REFERENCES AND INDEX

A listing of references and other source material is provided at the end of this genealogy, as is an all-name index for Generations One through Nine.

INTRODUCTION

Although it has yet to be proven beyond all doubt, I believe there is a very strong probability that our particular Bond/Bonde/Band/Bande family traces back to the Walter Bonde who wrote his last will and testament on 12 March 1573, and who identified himself in his will as being "of Lacoce in the contie of Wilts, Miller..." Because Laycock was such a small village in the 1500's, and because I have been unable to find any other unconnected Bond families residing at Laycock during this time period, I cannot help but believe there is a connection between our Walter Bond, father of Edward, and the Walter Bond (Bonde) who wrote his will in 1573. The timing is right, the location is right, and the generational fit looks very good for there to be a relationship.

Although it would be great if there were additional information available, other than the 1573 will to support this line of descent, it can only be hoped at this time that future research will be able to verify this relationship. In light of all of the research I have carried out on this family, or until additional evidence can be found that convinces me otherwise, I have opted to include the Walter Bond (Bonde) who wrote his will on 12 March 1573 as being the earliest known progenitor of our Bond/Bonde/Band/Bande family in England and subsequently America.

DATES

For the most part, many conflicting dates were easily straightened out by simply rechecking the source material or official records. In some cases, however, marriage dates may vary from other published works because the researcher used the date of a marriage bond, or the date a marriage license was issued, instead of the actual marriage date. Even though some of the source material I used did not specify the origin of the marriage date given, I have tried to differentiate the marriage dates as accurately as possible. In a number of cases an approximate date of marriage, using the abbreviation "ca." for circa (about), is shown based upon information provided in various census documents.

Another dating problem involves the recording of marriage banns. A couple's intentions to marry, or banns of marriage, were generally proclaimed in church on three consecutive Sundays, and if no legal impediments precluded the couple from being married, their marriage would be sanctioned after the third proclamation. Unfortunately, the first or second proclamation will often be cited as the marriage date instead of the third. I must admit, however, that this is difficult to avoid in some cases because of missing or damaged records.

Death dates may also vary in that the date of burial, or the date a will was written or submitted for probate, will sometimes be cited by others instead of the actual death date. In those cases where I was unable to verify which of two dates was correct, I generally went with the one that referenced the most credible source material, or simply used the year only.

One of the most common dating conflicts involves the use of the Julian Calendar versus the Gregorian Calendar. On 14 September 1752, the Gregorian Calendar was adopted in both Great Britain and its colonies in North America, and the first day of the year then became January 1. Prior to that date, the Julian Calendar was in effect and the first day of the year was March 25. As a consequence, many dates found in the 1600's and first half of the 1700's for the months of January, February, and March reflect, or should reflect, a double date, such as 15 February 1735/1736. Even though both dates may be perfectly acceptable based upon the calendar that was in use at the time, to be consistent with current dating procedures the second date is most accurate.

When reading numerical Quaker dates from Meetings in the American colonies prior to 1752, it must be remembered that the calendar in use at that time by the Quakers was the Old Style, or Julian Calendar, which began the year in the month of March, not January. As a consequence, numerical dates found in most Quaker records can be interpreted as being two months off of our currently used New Style, or Gregorian Calendar, which was adopted in America in 1752. For example, a Quaker numerical date which may have been written as the 4th day, 6th month, 1734 should be interpreted as 4 August 1734 under our current calendar, not 4 June 1734.

LOCATIONS

With respect to the location at which an event took place, there were many cases when it was not possible to find any record giving the exact location that a birth, marriage or death took place. Because I feel quite strongly that dates should always be accompanied by places, if for no other reason than to aid future research, I made a number of assumptions regarding location based upon available information. For instance, if a family is found in the Fayette County, Indiana census records for 1840 and 1850, and they also show up in the deed and tax records of that county for the same period, I did not feel that it was unreasonable to assume that any children they had during this period were probably also born in Fayette County. In some cases, however, my comfort level with assuming a possible location was limited to a state only.

THE BOND SURNAME

The name Bond (also Bonde, Band, Bande, etc.) is recorded in most European countries, but is considered to be of Anglo-Scandinavian pre-7th century origin. It was at first a status surname for a peasant farmer or husbandman, the derivation being from either the Old Norse-Viking word "bonde," or the Olde English and Anglo-Saxon word "buan," both meaning to dwell. However spelt the original object was to describe a yeoman holding lands which were 'bound by loyalty' to the local lord. The first recorded spelling of the family name in England appears to have been that of Norman Le Bonde, which was found in the "Pipe Rolls of Warwickshire" under the date 1180.

ENGLAND AND THE UNITED STATES
GENERATION ONE

Although it has not been proven beyond all doubt, I believe Walter Bond (also written Bonde, Band, and Bande) to be the earliest progenitor of our Bond family to have been discovered to date. He was a resident of Laycock (or Lacock) in Wiltshire, England during the 1500's. His wife's name, as determined from his will, was Johan (also written Joan and Jone).¹ Unfortunately, neither Johan's maiden name, nor her parentage, are known at this time.

Although Walter Bond apparently died at Laycock in Wiltshire, England, the actual date of his death has not been determined. It is known, however, that he was a miller by trade, and that he was residing at Laycock in Wiltshire, England when he wrote his will on 12 March 1573/1574.^{1,2} In his will, he names his wife, Johan, his two sons, John and Thomas, and six grandsons.¹ No daughters were mentioned, however.¹

Known issue: (Surname Bond)

m. (unknown).
- 3. Thomas ----- b. probably in Wiltshire, Eng.¹
m. (unknown).

GENERATION TWO

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings are covered in this generation.

2. John Bond. *

John Bond (also written Bonde, Band, and Bande), the son of Walter and Johan Bond, was probably born in Wiltshire, England.¹ He was a resident of Laycock (Lacock) in Wiltshire during the 1500's. Although he is known to have married, neither the name of his wife, nor her parentage, have been determined.¹

The three known children of John Bond's were named in the last will and testament of his father, Walter Bond (Bonde).¹ This will had been written at Laycock, England on 12 March 1573/1574.^{1,2}

Known issue: (Surname Bond)

m. (unknown).
- 5. Richard ----- b. in Wiltshire, Eng.¹
- 6. William ----- b. in Wiltshire, Eng.¹

3. Thomas Bond.

Thomas Bond (also written Bonde, Band, and Bande), the son of Walter and Johan Bond, was probably born in Wiltshire, England.¹ He was a resident of Laycock (Lacock) in Wiltshire during the 1500's. Although Thomas is known to have married, neither the name of his wife, nor her parentage, have been determined.¹

The three known children of Thomas Bond's were named in the last will and testament of his father, Walter Bond (Bonde).¹ This will had been written at Laycock, England on 12 March 1573/1574.^{1,2}

Known issue: (Surname Bond)

- 7. William ----- b. in Wiltshire, Eng.¹

8. Thomas ----- b. in Wiltshire, Eng. ¹
m. unknown.
9. Richard ----- b. in Wiltshire, Eng. ¹

GENERATION THREE

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor is covered in this generation.

4. Walter Bond. *

Walter Bond (also written Bonde, Band, and Bande), the son of John Bond and his wife, whose name is not known, was born in Wiltshire England.¹ When his grandfather wrote his will, which was dated 12 March 1573/1574, he and his two brothers were given "a sheepe a peece."^{1,2} Based upon available Parish records, Walter was a resident of Laycock (or Lacock) in Wiltshire, England during the last half of the 1500's.³ Although his wife's name is not known, the following children have been identified through the Laycock Parish records as being his.³

GENERATION FOUR

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor is covered in this generation.

15. Edward Bond. *

Edward Bond (also written Bonde, Band, and Bande), the eldest surviving son of Walter Bond, was born in Wiltshire, England.³ He was subsequently christened in the parish church at Laycock in Wiltshire, England on 11 October 1580.³ Edward was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Alice Shewringe on 17 January 1607/1608 at Laycock in Wiltshire.^{2,3} Alice, who was the daughter of John and Margaret Shewringe (also written Shuringe), evidently died at Laycock, England in 1624, as she was buried there on 24 October 1624.³

After his first wife, Alice, passed away, Edward apparently married for a second time to a woman whose identity has yet to be determined, as Edward is known to have had additional children christened at Laycock between the years 1626 and 1631.³ Although no marriage record has been found, it is believed that Edward's second marriage took place in about 1625.^{3,4} Edward Bond, who is described in the Laycock Parish records as being "of ye Common," died at Laycock in Wiltshire, England in 1659.³ He was subsequently buried there on 19 February 1659.³

Issue from 1st marriage: (Surname Bond)

- 22. Anne ----- b. in Wiltshire, Eng.

GENERATION FIVE

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor is covered in this generation.

Edward Bond (also written Bonde, Band, and Bande), the son of Edward Bond and his second wife, whose name is unknown, was born in Wiltshire, England.³ He was subsequently christened at Laycock in Wiltshire on 26 February 1626/1627.^{2,3} Edward was later married on 25 November 1649 at Laycock to a woman named Mary Moore.³ Unfortunately, no additional information has been found concerning Mary, or her parentage.

Edward, who was a broad weaver by trade, died on 31 July 1687 at Laycock in Wiltshire.^{3,5} His will, which had been written on 27 July 1687, just four days prior to his death, was subsequently probated on 4 May 1688 before the Archdeaconry Court of Wiltshire.⁵ His daughter, Rebekah, was named Executrix.⁵ In his will, Edward mentioned his son, Benjamin, daughters Mary and Rebekah, his sister Mary and his brother George.⁵ This George Bond was married to Mary Paradise, and this Mary Paradise had a brother named John.^{3,6} Two of John Paradise's children later married children of our Edward Bond.⁶ Edward also mentioned a sister-in-law named Ann Bond in his will, but no information concerning her has been found to date.⁵ She may have been the wife of Edward's brother, Joseph, but this has yet to be verified.

Hobbs at the Slaughterford M.M. of Friends, Wiltshire, Eng. ⁷

GENERATION SIX

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor is covered in this generation.

33. Benjamin Bond. *

Benjamin Bond (also written Bonde, Band, and Bande), the son of Edward Bond and Mary Moore, was born in Wiltshire, England, and is known to have later been a resident of Bidestone near Chippenham in Wiltshire, England.⁸ Benjamin was later married on the 20th day, 2nd month, 1686 (20 April 1686) to a woman named Susannah "Ann" Paradise at the Slaughterford Monthly Meeting of Friends in Wiltshire, England.⁷ Ann, who was the daughter of John Paradise and his wife, Susannah, had been born on the 5th day, 12th month, 1666 (5 February 1667) at Slaughterford.⁷

Ann Paradise died in 1704 at Devizes in Wiltshire, just six days after the birth of her son, Joseph, possibly due to complications associated with childbirth.⁹ Ann was buried on the 12th day, 8th month, 1704 (12 October 1704).^{2,9}

Benjamin Bond and his family were Quakers, and the below letter, written by Benjamin, was found in the minutes of the Chester Monthly Meeting of Friends in Pennsylvania. It was written on behalf of his son, John Bond.⁸

"Unto ffriends in Pensilvania or Elsewhere in America, unto whose hand this may come. Greeting: "Whereas my son John Bond has an Intention to settle amongst you, These may Certifie that I do give my consent to it and hope he will adhear to the advice of honest ffriends where ever his Lott may be Cast, and Being well sattisfied that he is Clear from any Engagement with woman on the account of marriage I do Allow him to take a wife Amongst you when he shall see meet without my ffather's approbation: So with the Salutation of Endeared Love I Remain your well wishing ffriend and Brother in the unchangeable Truth."

It was signed: "BENJA. BOND. Bidestone near Chippenham, County Wilts, the 13th of the first mo., 1720-21."

 m. ca. 1739 to Martha Rogers in PA. ¹⁶
 d. ca. 1759/1760 in Rowan Co., NC. ¹⁶

GENERATION SEVEN

NOTE: Genealogical information pertaining to the two brothers, John and Joseph Bond, who emigrated to Pennsylvania from England in the 1700's, and their descendants, is presented in this generation and subsequent generations.

41. John Bond. *

John Bond, the son of Benjamin Bond and his wife, Susannah "Ann" Paradise, was born on the 21st day, 2nd month, 1701 (21 April 1701) at Bidestone in Wiltshire, England.^{2,7,10} As a young man, John, who was a Quaker, decided to emigrate to America, where he was subsequently received on the 25th day, 10th month, 1721 (25 December 1721) at the Chester Monthly Meeting of Friends in Pennsylvania with a certificate of endorsement from the Lavington Monthly Meeting of Friends in Wiltshire, England, and a letter from his father, Benjamin Bond.^{2,8,17}

John was later given a certificate by the Chester Monthly Meeting to join the Abington Monthly Meeting of Friends in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on the 26th day, 9th month, 1722 (26 November 1722).^{2,17} He was subsequently received at Abington on the 28th day, 11th month, 1722 (28 January 1722).^{2,14} John Bond was married at the Abington Meeting to a woman named Sarah Cadwalader.¹⁷ Their intentions to marry (Banns) were later declared for a second time at the Abington Monthly Meeting on the 22nd day, 12th month, 1724 (22 February 1725), and on the 29th day, 1st month, 1725 (29 March 1725) their marriage was reported orderly.^{2,14} Sarah, who had been born in 1702 in that part of Philadelphia County which later became Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, was the daughter of John Cadwalader (also written Cadwallader) and Mary Cassel.^{18,25}

On the 21st day, 8th month, 1731 (21 October 1731), John was granted a certificate by the Abington Monthly Meeting to "visit his friends in Old England."^{2,17} John later returned to Abington on the 28th day, 6th month, 1732 (28 August 1732) with a certificate from the Chippenham Monthly Meeting in Wiltshire, England.^{2,17} Sometime later, John and Sarah became united with the Richland Monthly Meeting located in Bucks County, Pennsylvania.¹⁹ This Meeting had been established in 1742, and it is in the minutes of this Meeting that the birth dates of all but one of John and Sarah's children are found registered.¹⁹ John and Sarah must have later rejoined the Byberry Monthly Meeting in Philadelphia County, however, as John was an Elder of the Byberry Meeting at the time of his death in 1747.¹⁵ Sarah, on the other hand, died in Pennsylvania in 1756.¹⁵

 d. 12 July 1823 in Bedford Co., VA. ²⁸

42. Joseph Bond.

Joseph Bond, the youngest son of Benjamin Bond and his wife, Susanna "Ann" Paradise, was born on the 6th day, 8th month, 1704 (6 October 1704) at Devizes in Wiltshire, England. ^{2,7,10,16} Joseph later emigrated to America, where he is known to have settled for a time in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. ¹⁶ He was later married to a woman named Martha Rogers. ¹⁶ Although no record of Joseph's marriage has been found, it is believed to have taken place in about 1739 in Pennsylvania. ^{16,29,30}

Joseph and Martha eventually left Pennsylvania and moved to North Carolina, where they settled in Rowan County. ¹⁶ Although Joseph appears to have died in about 1759/1760 in Rowan County, the date and place of Martha's death have not been determined. ¹⁶

GENERATION EIGHT

NOTE: Only those descendants of John and Joseph Bond who carry the Bond surname are covered in this generation.

43. Benjamin Bond.

Benjamin Bond, the eldest son of John Bond and his wife, Sarah Cadwalader, was born on the 17th day, 3rd month, 1726 (17 May 1726) in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania.^{2,19} He was later married at Christ's Church in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania to a woman named Rosanna Miller on 13 October 1755.²⁰

Several years after their marriage, Benjamin and Rosanna became members of the Goshen Monthly Meeting of Friends in Chester County, Pennsylvania.^{17,38} However, they were later endorsed by the Goshen Monthly Meeting to join the Chester Monthly Meeting of Friends, also in Chester County, Pennsylvania, where they were subsequently received into membership on 30 June 1788.^{17,377} (NOTE: The Chester Monthly Meeting was situated at Chester in that portion of Chester County, that was later formed into Delaware County, Pennsylvania in 1789).^{17,25,38}

Benjamin and Rosanna were later found in both the 1790 federal census, and the 1793 Septennial Census of Delaware County, Pennsylvania residing in Chester Township.^{39,40} Benjamin, who was a weaver by trade, died in Delaware County, Pennsylvania in 1798.^{21,40} His will, which had been written on 16 November 1792, was later probated in Delaware County on 16 May 1798.²¹ The children listed below were specifically referred to by Benjamin as "my three children."²¹

According to the tax records of Chester in Delaware County, Pennsylvania, Rosanna was assessed in 1808 through 1810 for a dwelling house, 40 acres and a cow.⁴¹

44. John Bond.

John Bond, the son of John Bond and Sarah Cadwalader, was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on the 7th day, 5th month, 1727 (7 July 1727).^{2,19} He subsequently died on the 4th day, 10th month, 1731 (4 December 1731) in Philadelphia County at the age of four.^{2,19}

45. Joseph Bond.

Joseph Bond, the son of John Bond and his wife, Sarah Cadwalader, had been born on the 12th day, 9th month, 1729 (12 November 1729) in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania.^{2,19} No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

46. Abraham Bond.

Abraham Bond, the son of John Bond and his wife, Sarah Cadwalader, was born on the 21st day, 5th month, 1731 (21 July 1731) in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. He was later married in Pennsylvania to a woman named Elizabeth.^{16,42} And, even though it has not been proven beyond all doubt, her full name is believed by most to be Elizabeth Cadwalader (also written Cadwallader).^{16,42}

After their marriage, Abraham and Elizabeth are believed to have resided in the vicinity of Horsham in that portion of Philadelphia County that was later formed into Montgomery County, Pennsylvania in 1784.^{25,42} Although both Abraham and Elizabeth are believed to have died in Pennsylvania, the actual dates and places of their deaths have not been determined. The children listed below, as well as their respective dates of birth, were taken from Abraham Bond's bible, which he purchased in 1765.⁴²

Rebecca Bond, the daughter of John Bond and his wife, Sarah Cadwalader, was born on the 31st day, 3rd month, 1733 (31 May 1733) in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. ^{2,19} No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

48. John Bond II.

John Bond, the son of John Bond and Sarah Cadwalader, was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on the 14th day, 2nd month, 1735 (14 April 1735). ^{2,19} He was later married in Pennsylvania to a woman named Margaret Allen by a marriage license which had been issued on 2 August 1758. ²² Margaret, who had been born in about 1734 in Pennsylvania, was the daughter of Reuben and Mary Allen. ⁴⁵

John and Margaret, who were members of the Abington Monthly Meeting of Friends at Jenkintown in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania (now within Montgomery Co., PA.), were granted certificates from that Meeting to join the Hopewell Monthly Meeting of Friends in Frederick County, Virginia.^{14,46} Although Margaret and the children were given a certificate on 27 April 1772, John's certificate was not granted until 30 November 1778.^{14,46} Margaret and the children were subsequently received at the Hopewell Monthly Meeting on 2 January 1775, while John was received there four years later on 1 February 1779.^{14,46}

Even though their membership was with the Hopewell Monthly Meeting in Frederick County, John and Margaret actually settled at Smith's Creek in Shenandoah County, Virginia.⁴⁶ Shortly after joining the Hopewell Monthly Meeting, however, John and his family became united with the Crooked Run Monthly Meeting, which had been established in the Shenandoah Valley as an offshoot of Hopewell Meeting, and was located closer to Smith's Creek and other Friends.^{23,47}

John, who had been recommended as a Minister on 31 August 1782, died in Shenandoah County, Virginia on 19 November 1787.^{23,47}

49. Hannah Bond.

Hannah Bond, the daughter of John Bond and his wife, Sarah Cadwalader, was born on the 6th day, 9th month, 1736 (6 November 1736) in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. ^{2,19} No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

Edward Bond, the son of John Bond and his wife Sarah Cadwalader, was born on the 4th day, 9th month, 1738 (4 November 1738) in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. ^{2,19} He was later married on 7 June 1765 at the Horsham Monthly Meeting of Friends in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania (now within Montgomery County, Pennsylvania) to a woman named Mary Fox. ^{16,24,25}

After their marriage, Edward and Mary resided in Horsham Township north of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania for a number of years, and it was there that seven of their children were born. ⁵¹ Although Edward's occupation was listed as being that of a cordwainer, or shoe maker, he was also a farmer. ⁵¹ Edward and Mary were eventually received into membership at the Abington Monthly Meeting of Friends at Jenkintown in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania (now within Montgomery County, Pennsylvania) where they remained as members until early 1779. ^{14,46}

On 28 December 1778, Edward and Mary, along with their seven children, received a certificate from the Abington Monthly Meeting to join the Hopewell Monthly Meeting of Friends in Frederick County, Virginia, where they were received at the Hopewell Meeting on 3 May 1779. ^{14,46} Even though their membership was with the Hopewell Monthly Meeting in Frederick County, Edward and Mary actually settled at Smith's Creek in an area that had recently become part of present day Shenandoah County, Virginia. ^{25,46}

Shortly after joining the Hopewell Meeting, Edward and his family became united with the Crooked Run Monthly Meeting which had been established in the Shenandoah Valley as an offshoot of Hopewell Meeting, and was located closer to Smith's Creek and other Friends.^{23,47} In the minutes of this Meeting were found references to three of their children having been married at the Smith's Creek Meeting House in Shenandoah County.²³

On 4 July 1789, Edward and Mary, along with four of their children, were endorsed by Crooked Run to join the South River Monthly Meeting of Friends in Bedford County, Virginia.^{23,46} They were subsequently received into membership at the South River Meeting on 21 November 1789.²⁸ Three of their other children were received at a later date.²⁸ Approximately eight years later, on 4 November 1797, Edward and Mary were next united with the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting, also in Bedford County.⁵² However, they were soon granted another certificate by the Goose Creek Meeting to join the Westfield Monthly Meeting located in Surry County, North Carolina, where they were subsequently received on 24 March 1798.^{52,53}

Even though Edward and Mary were received by the Westfield Meeting in Surry County, North Carolina, they appear to have actually settled across the border in Grayson County, Virginia, where they later became associated with the Mount Pleasant Monthly Meeting which had been established in 1801.^{53,54} Edward and Mary were next given a certificate on 28 November 1812 to join the Fairfield Monthly Meeting of Friends located near Leesburg in Highland County, Ohio.⁵⁵ After arriving in Ohio, references pertaining to Edward and Mary are found in the minutes of several monthly meetings. A few of these are shown below.

51. Mary Bond.

Mary Bond, the daughter of John Bond and his wife, Sarah Cadwalader, was born on the 8th day of the 7th month, 1741 (8 September 1741) in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. ^{2,19} No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

52. Isaac Bond.

Isaac Bond, the son of John Bond and Sarah Cadwalader, is believed to have been born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. Because he was not listed with John and Sarah's other children in the records of the Richland Monthly Meeting of Friends in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, it is assumed that he was probably born at about the time John and Sarah joined the Byberry Monthly Meeting of Friends in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania. ¹⁹

Isaac was apparently married twice during his life. He married first at the Abington Monthly Meeting of Friends to a woman named Jane Williams on 12 May 1769.¹⁴ After residing in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania for a little more than ten years after their marriage, on 28 February 1780, Isaac and Jane were given a certificate from the Abington Meeting to join the Hopewell Monthly Meeting of Friends in Frederick County, Virginia, where they were received on 1 January 1781.^{14,46} Even though their membership was with the Hopewell Monthly Meeting in Frederick County, Isaac and Jane actually settled at Smith's Creek in Shenandoah County, Virginia, where two of his brothers had also settled.⁴⁶ Shortly after joining the Hopewell Meeting, however, Isaac and his family became united with the Crooked Run Monthly Meeting which had been established in the Shenandoah Valley as an offshoot of Hopewell Meeting, and was located closer to Smith's Creek and other Friends.^{23,47} Jane, who was the mother of two children by Isaac, apparently died in Shenandoah County, Virginia in about 1786/1787, as Isaac is found marrying for a second time in 1787.²³

After his first wife passed away, Isaac married for a second time to a woman named Lydia Allen on 14 June 1787 at the Smith's Creek Meeting House in Shenandoah County.²³ Lydia, who had been born on 17 October 1762 in Frederick County, Virginia, was the daughter of Jackson Allen and Betty Davis.⁴⁵ After residing in Shenandoah County for approximately fourteen years, on 4 April 1801, Isaac and Lydia were given a certificate from the Crooked Run Monthly Meeting to join the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends in Bedford County, Virginia, where they were received on 6 June 1801.^{23,28} Isaac subsequently died on 12 July 1823 in Bedford County, Virginia.²⁸

53. Edward Bond.

Edward Bond, the son of Joseph Bond and Martha Rogers, was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania on 26 September 1740. ^{16,30} As a young man, Edward moved with his parents to North Carolina, where he was received into membership at the New Garden Monthly Meeting of Friends in Rowan County (now within Guilford County, North Carolina) on 28 April 1759. ³¹ He was later married at the New Garden Monthly Meeting of Friends on 16 August 1764 to a woman named Elizabeth Ann Mills. ^{16,25,31} Elizabeth, who generally went by her middle name of Ann, had been born in Frederick County, Virginia on 7 May 1745. ³⁰ She was the daughter of John Mills and Sarah Bowater Beals (also written Beales). ³⁰

Although Edward and Ann resided in North Carolina for many years after their marriage, in 1809 Edward went to visit his sons, William and Jesse, who had settled in the Whitewater country of the Indiana Territory sometime earlier. ¹⁶ During the following year, Edward and Ann, along with their son Joseph and his family, left North Carolina on 18 September 1810, and arrived in the Whitewater country of the Indiana Territory on 27 October 1810. ¹⁶ Upon arriving in the Indiana Territory, they settled in that portion of Clark County that was later formed into Wayne County in 1811. ^{16,25}

Edward subsequently died on 6 May 1821 at Middleboro in Wayne County, Indiana, while Ann died there on 3 April 1826. ^{16,30} Edward and Ann were both buried in the Goshen Cemetery at Richmond in Wayne County, Indiana. ³⁰

54. Benjamin Bond.

Benjamin Bond, the son of Joseph Bond and Martha Rogers, was born in about 1742 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. ¹⁶ He was later married to a woman named Mary Walton on 17 April 1778 at the Horsham Monthly Meeting of Friends in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania (now within Montgomery County, Pennsylvania). ^{14,16,24,25} Mary, who was also a native of Pennsylvania, was the daughter of Thomas and Mary Walton. ^{14,16,24}

Benjamin died during the month of August 1826 in York County, Pennsylvania. ¹⁶ Sometime after Benjamin passed away, Mary and several of their children apparently moved to Wayne County, Indiana, where she died on 7 August 1845. ¹⁶

55. Ruth Bond.

Ruth Bond, the daughter of Joseph Bond and Martha Rogers, was born in about 1744/1745 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. ¹⁶ She was later married to a widower named Benjamin Walton in Pennsylvania. ¹⁶ Benjamin, who had previously been married to a woman named Hannah, apparently had one son by her who was named Abraham and who was born in about 1761. ^{16,74} Benjamin Walton was the son of Isaak Walton and Alice Davis, and is believed to have been born in about 1740 in Pennsylvania. ⁷⁴

Benjamin and Ruth, who were Quakers, were members of the Richland Monthly Meeting of Friends in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. ¹⁹ On 16 August 1787, however, shortly after the birth of their last child, Martha, Benjamin and Ruth and their nine children were given a certificate by the Richland Monthly Meeting to Join the Westland Monthly Meeting of Friends in Washington County, Pennsylvania, where they were received on 24 November 1787. ^{19,75} Abraham, the son of Benjamin from his first marriage, was the ninth child named in the certificate. ⁷⁵ The Westland Monthly Meeting had become operational on 12 November 1785. ⁷⁵ Ruth subsequently died on 2 June 1805 in Washington County, Pennsylvania. ¹⁶

After Ruth passed away, Benjamin was given a certificate by the Westland Monthly Meeting on 28 September 1805 to join the Middleton Monthly Meeting of Friends in Columbiana County, Ohio. ⁷⁵ Benjamin later died on 1 September 1817 at Middleton in Columbiana County, Ohio. ⁷⁴ His will, which was dated 16 May 1811, was later probated on 21 November 1817. ⁷⁶ In his will, Benjamin mentions his son, Abraham, from his first marriage, and sons John, David and Gabriel, and daughters, Martha, Mary and Bathsheba from his second marriage to Ruth Bond. ⁷⁶ Because the two sons, Amos and Joseph Walton, were not mentioned in Benjamin's will, it is believed that they probably died at a young age. ⁷⁶

Stephen Bond, the son of Joseph Bond and Martha Rogers, was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. ¹⁶ He was later married in about 1771 in North Carolina to a woman named Maiden. ^{31,32} Unfortunately, neither Maiden's maiden name, nor her parentage, are known.

On 25 November 1775, Stephen and Maiden were received by request into membership at the New Garden Monthly Meeting of Friends in Guilford County, North Carolina. ³¹ It is believed that Stephen and Maiden remained with the New Garden Meeting until they became associated with the Westfield Monthly Meeting of Friends, which had been established in 1786 in Surry County, North Carolina. ⁵³

On 19 April 1788, Stephen and his family were given a certificate from the Westfield Monthly Meeting to join the Deep River Monthly Meeting of Friends in Guilford County, North Carolina, where they were received on 1 March 1790. ^{53,64}

Sometime later they apparently became associated with the Deep Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends in Surry County, North Carolina, as they were given a certificate by that Meeting on 1 March 1794 to rejoin the Westfield Monthly Meeting, where they were received on 22 March 1794. ^{53,66}

Stephen and Maiden, however, eventually settled in Virginia, where they were last found on the 1820 census enumeration residing in Montgomery County. ³³

John Bond, the son of Joseph Bond and Martha Rogers, was born in Rowan County, North Carolina on 30 May 1755. ¹⁶ John was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Jane Beeson on 28 January 1778 at the Center Monthly Meeting of Friends in Guilford County, North Carolina. ³⁵ Jane, who had been born on 22 March 1760 in Rowan County, North Carolina, was the daughter of Benjamin Beeson and Elizabeth Hunter who had been married at the Hopewell Monthly Meeting of Friends in Frederick County, Virginia on 14 June 1738. ^{31,36,46} Jane died on 9 January 1792 in Guilford County, North Carolina, just two days after the birth of her ninth child, Jane Bond. ³⁵

After his first wife passed away, John married for a second time, also in North Carolina, to a woman named Elizabeth Beeson. ^{36,37} Elizabeth, who had been born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 18 November 1771, is believed to have been a cousin of his first wife, Jane. ³⁵ She was the daughter of William Beeson and Elizabeth Norton who had been married on 10 January 1770 at the New Garden Monthly Meeting of Friends in Guilford County, North Carolina. ^{31,35}

According to the records of the Center Monthly Meeting in Guilford County, North Carolina, on 17 October 1795, John and sons, Joseph, Benjamin, Joel, Isaac, and William were given a certificate from that Meeting to join the New Hope Monthly Meeting of Friends in Greene County, Tennessee, where they were subsequently received on 28 November 1795. ^{35,92,336} However, John was not only dismissed by the Quakers prior to the date this certificate was granted, he had already died in Knox County, Tennessee and his will had been probated prior to this date. ^{37,64,92} John's will, which had been written on 17 June 1795, was probated before the Knox County Court during the September 1795 term. ³⁷ Whatever became of John's second wife is not known.

GENERATION NINE

NOTE: Only those descendants of John and Joseph Bond who carry the Bond surname are covered in this generation.

Abraham Bond, the son of Benjamin Bond and his wife Rosanna Miller, was born in Pennsylvania.^{16,21} Abraham, along with his brother, Amos, and sister, Elizabeth, was one of the three children who were mentioned in their father's will, which had been written on 16 November 1792, and probated on 16 May 1798.²¹ He was later married in Pennsylvania to a woman named Elizabeth.¹⁶ Unfortunately, neither Elizabeth's maiden name, nor her parentage, are known at this time.

Although the 1790 federal census of Delaware County, Pennsylvania shows, Abraham and Elizabeth residing in Lower Providence Township, the 1793 Septennial Census of Delaware County, Pennsylvania, indicates that Abraham was residing in Chester Township, and was a weaver by trade.^{39,40} Abraham was apparently also a farmer, as the Nether Providence Township tax records indicate that Abraham Bond paid tax on 80 acres of land and two horses in 1792.¹⁰¹

NOTE: The range of years within which the male children of Abraham and Elizabeth were born were abstracted from the 1790 federal census of Delaware County, Pennsylvania.³⁹ The actual order of birth of the below listed children is not known.

61. Amos Bond.

Amos Bond, the son of Benjamin Bond and his wife, Rosanna Miller, was born in Pennsylvania. ^{16,21} Amos, along with his brother, Abraham, and sister, Elizabeth, was one of the three children who were mentioned in their father's will, which had been written on 16 November 1792, and probated on 16 May 1798. ²¹ Amos was later married to a woman named Rachel in Newcastle County, Delaware. ¹⁶

Although Samuel Bond Garrett in his book "A History of the Descendants of Joseph Bond ..." states that Amos and Rachel had one son in 1793 named Isaac, the 1800 and 1810 censuses of Delaware County show an Amos Bond who eventually had eight children, five sons and three daughters. ^{16,104,105} However, because it is not known at this time whether or not this is the Amos Bond who was the son of Benjamin and Rosanna, and because the identities of these children have not been determined, except for Isaac, no additional information will be presented regarding them.

Elizabeth Bond, the daughter of Benjamin Bond and Rosanna Miller, was born in Pennsylvania. ^{16,21} Elizabeth, along with her two brother's, Abraham and Amos, was one of the three children who were mentioned in their father's will, which had been written on 16 November 1792, and probated on 16 May 1798. ²¹ Elizabeth was later married in Pennsylvania to a man named Adam Barton. ^{16,21}

According to the 1792 tax records for Chester Township in Delaware County, Providence, Adam Barton paid tax on 69 acres of land, 1 horse, and 3 cows. ¹⁰⁶ No additional information has been found concerning this couple.

John Bond, the son of Abraham Bond and Elizabeth Cadwalader, was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on 2 March 1755.⁴² No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

Sarah Bond, the daughter of Abraham Bond and Elizabeth Cadwalader, was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on 23 January 1757.⁴² She was later married in the First Baptist Church at Philadelphia in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania to a man named Clement Dungan on 4 August 1773.^{43,44} Clement, who was a Medical Doctor by profession, had been born in about 1746.⁴⁴ He was the son of Clement Dungan and Eleanor Craven.⁴⁴

Clement Dungan subsequently died in Pennsylvania on 29 January 1778. After her first husband passed away, Sarah married in Pennsylvania for a second time to a man named Joseph Tompkins on 2 November 1781.⁴⁴ Sarah died in Pennsylvania on 28 October 1784 due to complications associated with the birth of her son, John Tompkins.⁴⁴ Information pertaining to this family came from the bible of Abraham Bond, Sarah's father.⁴²

65. Levi Bond.

Levi Bond, the son of Abraham Bond and Elizabeth Cadwalader, was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on 13 March 1759.⁴² He was later married in Pennsylvania to a woman named Hannah Merrick.⁴² Hannah, who was the daughter of Robert and Jane Merrick, had been born on 24 October 1756.^{42,107}

After their marriage, Levi and Hannah settled in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives. While residing in Bucks County, Levi, who was a carpenter and cabinet maker by trade, was instrumental in the construction of the Bucks County courthouse and jail at Doylestown.¹⁰⁸ These facilities were completed in May 1813.¹⁰⁸ Several years later, on 13 May 1816, Levi Bond was appointed by Gov. Simon Snyder to be the Justice of the Peace for District Five.¹⁰⁸

Hannah died on 5 November 1829, and based upon the fact that Levi and Hannah were both shown on the 1820 census of Bucks County, Pennsylvania residing at Newton, but only Levi was found residing there on the 1830 census, Hannah is believed to have died at Newton.^{42,109,110} Levi, who died on 27 April 1839, is also believed to have died at Newton in Bucks County, Pennsylvania.⁴² Some of the information presented below came from the bible of Abraham Bond, Levi's father.⁴²

NOTE: The offspring listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from available pre-1850 census enumerations. These are all believed to be Levi and Hannah's children, but have yet to be positively identified. The 1790 census of Bucks County, Pennsylvania shows males 2 over 16, 2 under 16 - females 4 (one male over 16 and one of the females are believed to be Levi's parents). The 1800 census of Milford in Bucks County, Pennsylvania shows males 1211 - females 1101. The 1810 census of Newton in Bucks County, Pennsylvania shows males 11311 - females 21201.^{111,112,113}

Although the 1790 through 1810 census enumerations suggest that Levi and Hannah may have had as many as eleven children, these censuses do not match up well in a few instances.^{111,112,113} The eight children named below were abstracted from "Genealogical Notes Relating to the Families of Lloyd, Pemberton, Hutchinson, Hudson and Parke and to Others Connected Directly or Remotely With Them."¹⁰⁷ Even though Levi and Hannah may have had additional children, their identities require additional research. The exact order of birth of the children listed below is not known.

Allen Bond, the eldest son of John Bond, II and Margaret Allen, was born in about 1760 in Pennsylvania.^{45,46} He was later married on 14 December 1786 to a woman named Sarah Dobbins at the Smith's Creek Friends Meeting House in Shenandoah County, Virginia.^{23,47} Sarah was the daughter of Griffith Dobbins.²³

On 2 May 1789, Allen and Sarah were given a certificate by the Crooked Run Monthly Meeting at Ninevah, Virginia (now within Warren County, Virginia) to Join the South River Monthly Meeting in Bedford County, Virginia, where they were later received on 18 August 1792.^{23,28} Approximately two years later, in 1794, the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends was established as an offshoot of South River Meeting, and it is in the records of that Meeting that reference to Allen and Sarah Bond was subsequently found.⁵²

On 4 April 1805, Allen and Sarah received a certificate from the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting to join the Concord Monthly Meeting of Friends in Belmont County, Ohio.^{52,115} Allen and Sarah were subsequently received into membership in the Concord Monthly Meeting of Friends on 23 July 1805.¹¹⁵ Allen died in Belmont County, Ohio in 1841.⁴⁵

Hannah Bond, the daughter of John Bond, II and Margaret Allen, was born in Pennsylvania. ^{45,46} She was later married on 9 August 1801 to a man named John O'Neal in Shenandoah County, Virginia. ⁴⁸ John was a widower at the time of his marriage to Hannah, having previously been married on 8 December 1785 to a woman named Rebecca Rambo in Shenandoah County, Virginia. ⁴⁷ He was the son of Robert O'Neal. ⁴⁷

According to the records of the Hopewell Monthly Meeting, John O'Neal was dismissed from the Quaker Church on 7 December 1807 for "disunity and neglecting attendance." ⁴⁶ Approximately eleven years later, on 5 October 1818, Hannah and their three children were given a certificate by the Hopewell Meeting to join the Plainfield Monthly Meeting of Friends in Belmont County, Ohio. ^{46,116} Although they were received by the Plainfield Monthly Meeting, they were soon endorsed back to Hopewell Meeting on 21 January 1819. ¹¹⁶

John Bond, the son of John Bond, II and Margaret Allen, was born in Shenandoah County, Virginia on 20 December 1775. ⁴⁶ John was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Rachel Lupton on 1 October 1800 at the Ridge Meeting House in Frederick County, Virginia. ^{46,47} Rachel, who had been born on 6 March 1775 in Frederick County, was the daughter of Samuel Lupton and Sarah Smith. ^{45,46} She died in Frederick County, Virginia on 11 January 1833. ⁴⁶

After his first wife passed away, John married for a second time to a woman named Lydia McClun on 14 October 1840 at the Upper Ridge Meeting House in Frederick County, Virginia. ⁴⁶ Lydia, who had been born on 13 May 1775, was the daughter of Thomas and Hannah McClun. ⁴⁶ She died on 25 May 1848 in Frederick County, Virginia. ⁴⁶ There were no issue from John's second marriage to Lydia. John, on the other hand, died in Frederick County, Virginia on 24 May 1854. ⁴⁶ John and both of his wives were subsequently buried in the Upper Ridge Cemetery at Nain in Frederick County. ⁵⁰

79. Susannah Bond.

Susannah Bond, the eldest child of Edward Bond and Mary Fox, was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on 27 March 1766.¹⁶ As a young girl, Susannah accompanied her parents on their move to Virginia, where they settled in what is today Shenandoah County. She was later married on 14 December 1784 at the Smith's Creek Meeting House in Shenandoah County, Virginia to a man named Joseph Allen.^{23,47} Joseph, who was the son of Joseph Allen and Ruth White, had been born near Mt. Jackson in Frederick County, Virginia (now within Shenandoah County, Virginia) on 27 April 1754.^{45,47,52,122}

Although Susannah and Joseph remained in Shenandoah County, Virginia for many years after their marriage, they eventually moved north into Ohio.^{52,122} Even though it is not known when Joseph and Susannah actually moved there, they were definitely residing in Greene County, Ohio by 1834, as Joseph is found purchasing two five acre tracts of land there during that year, one from Reese Bab, and another from Elizabeth Bab.¹²³ Their three known children, however, had previously received certificates on 4 November 1813 from the Hopewell Monthly Meeting in Frederick County, Virginia to join the Caesar's Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends in Clinton County, Ohio, where they were received on 28 May 1814.^{46,56}

Joseph died in Greene County, Ohio on 2 March 1849.^{52,122} He was subsequently buried in the Caesar Creek Cemetery at Waynesville in Warren County, Ohio.¹²² Although Susannah it is believed that Susannah also died in Ohio, the actual date of her death is not known, nor is her place of burial.

Sarah Bond, the daughter of Edward Bond and Mary Fox, was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on 5 October 1767. ^{16,58} As a young girl, Sarah accompanied her parents on their move to Virginia, where they settled in what is today Shenandoah County. She was later married at the Smith's Creek Meeting House in Shenandoah County to a man named Jackson Allen on 10 April 1788. ^{23,47} Jackson, who had been born on 10 October 1764 near Mount Jackson in Frederick County, Virginia (now Shenandoah County, Virginia), was the son of Joseph Allen and Ruth White. ^{45,47,58}

On 31 May 1794, Jackson and Sarah, along with their children, were given a certificate from the Crooked Run Monthly Meeting to move to the South River Monthly Meeting of Friends in Bedford County, Virginia, where Sarah's parents had settled sometime earlier. ^{23,28} According to the records of the South River Meeting, however, Jackson and his family were received there on 11 March 1797, "but they have returned from whence they came." ²⁸ In 1802, Jackson's father deeded 100 acres of land to him in Shenandoah County. ¹²⁴ These lands were subsequently sold in 1807 to Samuel Walton, however. ¹²⁵

On 9 May 1811, Jackson and Sarah, along with ten of their children, were endorsed by the Hopewell Monthly Meeting in Virginia to join the Miami Monthly Meeting in Ohio, where they were received on 29 May 1811, and subsequently endorsed to join the Caesar's Creek Monthly Meeting, which was located just over the Greene County line in Clinton County, Ohio. ^{46,56,82} Their eldest daughter, Ruth, received a certificate in her own name the same day from Hopewell, and was also endorsed to Join the Caesar's Creek Monthly Meeting after arriving in Ohio. ^{46,56,82} Apparently their eldest son, Edward, had traveled to Ohio prior to the rest of the family moving there, as he was married in Greene County, Ohio in 1810, a year before the rest of the family were endorsed. ⁷⁹

Although Jackson and Sarah originally settled in Greene County, Ohio, they eventually moved to Clark County, Ohio, where Jackson was listed in 1826 as being one of the original members of the Green Plain Monthly Meeting (Orthodox). ²⁶ It appears that Jackson and Sarah remained in Ohio for over thirty years before they moved west into Parke County, Indiana to be near their son, Solomon, and daughter, Mary. ^{26,45} This last move evidently took place in 1842, as they were given a certificate by the Green Plain Monthly Meeting on 14 September 1842 to join the Bloomfield-Bloomington Monthly Meeting of Friends in Parke County. ^{26,127} The death date for Jackson was reported in the Records of the Bloomfield-Bloomington Meeting. ¹²⁷

Jackson Allen died on 18 June 1846 in Parke County, Indiana, while Sarah died there on 9 May 1851. ⁵⁸ Jackson's will, which was dated 5 May 1846, was subsequently probated on 14 July 1846 in Parke County, Indiana. ¹²⁸ Jackson and Sarah were both buried in the Coloma Friend's Cemetery (also known as Rocky Run-Coloma Friends Cemetery) in Parke County, Indiana. ⁵⁸

Mary Bond, the daughter of Edward Bond and Mary Fox, was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on 22 August 1769.¹⁶ She was later married at the South River Monthly Meeting of Friends in Bedford County, Virginia to a man named Daniel "Mountain Dan" McPherson on 20 June 1793.²⁸

This was Daniel's second marriage, having previously been married to a woman named Elizabeth Lemert on 22 March 1783 in Virginia.¹⁴¹ Daniel and Elizabeth McPherson were the parents of four daughters whose names and dates of birth were recorded in the records of the South River Monthly Meeting.²⁸ They are: Mary "Polly" (b. 20 October 1783), Ann (b. 27 June 1786), Sarah (b. 29 July 1789), and Elizabeth Ellen (b. 10 March 1792).²⁸ Daniel, who had been born in either Virginia or Pennsylvania on 25 December 1758, was the son of Stephen McPherson and Mary Pyle.¹⁴¹

Shortly after their marriage, Mary and Daniel joined the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends, also in Bedford County, which had been formed in 1794 as an offshoot of the South River Meeting.⁵² On 4 June 1803, Mary and Daniel were given a certificate from the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting to join the Mount Pleasant Monthly Meeting of Friends in Grayson County, Virginia, where they were received on 30 July 1803.^{52,54} Although Daniel and Mary remained with this Meeting for approximately eleven years, on 27 August 1814 they, and all of their children, were given a certificate by the Mount Pleasant Meeting to join the Fairfield Monthly Meeting of Friends near Leesburg in Highland County, Ohio.^{54,55} They were subsequently received there on 26 November 1814.⁵⁵

Daniel died in Highland County, Ohio on 3 March 1832.⁵⁵ He was subsequently buried in the Antioch Cemetery at Highland in Highland County, Ohio.¹⁴² Mary, on the other hand, died in Highland County on 8 December 1853, and was buried in the Fairfield Quaker Cemetery at Leesburg in Highland County, Ohio.^{55,59}

Benjamin Bond, the son of Edward Bond and Mary Fox, was born in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on 26 May 1771. ^{16,60} Benjamin, who was a member of the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends in Bedford County, Virginia, was later married 4 September 1794 at the Smith's Creek Meeting House in Shenandoah County, Virginia to a woman named Susannah Allen. ^{23,47} Susannah, who had been born in 1775 in Dunmore County, Virginia (now Shenandoah County), Virginia, was the daughter of Joseph Allen and Ruth White. ^{25,45,60}

On 5 November 1794, Susannah received a certificate from the Crooked Run Monthly Meeting to join the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting in Bedford County, Virginia, where she was received on 4 April 1795. ^{23,52} On 4 February 1797, Benjamin and Susannah were given a certificate from the Goose Creek Monthly Meeting to join the Westfield Monthly Meeting of Friends in Surry County, North Carolina. ^{52,53} Because Benjamin and his family actually settled just over the border in Grayson County, Virginia, they soon became members of the Mount Pleasant Monthly Meeting of Friends, also located in Grayson County, Virginia, which had been established in 1801. ⁵⁴

On 26 August 1809, however, they received a certificate from the Mount Pleasant Meeting to join the Miami Monthly Meeting of Friends in Warren County, Ohio. ^{54,82} Upon arriving in Ohio, Benjamin and his family settled in Ross Township in Greene County, Ohio. ¹⁵¹ Because of where they were residing, they were further endorsed to join the Caesar's Creek Monthly Meeting in Clinton County, Ohio, where they were received on 25 August 1810. ^{56,82} However, when the Green Plain Monthly Meeting in Clark County, Ohio was established on 22 September 1821 as an offshoot of the Caesar's Creek Meeting, Benjamin Bond was listed as a charter member of that Meeting. ²⁶

By 1836, Benjamin and Susannah had left Ohio and moved to the state of Indiana, where they settled on a farm in Washington Township in Grant County.⁴⁵ Susannah later died in Grant County, Indiana on 19 September 1855, while Benjamin died there on 31 December 1857.⁶⁰ Both Benjamin and Susannah were subsequently buried in the Bocock-Hobaugh Cemetery at Marion in Grant County, Indiana.⁶⁰

On 3 April 1802, Alice and William were given a certificate by the Goose Creek Meeting to join the Westland Monthly Meeting of Friends in Washington County, Pennsylvania, where they were received on 26 February 1803. ^{52,75} Although they were shown to have been admitted into membership at the Westland Meeting, they apparently moved shortly thereafter to Columbiana County, Ohio, where they joined the Salem Monthly Meeting. ^{75,156}

Alice died in Columbiana County, Ohio on 2 April 1809. ¹⁵⁶ After Alice passed away, William married for a second time to a woman named Mary. ¹⁵⁶ William died in Columbiana County on 10 November 1835. ¹⁵⁶

William Bond, the son of Edward Bond and Elizabeth Ann Mills, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 16 November 1771.³¹ He was later married to a woman named Charlotte Hough (also written Huff) at the Deep River Monthly Meeting of Friend's in Guilford County, North Carolina on 13 December 1792.⁶⁴ Charlotte, who had been born on 11 December 1773 in North Carolina, was the daughter of William and Mary Hough.⁶⁴

In about 1807, William and Charlotte and five children left North Carolina and moved to the Indiana Territory, where they settled first in that portion of Clark County that was later formed into Wayne County in 1811.^{16,25} Sometime later they are believed to have settled in that portion of the unorganized territory to the west of Wayne County, that was formed into Henry County, Indiana in 1822.^{16,25} William and Charlotte eventually moved to La Porte County, Indiana, however, and it is there that William died on 19 September 1838, and Charlotte died on 25 December 1852.^{16,67}

Both William and Charlotte were subsequently buried in the Quaker Cemetery in La Porte County, Indiana.⁶⁷

Jesse Bond, the son of Edward Bond and Elizabeth Ann Mills, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 24 March 1779. ⁶⁴ On 5 July 1802, Jesse received a certificate from the Deep River Monthly Meeting in Guilford County, North Carolina to join the Mount Pleasant Monthly Meeting of Friends in Grayson County, Virginia. ^{54,64} Jesse was apparently married twice during his life. He married first at the Mount Pleasant Monthly Meeting on 13 September 1802 to a woman named Phoebe Commons. ⁵⁴ Phoebe, who had been born in Pennsylvania, was the daughter of Robert Commons and Ruth Hayes. ^{16,54,219}

While a member of the Mount Pleasant Monthly Meeting of Friends, Jesse served as a minister. ⁵⁴ On 30 January 1808, however, Jesse and his family were given a certificate by the Mount Pleasant Meeting to join the West Branch Monthly Meeting of Friends in Miami County, Ohio, where they were received on 22 October 1808. ^{54,220} Shortly thereafter, Jesse and his family apparently moved to the Whitewater country of the Indiana Territory where his brother, William, had settled the previous year, as their father, Edward Bond, visited them there in 1809. ¹⁶ Jesse and his family resided in that portion of Clark County that was later formed into Wayne County in 1811. ²⁵ In 1815, Jesse became the first Minister of the newly formed Whitewater Monthly Meeting of Friends in Wayne County. ¹⁶

Phoebe later died on 30 June 1845 in Wayne County, Indiana. ⁶⁹ After his first wife passed away, Jesse married for a second time to a widow named Mary (Bishop) Willits on 14 March 1850 in Wayne County, Indiana. ^{69,90} Mary was the widow of Isaac Willits. ⁹⁰ Jesse, on the other hand, died on 11 April 1862 in Wayne County, Indiana. ⁶⁹ Both were subsequently buried in the Green's Fork Cemetery (also known as the South Cemetery) in Green's Fork, Wayne County, Indiana. ⁶⁹

103. Joshua Bond.

Joshua Bond, the son of Edward Bond and Elizabeth Ann Mills, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 28 November 1781. ^{64,70} Joshua was apparently married twice during his life. He married first on 6 October 1805 at the Mount Pleasant Monthly Meeting of Friends in Grayson County, Virginia to a woman named Ruth Coffin. ⁵⁴ Ruth, who had been born in 1781 at Nantucket in Nantucket County, Massachusetts, was the daughter of Libini Coffin and Hephsebeth Starbuck. ^{70,227}

On 29 June 1811, Joshua and Ruth and their children were given a certificate from the Mount Pleasant Meeting to join the Whitewater Monthly Meeting of Friends in Wayne County in the Indiana Territory, where Joshua's parents and several brothers had settled earlier.^{54,215} They were subsequently received at the Whitewater Monthly Meeting on 30 November 1811.²¹⁵ After residing in Wayne County for about twenty-one years, Joshua and Ruth moved into that portion of Randolph County, Indiana that was later formed into Jay County, Indiana in 1835.^{16,25} In the Spring of 1836, Joshua established and began operating the first grist mill in Jay County. Ruth subsequently died in Jay County on 23 November 1847.⁷⁰

After his first wife passed away, Joshua married for a second time to a widow named Mary (Allison) Walton in Huntington County, Indiana on 2 September 1850.^{71,227} Mary, who was calculated to have been born in 1808 in Pennsylvania, was the daughter of John Allison and Ann Paxton, and the widow of Joshua's cousin, Abraham Walton.²²⁷ Joshua Bond died on 16 September 1876 in Jay County, Indiana, while Mary died there on 17 April 1877.⁷⁰ There were no issue from Joshua's second marriage. Both Joshua and his first wife, Ruth (Coffin) Bond, were buried in the Hillside Cemetery at Pennville in Jay County, Indiana.⁷⁰

The exact order of birth of the below listed children is not known for sure, but should be close based upon the 1820 and 1830 census enumerations. Although two of the last three children listed below were definitely born between 1820 and 1830, one child was not listed on these censuses and may have died young.

107. Silas Bond.

Silas Bond, the son of Benjamin Bond and Mary Walton, was born in York County, Pennsylvania on 15 July 1783. ^{16,237} Silas was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Hannah Kennard in York County. ¹⁶ Hannah, who had been born in about 1788 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, was the daughter of Eli Kennard and Elizabeth Blackledge. ²³⁸ Hannah died during the month of February 1811 due to complications associated with childbirth. ¹⁶ She was the mother of three children. ¹⁶

Several years after his first wife passed away, Silas married for a second time, also in York County, Pennsylvania, to a woman named Lydia Alloway. ¹⁶ Lydia had been born on 27 January 1786. ¹⁶ In about 1825/1826, Silas and Lydia apparently moved west into Belmont County, Ohio, where their son Solomon, was born. ¹⁶ Shortly thereafter, however, they moved further west to Wayne County, Indiana, where their last child was born. ¹⁶ Lydia died in Wayne County on 22 July 1853, and was buried in the Goshen Cemetery at Richmond in Wayne County. ¹⁶ She was the mother of six children. ¹⁶

Although Silas may have married for a third time after his second wife passed away, the identity of a possible third wife has not been determined. ¹⁶ Silas died in Wayne County, Indiana on 23 February 1858. ^{16,237} He was subsequently buried in the Smyrna Friends Cemetery at Wayne in Wayne County, Indiana. ²³⁷

108. Ruth Bond.

Ruth Bond, the daughter of Benjamin Bond and his wife, Mary Walton, was born in York County, Pennsylvania on 15 December 1787.^{16,132} She was latter married in about 1807 in York County, Pennsylvania to a man named Isaac Vore¹⁶ Isaac, who had been born on 3 April 1783 in Pennsylvania, was the son of Jacob Vore and Mary Machlan.^{16,132,244}

Sometime prior to 1820, Isaac and Ruth moved to Indiana, where they are found in the 1820 census enumeration residing in Wayne County.²²⁸ They were later listed in the 1850 census of Wayne County as residing on a farm near Dublin in Jackson Township, and on the 1860 census as being retired and residing at Cambridge City in Wayne County.^{200,245} Isaac died on 24 February 1862 in Wayne County, Indiana, while Ruth died there on 2 August 1878.^{16,132}

109. Eli Bond.

Eli Bond, the son of Benjamin Bond and his wife, Mary Walton, was born in York County, Pennsylvania on 26 January 1790. ^{16,73,132} He was later married in York County on 4 February 1822 to a woman named Mary Adkins. ¹⁶ Mary, who had been born on 6 February 1800 in Pennsylvania, was the daughter of Jonathan and Sarah Adkins. ^{16,132}

Several years after their marriage, Eli and Mary left Pennsylvania and moved to Wayne County, Indiana, where their son, Titus, was born on 8 April 1827. ¹³² Although Eli and Mary remained in Wayne County, Indiana for approximately twenty years, by the time the 1850 census was enumerated they were found residing in Henry County, Iowa. ²⁴⁹ Eli later died on 7 August 1859 in Henry County, Iowa, and was buried in the Salem South Cemetery at Salem in Henry County. ⁷³ Even though his widow, Mary, is believed to have also died in Iowa, the actual date of her death has not been determined.

118. Ruth Bond.

Ruth Bond, the daughter of Stephen and Maiden Bond, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 19 February 1773. ³¹ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

119. Martha Bond.

Martha Bond, the daughter of Stephen and Maiden Bond, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 5 December 1774. ³¹ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

120. Mary Bond.

Mary Bond, the daughter of Stephen and Maiden Bond, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 6 December 1776. ³¹ She was later married to a man named William Thomas at the Westfield Monthly Meeting of Friends in Surry County, North Carolina on 23 February 1797. ⁵³ William was the son of Joseph and Sarah Thomas of Grayson County, Virginia. ⁵³

On 24 October 1801, the records of the Westfield Monthly Meeting indicate that William

Thomas of Fruit Hill [in Grayson County, Virginia] was dismissed.⁵³ Mary was later found in the records of the Mount Pleasant Monthly Meeting of Friends in Grayson County, Virginia when she and her children were given a certificate by that Meeting on 31 March 1804 to join the Lost Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends in Jefferson County, Tennessee.^{54,254} Because I was unable to find where they were ever received by the Lost Creek Meeting, and because census records indicate that one son, John, was born in Virginia as late as 1812, it can only be assumed that they remained in Virginia until sometime after their son, John, was born.^{254,255}

William and Mary are known, however, to have resided for some time in Campbell County, Tennessee, where they are found residing on the 1830 census, and where four of their children were apparently born.^{256,257} Because several of William and Mary's children were later married in Missouri, and an obituary of one of their children, Anderson Thomas, states that he went to Missouri when he was only ten years of age, it is believed that William and Mary moved to Missouri from Tennessee in about 1832.²⁵⁷ Although the actual dates of their deaths are not known, it is believed that both William and Mary may have died shortly after the family moved to Missouri in the early 1830's.²⁵⁷

NOTE: Some of the information pertaining to this family was taken from the "Duane Thomas Family Archives" compiled by Phyllis J. Thomas. It should also be noted that in the marriage records of Joseph Thomas and Emily Thomas their last names were recorded as Thompson. Census records verify, however, that this Joseph Thompson is the Joseph Thomas who was married to Hannah Missouri VanDer Pool. Emily, on the other hand, is referred to in cemetery records as Emily Thomson, born in Kentucky, and buried in the Thomson Cemetery. Even though I have provided information on this Emily, further research is recommended.

122. Charity Bond.

Charity Bond, the daughter of Stephen and Maiden Bond, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 19 August 1780.³¹ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

123. Stephen Bond.

Stephen Bond, the son of Stephen and Maiden Bond, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 26 August 1782.^{31,81} He subsequently died in Surry County, North Carolina on 12 July 1796, just one month shy of his fourteenth birthday.^{53,81} Stephen was subsequently buried in the Bond-Marshall Cemetery at Dugspur in Carroll County, Virginia.⁸¹

124. Keziah Bond.

Keziah Bond, the daughter of Stephen and Maiden Bond, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 6 June 1784.³¹ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

125. Nathan Bond.

Nathan Bond, the son of Stephen and Maiden Bond, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 6 June 1786.^{31,81} He was later married on 1 June 1808 to a woman named Nancy Dickens in Grayson County, Virginia.⁴⁸ Nancy, who was a native of Virginia, was calculated to have been born there in 1785.²⁷² She was the daughter of Thomas Dickens and Mary "Millie" Cock.^{273,274}

Nathan and Nancy apparently resided in that portion of Grayson County, Virginia that was later formed into Carroll County, Virginia in 1842, as they were next found on the 1850 census of Carroll County residing in District 11. ^{25,272} Nancy was last found on the 1850 census of Carroll County, Virginia, and is believed to have died within a couple of years after that census was enumerated. ²⁷² (see note below).

After his first wife passed away, Nathan married for a second time to a woman named Rhoda Simpkins on 23 December 1855 in Carroll County, Virginia. ⁴⁸ Rhoda, who was calculated to have been born in about 1834 in Virginia, was the daughter of Henry Simpkins and Elizabeth Duncan, who had been married in Montgomery County, Virginia on 2 October 1827. ^{48,275} Although Nathan is shown on the 1860 census of Carroll County as residing with his grandson, Gilbert Bond, Rhoda and two of their children were found staying with her father, Henry Simpkins, in Floyd County, Virginia. ^{275,276}

In the 1870 census enumerations, Nathan was listed as residing in Carroll County with his son-in-law and daughter, Abraham and Mary Marshall, but neither Rhoda nor their children were found. ²⁷⁷ Nathan subsequently died on 15 June 1871 in Carroll County, Virginia. ⁸¹ Rhoda and her children later moved into Pulaski County, Virginia, where she was found marrying for a second time to a man named Jeremiah H. Goad on 18 November 1877. ⁴⁸

NOTE: Although the 1812 through 1840 census records of Grayson County, Virginia indicate that Nathan and Nancy may have had ten children, I personally have not been able to come up with more than six known and probable children. Also, according to the 1860 census of Floyd County, Virginia, Nathan's second wife, Rhoda, is shown with two Bond children. One, Mary E. Bond, was calculated to have been born in 1853, two years before Nathan and Rhoda were married, and two, Henry Armistead Bond, who was born during the month of March 1855, nine months before Nathan and Rhoda were married. As a consequence, it appears to me that these are both Nathan's children from his second wife, but born out of wedlock. As such, I believe that Nathan's first wife, Nancy Dickens, died in about 1851/1852.

128. Isaac Bond.

Isaac Bond, the son of Stephen and Maiden Bond, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 27 November 1790. ⁵³ Isaac was later married in Patrick County, Virginia on 15 February 1815 to a woman named Nancy Goad. ⁴⁸ Nancy, who was calculated to have been born in 1796 in Virginia, was the daughter of James Goad and Mary "Polly" Collier. ²⁹²

After their marriage, Isaac and Nancy were found on the 1820 through 1840 censuses of Virginia residing in Grayson County, Virginia. ^{293,294,295} When the 1850 census was enumerated, however, they had moved to Floyd County, Virginia, where they settled on a farm in District 15. ²⁹⁶ Isaac was later shot and killed in Floyd County, Virginia on 21 November 1856. ⁶³ His widow, Nancy, was later found on the 1860 census of Floyd County, Virginia residing in Indian Valley, and on the 1870 census residing in Burks Fork Township. ^{276,297} Nancy survived Isaac by nearly twenty-two years, passing away in Floyd County on 2 January 1878. ²⁹² Census records indicate that Isaac and Nancy only had one son and at least four daughters.

149. Elizabeth Bond.

Elizabeth Bond, the daughter of John Bond and his first wife, Jane Beeson, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 18 December 1787.³⁵ As with her brother, Benjamin Bond, Elizabeth also left North Carolina and became associated with the Lost Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends in Jefferson County, Tennessee.²⁵⁴ She too moved to Wayne County, Kentucky, however, where she was later married to a man named Edward Mattix on 31 March 1805.⁹⁴ Edward, who was also a native of North Carolina, had been born there in about 1782.⁹⁶ Because Edward was not a Quaker, Elizabeth was dismissed by the Lost Creek Meeting on 28 February 1807 for marrying contrary to their doctrine.²⁵⁴

According to the 1810 and 1820 census enumerations, and other records, Edward and Elizabeth had moved to the Indiana Territory, where they settled in Harrison County.^{381,382} They eventually moved south to Arkansas, however, where Edward is found acquiring 80 acres of farmland in Randolph County on 19 August 1826.³⁸³ They were still residing in Randolph County, Arkansas when the 1850 census of Arkansas was enumerated.⁹⁶ Edward died during the month of March 1853 in Randolph County, Arkansas, and the Randolph County Court appointed Edward's son-in-law, Nimrod Capps, Administrator of his estate on 28 March 1853.³⁸⁴ Although Elizabeth is also believed to have died in Randolph County, Arkansas, the actual date of her death is unknown.

150. William Bond.

William Bond, the son of John Bond and his first wife, Jane Beeson, was born in Guilford County, North Carolina on 5 December 1789. ^{35,95} According to the records of the Center Monthly Meeting of Friends in Guilford County, North Carolina, William Bond and four brothers, namely Joseph, Benjamin, Joel, and Isaac were given a certificate from the Center Meeting on 17 October 1795 to join the New Hope Monthly Meeting of Friends in Greene County, Tennessee, where they were later received on 28 November 1795. ^{35,92,336} William was apparently married twice during his life. He eventually moved to Wayne County, Kentucky, where he was married first to a woman named Charity Hinds on 26 May 1808.⁹⁴ Charity, who had been born in Tennessee on 9 August 1789, was the daughter of Joseph Hinds.^{16,95} Charity died in Cole County, Missouri on 30 January 1861.⁹⁵

After his first wife passed away, William married on 14 September 1861 in Cole County, Missouri for a second time to a widow named Charlotte (Champlin) Baysinger Scott.^{97,98} Charlotte, who was a native of Greene County, Tennessee, was calculated to have been born there in about 1814.^{98,373} She was the daughter of Benjamin Harrison Champlin and Elizabeth Gibson.⁹⁸ This was Charlotte's third marriage, having previously been married first to a man named Jacob Baysinger, and secondly to a man named Leonard Scott.^{97,98} William subsequently died in Cole County, Missouri on 11 October 1875.⁹⁵ Both William and his first wife, Charity Hinds, were buried in the Spring Garden Cemetery at Spring Garden in Miller County, Missouri.⁹⁵ There were no issue from William's second marriage to Charlotte.

2. Prior to 14 September 1752, the Julian Calendar was in effect and the calendar year began on March 25. After that date, the new Gregorian Calendar was adopted in both Great Britain and its colonies in North America, and the first day of the year subsequently became January 1. As a consequence, dates that reflect events that transpired prior to 14 September 1752 for the months of January, February, and March should generally reflect a double date, such as 15 February 1735/1736. In addition, the numerical dates used by the Quakers prior to 14 September 1752 also reflected the old Julian Calendar and should generally be interpreted as being two months off of the new Gregorian Calendar. For example, a date such as 2nd day, 3rd month, 1680 was in reality 2 May 1680, not 2 March 1680.
