REFERENCES AND INDEX

A listing of references and other source material is provided at the end of this genealogy, as well as an all-name index.

INTRODUCTION

In researching the Odell / Odle family, literally every individual I corresponded with, and every published genealogy I read, indicated that the William Odell / Odle of Baltimore County, Maryland who was married to Elizabeth (Talbot ?), was a descendant of the immigrant, Thomas Odell, through his son, Thomas Odell, Jr. and his wife, Margaret Beall. As a consequence, but without any tangible evidence to support or refute it, I also accepted this relationship as being valid and presented it as such in my Odell / Odle family WEB page..

However, I recently received information about a DNA sample submitted by an individual who claims to trace back to William Odell / Odle and Elizabeth (Talbot ?). I personally rechecked this individuals lineage and was able to substantiate to my satisfaction that it is as they claim. This DNA sample indicates that there is no relationship between the William Odell / Odle who married Elizabeth (Talbot ?) and the Thomas Odell, Jr. and Margaret Beall that most everyone had accepted, including me, as being his parents. Unfortunately, however, only one DNA sample has been submitted from anyone who traces down from this William Odell / Odle. This DNA sample, however, is not the only reason I have changed my Odell / Odle genealogy.

In looking back to when I began researching my Odell / Odle line, I remember a conversation I once had with the late Sharon Doliente, the author of "Maryland and Virginia Colonials," in which she stated that based upon her extensive research she did not believe this William was the son of Thomas Odell, Jr. and Margaret Beall. In addition, in reading the immigrant, Thomas Odell, Sr's will of 1717, I noticed that he specifically stated in his will: "bott in case my son Thomas Odell dye without issue the land to descend ..." If William Odell / Odle was born in about 1714, as everyone claims, I would think that Thomas, Sr. would know his son Thomas, Jr. had a three year old child when he wrote his will since they were living near each other. The 1717 will, however, suggests that Thomas, Jr. did not have any children as yet. The fact that the name Rignall is used by both Odell lines is curious, however, and suggests there may very well be some type of connection between both lines England.

In light of the above, or until some evidence can be found to substantiate that William truly is the son of Thomas Odell, Jr. and Margaret Beall, this genealogy will show that William Odell / Odle is the earliest progenitor of our Odell / Odle family to have been uncovered to date.

DATES

For the most part, many conflicting dates were easily straightened out by simply rechecking the source material or official records. In some cases, however, marriage dates may vary from other published works because the researcher used the date of a marriage bond, or the date a marriage license was issued, instead of the actual marriage date. Even though some of the source material I used did not specify the origin of the marriage date given, I have tried to differentiate the marriage dates as accurately as possible. In a number of cases an approximate date of marriage, using the abbreviation "ca." for circa (about), is shown based upon information provided in various census documents.

Another dating problem involves the recording of marriage banns. A couple's intentions to marry, or banns of marriage, were generally proclaimed in church on three consecutive Sundays, and if no legal impediments precluded the couple from being married, their marriage would be sanctioned after the third proclamation. Unfortunately, the first or second proclamation will often be cited as the marriage date instead of the third. I must admit, however, that this is difficult to avoid in some cases because of missing or damaged records.

Death dates may also vary in that the date of burial, or the date a will was written or submitted for probate, will sometimes be cited by others instead of the actual death date. In those cases where I was unable to verify which of two dates was correct, I generally went with the one that referenced the most credible source material, or simply used the year only.

One of the most common dating conflicts involves the use of the Julian Calendar versus the Gregorian Calendar. On 14 September 1752, the Gregorian Calendar was adopted in both Great Britain and its colonies in North America, and the first day of the year then became January 1. Prior to that date, the Julian Calendar was in effect and the first day of the year was March 25. As a consequence, many dates found in the 1600's and first half of the 1700's for the months of January, February, and March reflect, or should reflect, a double date, such as 15 February 1735/1736. Even though both dates may be perfectly acceptable based upon the calendar that was in use at the time, to be consistent with current dating procedures the second date is most accurate.

LOCATIONS

With respect to the location at which an event took place, there were many cases when it was not possible to find any record giving the exact location that a birth, marriage or death took place. Because I feel quite strongly that dates should always be accompanied by places, if for no other reason than to aid future research, I made a number of assumptions regarding location based upon available information. For instance, if a family is found in the Fayette County, Indiana census records for 1840 and 1850, and they also show up in the deed and tax records of that county for the same period, I did not feel that it was unreasonable to assume that any children they had during this period were probably also born in Fayette County. In some cases, however, my comfort level with assuming a possible location was limited to a state only.

ODELL/ODLE FAMILY OF
MARYLAND, VIRGINIA, OHIO, AND INDIANA

GENERATION ONE

William Odell / Odle of Baltimore County, Maryland is currently the earliest known progenitor of our Odell / Odle family to have been substantiated. He is believed to have been born in about 1714, possibly in Maryland.¹ William was later married in Maryland to a woman named Elizabeth, and according to a number of sources, her full name may have been Elizabeth Talbot.¹ The fact that William and his wife named a son, Talbot Odell / Odle, obviously lends some support to this argument.

After their marriage, William and Elizabeth apparently settled near Randallstown in Baltimore County, Maryland, where they acquired several tracts of land.¹ One of these tracts, which they had purchased on 19 June 1742 from Anthony and Margaret Arnold, consisted of 50 acres called "Arnolds Chance."^{2,3} William later had two parcels surveyed in Baltimore County on 28 February 1745, namely 50 acres called "Odell's Addition" on "Arnold's Chance," and 50 acres called "Odell's Expectation" adjoining "Powell's Run."^{3,4} William Odell / Odle died intestate in Baltimore County, Maryland in late 1748, as his widow, Elizabeth, posted an Administration Bond in Baltimore County on 24 December 1748.³ William's land appears to have been inherited by his eldest son, John Odell / Odle, according to old English law.^{1,3}

Although William did not leave a will, an inventory of his estate was taken by John Stinchcomb and Joshua Owings on 7 February 1748/1749.⁵ This inventory was subsequently filed in Baltimore County on 21 July 1749, and Elizabeth made oath that it was a "just and perfect inventory."⁵ Elizabeth, who had been appointed Administratrix of William's estate, subsequently filed an accounting of William's estate with the Office of the Register of Wills in Baltimore City on 30 May 1750.^{1,3} In this accounting, Elizabeth stated that she did not know of any kin to William in Baltimore County, and gave the names, as well as the ages by year, of all of her and William's children.^{1,3} Whatever became of Elizabeth after that has not been determined.

GENERATION TWO

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings are covered in this generation.

2. Mary Odell / Odle.

Mary Odell / Odle, the daughter of William Odell / Odle and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1736 in Maryland.³ Although it is not known if Mary ever married, she is known to have had a child out of wedlock with a man named Philip Norwood.^{3,13} During the month of November 1754, the Baltimore County Court fined both Philip Norwood and Mary Odell / Odle 30 shillings apiece for "bastardizing".^{3,13}

Although the identity of this child has not been verified, there is a possibility that it could have been the Philip Norwood who was born in 1755 in Baltimore County, Maryland, and later moved to Fleming County, Kentucky.¹⁴ This Philip Norwood died in Fleming County, Kentucky in 1807.¹⁴

3. John Odell / Odle.

John Odell / Odle, the son of William Odell / Odle and Elizabeth Talbot, is believed to have been born in Maryland on 24 September 1737.^{1,6} He was later married in Maryland to a woman named Providence Baker in about 1758.^{1,15} Providence, who was also a native of Maryland, had been born there on 13 January 1739.¹⁶

According to available deed records, on 9 January 1770, John leased 14.5 acres of land in Baltimore County, Maryland from John and Ruth Hurd for 13 pounds.² Providence subsequently died on 17 March 1815 in Baltimore County, Maryland, while John died there on 14 February 1818.^{1,6,15} John's last will and testament, which had been written on 9 January 1817, was later admitted for probate before the Baltimore County Court on 18 February 1818.¹⁷ Although John appointed his son-in-law, Benjamin Jones Executor of his estate, Benjamin later wrote to the Baltimore County, Court on 1 April 1818 renouncing his Executorship and refusing to act as Executor.¹⁷ With the exception of Rachel and Ann, who died young and without issue, the remaining six children, plus his ten grandchildren, children of his son, John, and his daughter, Kiturah, were named in John Odell's will.¹⁷

William Odell / Odle, the son of William Odell / Odle and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1740 in Baltimore County, Maryland.³ He was later married to a woman named Asenath Owings, the daughter of John Owings and his second wife, Asenath.^{1,7} Although no record of their marriage has been found, it is believed to have taken place in about 1762 in Baltimore County, Maryland.⁸ Asenath, who was also a native of Baltimore County, is believed to have been born there in about 1744.⁷

This William Odell / Odle is believed to be the same William Odell / Odle who was later found in the deed records of Baltimore County, Maryland leasing 50 acres of land from Walter Smith on 27 September 1765.^{1,2} This same William also leased another 60 acres of land from Mr. Smith on 11 February 1767.^{1,2} William, who was described in the documents as being a planter and farmer, was to build a dwelling and plant a 200 tree orchard on the earlier lease.^{1,2}

William and Asenath eventually left Maryland and moved into the state of Virginia, where according to the 1782-1787 list of Virginia taxpayers, they were residing in Hampshire County (now within West Virginia).^{1,28} On 12 August 1783, William and Asenath purchased two tracts of land in Hampshire County from a man named John Kyger.^{1,29} These two tracts, which consisted of 453 total acres, were situated along Chestnut Ridge on Allegheny Mountain.^{1,29} William and Asenath eventually sold these tracts on 20 October 1806, with one going to James and Benjamin Dawson, and the other to Philip Goode.^{1,29}

Shortly after this, William and his family moved to the state of Ohio where they settled in Ross County. William and his son, Caleb, acquired 80 acres of farmland in Ross County on 7 August 1812 from a man named John McNeill, and it is believed that William resided on this farm with Caleb for the remainder of his life.¹

Although William shows up on both the 1820 and 1830 census returns for Ohio, Asenath does not.^{9,30} As such, it can only be assumed that Asenath must have passed away prior to 1820. William, who was shown as being between 90 and 100 years of age on the 1830 census, is thought to have died in Ross County shortly after the 1830 census was taken.^{1,9} The children listed below were abstracted from published works, or were extrapolated from various other documents.

5. Walter Odell / Odle.

Walter Odell / Odle, the son of William Odell / Odle and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1742 in Baltimore County, Maryland. ^{3,6} He was later married in about 1758 in Baltimore County, Maryland to a woman named Lucy Frizzell. ^{1,10}

On 25 February 1784, Walter purchased part of "Minto and Rolles Chance," containing 40 and ½ acres, from Joshua Hurd. ² Walter later purchased 12 acres of land called "Bell's Park" from Alexander Wells on 15 September 1784. ² He subsequently purchased a 1 acre tract called "Jack's Delight" on 8 April 1794 from Robert and William Weer, and on 28 March 1799, he had ¾ of an acre called "Addition to Minto" laid out by the Baltimore County Surveyor. ²

Lucy later died in Baltimore County, Maryland on 22 April 1822. ^{21,47} Several years later, Walter sold all four of the above mentioned properties to a man named Rezin H. Worthington on 5 December 1825. ²

Walter, who survived Lucy by approximately six years, died in Baltimore County, Maryland in 1828. ¹¹ His will, which had been written on 16 February 1828, was later admitted for probate before the Baltimore County Court on 21 May 1828. ¹¹ In his will, Walter bequeaths "to Mary Odell and my six Grandchildren an equal interest in the whole of my estate, Real (and) Personal." ¹¹ The grandchildren were named, Lewis William Odell, Emily Jane Odell, Henry Franklin Odell, Elisha Pain Odell, Walter John Odell, and Louisa Frances Sophia Odell. ¹¹

6. Elizabeth Odell / Odle.

Elizabeth Odell / Odle, the daughter of William Odell / Odle and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1744 in Baltimore County, Maryland. ^{3,6} She was later married in Maryland to a man named Isaiah Baker. ¹ Unfortunately, even though this couple may have had children, I have not been able to identify any with reasonable certainty. As such, no additional information is provided concerning this couple.

7. Richard Odell / Odle.

Richard Odell / Odle, the son of William Odell / Odle and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1745 in Baltimore County, Maryland.^{3,6} This Richard Odle is strongly believed to be the same Richard Odle who settled just South of Baltimore, Maryland in Anne Arundel County. Although he is known to have been married to a woman named Anne, no additional information has been found concerning her or her parentage.¹²

According to available records, it appears that Richard took the Oath of Allegiance in Anne Arundel County on 1 March 1778.⁵⁰ On 6 May 1778, however, Richard furnished a substitute, a man named Jesse Dority from Scotland, to serve for three months in the American Army during the Revolutionary War.⁵¹

On 19 December 1783, Richard purchased 120 acres of land called "Shepherd's Forest" from John Sewell.¹² He later purchased a 436 acre tract named "Wincopen Neck" from Richard and Anne Lawrence on 29 October 1791.¹² Richard apparently got into financial difficulty in the early 1800's, however, and was forced to sell most of his property. On 16 May 1801, he sold "Wincopen Neck" and 17 slaves to a Mr. Richard Dorsey, and on 16 March 1802, he sold "Shepherd's Forest" to Mr. Joseph Ratcliff.¹²

Because of his indebtedness, and even though Richard had sold, in addition to his land, much of his personal property, he was eventually forced to petition the Maryland General Assembly for relief under the Insolvent Debtors Act.⁵² On 28 January 1806, an Act was passed which required "Richard Odle of Anne Arundel County" to "deliver to the use of his creditors all his property, real, personal or mixed, (the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself and his family excepted)."⁵²

The child listed below as (male) was abstracted from the 1790 federal census of Anne Arundel County, Maryland.⁵³ Although this child is believed to be a son of Richard and Anne's, his identity has yet to be determined.

Enumerated issue: (Surname Odell / Odle)

8. Rignall Odell / Odle.

Rignall Odell / Odle, the son of William Odell / Odle and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1746 in Baltimore County, Maryland.^{3,6} No additional information has been found concerning this individual. NOTE: The name Rignall is not a variation of Reginald as many want to believe. Rignall is an English surname, and the use of surnames as given names was a common practice in some families, as also evidenced by Rignall's younger brother being named Talbot Odell.

9. Talbot Odell / Odle.

Talbot Odell / Odle, the son of William Odell / Odle and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1748 in Baltimore County, Maryland.^{3,6} No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

GENERATION THREE

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings, and those other family members (cousins) who have the Odell / Odle surname, are covered in this generation.

10. Rachel Odell / Odle.

Rachel Odell / Odle, the daughter of John Odell / Odle and Providence Baker, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 19 May 1759.¹⁸ She was later married in Baltimore County to a man named Basil John Dorsey on 7 December 1784.^{18,19} Basil, who had been born on 21 May 1762 in Baltimore County, was the son of Francis and Ann Dorsey.^{54,55}

When Basil's father passed away, he left Basil 100 acres of land called the "Scotchman's Desire."⁵⁴ Rachel subsequently died without issue in Baltimore County, Maryland on 12 February 1786, possibly due to complications associated with childbirth.¹⁸

After Rachel passed away, Basil married for a second time, also in Baltimore County, Maryland, to a woman named Dorothy "Dolly" Haines.¹⁹ She was the daughter of Michael and Catherine Haines.⁵⁶ Basil and Dorothy Dorsey were the parents of five daughters.⁵⁶ Basil died on 9 May 1803 in Baltimore County, Maryland.²⁷

NOTE: Unfortunately, the above Basil John Dorsey of Maryland has been unbelievably confused with the Basil John Dorsey of North Carolina and Georgia. Even the most basic research will confirm, however, that these individuals were residing in their respective states during the same time period and cannot be the same person.

11. William Odell / Odle.

William Odell / Odle, the son of John Odell / Odle and Providence Baker, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 10 October 1760.²⁰ He was later married in Baltimore County, Maryland on 9 February 1797 to a woman named Rachel Walter (also written Walters).¹⁹

After their marriage, William and Rachel resided in Soldier's Delight Hundred in Baltimore County.⁵⁷ William and Rachel eventually moved to Tennessee, however, where William died during the month of July 1846 in Knox County. ²⁰

12. Isaiah Odell / Odle.

Isaiah Odell / Odle, the son of John Odell / Odle and Providence Baker, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 7 May 1764. ²¹ He was later married in Baltimore County to a woman named Elizabeth Buck Towson on 30 January 1800. ¹⁹ Elizabeth, who had been born on 18 June 1776, was the daughter of John Towson and Penelope Buck. ²¹ Isaiah and Elizabeth's first child appears to have been born prior to their getting married.

During the Revolutionary War, Isaiah served as a Private in Colonel Tench Tilghman's Regiment of Militia. ⁶⁷ Elizabeth subsequently died on 14 December 1843 in Baltimore County, Maryland, while Isaiah died there on 20 March 1847. ²² Isaiah's will, which had been written on 27 December 1843, was admitted for probate before the Baltimore County Court on 25 March 1847. ⁶⁸ Isaiah appointed his two daughters, Elizabeth and Rachel as Executrixes. ⁶⁸ Although Isaiah and Elizabeth were both originally buried in the Odell Cemetery near Randallstown in Baltimore County, their remains were later moved to the Wards Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery. ²²

The below listed children, with the exception of Penelope and Providence, were all named in their father, Isaiah Odell's, last will and testament. ⁶⁸ Penelope and Providence had died prior to 27 December 1843 when their father, wrote his will. ^{21,22,68}

13. Providence Jane Odell / Odle.

Providence Jane Odell / Odle, the daughter of John Odell / Odle and Providence Baker, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 2 January 1767. ²¹ She was later married in Baltimore County, Maryland on 13 December 1786 to a man named Benjamin Franklin Jones. ^{23,24} Benjamin, who had been born on 8 March 1763 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, was the son of Henry Jones and Nancy Anderson. ²⁴

Sometime after their marriage, Benjamin and Providence left Maryland and moved to Tennessee. Although Benjamin Jones was named Executor of his father-in-laws estate, on 1 April 1818, Benjamin wrote to the Baltimore County, Court renouncing his Executorship and refusing to act as Executor.¹⁷ Providence is said to have died in 1815, probably in Rhea County, Tennessee.²⁵ Benjamin, on the other hand, died during the month of June 1856 in Hamilton County, Tennessee.²⁴ He was subsequently buried in the Hutcheson Cemetery in Hamilton County, Tennessee.²⁴

John Odell / Odle, the son of John Odell / Odle and Providence Baker, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 6 May 1769. ²⁶ He was later married in Baltimore County, Maryland to a woman named Ann Cooper on 22 January 1795. ¹⁹ Ann, who was also a native of Maryland, had been born there on 4 May 1777. ²⁶

According to the Baltimore County census records, John and Ann were residing in Soldier's Delight Hundred in 1810. ⁵⁷ John died on 5 March 1815 in Baltimore County, while Ann died there on 13 February 1854. ²⁶ Both were subsequently buried in the Mount Paran Presbyterian Church Cemetery at Randallstown in Baltimore County. ²⁶

The child listed below as (female) was abstracted from the 1810 federal census of Maryland. ⁵⁷ With the exception of this child, all of the below named children were identified in the will of John's father, John Odell / Odle, Sr. ¹⁷ This will, which had been written on 9 January 1817, was probated on 18 February 1818 in Baltimore County, Maryland. ¹⁷ Although this child is also believed to be one of John and Ann's children, her identity has not been determined. Although the exact order of birth of the below named children is not known for sure, they are listed according to the order in which they were mentioned in their grandfather's will. ¹⁷

15. Ann Odell / Odle.

Ann Odell / Odle, the daughter of John Odell / Odle and Providence Baker, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 17 May 1771. ¹⁶ She subsequently died during the following year, 1772, in Baltimore County, Maryland. ¹⁶

16. Kiturah Ann "Kitty" Odell / Odle.

See the Abraham Odell / Odle family write-up under # 29 below.

17. Henry Odell / Odle.

Henry Odell / Odle, the son of John Odell / Odle and Providence Baker, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 24 June 1777. ¹⁶ He was later married to a woman named Mary Sweeten on 12 December 1804 in Baltimore County. ¹⁹ Henry and Mary were residing in Soldier's Delight Hundred in 1810. ⁵⁷ Henry later inherited the plantation called "Griffith's Adventure" from his father in 1818. ¹⁷

The child listed below as (female) was abstracted from the 1810 census of Baltimore County, Maryland, and even though she is also believed to be one of Henry and Mary's children, her identity has not been determined. ⁵⁷

18. John Odle.

John Odle (also written Odell), the son of William Odell / Odle and Asenath Owings, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 21 September 1764. ^{31,32} As a young man, John apparently moved with his parents to Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia), where his father acquired a 453 acre farm on 12 August 1783 from a man named John Kyger. ^{1,28,29} John was later married in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) in about 1787 to a woman named Nancy. ¹

NOTE: Although some individuals believe the above John was married to a woman named Nancy Moore, apparently based upon a marriage record between a John Odle and Nancy Moore in Jefferson County, Tennessee, this is not correct. The above John was already married, had five children, and was residing in Ross County, Ohio when the other John Odle was getting married to Nancy Moore in Tennessee. These are not the same John Odle.

According to a Hampshire County muster roll dated 15 June 1795, John was serving as an Ensign in Captain Jacob Slagle's Company of the Hampshire County Militia. ^{1,82} In 1797, John and Nancy appear to have left Hampshire County and moved to that portion of the Northwest Territory that was formed into the Ohio Territory in 1799, but was later made a part of the state of Ohio in 1803. ^{1,83,84} According to "A Standard History of Ross County, Ohio" by Lyle Evans, John and his brother, Richard, were early settlers south and east of Salt Creek near Richmondale in Jefferson Township. ⁸⁵ Although John and his family are known to have resided for more than twenty years in what is now Ross County, Ohio, in 1819 they apparently moved west into Randolph County, Indiana, where they were found to be residing on the 1820 census. ^{1,86}

John Odle was active in the founding of the community of Winchester in Randolph County, where he operated the first store.³² This store also served as a tavern and hotel, and in one corner of the store John set up a library, thus becoming the first librarian in Winchester.³² John also served as an acting Justice of the Peace, a member of the New Society School Association, and in 1831 he was elected to the office of County Treasurer for Randolph County.³² Up until the time of his death, John Odle also operated a freight line which hauled supplies and produce back and forth between Cincinnati, Ohio and Winchester, Indiana.³²

One of the last documents to be found in Randolph County that involved John was a mortgage that John and his wife Nancy had recorded on 4 October 1832, less than a year before his death.⁸⁷ John and Nancy both died in Randolph County, Indiana. John died there in 1833, while Nancy died there on 10 October 1847.^{31,32} Both were subsequently buried in the Reitenour Cemetery, Winchester in Randolph County, Indiana.³¹

The children listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from the 1820 census of Randolph County, Indiana.⁸⁶ Although these are all believed to be John and Nancy's children, their identities have yet to be determined.

19. Richard Odle. *

Richard Odle (also written Odell), the son of William Odell / Odle and Asenath Owings, was born in 1766 in Baltimore County, Maryland.^{1,33} As a boy, Richard apparently moved with his parents to Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia), where his father purchased a 453 acre farm on 12 August 1783 from a man named John Kyger.^{1,28,29} Richard was later married in about 1789/1790, probably in Maryland (or possibly in Hampshire County) to a woman named Elizabeth Dawson.^{1,34,35} Elizabeth, who had been born in 1768/1769 in Frederick County, Maryland, was the daughter of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott.^{1,97,98}

In 1797, Richard's brother, John, and his family moved to that portion of the Northwest Territory that was formed into the Ohio Territory in 1799, but was later made a part of the state of Ohio in 1803.^{1,83,84} Richard and Elizabeth are believed to have also moved there at the same time, as John and Richard were both listed as early settlers who resided on farms south and east of Salt Creek near Richmondale in Jefferson Township.⁸⁵ Richard was later found on the 1806 tax list for Ross County, Ohio.⁹⁹

Although Richard and Elizabeth were still residing in Jefferson Township in Ross County, Ohio when the 1830 census was enumerated, they apparently sold their farm in Ross County shortly thereafter and moved to Warren County, Indiana, where their three youngest daughters were all married in 1832.^{9,100} Elizabeth died in Warren County, Indiana on 31 March 1841, while Richard died there on 8 August 1844.³³ Both were subsequently buried in the Union Cemetery near Pine Village in John Q. Adams Township, Warren County, Indiana.³³

Anne Odle (also written Odell), the daughter of William Odell / Odle and Asenath Owings, appears to have been born sometime during the period 1756-1774 in Maryland. ³⁶ NOTE: Even though some individuals believe her full name was Nancy Anne Odell, this has never been verified to my satisfaction. As a young girl, Anne apparently moved with her parents to Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia), where her father purchased a 453 acre farm on 12 August 1783 from a man named John Kyger. ^{1,28,29} Anne was later married to a man named James Dawson, probably in Maryland (or possibly in Hampshire County, Virginia (now part of West Virginia)). ^{37,38}

James who was generally identified in various records as "James son of William" was the son of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott.^{36,37,106} He appears to have been born in Frederick County, Maryland sometime during the period 1755-1765.^{36,107} This time period was calculated from the 1800 and 1810 census enumerations of Allegany County, Maryland which indicated that James was under forty-five years of age in 1800, but over forty-five years of age in 1810.^{36,107}

After their marriage, James and Anne remained in Allegany County, Maryland, where James was later found on the 1793 tax Assessment Records of Allegany County, Maryland paying tax on one lot.¹⁰⁸ He was later found in the deed records acquiring one half of a tract of land called "Clover Bottom" from his uncle and aunt, James and Elizabeth Dawson, on 21 November 1801.¹⁰⁶ James subsequently died in Allegany County, Maryland in 1820.³⁷ His will, which had been written on 10 August 1816, was later admitted for probate before the Allegany County Court on 19 February 1820.³⁷ Although Anne is known to have survived James, the date and place of her death are not known. The following children were all named in James Dawson's will.³⁷

Caleb Odle (also written Odell), the son of William Odell / Odle and Asenath Owings, was born in Maryland on 10 December 1774. ³⁹ As a young boy, Caleb apparently moved with his parents to Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia), where his father purchased a 453 acre farm on 12 August 1783 from a man named John Kyger. ^{1,28,29} Based upon available records, Caleb appears to have been married three times. Although no record of his first marriage has been found, it is believed that he may have been married in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) prior to moving to Ohio, and that his first child may have been born there. ⁴⁰ Unfortunately, the identity of Caleb's first wife has not been determined.

Caleb and his family eventually moved to Ohio in about 1804, where they settled in what later became Liberty Township in Ross County.¹²⁰ Caleb subsequently operated a distillery there for about eight to ten years.¹²⁰ About two years after Caleb settled in Ross County, Ohio, his parents appear to have moved there and settled with him, as Caleb and his father acquired 80 acres of land in Ross County, Ohio from a man named John McNeil on 7 August 1812, which they farmed together until Caleb's father died in the early 1830's.¹ Caleb's first wife, who is believed to have been the mother of two daughters by Caleb, probably died in about 1811/1812 in Ross County, Ohio, as Caleb is known to have married for a second time in 1813.⁴¹

When the War of 1812 broke out, Caleb enlisted as a private.¹ He was later promoted to the rank of Captain, however, and commanded a company of volunteers from Ross County, Ohio in the Second Regiment of the Ohio Militia.^{1,121} Caleb married for a second time on 15 September 1813 to a woman named Nancy Ann Greave in Ross County, Ohio.⁴¹ Nancy, who was the mother of three children by Caleb, appears to have died in Ross County, Ohio in about 1826/1827, as Caleb is known to have married for a third time in 1828.⁴¹

After Nancy passed away, Caleb married for a third time, also in Ross County, Ohio, to a woman named Elizabeth "Betsey" (McClintock) Gibbons on 7 February 1828.⁴¹ Elizabeth, who had been born in Pennsylvania on 10 June 1784, was the daughter of Alexander and Elizabeth McClintock, and the widow of William Gibbons.^{122,123} Elizabeth had previously been married to Mr. Gibbons on 4 April 1805 in Ross County, Ohio.¹²²

On 5 January 1835, Caleb and Elizabeth sold their 80 acre farm in Ross County to a man named Jeremiah Hickle for $600.¹²⁴ The deed stated that this was the same land that Caleb and his father, William Odell / Odle, had purchased on 7 August 1812 from John McNeil.¹²⁴ Shortly after this, Caleb and Elizabeth moved to Livingston County, Illinois. Elizabeth later died in Livingston County on 28 August 1852, while Caleb died there on 26 December 1856.³⁹ Both Caleb and Elizabeth were subsequently buried in the Long Point Cemetery at Long Point in Livingston County, Illinois.³⁹ No issue are known from Caleb's third marriage to Elizabeth.

The children listed below as (female) were abstracted from the 1820 census of Ross County, Ohio.³⁰ Although these are also believed to be Caleb's children, their identities have not been determined.

22. Joshua Odle.

Joshua Odle, the son of William Odell / Odle and Asenath Owings, is believed to have been born in about 1780 in Maryland. ^{42,43} As a young boy, Joshua apparently moved with his parents to Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia), where his father bought a 453 acre farm on 12 August 1783 from a man named John Kyger. ^{1,28,29}

In 1797, Joshua evidently accompanied his two older brothers, John and Richard Odle, to the Northwest Territory, where according to "A Standard History of Ross County, Ohio" by Lyle Evans, Joshua, John, and Richard were all listed as early settlers south and east of Salt Creek near Richmondale in Jefferson Township in Ross County. ⁸⁵

Joshua apparently returned home a few years later, however, as he was married in Allegany County, Maryland to a woman named Susannah Davis on 1 April 1802. ^{42,43} Susannah, who was calculated to have been born in Maryland in 1783, was the daughter of Ebenezer G. and Sarah Davis. ⁴³ During the same year he was married, Joshua was listed as being a Sergeant in Captain Nathaniel Cochran's First Battalion of the 11th Regiment of Virginia Militia. ¹²⁷

On 20 July 1807, Joshua and Susannah purchased 136 acres of land in Harrison County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) from Joseph and Margaret Tetrick. ¹²⁸ This land, which was situated at the head of Long Run, cost them $150. ¹²⁸ Several years later, when the War of 1812 broke out, Joshua fought in the Battle of New Orleans, where he was wounded. ¹²⁹ After the War, Joshua returned to Harrison County, where he apparently died during the latter part of 1826. ⁴³ Although Joshua did not leave a will, an inventory of his estate was carried out on 15 January 1827. ⁴⁴

Joshua's widow, Susannah, was last found on the 1860 census of Harrison County living with their son, John.¹³⁰ She was listed as being 77 years of age in this census, and having been born in Maryland.¹³⁰ Various records indicate that Joshua and Susannah had nine children. The children listed below as (female) were abstracted from the 1820 census of Harrison County, Virginia (now within West Virginia).¹³⁴ Although these are also believed to be Joshua and Susannah's children, their identities have not been determined.

23. William Odle.

William Odle (also written Odell), the son of William Odell / Odle and Asenath Owings, was born in either Maryland or Hampshire County, Virginia (now West Virginia). He was later married to a woman named Sarah Carpenter on 7 August 1806 in Ross County, Ohio. ⁴¹ No additional information has been found concerning this couple.

24. Lott Odle.

Lott Odle (also written Odell), the son of William Odell / Odle and Asenath Owings, was born in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) sometime during the period 1780-1790. ⁴⁵ He was later married in Allegany County, Maryland to a woman named Elizabeth Tedrick (also written Tetrick) on 24 September 1806. ¹⁹

Lott and Elizabeth eventually moved to Ohio, where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives. During the War of 1812, Lott served as a Private in Captain Andrew Correll's Company of the Second Regiment of the Ohio Militia. ¹²¹ According to available census enumerations, Lott and Elizabeth were residing in Licking County, Ohio in 1820. ¹⁴⁴ However, because the census records are lacking for Ohio prior to 1820, it is not known at this time when they actually moved there.

On 19 August 1837, Lott and Elizabeth purchased 340 acres of land in Licking County from a Mr. James Stanberg.¹⁴⁵ This property was situated in Township 17, Range 18, of the Refugee Tract.¹⁴⁵ Lott and Elizabeth later sold 14 acres of this parcel to Martin Beaver on 6 December 1838.¹⁴⁵ This deed was the last document that was found which indicated that Lott was still alive. Because Lott was not found on the 1840 census of Licking County, Ohio, it is believed that he probably died in either 1839 or early 1840.^{46,146} Although Elizabeth is known to have survived Lott, her date and place of death have not been determined.¹⁴⁶

The children listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from the 1820, 1830, and 1840 census enumerations of Licking County, Ohio. Although these are all believed to be Lott and Elizabeth's children, their identities have yet to be determined. The 1820 census of Licking County shows: Males 2101; Females 4101.¹⁴⁴ The 1830 census of Licking County shows: Males 0110201; Females 121011.⁴⁵ The 1840 census of Licking County shows: Males 0001; Females 00110001.¹⁴⁶

29. Abraham Odell / Odle.

Abraham Odell / Odle, the son of Walter Odell / Odle and Lucy Frizzell, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 9 July 1770.^{6,21} Abraham was apparently married twice during his life. He married first on 10 December 1800 in Baltimore County to a woman named Kiturah Ann "Kitty" Odell / Odle.¹⁹ Kiturah, who was Abraham Odell / Odle's cousin, had been born in Baltimore County on 26 November 1775.^{6,27} She was the daughter of John Odell / Odle and Providence Baker.^{6,27}

Kiturah subsequently died on 5 September 1807 in Baltimore County, Maryland.^{6,27} After his first wife passed away, Abraham married for a second time to a woman named Kiturah Jean on 17 March 1813 in the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Baltimore in Baltimore County, Maryland.¹⁹

Abraham apparently died intestate in Maryland on 3 October 1825.²¹ With the exception of the child listed as (female), all of the other below named children were identified in the will of Kiturah (Odell) Odell's father, John Odell / Odle, Sr.¹⁷ This will, which had been written on 9 January 1817, was probated on 18 February 1818 in Baltimore County, Maryland.¹⁷ The (female) was abstracted from the 1810 census of Baltimore County, Maryland, and is believed to be one of Abraham's daughters from his first marriage.⁵⁷ She probably died at an early age.

30. Sarah Odell / Odle.

Sarah Odell / Odle, the daughter of Walter Odell / Odle and Lucy Frizzell, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 1 March 1773. ⁴⁷ She was later married in Baltimore County, Maryland to a man named William Pemberton on 14 April 1796. ²³ William, who had been born in 1760 in Baltimore County, was the son of Henry Pemberton. ¹⁵³

NOTE: The following information, as well as the names of Sarah and William's children, was taken from information prepared by Carl G. Pemberton to be presented at the centennial celebration of the Pemberton family in the summer of 1915 at the Washington Brown Farm, between Roseville and Crooksville, Ohio. ⁴⁷

William Pemberton, who was a surveyor by trade, also served as a colonel in the War of 1812. In the Spring of 1815, after having received a government contract to survey portions of southern Indiana, William and Sarah left Maryland and traveled to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. At Pittsburg, William built a boat with the intention of floating down the Ohio River to the mouth of the Wabash River, and then up that river to Fort Vincennes where he planned to establish his headquarters. Shortly after finishing work on his boat, however, William came down with spinal meningitis and died four days later. He was subsequently buried at Pittsburg in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania. ⁴⁷

After William died, Sarah and her children took the boat that William had built and floated down the Ohio River to Steubenville in Jefferson County, Ohio, where they sold it. From there they went by wagon, settling in that portion of Muskingum County, Ohio that was later formed into Perry County, Ohio in 1818. Sarah, who died in Perry County, Ohio in 1826, was subsequently buried in the Roseville Cemetery at Roseville in Muskingum County, Ohio. ⁴⁷

Epiminandus Odell, the son of William Odell and Rachel Walters, was calculated to have been born in Baltimore County, Maryland in 1815. ⁶² Sometime during the early 1820's, Epiminandus moved with other family members to Tennessee, where they settled in Knox County. According to the 1850 census, Epiminandus was residing with his brother, Thomas Bowen Odell, on his farm in Subdivision 15 of Knox County, Tennessee. ⁶² Epiminandus was later married to a woman named Margaret. ⁶¹ Margaret, who was a native of Georgia, was calculated to have been born there in 1837. ⁶¹

Epiminandus and Margaret were last found on the 1880 federal census of Knox County, Tennessee. ⁶¹ There are no known issue from this marriage.

44. Jonathan Walters Odell.

Jonathan Odell (also written John Odell), the son of William Odell and Rachel Walters, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland during the month of January 1817. ⁶⁴ Sometime during the early 1820's, Jonathan moved with other family members to Tennessee, where they settled in Knox County. Based upon several census enumerations, Jonathan apparently remained single throughout his life. ^{59,62,64,65,170}

As a young man, Jonathan and his brother, Hith, went to California during the Gold Rush, where they were shown on the 1850 census of Trinity County, California as being miners.¹⁷¹ By the time the 1850 census of Knox County, Tennessee had been enumerated on 11 December 1850, however, they had returned to Knox County and were shown to be residing with their brother, Thomas Bowen Odell, on his farm in Subdivision 15.⁶² Jonathan was last found on the 1900 census of Jack County, Texas residing in Justice Precinct 2 with several unmarried children of his brother, Thomas Bowen Odell.⁶⁴

45. Hith Dickson Odell.

Hith Dickson Odell, the son of William Odell and Rachel Walters, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 25 February 1819.²⁰ Sometime during the early 1820's, Hith moved with other family members to Tennessee, where they settled in Knox County. As a young man, Hith and his brother, Jonathan, went to California during the Gold Rush, where they were shown on the 1850 census of Trinity County, California as being miners.¹⁷¹ By the time the 1850 census of Knox County, Tennessee had been enumerated on 11 December 1850, however, they had returned to Knox County and were shown to be residing with their brother, Thomas Bowen Odell, on his farm in Subdivision 15.⁶²

Hith was later married on 17 December 1861 in Knox County, Tennessee to a woman named Evaline C. Nelson.⁵⁸ Evaline, who was calculated to have been born in Tennessee in 1839, was the daughter of James W. and Elizabeth C. Nelson.⁶² Hith and Evaline were last found together on the 1870 federal census residing at Knoxville in Knox County, Tennessee, where Hith worked as a grocer.⁶⁰ Hith subsequently died at Knoxville in Knox County, Tennessee on 12 August 1879 due to rheumatism.⁶⁶ Hith's widow, Evaline, and her children were shown on the 1880 census to be residing with Evaline's mother, Elizabeth C. Nelson, in the Mils Case household at Knoxville, Tennessee.⁶¹

According to the 1850 census of Knox County, Tennessee, Elisha was residing with his brother, Thomas Bowen Odell, on his farm in Subdivision 15.⁶² Elisha was last found on the 1880 federal census of Knox County, Tennessee still residing in the home of his brother Thomas Bowen Odell, and still unmarried.^{59,60,61}

47. Matilda Odell.

Matilda Odell, the daughter of Isaiah Odell and Elizabeth Buck Towson, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 27 December 1797.^{21,27} She was later married in Baltimore County on 15 December 1815 to a man named Nicholas Dorsey Worthington.¹⁹ Nicholas, who was also a native of Maryland, had been born there on 28 October 1788.²⁷

After their marriage, Nicholas and Matilda resided on a farm in District 1 in Baltimore County, Maryland.⁷⁶ Nicholas subsequently died on 20 January 1860 in Baltimore County at the age of 71, while Matilda died there on 12 October 1879.^{21,27,175}

The children listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from the 1820 and 1830 census enumerations of Baltimore County, Maryland.^{176,177} Although these are believed to be Nicholas and Matilda's children, their identities have yet to be determined.

Providence Ann Odell, the daughter of Isaiah Odell and Elizabeth Buck Towson, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 26 February 1800. ²² She was later married in Baltimore County to a man named Lemuel Ward Gosnell on 3 February 1820. ^{19,22} Lemuel, who had been born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 2 April 1796, was the son of Philip Gosnell and Mary Ward. ^{154,181}

Providence subsequently died on 6 April 1833 in Baltimore County. ²² Although Providence was originally buried in the Odell Cemetery near Randallstown in Baltimore County, her remains were later moved to the Wards Chapel Methodist Church Cemetery.²²

After Providence passed away, Lemuel is known to have married for a second time to a woman named Adaline P. Kite on 6 January 1836 at Chambersburg in Franklin County, Pennsylvania.^{154,181} Lemuel and Adaline returned to Baltimore County, Maryland after their marriage, and it is here that Lemuel resided for the remainder of his life. Lemuel subsequently died in Baltimore County on 20 June 1876.^{154,181} In his will, which was dated 29 March 1876, Lemuel named the five children listed below who were from his first marriage to Providence.¹⁵⁴

John Odell, the son of Isaiah Odell and Elizabeth Buck Towson, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 19 November 1802.²¹ He died on 6 December 1818 in Baltimore County at the age of sixteen.²¹

Penelope Odell, the daughter of Isaiah Odell and Elizabeth Buck Towson, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 16 September 1804.²¹ She was later married in Baltimore County on 2 August 1824 to a man named Charles R. Dimmit (also written Demmit).²¹ Penelope died in Baltimore County on 3 April 1840.²¹

The child listed below as (female) was abstracted from the 1830 census of Baltimore County, Maryland.¹⁷⁷ Because Charles Dimmit was not found on the 1840 census of Maryland, however, it is not known at this time whether or not he and Penelope had other children.¹⁸²

Enumerated issue: (Surname Dimmit)

51. Thomas Towson Odell.

Thomas Odell, the son of Isaiah Odell and Elizabeth Buck Towson, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 15 May 1806.²¹ He was later married in Baltimore County to a woman named Katherine Conway Settle.²¹

After their marriage, Thomas and Katherine, appear to have moved back and forth between Virginia and Maryland for a number of years before settling in the District of Columbia in about 1848.¹⁸³ Although Thomas and his family were still residing in the District of Columbia when the 1860 census was enumerated, by 1870 they were residing in Baltimore County, Maryland.^{77,184} When the 1880 census was taken, Thomas was a widower residing with his daughter, Sarah Williams, at Washington in the District of Columbia, and listed as a retired dry Goods Merchant.¹⁸⁵ Thomas Towson Odell died in the District of Columbia on 22 February 1890.¹⁸⁶ He was subsequently buried on 24 February 1890 in the Glenwood Cemetery in the District of Columbia.¹⁸⁶

Thomas Towson Odell and Katherine Settle appear to have been the parents of eight children. However, because the 1850 through 1880 census records are so inconsistent regarding names and ages of Thomas Towson Odell's wife and children, only the child's state of birth will be shown. As an example, Thomas Odell's wife was named Susan in 1850, Catherine in 1860, and Sarah C. in 1870. ^{77,183,184} The children's names shown below were taken from the 1850 census of the District of Columbia, USA. The names in parentheses are alternative names shown on the 1860 census of the District of Columbia. ^{183,184}

Rachel Odell, the daughter of Isaiah Odell and Elizabeth Buck Towson, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 3 November 1811.²¹ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

John Odell and Ann Cooper had a female child who was enumerated in the 1810 census of Baltimore County, Maryland as having been born sometime during the period 1794-1800.⁵⁷ Because this child was not mentioned in the will of her grandfather, John Odell, Sr., which was dated 9 January 1817, it may be that she died young.¹⁷

William Odell, the son of John Odell and Ann Cooper, was calculated to have been born in 1798 in Baltimore County, Maryland.^{17,76} He was later married in Maryland to a woman whose name is currently not known.⁷⁶ The following children were residing with William in District 1 in Baltimore County in 1850, however, and are believed to be his.⁷⁶ William was last found on the 1870 census of Baltimore County, Maryland.⁷⁷

Elijah Odell, the son of John Odell and Ann Cooper, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland during the period 1800-1810.^{17,57} No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

Perigo Odell (also known as Perry Odell), the son of John Odell and Ann Cooper, was calculated to have been born in Baltimore County, Maryland in 1805/1806.^{17,76,78} Perigo apparently remained single throughout his life.^{76,78} According to the 1850 census of Maryland, Perigo was employed as a laborer and residing in District 1 in Baltimore County with the Nathaniel Vansant family.⁷⁶ By 1860, however, he was working as a farm laborer and residing with his older brother, William, in District 2 in Baltimore County, Maryland.⁷⁸ Perigo was last found on the 1860 census of Baltimore County, Maryland.⁷⁸

Richard Odell, the son of John Odell and Ann Cooper, was calculated to have been born in Baltimore County, Maryland in 1811.^{17,79} He was later married in about 1844 to a woman named Matilda.^{79,80} Matilda, who was also a native of Maryland, was calculated to have been born there in 1826.⁷⁹

According to the 1850 and 1860 census enumerations of Ohio, Richard and Matilda were residing in Berne Township in Fairfield County, Ohio, where Richard worked as a wagon maker.^{79,188} Richard and Matilda were later found on the 1870 census residing on a farm in Good Hope Township in Hocking County, Ohio.¹⁸⁹ By 1880, however, Richard had apparently gone back to wagon making, and the family was living in Greenfield Township in Fairfield County, Ohio.⁸¹

Eleanor Odell, the daughter of Henry Odell and Mary Sweeten, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland during the period 1800-1810. ^{17,57} Aside from the fact that Eleanor was identified in her grandfather's will as being the daughter of Henry Odell, no additional information has been found concerning this individual. ¹⁷

Henry Odell and Mary Sweeten had a female child who was enumerated in the 1810 census of Maryland as having been born during the period 1800-1810 in Baltimore County. ⁵⁷ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

Mary Odle (also written Odell), the eldest daughter of John and Nancy Odell, was born in 1788 in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia). ^{1,88} As a young girl, Mary moved with her parents to that portion of the Northwest Territory that was later incorporated into Ross County, Ohio in 1803. ^{84,85} She was later married in Ross County, Ohio on 1 September 1805 to a man named Martin A. Boots. ^{41,88} This was Martin's second marriage, having previously been married on 18 June 1804 in Ross County, Ohio to a woman named Eve Arenhood. ^{41,190} Martin, who was born in 1777 in Hardy County, Virginia (now within West Virginia), was the son of Hans Adam and Barbara Stieffel. ^{88,190}

NOTE: Martin's father, Hans Adam Stieffel, apparently changed his name to John Boots in about 1800.

During the War of 1812, Martin served as a Private in Captain Martin Armstrong's Company of Ross County Militia. ¹²¹ Martin's brother-in-laws, William Odle, and Caleb Odle served in the same unit. ¹²¹ In about 1819, Martin and Mary left Ohio and moved to Indiana, where they show up on the 1820 census of Randolph County. ⁸⁶ Although Martin and Mary resided in Randolph County, Indiana for approximately six years, they later settled at the mouth of Boots Creek in Grant County, Indiana, where they had entered land on 19 October 1825. ¹⁹⁰ Martin later constructed the first water powered grist mill in Grant County on Boots Creek. ¹⁹⁰ Mary subsequently died at Marion in Grant County, Indiana during the month of April 1830. ⁸⁸

After Mary passed away, Martin married on 20 June 1833 for a third time to a woman named Nancy Norman in Grant County, Indiana.⁹⁰ From this third marriage, two sons were born, namely George W. Boots and Nelson R. Boots.^{191,192} Martin died at Marion in Grant County, Indiana on 13 September 1842.^{88,190} His will, which had been written on 5 September 1842, was submitted for probate on 15 October 1842.¹⁹¹ Martin and Mary are both buried in the Estates of Serenity Cemetery at Marion in Grant County, Indiana.⁸⁸

76. Caleb Owen Odle.

Caleb Odle (also written Odell), the son of John and Nancy Odell, was born in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) on 2 January 1793.⁹³ As a young boy, Caleb Owen moved with his parents to that portion of the Northwest Territory that was later incorporated into Ross County, Ohio in 1803.^{84,85} During the War of 1812, Caleb served as a Corporal in Captain Martin Armstrong's Company of Ross County Militia.¹²¹ Caleb's brother, William Odle, and his brother-in-law, Martin Boots, served in the same unit.¹²¹

After the War, Caleb married his first wife, Hester M. "Kitty" Brown, in Gallia County, Ohio on 8 November 1815.⁹⁴ Hester, who had been born in about 1795, probably in New York, was the daughter of Nathan Brown and Margaret Simpson.²⁰² Hester subsequently died in Randolph County, Indiana in about 1833.²⁰² She was the mother of five children by Caleb.

After his first wife passed away, Caleb married for a second time to a woman named Irena Franklin in Randolph County, Indiana on 14 August 1834.⁹⁰ Irena, who had been born in Ohio on 17 May 1814, was the daughter of John Franklin and Eleanor "Nelly" Riggs.²⁰³ Although Caleb and Irena resided in Randolph County for a number of years after their marriage, they later settled on a farm in Beaver Township in that portion of Jasper County, Indiana that was formed into Newton County, Indiana in 1859.^{84,204} Their farm was situated along the Illinois - Indiana state line.

Irena, who died on 29 November 1860 in Newton County, Indiana, was buried in the Murphy Cemetery at Morocco in Newton County.²⁰³ Caleb, on the other hand, died in Iroquois County, Illinois on 25 December 1865.⁹³ He was subsequently buried in the Greentown Cemetery in Iroquois County.⁹³

78. (male) Odle.

John Odle (also written Odell) and his wife, Nancy, had a male child who was born in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia). ⁸⁶ The identity of this child has not been determined, and it may be that he died at an early age.

79. John Boots Odle.

John Odle (also written Odell), the son of John and Nancy Odell, was born in about 1800 in Ross County, Ohio. ¹ As a young man, John moved with his parents to Indiana, where they settled in Randolph County. John was apparently married twice during his life. He married first on 25 December 1824 to a woman named Jane Conway in Wayne County, Indiana. ⁹⁰ Jane, who was a native of Tennessee, was calculated to have been born there in 1804. ²³³

In about 1841, John and Jane moved to Missouri, where they settled on a farm in District 58

in Moniteau County.²³³ John and Jane Odle were shown, along with six of their children, on the 1850 census of Moniteau County.²³³ Jane (Conway) Odle subsequently died in Moniteau County in about 1866/1867, as John is known to have married for a second time in early 1868.⁹⁵

After his first wife passed away, John married on 1 January 1868 for a second time to a widow named Nancy (Parton) Holder in Cole County, Missouri.⁹⁵ Nancy, who was calculated to have been born in 1809 in North Carolina, was the widow of William Holder, whom she had married on 9 August 1832 in Wayne County, Kentucky.^{96,234} John and Nancy were last found on the 1880 census of Burriss Fork in Moniteau County, Missouri.⁹⁶ There are no known issue from John's second marriage to Nancy.

NOTE: Although it has not been verified by this author, the 1850 census of Moniteau County, Missouri seems to indicate that John and Jane may have had two sets of twins.

John Odle (also written Odell) and his wife, Nancy, had a female child who was born in Ross County, Ohio during the period 1804-1810.⁸⁶ The identity of this child has not been determined, and it may be that she died at an early age.

John Odle (also written Odell) and his wife, Nancy, had a female child who was born in Ross County, Ohio during the period 1810-1820.⁸⁶ The identity of this child has not been determined, and it may be that she died at an early age.

William Odle (also written Odell), the son of Richard Odell and Elizabeth Dawson, was born on 13 July 1791 in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within the State of West Virginia).¹⁰¹ As a young boy, William moved with his parents to that portion of the Northwest Territory that was later incorporated into Ross County, Ohio in 1803.^{84,85} William was later married on 7 April 1813 to a woman named Elizabeth "Betsy" Ewings in Ross County, Ohio.⁴¹ Elizabeth, who was also a native of Virginia, had been born there on 31 December 1796.¹⁰¹

Although William and Elizabeth were still residing in Jefferson Township in Ross County, Ohio at the time the 1830 census was enumerated, shortly thereafter they moved to western Indiana, where they settled in John Q. Adams Township in Warren County.^{9,103} William died in Warren County, Indiana on 28 December 1869, while Elizabeth died there on 16 April 1874.¹⁰¹ Both were subsequently buried in the Pine Village Cemetery at Pine Village in Warren County.¹⁰¹

The children listed below as (female) were abstracted from the 1830 census of Ross County, Ohio and the 1840 census of Warren County, Indiana.^{9,236} Although these are all believed to be William and Elizabeth's children, their identities have yet to be determined.

Hannah Odle (also written Odell), the daughter of Richard Odle and Elizabeth Dawson, was born in about 1792/1794 in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within the state of West Virginia).¹⁰² As a young girl, Hannah moved with her parents to that portion of the Northwest Territory that was later incorporated into Ross County, Ohio in 1803.^{84,85} Hannah was later married to a man named Frederick Reitenour (also written Ritenour) on 16 December 1817 in Ross County, Ohio.⁴¹ Frederick, who was a native of Virginia, had been there on 19 February 1796.^{33,102} Frederick was the son of Anthony Reitenour and Margaret Elizabeth Schlosser.³²

Frederick and Hannah eventually left Ross County, Ohio and moved to Indiana, where they are found residing on the 1830 census in Warren County.²³⁷ Frederick Reitenour died in Warren County, Indiana on 22 January 1862, and was buried in the Union Cemetery near Pine Village in John Q. Adams Township in Warren County.^{33,102} Hannah, on the other hand, died in Warren County, Indiana on 8 March 1863.¹⁰² Her place of burial has not been determined, however.

The child listed below as (male) was abstracted from the 1830 census of Warren County, Indiana.²³⁷ Although this is also believed to be one of Hannah and Frederick's children, his identity has not been determined.

James Odle (also written Odell), the son of Richard Odle and Elizabeth Dawson, was probably born in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within the State of West Virginia). Because no additional information has been found concerning James, it may be that he died at an early age.

85. Asenath "Cena" Odle.

Asenath Odle (also written Odell), the daughter of Richard Odle and Elizabeth Dawson, was calculated from her stated age and date of death, as shown on her tombstone, to have been born on 13 July 1800 in Ross County, Ohio. ³³ She was later married in Ross County, Ohio by a marriage license dated 24 January 1821 to a man named Samuel Thomas. ^{33,41} Samuel, who was also a native of Ross County, Ohio, was calculated to have been born there on 16 August 1800. ³³ This date was calculated from Samuel's stated age at the time of his death. ³³

In 1830, Asenath and Samuel left Ross County, Ohio and moved to Warren County, Indiana. Samuel died in Warren County on 8 February 1843. ³³ After Samuel passed away, Asenath married for a second time to a man named Frederick Waymire on 15 October 1843 in Warren County, Indiana. ⁹⁰ Frederick and Asenath appear to have been divorced within a few years of their marriage, however, as Frederick Waymire is known to have married for a third time to a widow named Nancy Draper on 9 February 1848 in Fountain County Indiana. ⁹⁰ Ironically, Asenath was listed as Asenath Thomas on the 1850 census, and as Asenath Waymire while residing with her son, John, and his family in Pine Village Township in 1860, but as Asenath Thomas again on the 1870 census of Warren County. ^{103,240,241}

Asenath died in Warren County on 26 September 1873.³³ Both Asenath and her first husband, Samuel Thomas, were subsequently buried in the Union Cemetery near Pine Village in John Q. Adams Township in Warren County.³³ The children listed below were named in "Thomas Family History" compiled by Debbie Champion.²⁴²

87. Thomas Dawson Odle.

Thomas Dawson Odle (also written Odell), the son of Richard Odell and Elizabeth Dawson, was born in Ross County, Ohio on 5 February 1808. ¹⁰¹ Thomas was later married in Ross County to a woman named Adilade Horton on 1 August 1829. ⁴¹ Adilade had been born on 13 January 1813 in Ohio. ¹⁰¹

In 1832, Thomas and Adilade moved to Warren County, Indiana, where they originally purchased 80 acres of land. ²⁵⁴ Over time they added to this property until they eventually owned 360 acres. ²⁵⁴ Although Thomas was originally a hatter by trade, he apparently took up farming after his marriage. ²⁵⁴ Thomas died in Warren County, Indiana on 7 January 1882, while his widow, Adilade, died there on 13 April 1896. ¹⁰¹ Both were subsequently buried in the Pine Village Cemetery at Pine Village in Warren County. ¹⁰¹

88. Sarah "Sally" Odle.

Sarah Odle (also written Odell), the daughter of Richard Odle and Elizabeth Dawson, was calculated from her stated age and date of death, as shown on her tombstone, to have been born in Ross County, Ohio on 26 March 1810. ¹⁰¹ In about 1831, Sarah accompanied her parents to western Indiana, where they settled in Warren County. She was later married on 10 December 1832 in Warren County, Indiana to a man named John Boyer. ¹⁰⁰ John was calculated from his stated age and date of death, as shown on his tombstone, to have been born on 12 September 1808 in Virginia. ^{101,103}

After their marriage, John and Sarah settled on a farm in John Q. Adams Township in Warren County, Indiana. ¹⁰³ John later died on 14 January 1857 in Warren County, Indiana, while Sarah died there on 28 November 1894. ¹⁰¹ Both were subsequently buried in the Pine Village Cemetery at Pine Village in Warren County. ¹⁰¹

Abigail Odle (also written Odell), the daughter of Richard Odle and Elizabeth Dawson, was calculated to have been born in 1812 in Ross County, Ohio.¹⁰³ Abigail apparently was married twice during her life. She married first to a man named Minot Kidney in Warren County, Indiana on 17 July 1832.¹⁰⁰ Minot, who was a native of New York, was calculated to have been born there in 1811.¹⁰³ He appears to have died in Warren County, Indiana in about 1856/1857 as Abigail is known to have married for a second time in early 1858.⁹⁰

After her first husband passed away, Abigail married for a second time, also in Warren County, Indiana, to a man named Alfred Fisher on 28 January 1858.⁹⁰ Alfred, who was a native of North Carolina, was calculated to have been born there in 1803.²⁴⁰ Abigail and her second husband, Alfred, were last found on the 1880 census of Warren County, Indiana.²⁵⁸ There were no issue from Abigail's second marriage.

90. Lavina Odle. *

Lavina Odle (also written Odell), the youngest daughter of Richard Odell and Elizabeth Dawson was born on 17 December 1814 in Ross County, Ohio. ¹⁰⁵ She was later married on 19 August 1832 in Warren County, Indiana to a man named John Allen. ¹⁰⁰ John, who was born on 4 June 1813 in Greene County, Ohio, was the son of Edward Allen and Mary Benson. ²⁵⁹

Sometime after the birth of her sixth child, John Fenton Allen, John and Lavina left Indiana and moved to Wisconsin, where they are found residing on the 1850 census at Jefferson in Green County. ^{105,260} John, who died on 11 February 1860 at Juda in Green County, Wisconsin, was subsequently buried in the Basswood Cemetery in Spring Grove Township, Green County, Wisconsin. ²⁵⁹

Although Lavina and her children moved to Warren County, Iowa after her husband, John, passed away, they eventually moved south into Kansas. ^{98,105} Lavina died in 1898 near Wilson in Ellsworth County, Kansas. ¹⁰⁵

101. (female) Odle.

Caleb Odle (also written Odell) and his first wife had a female child who was born during the period 1794-1804, possibly in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia). ³⁰
 The identity of this child has not been determined.

102. Asenath C. Odle.

Asenath Odle (also written Odell), the daughter of Caleb Odle and his first wife, was born in Ross County, Ohio on 2 July 1809.¹²⁵ She was later married to a man named Michael W. Ramsey on 14 February 1833 in Ross County, Ohio.^{41,125} Michael, who had been born on 9 February 1806 in Maryland, was the son of John Ramsey and Priscilla Elizabeth Smith.^{125,271}

Approximately three years after their marriage, Asenath and Michael left Ohio and moved to Des Moines County in what was then the Wisconsin Territory, but later became a part of Iowa Territory in 1838.^{84,125,270} When the 1850 census of Iowa was taken, Michael and Asenath were shown to be residing on a farm in Pleasant Grove Township in Des Moines County, Iowa.²⁷¹ Pleasant Grove Township was apparently situated on the border separating Des Moines County and Henry County, Iowa, as the 1870 census shows Michael and Asenath residing at New London in Henry County, which was also listed as the Post Office for Pleasant Grove Township.²⁷² Michael Ramsey was listed as being a real estate broker in this census.²⁷²

Asenath died in Pleasant Grove Township in Des Moines County, Iowa on 13 June 1871, while Michael died there on 4 March 1878.¹²⁵ Both were subsequently buried in the Ramsey Cemetery in Pleasant Grove Township in Des Moines County.¹²⁵

103. Jane Scott Odle.

Jane Scott Odle (also written Odell), the daughter of Caleb Odle and his second wife, Nancy Ann Greave, was born on 3 November 1813 in Ross County, Ohio. ^{30,39,126} She was later married in Ross County to a man named James Lewis Argubright (also written Arganbright) on 15 December 1831. ^{41,126} James, who was a native of Virginia, had been born there on 9 January 1808. ^{39,126} He was the son of Jacob Argubright and Susannah E. Russell. ¹²⁶

Several years after their marriage, James and Jane left Ohio and moved to Illinois, where they are found on the 1840 census residing with Jane's father, Caleb Odle, and his third wife, Elizabeth (McClintock) Gibbons, in Livingston County. ²⁷⁷ By 1850, however, James and Jane, were residing on their own farm on the south side of the Vermillion River in Livingston County. ²⁷⁸ And, according to the 1860, 1870, and 1880 census enumerations of Illinois, they were residing on a farm in Long Point Township in Livingston County. ^{279,280,281}

James and Jane were last found on the 1900 census of Illinois residing at Streator in La Salle County. ²⁸² Both James and Jane died at Streator in La Salle County, Illinois shortly after the 1900 census was taken. Jane died there on 24 June 1900, while James died there on 3 December 1900. ³⁹ They were subsequently buried in the Long Point Cemetery at Long Point in Livingston County, Illinois. ³⁹ James and Jane were the parents of ten children.

106. William Odell.

William Odell, the son of Joshua Odell and Susannah Davis, was calculated to have been born in 1806 in Harrison County, Virginia (now within West Virginia).¹³¹ William was apparently married twice during his life. He married first in about 1828 to a woman named Delila Curl, probably in Harrison County, Virginia (now within West Virginia).¹³² The estimated date of marriage for William and his first wife, Delila Curl, is based upon the fact that the Sheep Run Cemetery records indicate their eldest daughter, Irena (Odell) Willey, was born on 4 May 1829.¹³²

After his first wife passed away, William married for a second time in 1834 in Tyler County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) to a woman named Jane Morgan.¹³² The estimated date of marriage for William and his second wife, Jane Morgan, is based upon the fact that the Hebron Cemetery records indicate that their first child, Mary E. (Odell) Mike, was born on 6 November 1835 in Tyler County, Virginia (now West Virginia). Jane, who was also a native of Virginia, was calculated to have been born there in 1814.¹³¹

After their marriage, William and Jane resided on a farm in Tyler County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) for many years.¹³⁹ William was last found on the 1880 census of Tyler County, West Virginia.¹³³

Talkington.¹³⁸ John, who had been born on 2 April 1817 in Virginia, was the son of Jacob Talkington and Prissocia Price.^{141,143}

After their marriage, John and Asenath settled on a farm in Harrison County, where it appears they resided for the remainder of their lives. Asenath died in Harrison County, West Virginia on 11 June 1903, while John died there on 8 September 1907.¹⁴³ Both were later buried in the Talkington Cemetery on Route 20 along the Harrison County - Wetzel County, West Virginia boundary line.¹⁴³

According to the 1900 census of Harrison County, West Virginia, John and Asenath were the parents of ten children, only two of whom were still living.³⁰⁸ Unfortunately, the five children listed below were the only children that were found in census and other records. Because John and Asenath's other five child were apparently born between censuses and died young, no information can be provided for them.

136. Lucy Ann Odell.

Lucy Ann Odell, the daughter of Abraham Odell and his first wife, Kiturah Ann "Kitty" Odell, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 11 February 1802. ^{6,21} She was later married in Baltimore County, Maryland on 8 November 1822 to a man named Alexander Hutson. ¹⁹ Alexander, who had been born on 9 October 1796 in Baltimore County, Maryland, was the son of Joshua Hutson and Susannah Hooker. ^{21,319}

Alexander and Lucy Ann eventually moved to Iowa, where they settled first in Johnson County in 1842, but later moved to Iowa County, in the spring of 1846. ³¹⁹ Alexander was later elected a Justice of the Peace in the first election held in Cono Township in Iowa County in 1846. ³¹⁹ Although Alexander was a wheelwright in Maryland, he gave that trade up to be a farmer when he moved to Iowa. ³¹⁹

Alexander died in Cono Township in Iowa County, Iowa on 6 March 1875. ³¹⁹ Lucy Ann, on the other hand died on 18 January 1882 at Belle Plaine in Benton County, Iowa. ^{6,21} Because Alexander is known to have been buried in the Dayton Cemetery in Iowa County, it is believed that Lucy Ann was most likely buried there also.¹⁵² Unfortunately, no tombstones exist. According to a biographical sketch in "The History of Iowa County, Iowa," Alexander and Lucy Ann were the parents of ten children.³¹⁹
