REFERENCES

A listing of references and other source material is provided at the end of this genealogy. An all-name Index is currently under construction and will be added at a later date.

DATES

For the most part, many conflicting dates were easily straightened out by simply rechecking the source material or official records. In some cases, however, marriage dates may vary from other published works because the researcher used the date of a marriage bond, or the date a marriage license was issued, instead of the actual marriage date. Even though some of the source material I used did not specify the origin of the marriage date given, I have tried to differentiate the marriage dates as accurately as possible. In a number of cases an approximate date of marriage, using the abbreviation "ca." for circa (about), is shown based upon information provided in various census documents.

Another dating problem involves the recording of marriage banns. A couple's intentions to marry, or banns of marriage, were generally proclaimed in church on three consecutive Sundays, and if no legal impediments precluded the couple from being married, their marriage would be sanctioned after the third proclamation. Unfortunately, the first or second proclamation will often be cited as the marriage date instead of the third. I must admit, however, that this is difficult to avoid in some cases because of missing or damaged records.

Death dates may also vary in that the date of burial, or the date a will was written or submitted for probate, will sometimes be cited by others instead of the actual death date. In those cases where I was unable to verify which of two dates was correct, I generally went with the one that referenced the most credible source material, or simply used the year only.

One of the most common dating conflicts involves the use of the Julian Calendar versus the Gregorian Calendar. On 14 September 1752, the Gregorian Calendar was adopted in both Great Britain and its colonies in North America, and the first day of the year then became January 1. Prior to that date, the Julian Calendar was in effect and the first day of the year was March 25. As a consequence, many dates found in the 1600's and first half of the 1700's for the months of January, February, and March reflect, or should reflect, a double date, such as 15 February 1735/1736. Even though both dates may be perfectly acceptable based upon the calendar that was in use at the time, to be consistent with current dating procedures the second date is most accurate.

LOCATIONS

With respect to the location at which an event took place, there were many cases when it was not possible to find any record giving the exact location that a birth, marriage or death took place. Because I feel quite strongly that dates should always be accompanied by places, if for no other reason than to aid future research, I made a number of assumptions regarding location based upon available information. For instance, if a family is found in the Fayette County, Indiana census records for 1840 and 1850, and they also show up in the deed and tax records of that county for the same period, I did not feel that it was unreasonable to assume that any children they had during this period were probably also born in Fayette County. In some cases, however, my comfort level with assuming a possible location was limited to a state only.

MARYLAND, SOUTH CAROLINA, OHIO, AND INDIANA

GENERATION ONE

1. Thomas Odell. *

Thomas Odell, the earliest known progenitor of our Odell family, is thought to have been born in about 1660 in England. Unfortunately, neither his parentage, nor where he came from in England, have ever been determined. Although the actual date that Thomas immigrated into the Province of Maryland is also unknown, he had definitely arrived there prior to 1691. Thomas was later married during the month of April 1691, most likely in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, to a widow named Sarah (Ridgely) Brewer. Sarah, who is thought to have been born in about 1664 in Anne Arundel County, was the widow of John Brewer, and the daughter of Henry Ridgely and Elizabeth Howard.

After their marriage, Thomas and Sarah resided within the boundaries of All Hallows Parish in Anne Arundel County. During the years 1694 through 1698, Thomas was described in various Anne Arundel County documents as being one of the three County Coroners, as being a militia officer, and as being one of Her Majesties Justices for that County.

On 6 April 1700, Thomas purchased two tracts of land from James Murray which were located in Baltimore County, Maryland. These tracts were called "Athel," which consisted of 617 acres, and "Murray's Addition," which consisted of 89 acres. Both of these tracts were situated north of the Patapsco River on what was called "Hunting Ridge." On 25 March 1701, Thomas bought another tract of land from a man named Robert Bradley. This tract, which consisted of 800 acres, was located in Prince George's County, Maryland and was called "Darnall's Grove." It was situated on the west side of the Patuxent River and Collington's Branch of the Patuxent River, near the present town of Upper Marlborough.

Shortly after Thomas Odell purchased "Darnall's Grove," he and his family moved to Prince George's County, Maryland, where they settled in Queen Anne's Parish. Thomas and his father-in-law, Henry Ridgely, were subsequently elected as Vestrymen of Queen Anne's Parish at an assembly held in the St. Barnabas Episcopal Church on 9 April 1705. During the following year, 1706, Thomas was made a Justice of the Prince George's County Court, and was also appointed as a Commissioner for the Upper Marlborough District. Thomas was later succeeded as a Vestryman for Queen Anne's Parish on 29 March 1714. Approximately four years later, on 7 May 1718, he sold a portion of the tract called "Athel," and all of "Murray's Addition," to Mr. George Bailey for 100 pounds.

Thomas Odell died in Prince George's County, Maryland in 1722. His last will and testament, which had been written on 29 April 1717, was subsequently submitted for probate before the Prince George's County Court on 11 April 1722. In his will, Thomas named his wife, Sarah, as Executrix. Sarah, on the other hand, appears to have died in 1727, also in Prince George's County, Maryland. Although Sarah does not appear to have left a will, an inventory of her estate was submitted to the Prince George's County Court on 28 June 1727. The below listed children were named in Thomas Odell's will, and/or were determined to be his children through various parish records.

GENERATION TWO

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings are covered in this generation.

2. Thomas Odell. *

Thomas Odell, the eldest son of Thomas Odell and Sarah (Ridgely) Brewer, was born on 7 January 1692/1693 in All Hallows Parish in Anne Arundel County, Maryland. He was later married in Maryland to a woman named Margaret Beall. Although no record of their marriage has been found, it most likely took place in about 1712 in Prince George's County, Maryland. Margaret, who was born in about 1694 in Calvert County, Maryland, was the daughter of James Bell (Beall) and Sarah Pearce. She was also the sister of the Sarah Beall who married Thomas Odell's brother, Rignall.

Thomas and Margaret probably resided in Prince George's County, Maryland until at least 1755, the year that Margaret's mother, Sarah (Pearce) Beall Haswell, wrote her will. This will, which was submitted for probate on 28 November 1761, left Margaret a small legacy of five shillings. Thomas and Margaret were not residing in Maryland at the time of her mother's death in 1761, however, as they had apparently moved to South Carolina by 1758.

Thomas, as well as his son, John, are found in the land records of South Carolina as owning plantations in the original Berkeley County. Thomas had a plantation surveyed for him on 18 December 1758, which was situated on Ninety-Six Creek and contained 400 acres. Although it is believed that Thomas died in South Carolina in about 1763, the actual date of Margaret's death has not been determined. She too is believed to have died in South Carolina, however.

Unfortunately, no records have ever been found which identify Thomas and Margaret's children, or even indicate how many children they may have had. Two of their sons, namely James and John, were named in the will of Margaret's brother, Robert Beall, whose will was dated 22 April 1740. In addition, two daughters, namely Sarah and Mary, were inferred from the naming of Hilleary Williams and Jacob Duckett in a deed dated 20 April 1745. The three other children listed below, William, Rachel, and Thomas are considered highly probable based upon a number of circumstantial and other factors.

3. Elizabeth Odell.

Elizabeth Odell, the daughter of Thomas Odell and Sarah (Ridgely) Brewer, was born in All Hallows Parish, Anne Arundel County, Maryland on 5 June 1696. She was apparently married to a man named Ninian Magruder, but died without issue shortly thereafter. When Elizabeth's father, Thomas Odell, wrote his last will and testament on 29 April 1717, he specifically appointed his "son-in-law Ninian Magruder" to be one of the Executors of his estate.

4. Henry Odell.

Henry Odell, the son of Thomas Odell and Sarah (Ridgely) Brewer, was born in All Hallows Parish in Anne Arundel County, Maryland on 15 April 1698. He was later married in Prince George's County, Maryland to a woman named Ann Prather. Ann was the daughter of Jonathan Prather and Elizabeth Biggers.

Henry died in 1738 in Prince George's County, Maryland. His will, which was written on 19 May 1738, was subsequently probated on 10 July 1738 in Prince George's County. The below listed children were named in Henry Odell's will.

5. Anne Odell.

Anne Odell, the daughter of Thomas Odell and Sarah (Ridgely) Brewer, was born in All Hallows Parish in Anne Arundel County, Maryland on 11 March 1701/1702. She was subsequently christened on 12 April 1702 in the Episcopal Church in All Hallows Parish. Anne died on 13 September 1702 in Anne Arundel County at only six months of age.

6. Anne Odell.

Anne Odell, the daughter of Thomas Odell and Sarah (Ridgely) Brewer, was born in Queen Anne's Parish in Prince George's County, Maryland on 18 November 1703. She was later married in Prince George's County to a man named Joseph Newton in 1719. Joseph, who had been born in about 1691 in Leicestershire, England, was the son of Joseph Newton and Margaret Presbury.

Joseph Newton died in Prince George's County, Maryland in early 1749. His will, which had been written on 20 January 1748/1749, was subsequently admitted for probate before the Prince George's County Court on 28 February 1748/1749. Anne, on the other hand, died in Prince George's County in 1771. Her will, which had been written on 13 October 1771, was probated on 20 December 1771. ### 7. Rignall Odell.

Rignall Odell, the son of Thomas Odell and Sarah (Ridgely) Brewer, was born in Queen Anne's Parish in Prince George's County, Maryland on 24 October 1705. He was later married in Prince George's County to a woman named Sarah Beall. Sarah, who had been born in Prince George's County, Maryland in about 1713, was the daughter of James Beall and Sarah Pearce. She was also the sister of the Margaret Beall who married Rignall's brother, Thomas Odell.

Rignall died in Prince George's County in 1754. Although Rignall does not appear to have left a will, an inventory of his estate was submitted to the Prince George's County Court on 8 April 1754. Sarah was later mentioned in the will of her mother, Sarah (Pearce) Beall Haswell. This will, which was dated 22 May 1755, was subsequently probated on 28 November 1761. Sarah was bequeathed a small legacy of five shillings.

After Rignall passed away, Sarah married for a second time, also in Maryland, to a man named Thomas Prather, Jr. Thomas was a widower at the time of his marriage to Sarah, having previously been married to a woman named Elizabeth Claggett in Prince George's County on 10 June 1725. ### GENERATION THREE

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings, and those other family members (cousins) who have the Odell / Odle surname, are covered in this generation.

9. William Odell. *

William Odell, a probable son of Thomas Odell and Margaret Beall, is believed to have been born in about 1714 in Prince George's County, Maryland. His wife's name was Elizabeth, and according to a number of sources, she was Elizabeth Talbot. The fact that William and his wife named a son, Talbot Odell, obviously lends some support to this argument.

After their marriage, William and Elizabeth apparently settled near Randallstown in Baltimore County, Maryland, where they acquired several tracts of land. One of these tracts, which they had purchased on 19 June 1742 from Anthony and Margaret Arnold, was called "Arnolds Choice." William died intestate in Baltimore County, Maryland in late 1748, and these tracts appear to have been inherited by his eldest son, John, according to old English law. Whatever became of Elizabeth has not been determined.

On 7 February 1749, an inventory of William's estate was submitted to the Baltimore County Court. This appraisal of William's estate was undertaken by John Stinchcomb and Joshua Owings. Elizabeth, who had been appointed Administratrix of William's estate, subsequently filed an accounting of the estate with the Office of the Register of Wills in Baltimore City on 30 May 1750. In this accounting, the names, as well as the ages, of all of William and Elizabeth's children were given.

Rachel Odell, a probable daughter of Thomas Odell and Margaret Beall, is believed to have been born in about 1716 in Prince George's County, Maryland. She was later married in Maryland in about 1735 to a man named John Prather. John, who was born on 12 June 1715 in Queen Anne's Parish in Prince George's County, was the son of William Nathan Prather and Ann Yates.

Rachel died in Montgomery County, Maryland in 1784, while John died there in 1796. John was subsequently buried on 3 November 1796. John's will, which had been written on 8 September 1795, was probated on 19 November 1796 in Montgomery County. The following children were identified in John's will.

11. Thomas Odell.

Thomas Odell, a probable son of Thomas Odell and Margaret Beall, is believed to have been born in about 1718 in Prince George's County, Maryland. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

12. Sarah Odell.

Sarah Odell, the daughter of Thomas Odell and Margaret Beall, is believed to have been born in about 1720 in Prince George's County, Maryland. She was later married in Maryland to a man named Jacob Duckett. Jacob, who was born in Prince George's County on 11 November 1714, was the son of Richard Duckett and Charity Jacob.

Jacob died in Frederick County, Maryland in 1764. His will, which had been written on 24 April 1764, was submitted for probate on 23 June 1764 before the Frederick County Court. After Jacob passed away, Sarah moved with her son, Jacob, Jr., to the Ninety-Six District of South Carolina, where she appears to have resided until her death. Sarah and Jacob, Jr. had two plantations, one containing 140 acres, and another containing 150 acres, surveyed for them in the original Berkeley County of South Carolina on 11 June 1769 and 10 August 1770, respectively.

Although all of the below listed children were all named in Jacob Duckett's will, their exact order of birth is not known.

13. Mary Odell.

Mary Odell, the daughter of Thomas Odell and Margaret Beall, is believed to have been born in about 1722 in Prince George's County, Maryland. She was later married in Maryland to a man named Hilleary Williams, the son of Baruch Williams and Eleanor Nuthall.

Hilleary and Mary apparently resided in that portion of Prince George's County that was formed into Frederick County, Maryland in 1748. They later sold a plantation called "Figure of Eight," which was situated in Prince George's County, to Jeremiah Berry for 4,000 pounds of tobacco on 22 April 1752.

The below children were mentioned in the will of Mary's grandmother, Sarah (Pearce) Beall Haswell. This will was dated 22 May 1755, and probated in Prince George's County on 28 November 1761.

Known issue: (Surname Williams)

58. James ----- b. in MD.

59. Sarah ----- b. in MD.

14. James Odell.

James Odell, the son of Thomas Odell and Margaret Beall, is believed to have been born in about 1725 in Prince George's County, Maryland. He was later married in Maryland to a woman named Martha Prather. Martha, who had been born in Prince George's County on 20 April 1730, was the daughter of John Smith Prather and Elizabeth Nuthall.

After their marriage, James and Martha resided on a plantation called "Ball Christe" in Frederick County, Maryland. James subsequently died in Frederick County in 1763. Although it appears that James died intestate, an appraisement of his estate was carried out on 12 August 1763.

After James passed away, Martha married for a second time, also in Maryland, to a man named Robert Lazenby. Martha and Robert resided in that part of Frederick County, Maryland that was later made a part of Montgomery County, Maryland in 1776. Robert died in Montgomery County in 1785. His will, which had been written on 3 March 1785, was subsequently probated on 15 June 1785 before the Montgomery County Court.

15. John "Hopping John" Odell.

John Odell, the son of Thomas Odell and Margaret Beall, is believed to have been born in about 1728 in Prince George's County, Maryland. He was later married in Maryland to a woman named Eleanor "Nellie" Hendrix.

John and Eleanor eventually moved with his parents to South Carolina. They subsequently had a plantation surveyed for them on 10 November 1768, which was situated in the original Berkeley County and contained 200 acres. John later served as a Private in the South Carolina Militia under General Thomas Sumter during the Revolutionary War.

John died in 1794 in Newberry County, South Carolina. Although he did not leave a will, his wife, Eleanor, and their eldest son, James, were made Executors of his estate by the Newberry County Court on 19 May 1794. Final disbursement, however, was not made until 6 May 1795. Eleanor received a "widows third," and the remainder was divided among his children.

16. Thomas Odell.

Thomas Odell, the eldest son of Henry Odell and Ann Prather, was born in Queen Anne's Parish in Prince George's County, Maryland on 28 July 1726. He was later married in Maryland to a woman named Keziah Offutt. Keziah, who was born in Prince George's County on 24 February 1735, was the daughter of William Offutt and Jane Joyce.

Thomas subsequently died in Frederick County, Maryland in 1759. Although Thomas did not leave a will, the Frederick County probate records indicate that an inventory of his estate was submitted to the County Court on 24 April 1759.

After Thomas passed away, his widow, Keziah, married for a second time to a man named William Pritchett. Keziah later married for a third time after William died to a man named Zephaniah Beall. Zephaniah and Keziah subsequently moved to Washington County, Pennsylvania, where they resided for the remainder of their lives.

Rignall Odell, the son of Henry Odell and Ann Prather, was born in Prince George's County, Maryland. He was later married in Queen Anne's Parish in Prince George's County to a woman named Martha Duckett on 25 August 1754. Martha, who had been born on 17 March 1738 in Queen Anne's Parish, was the daughter of Richard Duckett and Elizabeth Williams.

Rignall died in Prince George's County, Maryland in 1763. Because no will has been found for Rignall, it appears that he probably died intestate. No issue are known from Rignall's marriage to Martha. After Rignall passed away, Martha, married for a second time on 15 June 1764, also in Queen Anne's Parish, to a man named Edward Hall.

19. Eleanor Odell.

30. Ann Odell.

Ann Odell, believed to be a daughter of Rignall Odell and Sarah Beall, was born in about 1733 in Prince George's County, Maryland. She was later married in Maryland to a man named Jeremiah Prather. Jeremiah, who had been born on 21 July 1732 in Queen Anne's Parish in Prince George's County, Maryland, was the son of John Smith Prather and Elizabeth Nuthall.

Jeremiah had served in the French and Indian War, and with General Forbes in the expedition against Fort Duquesne. When his father died, Jeremiah inherited two plantations, one called "Deer Park" and the other "Bear Garden Enlarged." These lands were situated in that part of Frederick County that was later formed into Montgomery County, Maryland in 1776.

Jeremiah subsequently died on 30 August 1807 in Fayette County, Kentucky. His will, which was written on 9 September 1806, was probated during the November 1807 Court in Fayette County. It is not known at this time when or where Ann died. Jeremiah did not name any children in his will.

GENERATION FOUR

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings, and those other family members (cousins) who have the Odell / Odle surname, are covered in this generation.

37. Mary Odell.

Mary Odell, the daughter of William Odell and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1736 in Maryland. Although it is not known if Mary ever married, she is known to have had a child out of wedlock with a man named Philip Norwood. In November 1754, the Baltimore County Court fined both Philip Norwood and Mary Odell 30 shillings apiece for "bastardizing".

Although the identity of this child has not been verified, there is a possibility that it could have been the Philip Norwood who was born in 1755 in Baltimore County, Maryland, and later moved to Fleming County, Kentucky. This Philip Norwood died in Fleming County in 1807.

38. John Odell.

John Odell, the son of William Odell and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in Maryland on 24 September 1737 . He was later married in Maryland to a woman named Providence Baker. Providence had been born on 13 January 1739.

According to available deed records, on 9 January 1770 John leased 14.5 acres of land in Baltimore County, Maryland from John and Ruth Hurd for 13 pounds. Providence subsequently died on 17 March 1815 in Baltimore County, Maryland, while John died there on 14 February 1818. John's last will and testament, which had been written on 9 January 1817, was later admitted for probate before the Baltimore County Court on 18 February 1818.

39. William Odell. *

William Odell, the son of William Odell and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1740 in Baltimore County, Maryland. He was later married to a woman named Asenath Owings, the daughter of John Owings and his second wife, Asenath. Although no record of their marriage has been found, it is believed to have taken place in about 1762 in Baltimore County, Maryland. Asenath, who was also a native of Baltimore County, is believed to have been born there in about 1744.

This William Odell is believed to be the same William Odell who was later found in the deed records of Baltimore County, Maryland leasing 50 acres of land from Walter Smith on 27 September 1765. This same William also leased another 60 acres of land from Mr. Smith on 11 February 1767. William, who was described in the documents as being a planter and farmer, was to build a dwelling and plant a 200 tree orchard on the earlier lease.

William and Asenath eventually left Maryland and moved into the state of Virginia, where according to the 1782-1787 list of Virginia taxpayers, they were residing in Hampshire County (now within West Virginia). On 12 August 1783, William and Asenath purchased two tracts of land in Hampshire County from a man named John Kyger. These two tracts, which consisted of 453 total acres, were situated along Chestnut Ridge on Allegheny Mountain. William and Asenath eventually sold these tracts on 20 October 1806, with one going to James and Benjamin Dawson, and the other to Philip Goode.

Shortly after this, William and his family moved to the State of Ohio where they settled in Ross County. William and his son, Caleb, purchased 80 acres of land in Ross County in 1812, and it is believed that William resided on this farm with Caleb for the remainder of his life. Although William shows up on both the 1820 and 1830 census returns for Ohio, Asenath does not. As such, it can only be assumed that Asenath must have passed away prior to 1820. William, who was shown as being between 90 and 100 years of age on the 1830 census, is thought to have died in Ross County in either late 1830 or early 1831.

40. Walter Odell.

Walter Odell, the son of William Odell and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1742 in Baltimore County, Maryland. He was later married in Maryland to a woman named Lucy Frizzell. Lucy had been born in about 1741.

On 25 February 1784, Walter purchased part of "Minto and Rolles Chance," containing 40 and ½ acres, from Joshua Hurd. Walter later purchased 12 acres of land called "Bell's Park" from Alexander Wells on 15 September 1784. He subsequently purchased a 1 acre tract called "Jack's Delight" from Robert and William Weer on 8 April 1794, and on 28 March 1799, he had ¾ of an acre called "Addition to Minto" laid out by the Baltimore County Surveyor. Walter later sold the above four parcels to Rezin H. Worthington on 5 December 1825.

Lucy died in Baltimore County, Maryland on 22 April 1822, while Walter died there in 1828. Walter's will, which had been written on 16 February 1828, was subsequently admitted for probate before the Baltimore County Court on 21 May 1828.

41. Elizabeth Odell.

Elizabeth Odell, the daughter of William Odell and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1744 in Baltimore County, Maryland. She was later married in Maryland to a man named Isaiah Baker. Unfortunately, even though this couple very likely had children, I have not been able to identify any probable children with reasonable certainty. As such, no additional information is provided concerning this couple.

Issue: (Surname Baker)

42. Richard Odell.

Richard Odell, the son of William Odell and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1745 in Baltimore County, Maryland. Although he is known to have been married to a woman named Ann, no additional information has been found concerning her or her parentage. Richard and Ann resided in Anne Arundel County, Maryland.

According to available records, it appears that Richard took the Oath of Allegiance in Anne Arundel County on 1 March 1778. On 6 May 1778, however, Richard furnished a substitute, a man named Jesse Dority from Scotland, to serve for three months in the American Army during the Revolutionary War.

On 19 December 1783, Richard purchased 120 acres of land called "Shepherd's Forest" from John Sewell. He later purchased a 436 acre tract named "Wincopen Neck" from Richard and Anne Lawrence on 29 October 1791. Richard apparently got into financial difficulty in the early 1800's and was forced to sell most of his property. On 16 May 1801, he sold "Wincopen Neck" and 17 slaves to Richard Dorsey, and on 16 March 1802, he sold "Shepherd's Forest" to Joseph Ratcliff. Much of his personal property was also sold in 1805 to cover his debts.

The child listed below as (male) was abstracted from the 1790 census enumeration. Although this child is believed to be a son of Richard and Ann's, his identity has yet to be determined. It is very likely that Richard and Ann had other children.

43. Rignall Odell.

Rignall Odell, the son of William Odell and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1746 in Baltimore County, Maryland. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

44. Talbot Odell.

Talbot Odell, the son of William Odell and Elizabeth Talbot, was born in about 1748 in Baltimore County, Maryland. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

60. Mary Odell.

Mary Odell, the daughter of James Odell and Martha Prather, was born in Prince George's County, Maryland on 16 January 1748. She was later married in Maryland to a man named Thomas Duckett. Thomas, who was the son of Jacob Duckett and Sarah Odell, had been born on 24 November 1744 in Maryland. He was also the brother of the Jacob Duckett who married Mary's sister, Sarah.

On 28 November 1773, Thomas and Mary sold their land in Frederick County, Maryland and moved to South Carolina. Upon arriving in South Carolina several months later, they are found purchasing a plantation there from a man named Samuel Bishop on 14 March 1774. This plantation, which consisted of 100 acres, was situated along the Enoree River in that portion of Ninety-Six District, South Carolina that was later formed into Laurens County, South Carolina in 1785.

On 22 March 1806, Thomas and Mary sold their land in Laurens County, South Carolina to Charles Sims and Dred Jones. According to the deed records, Thomas and Mary were residing in Newberry County, South Carolina at the time. Mary died in Newberry County, South Carolina in 1822, while Thomas died there in 1824. Thomas left a will which was dated 18 July 1822. This will was subsequently probated before the Newberry County Court on 4 October 1824.

61. Margaret Odell.

Margaret Odell, the daughter of James Odell and Martha Prather, is believed to have been born in about 1750 in Frederick County, Maryland. She was later married in South Carolina to a man named Nicholas Gazaway Rogers (also written Gassaway Rogers and Rodgers). Gazaway and Margaret appear to have resided throughout their married life together in that portion of the Ninety-Six District of South Carolina that was later formed into Laurens County, South Carolina in 1785.

According to available information, Gazaway died on 20 August 1796 in Laurens County, South Carolina. Although Margaret is believed to have also died in Laurens County, the actual date of her death has not been determined.

The children listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from the 1800 census of South Carolina. Even though these are all believed to be Gazaway and Margaret's children, their identities have yet to be determined. In addition, to the best of my knowledge no complete listing of this couple's children has been found to date. As such, the children listed below are either known, probable, or enumerated. This couple may have had additional children.

John Odell, the son of John Odell and Providence Baker, was born on 6 May 1769 in Baltimore County, Maryland. He was later married on 22 January 1795 in Baltimore County, Maryland to a woman named Ann Cooper. Ann, who was also a native of Maryland, had been born there on 4 May 1777.

According to the Baltimore County census records, John and Ann were residing in Soldier's Delight Hundred in 1810. John subsequently died on 5 March 1815 in Baltimore County, while Ann died there on 13 February 1854. Both were buried in the Mt. Paran Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Baltimore County.

With the exception of the one children listed as (female), the below named children were identified in the will of John's father, John Odell, Sr. This will, which had been written on 9 January 1817, was probated on 18 February 1818 in Baltimore County, Maryland. The one child listed below as (female) was abstracted from the 1810 census of Maryland. Although this is also believed to be one of John and Ann's children, her identity has not been determined. The exact order of birth of the below listed children is not known.

92. Henry Odell.

Henry Odell, the son of John Odell and Providence Baker, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 24 June 1777. He was later married on 12 December 1804 in Baltimore County to a woman named Mary Sweeten. Henry and Mary were residing in Soldier's Delight Hundred in 1810. Henry later inherited the plantation called "Griffith's Adventure" from his father in 1818.

93. John Odle.

John Odle (also written Odell), the son of William Odell and Asenath Owings, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 21 September 1764. He was later married in about 1787 to a woman named Nancy in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia). Although it has yet to be verified, some believe her maiden name was Moore. Nancy is reputed to have been born on 26 August 1769.

According to a Hampshire County muster roll dated 15 June 1795, John was serving as an Ensign in Captain Jacob Slagle's Company of Militia. Within a couple of years after this, however, John and Nancy appear to have left Hampshire County and moved to that portion of the Northwest Territory that was formed into the Ohio Territory in 1799, and was later made a part of the State of Ohio in 1803. Although John and his family were residing near Richmond Dale in Ross County, Ohio when it was created in 1798, they eventually moved west into Randolph County, Indiana in about 1819.

Up until the time of his death, John operated a freight line which hauled supplies and produce between Winchester, Indiana and Cincinnati, Ohio. In addition, John operated a store and a hotel and tavern. He also served as the Winchester City Librarian, was an acting Justice of the Peace, and in 1831 he was elected County Treasurer for Randolph County.

John and Nancy both died in Randolph County, Indiana. John died there in 1833, while Nancy appears to have died there in about 1839 or 1840. Both were subsequently buried in the Reitenour Cemetery near Winchester in Randolph County.

The children listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from available pre-1850 census records. Although these are all believed to be John and Nancy's children, their identities have yet to be determined.

94. Richard Odle. *

Richard Odle (also written Odell), the son of William Odell and Asenath Owings, is believed to have been born in 1766, probably in Baltimore County, Maryland. As a young man, he accompanied his parents on their move west, where they settled in Hampshire County, Virginia (now part of West Virginia). Richard is thought to have been married in about 1788 in Hampshire County to a woman named Elizabeth Dawson. Elizabeth, who had been born in 1768 in Frederick County, Maryland, was the daughter of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott.

Richard and Elizabeth eventually left Virginia and moved to Ross County, Ohio, where they settled on a farm near his brother, John, and his family. Richard and Elizabeth resided in Ross County for about thirty years. In 1831, however, they sold their farm in Ohio and moved to Warren County, Indiana, where they resided for the remainder of their lives. Elizabeth died on 31 March 1841 in Warren County, while Richard died there on 8 August 1844. Both were subsequently buried in the Union Cemetery in John Q. Adams Township, Warren County, Indiana.

95. Caleb Odle.

Caleb Odle (also written Odell), the son of William Odell and Asenath Owings, was born in Maryland on 10 December 1774. Based upon available information, Caleb appears to have been married three times. Although no record of his first marriage has been found, it is believed that he may have been married in Hampshire County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) prior to moving to Ohio. Unfortunately, the identity of Caleb's first wife has not been determined. She is believed, however, to have been the mother of two daughters by Caleb. Caleb's first wife probably died in about 1811 in Ross County, Ohio.

When the War of 1812 broke out, Caleb enlisted as a private. He was later promoted to the rank of Captain, however, and commanded a company of volunteers from Ross County, Ohio. Caleb married for a second time on 15 September 1813 to a woman named Nancy Ann Greave in Ross County, Ohio. Nancy, who was the mother of three children by Caleb, subsequently died in Ross County, Ohio. After Nancy passed away, Caleb married for a third time, also in Ross County, Ohio, to a woman named Elizabeth (McClintock) Gibbons on 7 February 1828. Elizabeth, who had been born in Pennsylvania on 10 June 1784, was the daughter of Alexander and Elizabeth McClintock, and the widow of William Gibbons. Elizabeth had previously married Mr. Gibbons on 24 April 1805 in Ross County, Ohio.

Lott and Elizabeth eventually moved to Ohio, where they resided for the remainder of their lives. Lott served in the War of 1812. According to available census enumerations, Lott and Elizabeth were residing in Licking County, Ohio in 1820. However, because the census records are lacking for Ohio prior to 1820, it is not known at this time when they actually moved there.

On 19 August 1837, Lott and Elizabeth purchased 340 acres of land in Licking County from a Mr. James Stanberg. This property was situated in Township 17, Range 18, of the Refugee Tract. Lott and Elizabeth later sold 14 acres of this parcel to Martin Beaver on 6 December 1838. Lott died in Licking County in 1840. Although Elizabeth is known to have survived Lott, her date and place of death have not been determined.

The children listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from available pre-1850 census records. Although these are all believed to be Lott and Elizabeth's children, their identities have yet to be determined.

97. Joshua Odell.

Joshua Odell, the son of William Odell and Asenath Owings, was born in about 1780 in Maryland. He was later married in Allegany County, Maryland to a woman named Susannah Davis on 1 April 1802. Susannah, who was calculated to have been born in Maryland in 1783, was the daughter of Ebenezer Davis. During this same year, Joshua was listed as being a Sergeant in Captain Nathaniel Cochran's First Battalion of the 11th Regiment of Virginia Militia.

On 20 July 1807, Joshua and Susannah purchased 136 acres of land in Harrison County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) from Joseph and Margaret Tetrick. This land, which was situated at the head of Long Run, cost them $150. Several years later, when the War of 1812 broke out, Joshua fought in the Battle of New Orleans, where he was wounded. After the War, Joshua returned to Harrison County, where he died during the latter part of 1826. His widow, Susannah, was last found on the 1860 census of Harrison County living with their son, John. She was listed as being 77 years of age in this census, and having been born in Maryland.

Sarah Odell, the daughter of Walter Odell and Lucy Frizzell, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 1 March 1773. She was later married in 1796 in Baltimore County to a man named William Pemberton. William, who had been born in 1760 in Baltimore County, was the son of Henry Pemberton.

William, who was a surveyor by trade, also served as a colonel in the War of 1812. In the Spring of 1815, after having received a government contract to survey portions of southern Indiana, William and Sarah left Maryland and traveled to Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. At Pittsburg, William built a boat with the intention of floating down the Ohio River to the mouth of the Wabash River, and then up that river to Fort Vincennes where he planned to establish his headquarters. Shortly after finishing work on his boat, William came down with spinal meningitis and died four days later. He was subsequently buried at Pittsburg in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania.

After William died, Sarah and her children took the boat that William had built down the Ohio River to Steubenville in Jefferson County, Ohio, where they sold it. From there they went by wagon, settling in that portion of Muskingum County that was later formed into Perry County, Ohio in 1818. Sarah died in Perry County, Ohio in 1826, and was subsequently buried in the Roseville Cemetery. The above information, as well as the names of Sarah and William's children, was taken from information prepared by Carl G. Pemberton to be presented at the centennial celebration of the Pemberton family in the summer of 1915 at the Washington Brown Farm, between Roseville and Crooksville, Ohio.

John Odell, the son of Walter Odell and Lucy Frizzell, was born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 19 October 1775. He was later married in Baltimore County to a woman named Mary Carter.

According to the 1810 census enumeration of Baltimore County, Maryland, John and Mary were residing in Soldier's Delight Hundred during that year. Although John appears to have died intestate in Baltimore County, the names of his six children were found in the will of John's father, Walter Odell. Walter's will, which had been written on 16 February 1828, was probated on 21 May 1828 before the Baltimore County Court. In this will, Walter appointed his daughter-in-law, Mary (Carter) Odell as a Legatee.

NOTE: Although the 1810 census indicates that John and Mary had three sons and three daughters, Walter Odell's will specifically names four sons and two daughters. As such, either the census is incorrect, or John and Mary may have had seven children, with one daughter dying at an early age.
