We need to have an Assistant Administrator for each of our Family groups. It is just no longer possible for me to provide the attention to the individual family groups as I have tried to in the past. It is not necessary that the Group Administrator be a testing participant, just a keen interest in advancing the knowledge within their family group. The family Groups that we have identified that do not have a leader are 03, 06, 08, 09, 11, 13, 15, 16, 18, 19, 20, and 21. Your help is needed. Please contact me. Phil

I am seeing a number of posts that are recommending DNA and Social Networking by Debbie Kennett as an excellent new book to help with your understanding of DNA and genealogy. Check Amazon UK, EBay, etc. for availability.

CeCe Moore, Your Genetic Genealogist, writes “Very often I am asked for my recommendation on an up-to-date book about genetic genealogy and autosomal DNA. I am happy to report that I finally have found one that I can highly recommend!”

Technology Tip of the Month--The Microsoft Word 2010 Ribbon: References Tab, Part 1, by Kay Spears.

For those of you compiling a family history, this tab includes many useful tools organized into the following groups: Table of Contents, Footnotes, Citations & Bibliography, Captions, Index, and Table of Authorities.

A Table of Contents is always a handy tool for researchers and Microsoft Word has made it relatively painless to create one. You can build a Table of Contents in Word either manually or by using a wizard. Before looking at both of these methods, I suggest that you delay making a Table of Contents until your book is nearly complete. It will be less confusing and you will be less likely to introduce a mistake because of any changes you have made while compiling your book.

Let's explore the manual method for creating a Table of Contents. These instructions may seem like a lot of work, but once you get used to them, you'll find that they are pretty easy. You may even decide to incorporate the Tab Alignment for other purposes. First, make sure that the Show/Hide feature is turned on. You will find Show/Hide in the Paragraph Group on the Home Tab (it looks like a backward P). Once you have completed setting up your tabs, you may want to turn off Show/Hide, as it does clutter the page.

Now, type the first entry for your Table of Contents – for instance, “John Smith.” Press the Tab key on your keyboard, then type the page number for the first entry. If Show/Hide is turned on, you should see an arrow between the name and number; that arrow is called a tab stop. Using your cursor, select that arrow, go to the Page Layout or Home tab and click on the Paragraph group. Then click on the Tab button located in the lower left corner. In the Tab Stop Position, type the number of inches of space you want between the name and number. Under Alignment, click Right. Under Leader, select the option you want and click OK. Your page number should align right with whatever leader you've chosen. Press Enter on your keyboard and start typing the second name and number, remembering to press the Tab button after each name entry. You should start seeing what looks like a Table of Contents.

To create a Table of Contents using the wizard, you will need to incorporate the use of Headings in your document for any text that you want to appear in the Table of Contents. The title of each chapter or section is a common choice. Select the text for the first item that you want to appear in the Table of Contents. Next, click on either Heading 1 or Heading 2 in the Styles group on the Home tab. Then, click on the spot where you want to place the Table of Contents – most likely a blank page near the beginning of your document. Finally, on the References tab, in the Table of Contents group, click Table of Contents, then click the table style you want and it will magically appear.

Bob, the assistant administrator of Hawkins Family Group-02, in his article on page 03, points out that “At familysearch.org you can now find the probate records for the entire states of Kentucky & Tennessee.” He mentions how he has gone about finding, to date, “over 75 new Hawkins records...”

For a study I am writing, I constructed a couple of inheritance charts that can be used by anyone for any purpose free of charge. I only ask that the copyright info be retained. They are 300 dpi jpg.

Hawkins Family Group-01 (Group Administrator is Marsha Moses, mosesm@earthlink.net.)
http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~hawkinsdnaproject/tree_g-1.html#Group-01

Hawkins DNA group #1 has two participants who match each other who do not carry the Hawkins surname. The interesting fact is that both men have ties to the same area of New Jersey in the late 1800's. One man carries the surname Glass and the other man carries the surname Cullen. Bill Cullen is a 67 marker match with more than two of our participants. This modern map shows where the ancestors of both men were living in the late 1800's.

This is the Glass explanation from Larry Glass: Phil's newsletters often refer to the genealogical "brick wall". Mine started about 30 years ago when I first started trying to find out about my father's family. I was told early in life that George Glass was my great grandfather and had two children with Agnes Crelin, but that nothing was known about him. I was able to track down my paternal grandfather's birth record and that of his only sibling, an older brother. Both records indicated that their father was a George Glass, but that's about where the similarity ends. The older brother's birth record (Erwin Glass -1896) said that George was born in Italy and he was a shoemaker by trade. My grandfather's birth record from 1899 (Malvin Franklin Glass) said George was the father but his country of origin was the U.S. and that George had died 5 months prior to the birth. Both records indicated that George was born in either 1867 or 1868. My subsequent search has turned up no other records that might match my George. No birth records, no death records, no census entries.....My brick wall! I initially did the FTDNA 35 marker test thinking that I might discover a Jewish marker in my DNA because Agnes Crelin also had a relationship with a man from a prominent Jewish family in Newark, NJ. I suspected that George was a pseudonym for him. To my surprise not only was there not a Jewish connection, but I had several 35/37 matches with a family I never heard of....the Hawkins family! This was getting even more complicated, but at least I had somewhere else to search for a hole in that brick wall. I spent a good deal of time going over all the posted Hawkins family trees looking for a NJ connection and found absolutely nothing. For the past couple of years I had almost given up. I would read the monthly newsletter hoping that something would pop up but felt that maybe I wasn't ever going to get by my brick wall. Shortly before Thanksgiving I got an email from another participant in the Hawkins DNA Project. Bill Cullen is a 35/37 match to me....for now because I just ordered an upgrade to the 67 marker test to see if we can get that even closer. Bill is also a 67/67 match to two participants in the Hawkins Family Group 1. The plot thickens even more.....Bill's surname is Cullen, mine is Glass we are the only two surnames besides Hawkins in Family Group #1, AND we both originate from Essex County, NJ.....within a radius of 7-10 miles! Has my brick wall weakened? I'm not sure but I feel like it's not quite as tall as it used to be.

These are the Cullen Facts: Catherine Noon, single daughter to Michael Noon and Mary O'Neil of Bloomfield, NJ was nowhere to be found in 1880. Her son, born Jan 1880 and named William Cullen was living in Orange, NJ with his grandmother, Mary. All of Mary's children were in the household except for Catherine. There is no definitive record of where Thomas Cullen was either that year. Several years later, they are found married with several more children. There is no doubt that William Cullen grew up in the household of Thomas Cullen and assumed that he was a son of the Cullen's.

Hawkins Family Group-02 (Group Administrator is Bob Hawkins, bobhawk507@sbcglobal.net)
(http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~hawkinsdnaproject/tree_g-1.html#Group-02)

We continue to search for our connections in Group 2. There is a gap in our line that keeps almost the entire group from connecting to that most recent common ancestor. Most of us match on 36 & 37 of 37 markers. That puts our MRCA at about 6 generations, but somewhere in the 4 to 5 generation era info is missing. I have been very busy in the last 2 months locating new family records. At family search.org you can now find the probate records for the entire states of Kentucky & Tennessee. It is time consuming, but worth every minute. I have located over 75 new Hawkins records doing this search. The records are broke down by county. There is no master index, but most Volumes have an index in the beginning. Try the first 20 pages for the index and after that it is a matter of guesswork finding the correct page. If it is page 70 for instance, I would try page 55 because I would add 20 for the index plus 2 pages per image= +35 to get me near the record. After that it's a cinch! The only downside is that images load slowly so it is very time consuming. They continue to add new files daily and you may find that missing name in one of the files.

OTHER CAUSES OF QUAKER EXODUS FROM THE CAROLINAS

Some of the country in the Carolinas is rather rough farming country - the uplands are hilly, some places poor and stoney - mostly impossible to cultivate and non-productive -- the creeks and branches have narrow strips of bottom land which are subject to floods.

Families were large and the younger generation needed land to cultivate, grazing land for stock and land for homes. Then some portion of the land was tied up by large land holders (land grants kept in the original family) - plantations with many slaves.

In 1795 a great flood raged through the Carolinas - with losses of property and livestock. In 1798 came another destructive flood- Communication was slow - but eventually the people did hear about 'Congress in 1796 setting aside various tracts of land, which were to be sold by officials of the Government, and known as "Congress Lands" - this land was called Northwest Territory and included what is now the State of Ohio.

Many Quakers began to talk of the prophecy of a great war (within the lifetime of the children then born) 'during which many men - like those in the Apocalypse would flee to the mountains to hide themselves'. There was talk - and the Carolinas began to fear a black uprising - killing many whites who had remained in the slave states. Stories also circulated that the Carolinas would become arid (as the desert of Arabia).

Scouts - prospectors from different settlements (usually two or three from each settlement) banded together and went on horseback across the country from their homes in search of new lands for their families and friends. Nearly all were Quakers by faith. Usually such exploring ventures employed a frontier guide. Usually they were satisfied, after many weeks of exploring that their friends would be pleased with the country in southwestern Ohio. An account of such a scouting party from Randolph County, North Carolina tells us that before reaching home one member of the party (Martin Davenport) became sick and soon died of the fever - yet this exploring party - like nearly all - returned home and reported very favorable. Communities soon became aroused - to get a home "Out West".

In 1803 several families from Cane Creek, South Carolina left for Ohio (transferring their Quaker membership to Westland, Pa. M.M. - the closest meeting to their proposed home). Scouts made several trips back and forth to what they called Miami Country - glowing reports came back to Carolina - good land - timber - prospect for water power - building stone - good spring water - natural drainage - game - etc. away from slavery.

Miami N.M. was opened 10/13/1803 (at Waynesville, Ohio) - this was quite an inducement for other Quakers since they desired to live close enough to go to church twice a week. Even when several Quakers lived close together - this made good prospects to get their own Meeting - and land near a Quaker Meeting often brought some premium. Soon other meetings were opened Caesars Creek, Fairfield, Fall Creek, etc.

It is said 'the people from the Carolinas started to Ohio (Miami Country) almost in panic and in great numbers'. The panic exodus caused land values to drop - some land in the Carolinas sold for $3.00 to $6.00 per acre - far below its value - yet the Quakers sold out and continued to move in ever increasing numbers until few Quakers were left. The Cane Creek (S.C.) exodus was so nearly complete - that the last members apparently had no one to leave the Meeting record books with - so they carried them to Ohio. The men's record books were used in Ohio for a time - but the women's books were carried all the way to Whitewater country (Wayne Co., Ind.) ...where they remained in the custody of Whitewater Meeting for over 100 years. Sometime probably in the mid 1920's these women's Cane Creek record books were sent to the Carolina Yearly Meeting. John and Lydia Hawkins had each been secretary of their respective meetings - and some thought they carried the books, however there are a number of entries (transfers from Cane Creek) after they left - so it seems the books were brought north by some other persons - who could find no one to leave them with. Cane Creek Meeting was discontinued in 1808 for lack of members.

(http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~hawkinsdnaproject/tree_g-1.html#Group-05)

Greetings.

There seems to be some confusion about who the children are of John Hawkins, Mariner of New England, and his wife, Mary. John Hawkins wrote his will at the home of William Richardson in 1670 in preparation for a trip to New England. William Richardson's home was a gathering place of local Quakers.

The following are the only children of the above mentioned couple, with proofs of their parentage. Please correct any information that may not agree with the following.

Anne, only daughter. "Charles Gorsuch of Baltimore County, son of John and Ann Gosidge of the Kingdom of England, dec'd., Mar. 12th mo. 15. 1690 Ann Hawkings, dau. of Jno. and Mary Hawkins of Anne Arundel County, dec'd. at William Richardson's, Sr. in Anne Arundell Co. (Gosidge spelt his name 'Gorsuch')" West River Quaker Records.

Thomas, married at West River MM to Elizabeth Arnold, son of John Hawkins and his wife, Mary, of Anne Arundel County, on 30d/5m (Apr)1704 at William Richardson's. West River Quaker Records.

Matthew, on 14 April 1705, wrote his will "Item - I do make and ordain my trusty and well loved brothers, Joseph and Thomas Hawkins my executors of this my last Will and Testament having also guidance and governance of my said children to the discretion of my executors and brothers, Joseph and Thomas Hawkins".

Joseph, see above mentioned will of brother, Matthew.

John Hawkins, Planter. John Hawkins, Mariner of New England purchased and held Bolealmonananock, Boleal Monack, Boleal Modnanock, etc... John Hawkins, Planter sold it after the death of John Hawkins, Mariner of New England.

Augustine, married Susanna Carr. Walter Carr is the father of Susanna Carr. John Hawkins, Mariner of New England, inventory was signed by Walter Carr and Robert Franklyn. Inventories were signed by the closest relative and the greatest creditor. I have found no relationship to Robert Franklyn, as of yet, however, I have found " 6 July 1766, Aquilla Carr, planter of Baltimore County, Maryland to Nicholas Merryman of same... sold William, Sarah, and Alee, Negroes. Signed, Aquilla Carr. Wit: John Merryman and Rebecca (x) Frasier. Rebecca Frasier, is the mother of Nathan Hawkins. She is a daughter of Matthew Hawkins, s/o John Hawkins, Mariner. Walter Carr was the father of the wife of Augustine Hawkins, Susanna. Aquilla married Susanna Parrish, a Quaker. She was a descendant of Edward Parrish, Quaker, whose daughters married Matthew Hawkins, 1st Ann and then, Mary, the mother of Rebecca Frasier.

Augustine, John (the Planter), and Matthew Hawkins worked together as Carpenters, namely they built Herring Creek Church, later christianized to St. James. There are many examples of close family ties that lead to the conclusion that Augustine was a son of John Hawkins, Mariner, and his wife, Mary of Anne Arundell County, Maryland.

Thank you, Jeanne Bornefeld

According to my research, these are the known descendants of Robert Hawkins (SR.) 1776-1840, who moved to Sumner Co. TN around 1822 from Prince Edward Co. VA.

Robert Jr. moved to Nashville, Davidson Co., TN possibly with his brother, Abner Burke Hawkins (ca 1795-1828).

Benjamin Hawkins of Amelia Co/Prince Edward Co. VA appears to have been the father of Robert Sr. Elizabeth Smith (ca. 1766-1807) was the wife of Robert Sr. and the mother of Robert Jr.

The following letter was written by Jacob Hawkins in Newberry County, South Carolina, to his father Peter Watson Hawkins in Dyer County, Tn. Peter had taken his family to Tennessee in the 1840's from Newberry County, South Carolina. Jacob had gone back to South Carolina before 1850 to study for the ministry. He remained there and preached after he completed his studies.

The Luke Robertson, mentioned in the letter, is the husband of Jacob's sister, Harriet. Luke and Harriet lived in Dyer county, Tennessee, near Peter Hawkins.

The spelling and punctuation is as it was written in the letter. The original letter is owned by Virginia Smith of Friendship, Tn.

This forward was written by Miller Taylor, who is currently living in Washington, DC. He has done extensive research on the Taylor-Hawkins family.

Frog Level, SC
March 19, 1871

My Dear Father,

Your welcome letter came in due time. I was proud to see your own handwriting. It looked very familiar & reminded me of other days.

Well, I must tell you of my move & location &c. After I accepted a call to St Luke's, Frog Level, & Colony, I bought, as I wrote you, the Able Enlow place where the Ridge Road leaves the Timothy Creek Road. When I moved down, the citizens of Frog Level persuaded me to settle near their village, & I have bought a beautiful place in sight of the town on the road out to G. Brown's & Eges (?) Chapman's. I am preparing to enlarge my house & fix it up in a respectable manner. My place is very much admired by every one. I have 13 acres of good land. It is near where George Boozer once lived. (Polly Hawkins, granddaughter of Peter, 1806, married Wm Washington Boozer born 1817).

I sold the Enlow place back to L. Kiblin (Kibler). I am going to plant my land all in cotton & try & pay out.

David Kiblin still lives at Frog Level. He's one of my best friends. Old David Adkins is living yet. Issac Enlow is one my elders at Colony - a good Christian.

(Page2) John Dunkins and John Bedenbaugh wish to be remembered kindly to you. Christian Enlow is a local preacher. He married Florella Vaughn & is doing well. Abraham is in the M. church. The old men are dying out. What remains in the Stony Hills love me on your account, & I often think of the advice of Solomon "Thy friends & thy fathers friends forsake not. " Every where I go they say they would rather see you and mother than anyone else.

Col. John Hair is near death with dropsy of the heart.

Frog Level is rapidly improving. We have seven stores, and several shops, my church, & a school, a steam mill, & some misc. residences. Several new houses are being built this year. The old Bowers place below our town sold last sale day for $26. per acre Lots in the business part of town will bring a $1000.

I can't tell what will interest you. I wish you could visit this dear old country again before you go to that better land.

We have signs of an early spring. The weather has been warm & the trees are putting out leaves. The peach & plum trees have been in bloom two weeks.

(Page 3) Do not understand me that I disown you as a Disciple of Christ because you have changed your faith. In this I claim a great advantage over Baptists. I do acknowledge them as Christians while they will not acknowledge me. I am satisfied & before you all are. If I obey Christ in every thing except going under the water I feel I am safe. I do not expect to be saved because I do what Christ commands, but because of the mercy of God in Christ. I trust in Christ, & have no confidence in the flesh. I strive to obey him because I love him, & and not because I hope to be saved by obeying him. If Christ really commands us to be immersed that immersion forms no grounds of merit & you nor any other man can proved that only the immersed are saved. If you have found that that is the way, why then you are right to walk in it, but because Luke Robertson is a Baptist is no reason at all that I should be one. I think that he is as likely to be mistaken as I am.

There are eighty five million of Protestants in the world - of these about four millions have been immersed. Is it so easy to prove that eighty one millions are deceived & on the road to Hell although trying with all their (Page 4) souls to serve God? Would that merciful God who has so graciously enlightened four millions, leave twenty times that number who are variously enquiring for the truth in the dark?

But why argue this subject? Abler men than any of us here have handled it over & over again, & their conclusions have only served to prove that prejudice & association go along way in forming our religious beliefs.

One thing is to my mind very clear. If you all had remained in So. Ca. you would never have become Baptist. But association & contact with Baptists have won you over & now of course you think you are most exclusively right & I wrong.

Of course, you are interested in me. I am grateful for that interest, & for the thousand other things you have done for me, but let me tell you thoroughly that I am grateful most of all for leading me from Luther's Catechism the doctrines of the Lutheran Church, & for giving me to the Lord when a little boy, in holy baptism.

Shall we discuss this subject in Heaven? Let us drop it until we meet there & then we will decide it.

Your affectionate son,
J HAWKINS (died June 1905) b

Jacob and Mary Wingard Hawkins had the following children:

1. Mary Ella Hawkins dob November 18, 1856, Lexington county, SC, died September 5, 1857.
2. Emma Kinard Hawkins dob July 14, 1859, Beth Eden, Newberry County, SC.
3. John Jacob Hawkins dob August 5, 1861 in Savannah.
4. Sarah Elizabeth Hawkins dob November 28, 1864 in Effingham County, Ga
5. Willie Schirmer Hawkins born November 7, 1869, Beth Eden, Newberry, SC; died Jan 16, 1870.

6. Joseph Wingard Hawkins born March 4, 1867, Beth Eden, Newberry, SC; died Prosperity, SC, June 20, 1881.
7. Virginia Hawkins born Jan 4, 1873 Shepherdstown, West Va.
8. Charles Duval Hawkins born May 26, 1875 Middletown, Frederick County, Md
9. Helen Rude Hawkins born Oct 26, 1878, near St Michael's Church, Lexington County, SC.

George W 2 May 1830 married AA Ferguson. He is listed with the Bell family of Dyer in 1860 census with his sister E Jane and brother in law, J J Bell.

Nancy 1 Mar 1832 married Noah Taylor, one of Isabella Taylor Hawkins' younger brothers. In the early 1870's she moved with Noah to Bradford County (now Union County) Fl to be near Noah's brothers and sisters. Nancy was by then in poor health and died by 1876.

Elijah Edward 10 Mar 1834 to 24 Jan 1920 married Harriet Ellen Ferguson, perhaps a sister of AA who married George W. I have some records showing in 1870 Dyer census that he is living next door to his parents at age 32 with wife Ellen and child Mary age 1.

Frances E 1837 married Israel Taylor, another younger brother of Isabella Taylor Hawkins. Israel died between March and April 1863 as a Confederate soldier. I have a note that her second husband was a John H Hay, whom she married 12 September 1867 in Dyer county, Tn. In 1871 she sued Israel's estate as well as her brother in law, Noah, and her children with Israel, D Fletcher Taylor and Elijah Austin Taylor, for a dowry.

E Jane 1838 married JJ Bell and then W James Churchman

Sarah C 1842 married Elijah W Chapman, then his brother or cousin, E D Chapman. She married Elijah W 13 September 1867 in Dyer county, Tn.

One email note I saw said: Seeking the burial site of Rev Peter Watson Hawkins, who moved from Friendship,, Tn to Johnson County, Tx in 1878 shortly before his death in 1879. Another indicated that his wife, Mary, probably died before PW moved to Texas and that she was a pious woman. He and his wife Mary were charter members when St Luke's Lutheran Church was founded in 1828. I can find baptismal records there for seven of their children. I cannot find death or burial records for either Peter Watson Hawkins or Mary Duval Hawkins in Tennessee or Texas. Peter Watson Hawkins probably went to Johnson County, Texas, because that is where his grandson, Simon Peter Hawkins, son of Simeon Peter Hawkins, settled. Simon Peter Hawkins dob 4 Jan 1849 was 14 when his father, Simeon Peter Hawkins, died in the Confederate Army in Atlanta, Ga. Simon Peter Hawkins left for Texas in 1875-78. By 1878 he and his family had migrated to Johnson County, Texas. Perhaps PW Hawkins was with them at that time.

1821: witness for a debt dispute of a William West

1830 census: Newberry, SC. 2 1 - - - 1//1 - - - 1; no slaves shown; the two boys under 5 are probably Jacob and George W; the one boy 5 to 9 is probably Simeon Peter; male 30 to 39 is Peter Watson Hawkins; female under 5 is Harriet; female 20 through 29 is wife, Mary. I don't see where Molly/Polly is. Jan* Ganter Hawkins is shown a few residences before son, Peter Watson Hawkins.

1831: moved to Stony Battery

20 Feb 1832: Peter Watson Hawkins and wife, Mary, listed as full members of St Luke's Lutheran Church, Newberry, SC.

1840 census: Newberry, SC shows one male under 5-perhaps Elijah who is really 6; two males 5 through 9, could be George W but he would be 10 and another boy or perhaps it is Elijah and the other child listed as under 5 died. Male 15 through 19 would be 18 year old Simeon Peter and Peter W Hawkins is male 40 through 49; female under 5 are Frances, Jane and possibly Sarah but I have her with estimated dob of 1842; one female 10 through 14 could be Harriet and one female 15 through 19 could be Dolly/Polly; one female 30 through 39 would be wife, Mary Duval Hawkins. I have a tentative dob of 1803, which fits. There is one female slave listed as between 36 to 54; I am assuming she was a Nanny or Mammy. I am not sure that is an acceptable term in modern times. But my grandfather, George M Hawkins, who was born in Tennessee around 1899 (I think he lied about his dob to get into the service during WW1) said he had a "mammy". This probably came up because my Pennsylvania Dutch great grandmother, his northern wife's mother, was called Mammy by her grandchildren.

1844: moved to Dyer, Tn, which was established in 1823 land ceded by Chickasaw Indians.

1850 census, Dyer, Tn. PW and wife listed as 54 and 47 with Harriet (22), George (20), Nancy (18), Ellijah (16), Frances (14), Jane (12) and Sarah (10); two Marys and an MJ Bruce as well as Noah Taylor (19), Isabella Taylor Hawkins' younger brother who will marry Nancy Hawkins. Legget family living at same residence. JJ, Rachel, Nancy, Martha and JD. No idea who they are.

1860 census, Dyer, Tn. PW is 63, wife Mary is 63 and S (Sarah?) is 17. The Brown family is also living at this residence. I think this is their daughter, Molly, Polly, Mary Margaret, initials MP, who was born in 1826, with husband and child. PW and Mary are living with the Browns but it is not clear who is head of household. MP Brown is 32 which is about the right age for Molly/Polly but MJ is only 13. so likely to be her son. I have a note that says her second marriage is someone surname Bruce. 1870 census, Dyer, Tn. listed as Petter Hawkings with wife, Mary. Now he is 72 and she is 76 and born in North Carolina, not South Carolina. They are living next door to Elijah, their son. 33 and his wife, Ellen, and daughter, Mary, 1, probably named for her paternal grandmother.

1880: I cannot find either in any records so I assume both have died.

Intervale Cemetery Clean-Up Starting April 2011

Summer is outside time, and nothing excites me more than visiting old cemeteries where my Hawkins ancestors are buried. Sadly, Intervale Cemetery in North Providence Rhode Island (<http://www.findagrave.com/cgi-bin/fg.cgi?page=cr&CRid=2143133>) where my great grandfather Earl Patten Hawkins (1882-1918) and his eldest son Earl, Jr. (1909-1918) is one that has been neglected and abandoned for much of the past two decades.

So when I learned that the United Train of Artillery (<http://mysite.verizon.net/captuta/>), motivated by saving grave sites of Civil War Veterans had planned to clean and restore this cemetery, I signed up. Over several weekends we removed over 300 bags of leaves, large piles of brush and tree limbs, and dozens of bags of trash from this small cemetery. We also found several overgrown and hidden stones, and by summers end restored and re-righted over a dozen stones. There are even hopes that next fall an archaeology class from

Brown University will use ground penetrating radar as part of a class project to find all the unmarked graves.

When we started, it was believed that about 130 people were buried here, as the burial records have long been lost to time. Between the found stones, and cemetery inventories from 1890 and 1939 we have identified at least 225 known burials and notations of dozens of unmarked graves. I even learned that the expansion of the cemetery came from land my great uncle Myron Hawkins sold to the Intervale Cemetery Company in the early 1900's.

Even with all this work, we still could not locate the exact spot of Earl Hawkins' burial, so that mystery will wait for now. It was an exciting journey so far, and I would encourage all of you to adopt some local cemetery where our ancestors are buried and help maintain it for future generations.
