

2018 Crockett Family Reunion

San Antonio, TX

June 7th, 8th and 9th

It has been 20 years since our last reunion at the site where David Crockett took his famous last stand. But the time to join together again at the Alamo has finally come. Our reunions are open to all Crockett enthusiasts, whether a member of the DDDC or not. Early registration is important as space is extremely limited so do not delay!

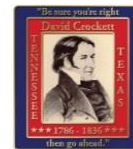

Reunion Registration – Access to a special Guided Tour of the Alamo Battlefield, Alamo Plaza Seminar, Battle For Texas: The Experience, Guest Speaker Series (featuring historical fiction writers David Bowles and Dan Vanderburg and illustrator, Wade Dillon) and live musical performance by K.R. Wood.

Banquet Dinner - Our elegant evening will include a full service southern style dinner in the beautiful Minuet Room of the historic Menger Hotel, featuring the amusing story-telling of Donna Ingham, key note address by Alamo Curator, Dr. Bruce Winders, musical entertainment by K.R. Wood, and more.

Merchandise – These unique items are available exclusively from the DDDC for this special event! This year, pre-order a magnificent Organization Coat of Arms Medal which can be worn on any occasion to show your support of the DDDC. Don't miss out on the beautiful new lapel pin set that includes our official Organization Lapel Pin AND our 2018 DDDC Reunion Lapel Pin. And, of course, our highly anticipated 2018 Crockett Family Reunion T-shirts are a big hit! These shirts must be pre-ordered so that your shirts can be printed in the sizes of your choice.

Now is the time to register for the event and order your Crockett merchandise - Reunion planning and booking events and venues that make our reunions fun and educational is expensive so registration and pre-payment is appreciated. Complete the Registration Form in this newsletter or go to www.goahead.org or www.facebook.com/2018DavidCrockettReunion/ to download the form today!
