If you do not find anything on your Hawkins Family Group in the Families section in the latter part of this letter, it is because nothing was sent in. If you have something, picture, tale, article, etc. that you think would be of interest to the group, send it to me with a note on which family group that it belongs in.

Last month I announced that we had established a new Hawkins line, Hawkins Family Group-18. This month we have established two more, Hawkins Family Group-19, and Hawkins Family Group-20. It seems that now each person is finding a match with either one of our established lines, or one of our previously unmatched participants to establish a new line.

Again, requesting that all of our Hawkins Y participants, if possible, take the Family Finder test to help genealogists that are researching Hawkins lines that have daughtered out.

I have finished scanning the 52 issues of the discontinued Hawkins Heritage newsletter (1986-2004) for Olyve Hallmark Abbott. All editions will fit on a single DVD. More on this next month.

 Bob Hawkins in Australia sent the following. On the news last night (19 July), A new war graves cemetery was opened yesterday at Fromeles in France and from the 200+ bodies discovered in a mass grave 94 Australian soldier's were identified through the DNA provided by their relatives and now have their own graves in that cemetery.

Technology Tip of the Month--Further Adventures with Adobe Photoshop: Using Color Channels to Correct Black and White Photos by Kay Spears.

This is a little trick I picked up from Katrin Eismann's book "Photoshop Restoration & Retouching." Whether scanning black & white, sepia or color photographs, I always scan and save using the highest color setting the scanner allows.

Why do I save my black and white images as color? One reason is that they have more depth when viewed. Another reason is I can use the Color Channels tool to correct some problems that may arise with black and white photographs. One of those problems may be a close encounter with a child who had a pencil or pen in their hand. Or there may be dust, specks, or dirt of unknown origin on the surface of the photograph. For this lesson, let's imagine a child and pen have left a scribble on the photo.

Open the scanned photograph in Photoshop, making sure the Layers Palette is selected. Click the Channels tab on the Layers Palette. This is the Color (RGB) Channels palette, and there will be four channels: RGB, Red, Green, and Blue.

Next, view the photograph on each channel (except the RGB channel) by clicking on them one at a time. Click on the channel itself, not the eye. As you click on each channel, watch your photograph change. The image should look better on one channel than the other two – the scribble will appear very light or will have disappeared. That is the channel you are going to use. With the best channel selected, go to Image>Mode>Grayscale and click. A dialog box will ask “Discard other Channels?” Click OK. Now you will have only a “Gray” channel.

Once this is done, you can continue to tweak the photograph in whatever manner needed. If you want to add a sepia tone or color back in when you are finished tweaking, go to Image>Mode>RGB Color and click. When you do this, the photograph will once again be in color mode and ready to have color added; however, there shouldn't be any scribble on it.

Next: Further Adventures with Adobe Photoshop, Photomerge Tool.

You do not have to be a participant to send material for this family group. Old pictures, family stories, unanswered questions, brick walls, whatever would be of interest to our line, to your branch of the line, or information on a particular event that might have been an influencing factor in the history of an ancestor (s). If you send pictures please scan at 300 dpi, and furnish the who/when/where/why to the extent you can.

Last month I listed the descendants of Amos Hawkins, the seventh son of James and Martha (Hollowell). In August we'll present information on the remaining brother, William. Please send me any information that you can on William to help me with this?

Amos Hawkins, the son of James and Martha (Hollowell) Hawkins

1 Amos Hawkins: 05 Nov 1757 in Loudoun Co., VA d: 01 May 1844 in Wayne Co., IN
 .. +Ann Comer m: 09 Jun 1791 in SC d: 08 Apr 1853

 ...2 Elizabeth Hawkins b: 20 Dec 1796 in SC d: 1845 in Carthage, Rush Co., IN +Adam Boyd m: 05 Jun 1818 in Richmond, Wayne Co., IN
 ...2 Martha Hawkins

Yes, that's it. Everything that I have on Amos that married Ann Comer. Their children I copied off the internet this month, and have no source for proof.

I have been sending you info on our line for months (years) and now it is your turn. If you are a descendent of Amos and Ann please send some data on them and what you are using as proof.

If you maintain a web site with Hawkins information, please add a link to our Hawkins DNA Project. If you maintain a website that relates to any of our Hawkins DNA lines, please advise, and I'll list a link for it on our site.

If you know someone that would like to be on the Hawkins project information mailing list, please send me their name and email and I'll add them. Anyone that desires not to be on the list should request removal.

Please advise us of any planned Hawkins reunions. We would like to list them indicating the patriarch, place, dates, and any other special information. Consider collecting donations to have some of the cousins in your group tested. Maybe you have the perfect paper records, but the mutations that occur in the separate lines need to be identified now for succeeding generations (and just maybe, your paper records are not as solid as you assume).

If you have tested with someone other than Family Tree DNA please contact me about also participating in our Hawkins Project.
