POOR-LAW MEDICAL REFORM.

LETTER FROM RICHARD GRIFFIN, ESQ.

Sir,—I shall feel obliged by your giving insertion to the annexed list of names of gentlemen who have forwarded their subscriptions towards the funds of the Association. I would willingly at once apply to the Poor-law Board, and ask their consent to receive a deputation; but I fear that the reply might be: "There is no proof now that any great body of the present medical officers are dissatisfied with their position." If, however, 500 medical men should answer the appeal which Mr. Prowse has made to them, then I should feel justified in at once taking active measures, either by a deputation to the Poor-law Board or by a Bill in Parliament.

I am, etc.,

Richard Griffin.

Weymouth, January 29th, 1865.

List of subscriptions sent to Mr. Prowse of Amersham:
J. Blackshaw, Stockport, 5s.; W. A. Buee, Eton, 5s.; W. F. Brooks, Wye, 10s.; John Bowes, Blean, 10s., 6d.; W. Clark, Epsom, 10s., 6d.; J. C. Hunter, 10s., 6d.; R. O. Bryll, Rochdale, 10s.; W. C. Arminson, Hexham, 7s., 6d.; W. Montgomery, Haltwhistle, 5s.; Hewiton, Hexham, 7s., 6d.; J. Chapman, Brentford, 20s.; Brodie, Bellingham, etc., 5s.; B. E., 10s.

To Mr. Griffin: E. C. Buckoll, Rochford, 5s.; F. Turtle, St. George-in-the-East, 5s.; J. Taylor, Banbury, 5s.; G. M. Ashworth, Oakham, 5s.; P. Dicken, Ashby-de-la-Zouch, 5s.; T. O. Walker, Tovecaster, 5s.
