REFERENCES

A listing of references and other source material, as well as an all-name index, are provided at the end of this genealogy.

DATES

For the most part, many conflicting dates were easily straightened out by simply rechecking the source material or official records. In some cases, however, marriage dates may vary from other published works because the researcher used the date of a marriage bond, or the date a marriage license was issued, instead of the actual marriage date. Even though some of the source material I used did not specify the origin of the marriage date given, I have tried to differentiate the marriage dates as accurately as possible. In a number of cases an approximate date of marriage, using the abbreviation "ca." for circa (about), is shown based upon information provided in various census documents.

Another dating problem involves the recording of marriage banns. A couple's intentions to marry, or banns of marriage, were generally proclaimed in church on three consecutive Sundays, and if no legal impediments precluded the couple from being married, their marriage would be sanctioned after the third proclamation. Unfortunately, the first or second proclamation will often be cited as the marriage date instead of the third. I must admit, however, that this is difficult to avoid in some cases because of missing or damaged records.

Death dates may also vary in that the date of burial, or the date a will was written or submitted for probate, will sometimes be cited by others instead of the actual death date. In those cases where I was unable to verify which of two dates was correct, I generally went with the one that referenced the most credible source material, or simply used the year only.

One of the most common dating conflicts involves the use of the Julian Calendar versus the Gregorian Calendar. On 14 September 1752, the Gregorian Calendar was adopted in both Great Britain and its colonies in North America, and the first day of the year then became January 1. Prior to that date, the Julian Calendar was in effect and the first day of the year was March 25. As a consequence, many dates found in the 1600's and first half of the 1700's for the months of January, February, and March reflect, or should reflect, a double date, such as 15 February 1735/1736. Even though both dates may be perfectly acceptable based upon the calendar that was in use at the time, to be consistent with current dating procedures the second date is most accurate.

LOCATIONS

With respect to the location at which an event took place, there were many cases when it was not possible to find any record giving the exact location that a birth, marriage or death took place. Because I feel quite strongly that dates should always be accompanied by places, if for no other reason than to aid future research, I made a number of assumptions regarding location based upon available information. For instance, if a family is found in the Fayette County, Indiana census records for 1840 and 1850, and they also show up in the deed and tax records of that county for the same period, I did not feel that it was unreasonable to assume that any children they had during this period were probably also born in Fayette County. In some cases, however, my comfort level with assuming a possible location was limited to a state only.

THE
OF
VIRGINIA, KENTUCKY, AND INDIANA

GENERATION ONE

1. David Lindsay. *

David Lindsay (also written Linsay, Linsey, and Lindsey) is the earliest known progenitor of our Lindsay family to have been positively identified to date. Although very little is known about David, the earliest references which were found that pertain to him were found in the Frederick County, Virginia Court and Militia records. Those entries are as follows:

Court Records

1749 - Terrance Carrol ordered to pay David and Catherine Lindsey 50 pounds of tobacco each for three days attendance in court on his behalf.

June 1752 - David Linsey ordered to pay John Funk 1 pound, 16 shillings.

June 1767 - William Dempster ordered to pay David and Catherine Lindsey 50 pounds of tobacco each for their attendance in court to testify in a suit with Ralph Withers.

Militia Records

2 September 1755 - David Lindsey is listed as a member of the Frederick County Militia in the Company commanded by Captain Marquis Calmes. David was one of the Militia members living in that part of Frederick County that later became Clarke County, Virginia in 1836. Also listed were: Captain John Lindsey, and privates John Lindsey, Abraham Lindsey, Isaac Lindsey, and Edmund Lindsey.

Based upon these entries, David and his family were evidently residing in Frederick County during the period 1749-1767, but how long before or after this period is not known. Although it is known that David was married prior to 1749 to a woman named Catherine, nothing else has been found concerning her, or her parents. David and Catherine are believed, however, to have been married in Frederick County, Virginia.

Even though it has yet to be proven, it is very possible that David was related to the other Lindsays/Lindseys listed above, and that Captain John Lindsey may even have been his father. Captain John Lindsey was found in some of the earliest Frederick County records as taking up land in 1735, and David named a son John. Regardless of the above, all available data suggests that David was probably born someplace other than Frederick County, and moved there as a child with his parents.

Sometime after 1767, David took his family and moved southwest into that part of Virginia that was subsequently made into Botetourt County, Virginia in 1769, but is now part of Greenbriar County, West Virginia. David settled on a parcel of land adjoining the Greenbriar River, and it is there that he resided until his death. David and Catherine, as well as several of their children, are found in a number of Botetourt County, Virginia and Greenbriar County, West Virginia records during the 1770's and 1780's, including the ledger books of the Mathews Trading Post. Catherine and her son, John, and daughter, Jane, are later shown in the "Virginia Heads of Families, Greenbriar County, 1783-1786."

In one particular document, evidence was found that David and Catherine were indeed the parents of our John. A bill of sale was discovered in the deed records of Greenbriar County which states:

"I hereby acknowledge that I have sold unto Catherine Linsay, my mother, a Negro Woman named Nan (which I had of Rob't Allen), all the bed and household Furniture thats in the House, and all the working Tools of whatever kind, on the plantation of my property, the Right of which I hereby deliver unto said Catherine, her heirs and assigns for ever, for and in Consideration of a Bond she had on me of Five hundred pounds penalty, for her dower as Widow and Relict of David Lindsay, my Father, as Witness thereof I have hereunto set my Hand and Seal this 11th July 1785."

John Lindsey (Seal)
Test: William Ward, James Anderson.

David Lindsay died during the latter part of 1772, or possibly early 1773, in that portion of Botetourt County, Virginia that is now within Greenbriar County, West Virginia. This is confirmed by the 1773 entries in the Mathews Trading Post ledger, which refer to Catherine Lindsay as being a widow.

GENERATION TWO

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings are covered in this generation.

2. Robert Lindsay.

Robert Lindsay (also written Linsay, Linsey, and Lindsey), the son of David and Catherine Lindsay, was born in Frederick County, Virginia. He was later found in the records of the Mathews Trading Post making purchases of various and sundry goods during the years 1771 through 1776. Robert was also shown in the March and August 1775 list of Botetourt County, Virginia titheables who were residing in the Greenbriar area. Robert died in late 1775 or early 1776 in that portion of Botetourt County, Virginia that is now Greenbriar County, West Virginia.

Although Robert was shown on a 1776 roster of men called into service during the Revolutionary War, a notation showed that he was exempt from service because he was deceased. It is not known if Robert was married at the time of his death, or if he had any children.

3. John Valentine Lindsay. *

John Lindsay (also identified in various records as John Linsay, Linsey, and Lindsey), was the son of David and Catherine Lindsay. He was born in Frederick County, Virginia in about 1757. This year was calculated from a deposition he gave on 13 December 1803 at the Boone County, Kentucky Courthouse, in which he stated he was "about 46 years" of age. John is thought to have remained in Frederick County with his parents until sometime after 1767, at which time the family appears to have moved southwest into that portion of Virginia that was later formed into Botetourt County in 1769, but is now situated within Greenbriar County, West Virginia. John was shown in the March and August 1775 list of Botetourt County, Virginia titheables as living in the Greenbriar area.

While residing in Virginia, John was married to a woman named Anna Christy. Anna, who was a native of Culpeper County, Virginia, was the daughter of Julius Christy and Agatha Barnett. Although no record of their marriage has been found, it is believed to have taken place in about 1777 in Greenbriar County, Virginia (now within West Virginia). Greenbriar County had been formed from Botetourt County, Virginia in 1777.

In January 1780, John was granted 800 acres of land by the Greenbriar County Court "by right of settlement prior to 1 January 1778," the date Greenbriar County became functional. These lands were situated on the north side of the Greenbriar River. According to available court records, John and two of his sisters were involved in a number of lawsuits during the 1780's, and John served on several juries during 1783 and 1784. In 1785, John obtained an additional 236 acres of land by Warrant.

Although the disposition of all of John Lindsay's land holdings has not been determined, on 26 February 1788, he sold a portion of his lands to Andrew Hamilton and William Elliot. Soon after this, he and his family appear to have moved further west into the State of Kentucky, where they settled in Scott County.

Unfortunately, little information concerning John has been found covering the time he spent in Kentucky. His will, which was written on 29 September 1805, was admitted for probate before the Scott County Court during the January 1806 term, thereby indicating the period within which he passed away.

John's widow, Anna, remarried several years after John's death to a man named Spencer Stone. Although this marriage is believed to have taken place in about 1818 in Scott County, Kentucky, many of the Scott County records were destroyed in a fire and no documents have been found to confirm this. Spencer Stone was the father of the Elias Barbee Stone who married Catherine Houston Lindsay, one of John and Anna Lindsay's daughters.

Although Anna and Spencer probably resided for a short time in Scott County, they eventually moved to Lincoln County, Kentucky, where Spencer owned a small farm on the banks of the Dix River. This farm was located in that portion of Lincoln County, Kentucky that was later formed into Boyle County in 1842. It was there that Spencer Stone passed away in 1838. Shortly after this, Anna moved to Fayette County, Indiana to be near some of her children from her first marriage to John Lindsay. Although she later wrote her will on 8 October 1844 in Fayette County, it was never recorded for probate. It is assumed, however, that she died in Fayette County during the latter part of 1844.

The children listed below have all been identified through correspondence and other documents and records as being John and Anna's.

4. Sarah "Sally" Lindsay.

Sarah Lindsay (also written Linsay, Linsey, and Lindsey), the daughter of David and Catherine Lindsay, was born in Frederick County, Virginia. She was later married in Greenbriar County, Virginia (now part of West Virginia) to a man named William Lockridge (also written Loughridge) on 10 April 1778. William, who is believed to have been born in about 1748 in Augusta County, Virginia, was the son of William Lockridge and Agnes Gwinn.

Prior to 1790, Sarah and William moved to Kentucky, where they settled in Nicholas County. Both Sarah and William are believed to have died in Nicholas County.

Issue: (Surname Lockridge)

5. Jane Lindsay.

Jane Lindsay (also written Jean Linsay, Linsey, and Lindsey), the daughter of David and Catherine Lindsay, was born in Frederick County, Virginia. She was shown in the "Virginia Heads of Families, Greenbriar County, 1783-1786," along with her mother, Catherine, and brother, John. She was also found in the Mathews Trading Post ledger under the years, 1772 and 1774. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

6. Rebecca Lindsay.

Rebecca Lindsay (also written Linsay, Linsey, and Lindsey), the daughter of David and Catherine Lindsay, was born in Frederick County, Virginia. She was shown in the Mathews Trading Post ledger under the year 1773 as "Miss Rebecka Lindsey." Rebecca was also listed in the Greenbriar County Court records as a defendant in a lawsuit, along with her brother, John, and sister, Sarah, in May of 1784. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

25. Ann ----- b. 7 March 1810 in Scott Co., KY.
 m. 16 November 1826 to Henry Klum in Fayette Co., IN.
 d. 11 November 1876 in Wabash Co., IN.
26. Richard ----- b. 22 July 1816 in Scott Co., KY.
 Henry m. 23 June 1836 to Matilda Cook in Fayette Co., IN.
 d. 4 October 1891.
27. Elizabeth ----- b. 5 January 1820 in Scott Co., KY.
 d. 1820 in Scott Co., KY.
28. James ----- b. 15 April 1821 in Fayette Co., IN.
 L. m. 29 November 1842 to Mary Thompson in Rush Co., IN.
 d. 24 March 1900 in Wabash Co., IN.

8. Robert "Robin" Lindsey.

Robert Lindsey (also written Lindsay), the son of John Lindsay and Anna Christy, was born in Greenbriar County, Virginia (now part of West Virginia). Although the name of Robert's wife has not been determined, he is believed to have been married in about 1806/1807 in Scott County, Kentucky.

Robert and his brother, John, acquired land from Spencer Stone and their mother, Anna (Christy) Lindsay Stone, on 28 May 1818. Robert was later enumerated on the 1820 census of Scott County, Kentucky. The last document in which our Robert Lindsey was found, was a mortgage between Robert and Mr. B. S. Chambers. This mortgage was for $600 and dated 20 December 1826.

Even though the actual date of Robert's death has not been determined, it is believed that both he and his wife died in Scott County, Kentucky in about 1828/1829. With the exception of his eldest daughter, all of Robert's other daughters were shown residing with his unmarried sister, Rebecca, on the 1830 census. Unfortunately, what became of his sons has not been determined.

The offspring listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from the 1820 census of Scott County, Kentucky. Although these are all believed to be Robert's children, their identities have not been determined as yet.

10. Rebecca Lindsey.

Rebecca Lindsey (also written Lindsay), the daughter of John Lindsay and Anna Christy, was calculated to have been born in 1784 in Greenbriar County, Virginia (now part of West Virginia). She was residing with her niece, Ann Lindsey Fox, at the time of her death. Rebecca apparently remained single throughout her life and died without issue on 15 April 1854 in Trimble County, Kentucky. Her death record indicates that she was the daughter of John and Ann Lindsey and that she was born in Greenbriar County, Virginia (now within West Virginia).

11. Sarah "Sally" Lindsey.

Sarah Lindsey (also written Lindsay), the daughter of John Lindsay and Anna Christy, was probably born in Greenbriar County, Virginia (now part of West Virginia). She was later married to a man named Mitchell. No additional information has been found concerning this couple.

Possible issue: (Surname Mitchell)

38. Thomas ----- b. In KY.

12. Agnes Lindsey.

Agnes Lindsey (also written Lindsay), the daughter of John Lindsay and Anna Christy, was probably born in Scott County, Kentucky. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

13. Frances Lindsey.

Frances Lindsey (also written Lindsay), the daughter of John Lindsay and Anna Christy, was probably born in Scott County, Kentucky. Frances was apparently married twice during her life. She married first to a man named James Bryant in Kentucky. No issue are known from Frances Lindsey's first marriage to James.

After her first husband passed away, Frances married for a second time to a man named John Embree (also written Embry) on 24 May 1820 in Lincoln County, Kentucky. John, who is believed to have been born in Orange County, Virginia, was the son of John Embree and Frances "Fanny" Burris. This was John's second marriage as he had previously been married on 5 November 1792 to a woman named Susannah Prewitt in Mercer County, Kentucky.

Frances and John later moved to Indiana, where they settled in Wayne County. Although they were still residing in Wayne County in 1848, they apparently moved shortly thereafter to Howard County, Missouri. John died on 4 September 1852 in Howard County, Missouri. After John died, Frances apparently moved back to Wayne County, Indiana, where she died on 18 December 1862. No issue are known from Frances' second marriage either.

14. Catherine Houston Lindsey. *

Catherine Lindsey (also written Lindsay), the daughter of John Lindsay and Anna Christy, was born in Scott County, Kentucky on 17 September 1795. She was later married in Scott County to a man named Elias Barbee Stone. Although no record of their marriage has been found to date, it is thought to have taken place in about 1812/1813. Elias, who was born on 20 February 1790 in Lincoln County, Kentucky, was the son of Spencer Stone and Nancy "Sally" Smith.

Elias was a miller and farmer by trade, and shortly after their marriage, Catherine and Elias returned to Lincoln County where they settled on a small farm situated along the Hanging Fork tributary of the Dix River. They remained there for approximately six years. Sometime during the year 1822, however, Catherine and Elias moved to Indiana, settling first in Fayette County, and then later in Wabash County.

Elias Stone died in Wabash County, Indiana on 27 July 1870. Catherine, on the other hand, died at the home of her nephew, Hiram Lindsey, in Liberty Township in Wabash County on 21 August 1873. Both were subsequently buried in the Boundary Line Church Cemetery near La Fontaine in Wabash County. This cemetery, which was situated upon land that Elias had acquired for such a purpose, was originally established as a private burying ground in 1863. Its use was later opened to the general public, however.

15. John Valentine "Jack" Lindsey.

John "Jack" Lindsey (also written Lindsay), the son of John Lindsay and Anna Christy, was born in Scott County, Kentucky on 5 September 1797. He was later married on 21 August 1827 in Lincoln County, Kentucky to a woman named Catherine Miller. Catherine, who was also a native of Kentucky, had been born there on 14 September 1809.

In about 1830, John and Catherine moved north into the State of Indiana, where they settled in Fayette County. John resided in Fairview Township in Fayette County until his death in 1861.

16. Jane Lindsey.

Jane Lindsey (also written Lindsay), the daughter of John Lindsay and Anna Christy, is thought to have been born in about 1799 in Scott County, Kentucky. She was later married on 28 October 1824 in Lincoln County, Kentucky to a man named Cuthbert Burton. Cuthbert, who was calculated to have been born in 1769 in Virginia, was the son of Charles Burton and Mary Hunt. This was Cuthbert's second marriage, as he had previously been married to a woman named Martha Willis.

Shortly after their marriage, Jane and Cuthbert moved to Allen County, Kentucky, where Jane is believed to have subsequently died. Cuthbert, on the other hand, died in Allen County in 1864. His will, which had been written on 17 May 1855, was probated during the July 1864 term of the Allen County Court. Although Cuthbert and his first wife, Martha, are known to have had a large family, no issue are known from Cuthbert's marriage to Jane.

17. Permelia Lindsey.

Permelia Lindsey (also written Lindsay), the daughter of John Lindsay and Anna Christy, is thought to have been born in about 1801 in Scott County, Kentucky. She was later married on 5 December 1818 in Lincoln County, Kentucky to a man named William H. Feland. William, who had been born in about 1795 in Lincoln County, Kentucky, was the son of James Feland and Isabella Robinson.

After their marriage, Permelia and William resided on a farm along the Hanging Fork tributary of the Dix River in Lincoln County until about 1834. Nothing further has been found concerning this family.

The offspring listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from available pre-1850 census records. These are all believed to be William and Permelia's children, but their identities have not been determined as yet.

Enumerated issue: (Surname Feland)

- 60. (female) ----- b. in Lincoln Co., KY.
- 61. (male) ----- b. in Lincoln Co., KY.
- 62. (female) ----- b. in Lincoln Co., KY.
- 63. (male) ----- b. in Lincoln Co., KY.
- 64. (female) ----- b. in Lincoln Co., KY.

18. Martha "Patsy" Lindsey.

Martha Lindsey (also written Lindsay), the daughter of John Lindsay and Anna Christy, was calculated to have been born in 1803 in Scott County, Kentucky. She was later married on 21 December 1824 in Lincoln County, Kentucky to a man named Ludwell Duncan.

Martha and Ludwell later moved to Oldham County, Kentucky in 1829, where Ludwell died in 1836. His will, which was written on 29 August 1836, was submitted for probate before the Oldham County Court on 17 October 1836.

After her first husband passed away, Martha married for a second time to a man named Jesse Sage on 11 April 1838 in Oldham County. Jesse, who was calculated to have been born in Kentucky in 1816, was the son of Alexander Sage and Lucy Bennett. He was a brick maker by trade, and apparently died in Oldham County sometime prior to 1860, as he does not show up on the census enumeration for that year.

GENERATION FOUR

NOTE: Only those family members (cousins) who have the Lindsay / Lindsey surname, are covered in this generation.

29. (male) Lindsey.

The 1820 census enumeration for Kentucky indicates that Robert Lindsey had a male child between the age of 10 and 16. This child was born in Scott County, Kentucky.

30. (female) Lindsey.

The 1820 census enumeration for Kentucky indicates that Robert Lindsey had female child under 10 years of age. This child was born in Scott County, Kentucky.

31. Ann Lindsey.

Ann Lindsey, the daughter of Robert Lindsey, was calculated to have been born in 1812 in Scott County, Kentucky. Ann was apparently married twice during her life. She married her first husband, John Fresh, by a Lincoln County, Kentucky marriage bond dated 17 June 1835. Consent was given by her grandmother, Anna (Christy) Lindsey Stone, and her second husband, Spencer Stone. Ann and John subsequently moved into Trimble County, Kentucky where John died in 1843.

After her first husband passed away, Ann married for a second time to a man named Amos Fox in Trimble County on 9 June 1844. Amos, who was a farmer by trade, was calculated to have been born in Virginia in 1812. Although Ann and her children were found on the 1860 census of Milton in Trimble County, Kentucky, Amos was not listed. By 1870, however, Ann could not be found in any census enumeration. Amos, on the other hand, was found residing in Craig Township in Switzerland County, Indiana with a woman named Jane. As such, it appears that Amos and Ann may have separated prior to 1860, and that Ann may have passed away prior to 1870 when Amos is shown as being married to a woman named Jane.

Although it is believed that Ann died in Trimble County, Kentucky, the actual date of her passing has yet to be determined. Amos was last found on the 1880 census of Milton in Trimble County, Kentucky residing with his daughter, Permelia Crum, and his granddaughter, Grace Crum.
