her own. She was very attentive, involved in their lives and proud of all of them. She leaves behind memories of her laughter, her vivacious spirit and her gracious kindness and love. Myree Lemons was a grand lady.

Her other love was her car-JR. She took as good of care of Jr. as she did her yard and home. This is probably the most pampered car around. Jr. is here today and will be part of the funeral procession.

Her family wishes to thank all her neighbors, friends and members of her church for all your kindness and help you extended to Aunt Myree, whenever she would allow it. We are truly grateful and thankful she was rewarded with so much love and kindness.

God Bless You All

Daughter of Edmond Gravely ROBERTSON born 6 Apr 1843 in Patrick Co, VA?; died 31 Oct 1917 in Grosvenor, Brown Co, TX and Susan Anna MCDANIEL born 2 Sep 1853 in ARK; died 26 Dec 1929 in Blake, Brown Co, TX; Buried in Fairview Cem, Grosvenor, Brown Co, TX. Info on Andrew Jackson Kinney comes from his granddaughter Sue Schneider SueAKAMom43@cox.net. She says her “Papa Kinney” came to Texas around 1885, maybe sooner, he settled in Brown County, Texas near the town of May [known as Maytown back then]. Brown County is in the geographical center of Texas. His brother John Kinney settled somewhere near Anson, Jones County, TX. Papa Kinney married Laura Ema Robertson 8-13-1891. After having 6 children and outgrowing the house they were living in, as I was told, Papa Kinney went hunting for a new homestead and bought the farm in McCulloch County near Brady where I grew up. They had 4 more children after the move. Papa Kinney died 4-3-1946 of pneumonia. She goes on to say, “I wish my mother were still living so I could tell her all that I have learned about her family since she died. She always believed that Papa Kinney’s father came from Northern Ireland, was sent here by the King of England, that his mother died when he was small and a Negro mammy helped raise him and fed him possum and sweet potatoes. Also all of his family claimed they did not know his mothers name but the oldest aunt [Della] did tell me one time that her name was Georgia. I don't think the rest of the family believed her.”

James Monroe Kinney lived in Belmont, Jackson Co., Ga. on the RR Track, he had a country store, his store was on the south side of the track and his home across the track on the north side. He lost an eye while driving a nail so he wore an eye patch. James Monroe Kinney was a very good man and helped lots people. A few years ago one of the men raised in the Belmont community, opened a bank in Gainsville, Ga. and ran a full page ad saying he wanted to do business just like Uncle Bud Kinney (that is how he was know in the community). The day he died he had walked to the house for lunch and fell dead on the front porch. He was active in the Belmont Baptist Church and after his death the family had to sell the store.

In Memoriam – In memory of Mr. James Monroe Kinney, better known as Uncle Bud, who died suddenly at his home November 27, 1940 at Bellmont. Was born February 28, 1874, and was 66 years of age. He was a member of Bellmont Baptist church.

To say that we were grieved at Mr. Kinney’s passing is putting it entirely too mildly for in his passing our church and community have suffered an irreparable personal loss. He loved his church and was always willing to help with any church or community enterprise. He was one in whom you could put your whole trust with no fear of having that trust betrayed; one who at all times had a kind word and pleasant smile, especially to the little children; that kind and loving smile won one and all. He always saw the good in everyone He was a true Christian and lived his religion; he practiced what he preached. He was a man who could and did live in a small town and have no one speak evil of him. What greater compliment could be paid to man?

He was a most loving and dutiful husband and father. They have suffered a loss too great to be expressed in mere words, a wound which only time can heal. Our heart goes out to them in deepest sympathy. He was a successful merchant and valuable citizen of Hall County. We know that our loss is his gain, for he has gone where the faithful rest from their labors.
The beautiful flowers that covered his grave were a token of the love his friends had for him. Funeral services were held at Bellmont Church, Friday, November 29, Revs. J. W. Hogan, Homer Morris and J. T. Grizzle officiating. The songs were sung by Harold Bryan, Otto Collins, Jackson Lancaster and Alton Hudgins. Interment was in Mountain Creek cemetery. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lula Wood Kinney; two sons, Herman Kinney and J. C. Kinney; two daughters, Mrs. J. A. Hawkins and Mrs. Herbert Hudgins, and 19 grandchildren.

A Martha Kinney married 11 Dec 1849 to David S.J Chandler. Per Jackson County Marriage Records Book A (David T.J. Chandler age 24 born GA and Martha A. Chandler age 17 born GA are in 1850 Jackson Co. census, page 27) Chandlers are listed as members of Crooked Creek Baptist Church where our Kinney’s were members.

One theory was that this Martha A. Kinney was the missing daughter of Jonathan Kinney and Sarah Browning from the 1840 census she would have been born c.1833 per her listing on the 1850 census and should have been enumerated with Matilda also born c. 1833 who married Mr. Sauls. Since then it was discovered that a Telitha Kinney wife of Eli N. Garner is the missing daughter form the 1840 census since a E. N. Garner is listed as having a Inheritable share of Jonathan Kinney’s Estate in 1857 along with Jonathan’s already known Son-in-law’s and son’s. Eli N. Garner and Telitha are enumerated very near the Sauls 1850 Jackson County, GA.
