REFERENCES AND INDEX

A listing of references and other source material, as well as an all-name index, is provided at the end of this genealogy.

INTRODUCTION

Over the years, a considerable amount of genealogical research has been undertaken in an attempt to uncover the parentage of our immigrant ancestor, Johannes Stoehr, who is known to have been residing in the vicinity of Langensoultzbach in Bas-Rhin, France during the early 1700's. The Department of Bas Rhin is situated within the District of Alsace-Lorraine, France, and shares a common border with Germany. As a result of periodic conflict between France and Germany, much of the area that is now within Bas Rhin was governed at times by Germany, and at other times by France. The Stoehr surname is of German origin, however.

Because no documents have been found in France to suggest that our Stoehr family had been residing there for a lengthy period of time, my initial research in Germany paid special attention to the border area separating France and Germany, and in particular the German state of Rhineland-Pfalz (also referred to as the Palatinate). Almost immediately, I came across a Stoehr family that was residing in the village of Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz which appeared to be an excellent candidate to be the family of our Johannes Stoehr. The village of Rumbach is situated in the southern part of Rhineland-Pfalz in the vicinity of Landau, and is not far from Germany's border with France. Langensoultzbach, on the other hand, is situated in the northern part of Bas-Rhin near the German border, and is not too far south of Rumbach.

Aside from our immigrant ancestor, Johannes Stoehr, there were also a Nicholas Stoehr and wife, Johanna Elizabetha Weinmueller (also written Mueller), residing at Langensoultzbach. During the period 1725-1736, this couple was listed in the parish baptismal records as being the parents of several children who were christened there. This Nicholas Stoehr is believed to be the Johannes Nicholas Stoehr who was christened at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany on 6 December 1693. He had an older brother named Johannes who was born on 16 September 1687 at Rumbach. In addition, the Langensoultzbach baptismal records also revealed the christening of a Hans George Steer [sic] on 31 January 1694, and a Johann Peter Stohr [sic] who was christened on 3 November 1696. Both were listed as being sons of Hans Jacob and his wife, Elizabetha. This Hans Jacob is believed to be the Hans Jacob Stoehr who married Anna Elizabetha Minicus at Rumbach, Germany in about 1689/1690. Hans Jacob Stoehr was the uncle of the Johannes Stoehr who was born at Rumbach in 1687.

Although additional research of German records was carried out, no other Stoehr family even came close to matching the potential of being the family of our Johannes Stoehr, as did the Stoehr family found at Rumbach. Nor could I find any other Stoehr families in Germany, other than those found at Rumbach, where a connection to the village of Langensoultzbach could be substantiated. Even though it has not been possible to verify beyond “all” doubt that our Johannes Stoehr is descended from the Stoehr family that was associated with the Village of Rumbach, I feel so strongly that this is the case that I would be totally remiss not to include the Rumbach information in the following genealogical write-up as being “our” Stoehr family. Based upon my findings, it appears that our Johannes Stoehr, and several other family members, apparently moved from Germany into the Langensoultzbach area of France during the latter part of the 1600's and early part of the 1700's.

NOTE: In my original Stoehr - Stair family write-up I included some information in Generations 6 and 7 covering the descendants of the Johannes “John” Stoehr who married Maria Margaretha “Margaret” Greenawalt. This Johannes “John” Stoehr is an older brother of the Author’s pedigree ancestor, Johann Henrich “Henry” Stoehr, who married Mary Magdalene Landis. Because the original purpose of my Stoehr - Stair write-up was to cover the ancestors and descendants of my pedigree ancestors, Johann Henrich “Henry” Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, and because the genealogy of Johannes “John” Stoehr and Maria Margaretha “Margaret” Greenawalt is somewhat ancillary to the goal, additional information pertaining to the descendants of Johannes “John” Stoehr has been deleted from this updated write-up. It should be mentioned that much of the information pertaining to Johannes “John” Stoehr and his descendants can generally be found in other manuscripts such as “Stair Steps” by Reah Lloyd McGaffey. The information I originally presented is also still available upon request.

In addition, it should be pointed out that research was carried out on a number of other Stoehr - Stair ancestors who were residing in the United States, and who also descend from the Author's pedigree ancestors, Johannes "Hans" Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar. Although some information pertaining to these individuals was abstracted from the Kindelberger-Rumbach web page by Andrea Kindelberger, the majority was obtained from United States census and vital records found on-line or in the Family History Library located in Salt Lake City, Utah. As with the information pertaining to the descendants of Johannes "John" Stoehr and Maria Margaretha "Margaret" Greenawalt, however, I have opted not to include this information in this write-up also.

DATES

For the most part, many conflicting dates were easily straightened out by simply rechecking the source material or official records. In some cases, however, marriage dates may vary from other published works because the researcher used the date of a marriage bond, or the date a marriage license was issued, instead of the actual marriage date. Even though some of the source material I used did not specify the origin of the marriage date given, I have tried to differentiate the marriage dates as accurately as possible. In a number of cases an approximate date of marriage, using the abbreviation "ca." for circa (about), is shown based upon information provided in various census documents.

Another dating problem involves the recording of marriage banns. A couple's intentions to marry, or banns of marriage, were generally proclaimed in church on three consecutive Sundays, and if no legal impediments precluded the couple from being married, their marriage would be sanctioned after the third proclamation. Unfortunately, the first or second proclamation will often be cited as the marriage date instead of the third. I must admit, however, that this is difficult to avoid in some cases because of missing or damaged records.

Death dates may also vary in that the date of burial, or the date a will was written or submitted for probate, will sometimes be cited by others instead of the actual death date. In those cases where I was unable to verify which of two dates was correct, I generally went with the one that referenced the most credible source material, or simply used the year only.

One of the most common dating conflicts involves the use of the Julian Calendar versus the Gregorian Calendar. On 14 September 1752, the Gregorian Calendar was adopted in both Great Britain and its colonies in North America, and the first day of the year then became January 1. Prior to that date, the Julian Calendar was in effect and the first day of the year was March 25. As a consequence, many dates found in the 1600's and first half of the 1700's for the months of January, February, and March reflect, or should reflect, a double date, such as 15 February 1735/1736. Even though both dates may be perfectly acceptable based upon the calendar that was in use at the time, to be consistent with current dating procedures the second date is most accurate.

LOCATIONS

With respect to the location at which an event took place, there were many cases when it was not possible to find any record giving the exact location that a birth, marriage or death took place. Because I feel quite strongly that dates should always be accompanied by places, if for no other reason than to aid future research, I made a number of assumptions regarding location based upon available information. For instance, if a family is found in the Fayette County, Indiana census records for 1840 and 1850, and they also show up in the deed and tax records of that county for the same period, I did not feel that it was unreasonable to assume that any children they had during this period were probably also born in Fayette County. In some cases, however, my comfort level with assuming a possible location was limited to a state only.

THE
OF
EUROPE AND THE UNITED STATES

GENERATION ONE

1. Peter Stoehr. *

Peter Stoehr, who is believed to have been born in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany, is presently the earliest known ancestor of our Stoehr / Stair family to have been uncovered to date. ¹ He was later married to a woman named Barbara (MNU), most likely also in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. ¹ Unfortunately, Barbara's maiden name is unknown at this time.

Peter Stoehr subsequently died in 1679 at Wingen in Bas Rhin, France. ¹

Probable issue: (Surname Stoehr)

5. Hans Jacob Stoehr.

Hans Jacob Stoehr, the son of Peter and Barbara Stoehr, was probably born in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. ¹ He was later married in about 1689 at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany to a woman named Anna Elizabetha Minicus. ^{1,5} Elizabetha, who had been born in 1670 at Rumbach, Germany, was the daughter of Hans Jacob Minicus and Johanatta Schenk. ¹

In about 1694, Jacob and Elizabetha appear to have left Rumbach, Germany and moved south to the village of Langensoultzbach in Alsace-Lorraine, France, where Jacob was listed in the Langensoultzbach Parish records as being a “cow-herdsman.”⁸ Sometime prior to 1700, however, Jacob and Elizabetha returned to Rumbach, where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives.¹

Although Jacob is believed to have died at Rumbach, Germany, the actual date of his death has not been determined. Elizabeth, on the other hand, died at Rumbach, Germany on 22 September 1742.¹⁰

Known issue: (Surname Stoehr)

GENERATION THREE

10. Anna Elizabetha Stoehr.

Anna Elizabetha Stoehr, the eldest daughter of Johannes "Hans" Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born at Rumbach in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. She was subsequently christened on 15 September 1678 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany.⁶ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

11. Hans Balthasar Stoehr.

Hans Balthasar Stoehr, the eldest son of Johannes "Hans" Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born at Rumbach in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. He was subsequently christened on 20 March 1680 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany.⁶ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

12. Hans Valentin Stoehr.

Hans Valentin Stoehr, the son of Johannes "Hans" Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born on 28 February 1682 at Rumbach in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany.¹ He was subsequently christened in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany on 5 March 1682.⁶ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

13. Anna Dorothea Stoehr.

Anna Dorothea Stoehr, the daughter of Johannes "Hans" Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born on 29 November 1684 at Rumbach in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany.¹ She was subsequently christened three days later on 2 December 1684 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany.⁶ Dorothea was apparently married twice during her life. She is believed to have married first in about 1705 at Rumbach, Germany to a man named Conrad Weinmueller (also written Mueller).^{1,7} Conrad died at Rumbach in 1724.⁷

After her first husband passed away, Dorothea married for a second time, also at Rumbach, to a man named Andreas Mahler.¹ No issue have been found from Dorothea's second marriage.

Issue from 1st marriage: (Surname Weinmueller)

29. Christoff ----- b. at Rumbach, Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.
chr. 5 September 1707 in the Rumbach E.C., Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.¹
m. (1) 8 January 1732 to Anna Elizabeth Schafer at Hinterweidenthal, Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.⁷
m. (2) 1736 to Maria Magdalena Leyenberger at Hornbach, Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.⁷
d. 13 November 1758 at Ixheim, Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.⁷
30. David ----- b. at Rumbach, Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.
chr. 15 December 1709 in the Rumbach E.C., Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.^{1,7}
31. Johann ----- b. at Rumbach, Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.
Conrad chr. 15 May 1712 in the Rumbach E.C., Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.¹
m. ca. 1737 to Marie Catherine Schmidt in Ger.⁷
d. believed to have died in PA.
32. Johannes ----- b. at Rumbach, Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.
"John" chr. 3 June 1714 in the Rumbach E.C., Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.¹
m. (1) ca. 1739 to Kristina Reber, probably in PA.⁷
m. (2) (unknown if he married again).
d. August 1784 at Frederick Town, Frederick Co., MD.^{7,11}
33. Catharina ----- b. at Rumbach, Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.
Margaretha chr. 21 November 1717 in the Rumbach E.C., Rhineland-Pfalz, Ger.^{1,7}

Issue from 2nd marriage: (Surname Mahler)

Unknown

14. Johannes Stoehr. *

Johannes Stoehr, the son of Johannes "Hans" Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born on 16 September 1687 at Rumbach in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany.¹ Johannes Stoehr was subsequently christened nine days later on 25 September 1687 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany.⁶

As a young man, Johannes Stoehr, left Germany and moved to the vicinity of Langensoultzbach in Bas-Rhin, France, where he worked as a nagler (nailsmith).⁸ Although no record of his marriage has been found, the Langensoultzbach Evangelisch Church records indicate that Johannes was married to a woman named Anna Margaretha Dock (also written Docken).⁸ It is also believed that their marriage probably took place in Bas Rhin, France as all of their known children were christened in the Langensoultzbach Evangelisch Church there.⁸ According to the records of the Heidelberg Moravian Church in Berks County, Pennsylvania, Margaretha had been born during the month of May 1688, possibly in the Alsace region of France.¹²

Johannes and Margaretha are known to have been residing at Langensoultzbach during the early 1700's, as all of their children were christened there between 1715 and 1722.⁸ In 1737, however, Johannes and his family left France and emigrated to the New World.⁹ Johannes and Margaretha Stoehr, along with their two sons and most likely all three of their daughters, arrived on 26 September 1737 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania aboard the ship "St. Andrew Galley."^{9,13}

Sometime after their arrival, Johannes and Margaretha settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, where they appear to have resided for many years. Although Johannes is believed to have died in Lancaster County, where he is last known to have been residing, the actual date of his death has not been determined.⁹ It is known, however, that Johannes preceded his wife in death. Margaretha, on the other hand, died in Berks County, Pennsylvania on 10 December 1753, the year after Berks County had been formed from a portion of Lancaster County.^{12,14} She was subsequently buried in the Heidelberg Moravian Church Cemetery in Berks County.¹²

15. Susanna Catharina Stoehr.

Susanna Catharina Stoehr, the daughter of Johannes "Hans" Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born on 29 September 1690 at Rumbach in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. ¹ Catharina was subsequently christened two days later on 1 October 1690 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. ⁶ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

16. Johannes Nicholas Stoehr.

Johannes Nicholas Stoehr, the son of Johannes "Hans" Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born at Rumbach in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. He was subsequently christened on 6 December 1693 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. ⁶ Nicholas, who was a weaver by trade, eventually left Germany and moved to the village of Langensoultzbach in Bas-Rhin, France, where he was later married on 28 November 1724 to a woman named Johanna Elizabetha Weinmueller (also written Mueller). ^{7,8,9} Elizabetha, who was the daughter of Johannes "Hans" Weinmueller (also written Mueller) and his wife, Susanna, had been christened on 6 April 1700 in the Langensoultzbach Evangelisch Church. ⁸

After their marriage, Nicholas and Elizabetha continued to reside at Langensoultzbach, France, where all of their children appear to have been christened.⁸ Nicholas subsequently died on 20 September 1749 at Langensoultzbach, while Elizabetha died there on 16 May 1753.^{7,8}

18. Hans Peter Stoehr.

Hans Peter Stoehr, the son of Johannes "Hans" Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born at Rumbach in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. He was subsequently christened on 19 March 1699 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany.⁶ Peter was later married in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany to a woman named Anna Barbara Stoehr.¹ Barbara, who was Peter's first cousin once removed, had been christened on 28 April 1708 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany.¹ She was the daughter of (# 8) Hans Christoff Stoehr and Anna Loesher.¹

Peter Stoehr died at Rumbach, Germany during the month of February 1735, while Barbara died there on 5 November 1774.¹ Although Peter and Barbara are believed to have had other children, only the two sons listed below have been identified with any certainty.

34. Johann Henrich "Henry" Stoehr.

Johann Henrich Stoehr (also written Stohr), the son of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock was born at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. Henry was subsequently christened in the Langensoultzbach Evangelisch Lutheran Church on 6 January 1715.^{8,9} As a young man, Henry emigrated with his parents to Pennsylvania, where they arrived on 26 September 1737 at Philadelphia aboard the ship "St. Andrew Galley".^{9,13} Two years later, on 23 October 1739, Henry was married to a widow named Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher in East Cocalico Township in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.^{9,15} Barbara, who was the widow of Peter Bruecher, had been born on 16 June 1715.⁹

After their marriage, Henry and Barbara appear to have resided in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania throughout their married life together. In 1756, Henry was assessed as a taxable inhabitant of Heidelberg Township in Lancaster County.¹⁷ Henry later died in Lebanon Township in Lancaster County on 7 September 1781.¹⁶ His will, which had been written on 17 January 1780, was subsequently probated on 15 April 1782 in Lancaster County.¹⁸ Barbara, who survived Henry by approximately twelve and a half years, died in Lebanon Township on 2 February 1793.¹⁶ Both Henry and Barbara were subsequently buried in the Hebron Moravian Cemetery in Lebanon Township in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (now within Lebanon County, Pennsylvania).¹⁶

35. Philipp Henrich Stoehr (Johann Philip Stoehr). *

NOTE: Although Philipp Henrich Stoehr is the name that was entered into the baptismal records of the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach, France, I believe this was an error on the part of the person making the entry. ^{8,9} Even though it was common for siblings to have similar given names, baptismal names were invariably different. This individual was subsequently referred to as John Philip Stoehr in the marriage records of the Rev. John Casper Stover, and is known to have used, and been identified by, the name Philip throughout his life. ¹⁵ As a consequence, I believe the baptismal entry should actually have read Johann Philip Stoehr.

Philip Stoehr (also written Stohr), the son of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock, was born on 18 February 1716 at Langensoultzbach in the Province of Bas-Rhin, France.⁸ He was subsequently christened in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach on 20 February 1716.^{8,9} As a young man, Philip emigrated with his parents to Pennsylvania.^{9,13} He eventually moved inland, however, where he settled in that portion of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania that is now part of Lebanon County, Pennsylvania.¹⁴

On 27 April 1742, Philip married at Warwick in Lancaster County to a woman named Anna Maria Holler, the daughter of Johann Nicolaus Holler (also written Huller) and his wife, Anna Maria (MNU).¹⁵ Maria, who was born on 17 March 1724/1725, probably at Ungstein in the state of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany, emigrated to the New World with her family when only 12 years of age.^{9,13} Ironically, Philip Stoehr and Maria Holler were both passengers aboard the ship, "St. Andrew Galley," which had arrived at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on 26 September 1737.^{9,13}

Philip, who was a wagon maker by trade, died on 22 August 1781 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.¹⁶ His will, which had been written on 23 July 1781, was admitted for probate before the Lancaster County Court on 27 September 1781.³² Because Philip's will was written in German, however, it was not recorded in the will records. Maria, on the other hand, died in Lancaster County on 28 August 1804.¹⁶ She was subsequently buried in the Hebron Moravian Cemetery at Lebanon in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (now within Lebanon County, Pennsylvania).¹⁶ Philip and Maria were married for 39 years and had 13 children.

36. Anna Elizabeth Stoehr.

Anna Elizabeth Stoehr (also written Stohr), the daughter of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock, was born at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. She was subsequently christened on 22 April 1717 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach.^{8,9} Although it is believed that Elizabeth probably emigrated with the rest of the family to Pennsylvania in 1737, no additional information has been found which pertains to her.

37. Maria Margaretha Stoehr (Anna Margaretha Stoehr).

Maria Margaretha Stoehr (also written Stohr), the daughter of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock, was born at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. She was subsequently christened on 6 July 1721 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach.⁸ On 13 March 1739, a woman named Margaretha Stoer [sic] was married to a man named Johann David Buehler by the Rev. John Casper Stoever in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.¹⁵ Ironically, David Buehler and Margaretha Stoehr were both passengers aboard the ship, "St. Andrew Galley," which had arrived at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on 26 September 1737.¹³ David's name was spelled Biler on the passenger list.¹³

Although this Margaretha Stoer is strongly believed to be the same Margaretha Stoehr who was the daughter of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock, Johann David Buehler's wife is generally referred to as Anna Margaretha Stoehr instead of Maria Margaretha Stoehr in various documents. Unfortunately, I am at a loss to explain the use of these different given names, but probate, christening, and other records offer sufficient support in my mind to conclude that these are the same person. The answer may be as simple as her name was written incorrectly, like her brother Philip's was, in the christening records of the Langensoultzbach Evangelisch Lutheran Church.⁸

David and Margaretha Buehler were listed as being among the first communicant members of the Moravian Church at Hebron, Lebanon and Bethel.²⁶ David Buehler appears to have died in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania in 1784.⁴⁴ His will, which had been written on 3 March 1770, was subsequently probated in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 2 March 1784.⁴⁴ Margaretha's brother, Philip Stoehr, was named as one of the Executors of David's estate.⁴⁴ David's wife, as well as five of the below listed children, were named in his will.⁴⁴ Margaretha, on the other hand, died in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania in 1785, and was buried in the Hebron Moravian Cemetery at Lebanon in what is now Lebanon County, Pennsylvania.^{14,16}

65. Maria Magdalena Stoehr.

Maria Magdalena Stoehr (also written Stohr, Stair, etc.), the daughter of Philip Stoehr and Anna Maria Holler, was born on 11 September 1751 at Heidelberg in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.⁹ She was later married in Lancaster County to a man named Johann Philip Faber on 28 February 1769.³³ Philip, who had been born in Lancaster County on 18 February 1747, was the son of Frederick Adam Faber and Anna Maria Hautsch, who had been married on 24 July 1743 at Warwick in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.^{15,54}

After their marriage, Philip and Magdalena resided in Bethel Township in that portion of Lancaster County that was later formed into a part of Lebanon County, Pennsylvania in 1813.¹⁴ Philip died on 7 October 1831 in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, and was subsequently buried in the Bethel Moravian Cemetery at Lickdale, Pennsylvania.⁵⁴ Although Magdalena is believed to have also died in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, the actual date of her death has not been determined.

Maria Margaretha Stoehr (also written Stohr, Stair, etc.), the daughter of Philip Stoehr and Anna Maria Holler, was born on 27 April 1754 at Heidelberg in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. ⁹ She died in Lancaster County in 1758, and was subsequently buried in the Moravian Church Cemetery at Hebron in Lancaster County (now within Lebanon County, Pennsylvania). ¹⁶

67. Anna Maria Stoehr.

Anna Maria Stoehr (also written Stohr, Stair, etc.), the daughter of Philip Stoehr and Anna Maria Holler, was born on 26 June 1756 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. ⁹ She was later married in about 1780 in Lancaster County to a man named Johannes "John" Schnee (also written Schne). ^{34,35,36} John, who had been born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 18 May 1758, was the son of Johannes Christian Schnee and Anna Elizabeth Jacob. ³⁴ Johannes Christian Schnee had emigrated from Germany via Rotterdam in the Netherlands, arriving at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania aboard the ship "Phoenix" on 30 September 1743. ³⁴

During the Revolutionary War, John Schnee served as a Private, Second Class, in Captain David Krause's Fourth Company, Second Battalion of the Lancaster County, Militia. ³⁴ After their marriage, John and Maria resided in that portion of Lancaster County that was later formed into Dauphin County, Pennsylvania in 1786. ¹⁴ Six years later, on 12 June 1792, John and Maria purchased a gristmill and adjacent lands in Lebanon Township, in what was then Dauphin County, from Maria's brother, John Stoehr, for one thousand three hundred and seventy five pounds. ³⁶ This property had been inherited by John through the will of his father, Philip Stoehr, which had been written on 23 July 1781. ³²

John and Maria eventually moved north into Union County, Pennsylvania, where they apparently resided for the remainder of their lives. Maria subsequently died in Washington Township in Union County, Pennsylvania on 12 August 1823, while John died there on 25 November 1826. ³⁴ Both John and Maria are said to have been buried in St. John's Cemetery at Fremont in Union County, Pennsylvania (now within Snyder County, Pennsylvania). ^{14,34}

68. Catherine Barbara Stoehr.

Catherine Barbara Stoehr (also written Stohr, Stair, etc.), the daughter of Philip Stoehr and Anna Maria Holler, was born on 3 September 1758 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. ⁹ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

69. Johannes "John" Stoehr.

Johannes Stoehr (also written Stohr, Stair, etc.), who was generally referred to as John Stair, was the son of Philip Stoehr and Anna Maria Holler. He was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 19 March 1761. ⁹ John was later married in Lancaster County in about 1784 to a woman named Maria Margaretha "Margaret" Greenawalt. ^{36,37,38} Margaret, who was born on 17 July 1765 in Lancaster County, was the daughter of Philip Lorenz Greenawalt (also written Grunewald) and Maria Margaret Foesser. ^{37,40}

When John's father, Philip Stoehr, died in 1781 John inherited the family gristmill and adjacent lands in Lebanon Township in Lancaster County. ³² When Dauphin County was formed from a portion of Lancaster County in 1785, however, this property was situated in that county. ¹⁴ John later sold this property on 12 June 1792 for one thousand three hundred and seventy five pounds to his brother-in-law and sister, Johannes "John" Schnee and Anna Maria Stoehr. ³⁶

Several years later, John and Margaret moved into Franklin County, Pennsylvania, where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives. John is found in the deed records of Franklin County purchasing land on 9 April 1796 from a Mr. Alex Speer, and on 12 April 1808 from a Mr. Bernhart Poorman. ⁶⁸ John Stoehr died intestate in Franklin County, Pennsylvania during the month of March 1826. ^{36,37,39} Letters of Administration were subsequently granted on 10 April 1826 by the Franklin County Court to John's son, Philip Stoehr, and his son-in-law, Frederick Kissel, to administer his estate. ³⁹

Margaret, on the other hand, died on 8 November 1838 in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, having survived John by more than twelve years.³⁷ She was buried in the Robert Kennedy Memorial Presbyterian Cemetery at Mercersburg in Franklin County, Pennsylvania.³⁷

70. Maria Elizabeth Stoehr.

Maria Elizabeth Stoehr (also written Stohr, Stair, etc.), the daughter of Philip Stoehr and Anna Maria Holler, was born on 4 April 1763 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. ⁹ She died shortly thereafter in infancy, and was buried in the Moravian Church Cemetery at Hebron in Lancaster County (now within Lebanon County, Pennsylvania). ^{9,16}

71. Regina C. Stoehr.

Regina C. Stoehr (also written Stohr, Stair, etc.), the daughter of Philip Stoehr and his wife, Anna Maria Holler, was born on 7 September 1764 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. ⁹ Although it has not been proven beyond all doubt, this Regina is believed to be the Regina who was married in Lancaster County to a man named John Greenawalt. ⁴⁰ John, who had been born in Lancaster County on 11 October 1760, was the son of Philip Lorenz Greenawalt (also written Grunewald) and Maria Margaret Foesser. ⁴⁰

Although Regina is believed to have died in Pennsylvania, the actual date of her death is not known. John, on the other hand, died in November 1823 in Pennsylvania. ⁴⁰ His will, which had been written on 16 October 1823, was later probated in Franklin County, Pennsylvania on 19 November 1823. ⁸⁰ The seven children listed below were taken from "Pennsylvania: Genealogies Chiefly Scotch-Irish and German" by William Henry Egle. ⁴⁰

72. Johann Philip Stoehr.

Johann Philip Stoehr (also written Stohr, Stair, etc.), the son of Philip Stoehr and Anna Maria Holler, was born on 27 February 1767 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. ⁹ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

73. Johann Henrich "Henry" Stoehr. *

Johann Henrich Stoehr (also written Stohr, Stair, etc.), who went by the name of Henry Stair, was the son of Philip Stoehr and Anna Maria Holler. ^{36,41} He had been born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 23 August 1769. ^{9,41,42} Henry was later married in Pennsylvania to a woman named Mary Magdalene Landis. ^{36,41,43} Mary, who had been born in Lancaster County on 13 November 1773, was the daughter of Peter Landis and Eva Byers. ^{41,42,43,83}

Sometime after the birth of their first child, John Stoehr, Henry and Mary apparently moved into Franklin County, Pennsylvania, where they purchased two parcels of land in Hamilton Township. ^{36,68} The deed for the first parcel was dated 5 October 1795 and stated that they were from Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, while the deed for the second parcel was dated 16 December 1796. ^{36,68} (NOTE: Dauphin County was formed from Lancaster County, Pennsylvania in 1785). ¹⁴ Henry and Mary later sold these lands on 8 April 1800, at which time they moved to Virginia, where they eventually settled near the community of Fincastle in Botetourt County. ^{36,43,68}

The earliest records which were found in Botetourt County, Virginia which pertained to our Henry were three property deeds for land that Henry purchased from William Zimmerman, John Brugh, and Daniel Brugh in 1803.^{36,43,84} According to the legal descriptions of these properties, Henry and Mary settled along Looney's Mill Creek, where Henry later built and operated a paper mill.^{36,43,84}

Although Henry and Mary appear to have remained in Botetourt County, Virginia for the remainder of their lives, over the years most of their offspring moved from Virginia to settle in Indiana and Wisconsin. Mary died on 28 January 1854 in Botetourt County, Virginia, while Henry died there on 12 April 1858.^{41,42} Henry's will, which had been written on 12 May 1853, was later probated during the May 1858 session of the Botetourt County, Court.⁸⁶ Both Henry and Mary were subsequently buried in the Simmons - Brugh Cemetery in Botetourt County.^{41,42}

GENERATION SIX

122. John Stair.

John Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in Dauphin County, Pennsylvania during the period 1790-1800.⁸⁸ As a young boy, John moved with his parents to Botetourt County, Virginia, where they settled in the vicinity of Fincastle.^{36,42} John was later married in Botetourt County, Virginia to a woman named Elizabeth Harshbarger on 23 March 1815.⁷² Elizabeth, who was the daughter of Christian Harshbarger and Barbara Ammen had been born on 9 January 1794 in Botetourt County, Virginia.^{89,97}

NOTE: The following comment was found in the Harshbarger History regarding the Ammen women in Elizabeth Harshbarger's mother's family that I thought was interesting:

“Durst's [Ammen] family became numerous, a number of them notable. They were an intellectual people and leaders. Their women possess grace, dignity and force of mind, but brilliance and genius are often accompanied by excentricities and this family is no exception; “peculiarities” often crop out and some have unbalanced minds. In those branches of our family having Ammen blood the Ammen traits are frequently seen.”⁹⁷

John and Elizabeth remained in Botetourt County for about thirteen years after their marriage.⁹⁷ In about 1828/1829, however, they moved to the state of Indiana, where they settled along the Wabash River in Tippecanoe County.^{97,98} On 27 March 1829, John purchased 80 acres of land in Washington Township from David Blackburn, and in 1831 he purchased an additional 316 acres of land from a Mr. Jessie Jackson.⁹⁸

John Stair is said to have died in 1841 during a trip back to Virginia, where he had gone on business.³⁶ Elizabeth, on the other hand, died on 1 April 1866 in Tippecanoe County, Indiana.⁸⁹ John and Elizabeth were both buried in the North Union Cemetery in Tippecanoe County, Indiana.⁸⁹ NOTE: The birth and death dates attributed to John Stair in Find a Grave for the North Union Cemetery are not correct, and are actually the dates of birth and death for John's brother, Henry Stair.⁸⁹

123. Elizabeth "Betsy" Stair.

Elizabeth "Betsy" Stair, the daughter of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in Pennsylvania on 26 September 1795. ⁸⁷ As a young girl, Elizabeth moved with her parents to Botetourt County, Virginia, where they settled in the vicinity of Fincastle. ^{36,42} She was later married on 6 March 1810 in Botetourt County, Virginia to a man named Jonathan "John" Obenshain (also written Obenchain). ⁸⁷ John, who had been born on 26 May 1789 in Botetourt County, Virginia, was the son of Samuel Obenshain and Phoebe Daler. ⁸⁷

John later served as a Lieutenant in Captain Rowland's Company of the 5th Regiment of Virginia Militia during the War of 1812, and for his service he was awarded bounty warrants for two tracts of land totaling 160 acres in Indiana. ^{87,105} In about 1836, Elizabeth and John moved to Indiana, where they settled in Tippecanoe County. ⁸⁷ Although Elizabeth is known to have died in Tippecanoe County, her death date, as shown on her tombstone, is not correct. ⁸⁹ I believe it should say 1841, not 1851. ⁸⁹

After Elizabeth passed away, John married for a second time on 1 March 1842 to a woman named Sarah "Sally" (Timberlake) Johnson in Tippecanoe County. ⁹⁹ Sally, who had been born on 26 August 1797 in Botetourt County, Virginia, was the daughter of John and Molly Timberlake, and the widow of William Ashley Johnson, whom she had married on 18 August 1818 in Virginia. ¹⁰⁶ John Obenshain later died in 1864 in Tippecanoe County, Indiana, while Sally died there on 16 August 1865. ⁸⁹ John, Elizabeth and Sally were all three buried in the North Union Cemetery in Tippecanoe County. ⁸⁹

124. Henry Stair.

Henry Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in Franklin County, Pennsylvania on 4 March 1798. ⁸⁹ As a young boy, Henry moved with his parents to Botetourt County, Virginia, where they settled in the vicinity of Fincastle. ^{36,42} He was later married in Botetourt County, Virginia to a woman named Sarah "Sally" Brugh on 17 June 1819. ⁷² Sarah, who had been born in 1801, was the daughter of Daniel Brugh and Elizabeth Deardorf. ^{89,119}

Shortly after the 1830 census of Botetourt County, Virginia was enumerated, Henry and Sarah apparently moved north to Indiana, where they settled near his brother, John Stair, in Washington Township in Tippecanoe County.^{120,121,122} According to the records of the General Land Office, Henry Stair received a patent for 160 acres of land in Tippecanoe County from the federal government on 3 January 1831.¹²³ He also acquired an additional 80 acres of land from a Mr. David Blackburn.⁹⁸

Sarah died on 30 August 1851 in Tippecanoe County, Indiana, while Henry died there on 25 August 1855.⁸⁹ Both were subsequently buried in the North Union Cemetery in Tippecanoe County.⁸⁹

125. Jacob Stair.

Jacob Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born on 7 July 1800 in Botetourt County, Virginia. ⁹⁰ Jacob was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Elizabeth Flook in Botetourt County on 4 January 1821. ⁷² Elizabeth, who was also a native of Virginia, had been born there on 8 March 1800. ⁹⁰ She was the daughter of the John Peter Flook (also written Fluke) and Mary Haines who had been married on 9 July 1797 in Frederick County, Maryland. ¹²⁸

Although Jacob and Elizabeth remained in Botetourt County for approximately seven years after their marriage, in about 1828 they apparently moved to the state of Indiana, where Jacob is found purchasing land in Carroll County on 2 January 1829 from a Mr. Hugh Manary. ¹²⁹ He later sold this property on 12 March 1831 to a man named Henry Robinson, and it is believed that he and Elizabeth may have returned to Virginia at this time. ¹²⁹ By 1837, however, Jacob and Elizabeth were residing in Green County in the Wisconsin Territory, as Elizabeth is known to have died there on 27 May 1837. ⁹⁰

After Elizabeth passed away, Jacob again returned to Botetourt County, Virginia where he married for a second time on 21 March 1838 to a woman named Mary "Polly" Walker. ⁷² Mary, who had been born on 20 October 1819 in Botetourt County, Virginia, was the daughter of Thomas Walker. ^{72,90} After their marriage, Jacob and Mary returned to Green County, Wisconsin, where Jacob died on 15 October 1863. ⁹⁰

After Jacob passed away, Mary married for a second time on 31 January 1878 to a man named Oliver Hunter Perry Clarno at Monroe in Green County, Wisconsin. ⁶⁶ Mary subsequently died in Green County on 27 March 1884. ⁹⁰ Jacob and both of his wives were buried in the West Clarno Pioneer Cemetery in Clarno Township in Green County, Wisconsin. ⁹⁰ Although his second wife, Mary, was married to Perry Clarno at the time of her death, she too was buried under the name of Stair. ⁹⁰

The child listed below as (male) was abstracted from the 1840 census of Green County, Wisconsin Territory. ¹³⁰ Although this child is believed to be one of Jacob and Elizabeth's sons, his identity has not been determined.

126. Philip Stair.

Philip Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in 1802 in Botetourt County, Virginia. ⁸⁹ He was later married in about 1824 in Virginia to a woman named Mariah Landis. ^{36,91} Mariah, who was also a native of Virginia, was calculated from her tombstone to have been born there on 28 December 1803. ^{102,146}

Although Philip and Mariah remained in Botetourt County, Virginia for about five years after their marriage, they eventually moved north to Indiana, where they are found on the 1830 census enumeration residing in Jackson Township in Tippecanoe County.⁸⁸ On 12 May 1830, Philip purchased a 10.43 acre tract of land situated near Sugar Creek in Washington Township from a Mr. John Fisher, and during the following year, 1831, Philip built a sawmill on this land.^{98,122} Ironically, the first election to be held in Washington Township in Tippecanoe County was held during the month of April 1832 at Philip's sawmill.¹²² According to the records of the General Land Office, Philip Stair later received a patent on 29 acres of land in Tippecanoe County from the federal government on 1 May 1833.¹²³

Philip died on 1 October 1834 in Tippecanoe County, Indiana.⁸⁹ He was buried in the North Union Cemetery in Tippecanoe County.⁸⁹ After Philip passed away, Mariah married for a second time on 25 March 1839 to a man named Jacob Bimm in Tippecanoe County.⁹⁹ Mariah died on 2 June 1862 in Tippecanoe County, Indiana, and was buried in the Americus Cemetery at Americus in Tippecanoe County.¹⁴⁶

127. Peter Landis Stair. *

Peter Landis Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 15 February 1805.⁹² He was later married in Botetourt County to a woman named Mary "Polly" Beckner on 6 March 1826.⁷² Mary, who had been born on 14 April 1806 in Botetourt County, was the daughter of Jonathan Beckner and Susanna Sauers (also written Sowers).⁹²

In 1828, Peter purchased a small farm from his father which was situated along Looney's Mill Creek.¹⁴⁹ In about 1830, however, Peter appears to have moved to the state of Indiana.³⁶ He apparently became sick in Indiana and eventually returned to his farm in Virginia, claiming that Indiana was an unhealthy place to live.^{36,150} Peter later purchased two additional parcels of land from his father on 3 September 1845, both also situated along Looney's Mill Creek, one tract consisting of 132 acres and the other of 15 acres.¹⁵¹ Peter and Mary continued to reside in Botetourt County until 1855 at which time, they, as well as most of their children, moved north to Green County, Wisconsin.^{36,152} They arrived in Green County on 30 June 1855, and shortly thereafter they purchased a farm near the town of Jefferson.¹⁵²

In 1865, Peter and Mary apparently moved to another farm, however.¹⁵² This second farm was located about one mile north of Jefferson and was said to have been more improved.¹⁵² They remained on this farm until age and health prohibited them from operating it any longer.¹⁵² At which time they retired to the town of Juda in Green County.¹⁵² Peter died at Juda, Wisconsin on 15 November 1878, while Mary passed away there approximately four years later on 9 September 1882.^{92,152} Both were subsequently buried in the Oakley Union Cemetery at Oakley in Green County, Wisconsin.⁹²

NOTE: In William Beckner's manuscript "The Beckners of Botetourt," he states that Mary Beckner married (1) David Harter and (2) Peter L. Stair (Stoehr).¹⁵³ This is not correct. The Mary Beckner who was married to David Harter was the daughter of Jacob Beckner, son of Nicholas Beckner. She and David had been married in Franklin County, Virginia on 6 August 1804 and moved to Montgomery County, Ohio prior to 1819. Our Mary Beckner was the daughter of Jonathan Beckner, who was named in the marriage bond, and his wife, Susanna Sauers. She was only married once, and that was to Peter Landis Stair on 6 March 1826.⁷² The 1824 date in the Botetourt County marriage records is also not correct.

128. Mary Stair.

Mary Stair, the daughter of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born during the month of May 1808 in Botetourt County, Virginia. ⁹³ She was later married in Botetourt County to a man named Samuel Ammen Coffman (also written Kauffman) on 19 September 1825. ⁷² Samuel, who had been born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 22 January 1802, was the son of Jacob Coffman and Anna Ammen. ⁹³

While still residing in Botetourt County, Virginia, Samuel served as a bugler in the Black Horse Cavalry Militia. ¹⁶⁶ Although Samuel and Mary remained in Virginia for approximately thirty years after their marriage, in 1855 the family moved into the Kansas Territory, where according to the 1860 census they were residing in Kaw Township in Jefferson County. ^{166,167} After arriving in Jefferson County, Samuel served under territorial rule as a Justice of the Peace. ¹⁶⁶

Samuel Coffman died on 24 August 1875 at Grantville in Jefferson County, Kansas.⁹³
 Mary, who survived Samuel by approximately twenty-eight years, died during the month of September 1907 in Jefferson County, Kansas.⁹³ Both Samuel and Mary were

NOTE: The 1850 census of Botetourt County, Virginia shows Samuel and Mary Coffman as having a son named James Coffman who was born in 1850. All subsequent censuses indicate they had a son named William Taylor Coffman who was born in about 1850, but did not show up on that census. I personally cannot account for their having a son named James, and have therefore not included him in this genealogy. I personally believe the name James was written by mistake. In addition, there was a William Taylor Coffman who died on 25 December 1925, was buried in the Overbrook Cemetery in Osage County, Kansas, and was married to Maggie E. Strain, that is purported to be a son of our Samuel and Mary Coffman. This is not correct. Our William Taylor Coffman was married to a woman named Lelia C. Colley and died in 1887. His widow was appointed Administratrix of his estate on 9 May 1887.

129. Simon Stair.

Simon Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 13 May 1811. ⁹⁴ He was later married in Botetourt County, Virginia on 16 January 1833 to a woman named Mariah Fleager (also written Phleager). ⁷² Mariah, who had been born in Virginia on 9 November 1815, was the daughter of Hans Michael Fleager and Barbara Roemer. ^{94,184}

Sometime after the 1840 census of Botetourt County was enumerated, Simon and Mariah moved to Scott County, Virginia, where they are found on the 1850 census residing on a farm in the Western District. ^{185,186} Both Simon and Mariah apparently resided there for the remainder of their lives. Simon died on 23 May 1882 in Scott County, Virginia, while Mariah, died there on 25 January 1891. ^{94,186} Both were buried in the Fincastle Church Cemetery at Dungannon in Scott County. ⁹⁴

130. Jeremiah Stair.

Jeremiah Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 10 February 1814.⁹⁵ Jeremiah was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Sarah "Sally" Houseman in Botetourt County on 8 November 1832.⁷² Sarah, who was also a native of Virginia, had been born there on 24 April 1817.⁹⁵ She was the daughter of Christian Houseman and Eve Reichert.⁹⁵

After their marriage, Jeremiah and Sarah resided on a farm in Botetourt County, Virginia, where they were still found to be residing when the 1880 census was enumerated.²⁰⁸ Sometime after the 1880 census was taken, however, they apparently settled in Roanoke County, Virginia. Sarah later died on 4 October 1887 at Hollins in Roanoke County.⁹⁵

After his first wife passed away, Jeremiah married for a second time to a woman named Mary M. Kessler on 19 July 1888 in Salem City, Virginia.⁹⁶ Mary was the daughter of Benjamin Kessler.⁹⁶ Jeremiah subsequently died at Big Lick in Roanoke County, Virginia on 28 September 1893.^{95,209} According to Jeremiah's will, which had been written on 19 November 1889, Jeremiah requested that he be buried "by the side of his first wife Sally" in the East Hill Cemetery at Salem City, which he was.^{36,95} No issue are known from either of Jeremiah's marriages.

GENERATION SEVEN

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings, and those other family members (cousins) who have the Stoehr / Stair surname that trace their lineage back through Johann Henrich "Henry" Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, are covered in this generation.

131. Samuel Stair.

Samuel Stair, the son of John Stair and Elizabeth Harshbarger, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 23 December 1814.⁸⁹ Samuel was apparently married three times during his life. He married first to a woman named Lucinda Obenshain (also written Obenchain) in Tippecanoe County, Indiana on 25 January 1838.^{87,99} Lucinda, who had been born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 17 June 1819, was the daughter of Jonathan "John" Obenshain and his wife, Elizabeth "Betsy" Stair.⁸⁷ Lucinda appears to have died in about 1839 in Tippecanoe County, Indiana, possibly due to complications associated with childbirth.⁸⁷ There are no known issue from Samuel's first marriage to Lucinda.

After his first wife passed away, Samuel married for a second time, also in Tippecanoe County, Indiana, to a woman named Harriet Richardson on 26 March 1840.⁹⁹ Harriet, who was calculated to have been born in about 1823, died on 7 September 1846 in Tippecanoe County.²¹⁰ She was subsequently buried in the Colburn Evangelical Lutheran Cemetery at Colburn in Tippecanoe County.²¹⁰ Harriet was the mother of one child by Samuel.

After his second wife passed away, Samuel married for a third time in Tippecanoe County, Indiana to a woman named Eliza Walter on 21 August 1847.⁹⁹ Eliza, who was a native of Pennsylvania, was calculated to have been born there in 1822.¹⁰² Although Samuel and Eliza were found on the 1850 census of Tippecanoe County, Indiana, what became of her after Samuel died is not known.¹⁰²

According to available federal census records, Samuel was a farmer in Washington Township in Tippecanoe County, Indiana.¹⁰² Samuel, who died in Tippecanoe County, Indiana on 18 August 1852, was subsequently buried in the North Union Cemetery in Tippecanoe County.⁸⁹ His will, which had been written on 17 August 1852, was later probated on 8 September 1852.²¹¹ Three years later, on 25 September 1855, the Tippecanoe County Court appointed Robert Fisher as guardian of the four children listed below.²¹²

Mary Stair, the daughter of John Stair and Elizabeth Harshbarger, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia. ⁹⁷ She was later married in Tippecanoe County, Indiana to a man named Anthony Garrett on 2 July 1835. ⁹⁹ No additional information has been found concerning this couple.

134. Felix Stair.

Felix Stair, the son of John Stair and Elizabeth Harshbarger, was born in 1822 in Botetourt County, Virginia. ¹⁰⁰ Felix was apparently married twice during his life. He married first on 1 December 1844 to a woman named Ann Stephenson in Tippecanoe County, Indiana. ⁹⁹ Felix Stair's first wife apparently died in Tippecanoe County in about 1847, as Felix is known to have married for a second time in 1848. ⁹⁹ No issue have been found from Felix Stair's first marriage to Ann Stephenson.

After his first wife passed away, Felix married for a second time, also in Tippecanoe County, to a woman named Icephene R. Ragan on 9 April 1848. ⁹⁹ Icephene, who was a native of Indiana, had been born there on 29 April 1824. ¹⁰⁰ (NOTE: Although their marriage record says Icephene's maiden name was Ragan, her cemetery record gives Icephene's maiden name as Willetts). ¹⁰⁰

Although Felix and Icephene moved to Oregon in 1852, they returned to Indiana the following year, where they remained until 1854.²²⁰ In 1854 they drove a herd of blooded mares from Indiana to Oregon, where they were in high demand.²²⁰ Felix and Icephene were later found on the 1860 census of Douglas County, Oregon residing on a farm in the Oakland Precinct, and on the 1870 census residing on a farm in the Calapooia Precinct.^{221,222} Felix Stair had acquired two 320 acre parcels of excellent farmland in the Calapooia Valley in Douglas County, and later constructed and operated a sawmill on the Calapooia River.²²⁰ Felix died on 10 September 1871 in Douglas County, Oregon.¹⁰⁰ His will, which had been written on 25 March 1871, was finally settled on 2 December 1872.²²³ Icephene, on the other hand, survived Felix by more than thirty years and died in Douglas County, Oregon on 30 April 1906.¹⁰⁰ Both were subsequently buried in the Cedar Hill Cemetery at Oakland, Oregon.¹⁰⁰

135. Demaris Stair.

Demaris Stair, the daughter of John Stair and Elizabeth Harshbarger, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia during the month of June 1824.^{89,228} She was later married in Tippecanoe County, Indiana on 31 December 1844 to a man named Stillman W. Peck.⁹⁹ Stillman, who was a native of Ohio, was calculated to have been born there in 1815.¹⁰² He was the son of John and Hannah Peck.²²⁹

After their marriage, Stillman and Demaris were found on the 1850 census residing in Washington Township in Tippecanoe County, Indiana, where Stillman worked as a cooper.¹⁰² Although Stillman and Demaris were residing on a farm in Washington Township when the 1860 and 1870 censuses were enumerated, by 1880 they were residing at Lafayette, Indiana, where Stillman was employed as a foreman in a stave factory.^{124,213,230} Demaris was later found on the 1900 census of Colorado.²²⁸ She was listed as being a widow, and was residing with her son, William R. Peck, at Grand Junction in Mesa County.²²⁸ This census also indicated that Demaris was the mother of eight children, only two of whom were still living.²²⁸ William, who was listed as being divorced, had a son named Stillman H. Peck also residing with him.²²⁸

Demaris apparently returned to Indiana shortly after the 1900 census of Colorado was enumerated, as she is known to have died on 21 December 1903 at West Lafayette in Tippecanoe County.^{89,127} She was subsequently buried in the North Union Cemetery in Tippecanoe County.⁸⁹ Although Stillman is believed to have also died in Indiana, the actual date and place of his death are not known at this time.

138. Simon Stair.

Simon Stair, the son of John Stair and Elizabeth Harshbarger, was calculated to have been born in 1833 in Tippecanoe County, Indiana.¹⁰² He was later married in Carroll County, Indiana on 11 May 1854 to a woman named Irene Jane "Nina" Severenson.¹⁰¹ Irene, who was a native of Indiana, had been born there on 18 November 1837.^{234,235} She was the daughter of Robert and Rebecca Severenson (also written Severson and Sarrasin).²³⁶

Several years after their marriage, Simon and Irene moved to California, where they settled in Siskiyou County.¹⁰³ Simon subsequently died in 1859 at Crystal Creek in Siskiyou County, California, shortly after arriving there.¹⁰³ Simon's widow, Irene, who was pregnant at the time, apparently moved to Douglas County, Oregon to stay with Simon's brother, Felix Stair, until her third child, Anne Rebecca, was born.²³⁵

Shortly after Anne was born, Irene returned to Siskiyou County, where she married for a second time to a man named William James Root on 25 December 1860.²³⁷ William, who was a machinist by trade, had been born on 19 November 1824 at Springfield Center in Oswego County, New York.^{235,238} William James Root died in Siskiyou County, California on 20 October 1915, and was buried in the Evergreen Cemetery at Yreka in Siskiyou County.^{135,239} Irene had five additional children with William, all of whom were born in Siskiyou County.^{235,240} Their names were: James W., Charles M., George E., Jessie P. and Albert S.^{235,240}

After Irene's second husband passed away, Irene moved to Sacramento in Sacramento County, California, where she was found on the 1920 census residing with her daughter, Jessie, and son-in-law, Melvin M. Boone.^{238,241} Irene died at Sacramento, California on 18 December 1921.^{135,234} She was subsequently buried in the Odd Fellows Lawn Cemetery and Mausoleum at Sacramento, California.²³⁴

161. Mary M. Stair.

Mary Stair, the daughter of Henry Stair and Sarah "Sally" Brugh, was born in Tippecanoe County, Indiana during the month of March 1837.¹²⁶ Mary was apparently married twice during her life. She married first on 4 March 1855 to a man named William Leander Reed in Tippecanoe County.^{101,257} William, who generally went by his middle name of Leander, had been born in Ohio during the month of April 1829.¹²⁵ He was the son of William Reed.²⁵⁷

After their marriage, Leander and Mary were found on the 1860 and 1870 censuses of Indiana residing on a farm in Washington Township in Tippecanoe County.^{213,230} Sometime after the 1870 census was enumerated, however, Leander and Mary and their children moved to another farm which was located in Iroquois Township in Newton County, Indiana.²⁵³ Leander subsequently died on 19 March 1873 in Newton County, Indiana, and was buried in the Goodland Cemetery at Goodland, Indiana.¹²⁵ When the 1880 census was taken, Mary and her children were residing on the farm in Iroquois Township, with the older boys operating it.²⁵³

After her first husband passed away, Mary married for a second time to a man named Henry A. Slater on 6 June 1888 in Newton County, Indiana.^{101,117} Henry, who was a farmer by trade, had been born in England during the month of October 1823.¹²⁶ He died on 24 February 1913 in Newton County, Indiana, and was buried in the Riverside Cemetery at Brook, Indiana.²⁵⁸ Mary, on the other hand, died at Brook in Newton County, Indiana on 10 October 1916, and was subsequently buried, alongside her first husband, Leander Reed, in the Goodland Cemetery at Goodland, Indiana.^{125,127}

According to the 1900 federal census of Newton County, Indiana, Mary was the mother of eleven children, eight of whom were still living.¹²⁶

169. Anderson Stair.

Anderson Stair, the son of Jacob Stair and his second wife, Mary Walker, was born during the month of April 1841 in Green County, Wisconsin Territory.¹³⁷ He was later married at Brodhead in Green County on 16 March 1870 to a woman named Charlotte "Lottie" Eldridge.⁶⁷ Lottie, who had been born in Pennsylvania during the month of June 1846, was the daughter of David and Huldah Eldridge (also written Eldredge).²⁹⁰

Shortly after their marriage, Anderson and Lottie moved to Grand River Township in Cass County, Missouri, where Anderson worked as a house carpenter.²⁷³ By the time the 1880 census was enumerated, however, they had returned to Green County, Wisconsin and were living at Clarno.²⁹¹ Anderson was again listed as being a carpenter by trade in this census.²⁹¹ Although Anderson and his family were next found residing at Lawrence in Douglas County, Kansas in 1885, by 1888 they were residing at San Bernardino in San Bernardino County, California.^{292,293}

Anderson subsequently died on 5 June 1906 at San Bernardino, California, while Lottie died there seventeen years later on 23 July 1923.¹³⁵ According to the 1900 federal census of San Bernardino County, California, Anderson and Lottie were the parents of five children, only two of whom were still living.¹³⁷

174. Jeremiah Stair.

Jeremiah Stair, the son of Jacob Stair and his second wife, Mary Walker, was calculated to have been born in 1854 in Green County, Wisconsin.⁶⁷ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

175. Winona Elizabeth Stair.

Winona Stair, the daughter of Jacob Stair and his second wife, Mary Walker, was born in Green County, Wisconsin on 24 June 1857.¹⁴⁵ She was later married at Cadiz in Green County to a man named Joseph R. Dreibelbis on 25 October 1874.⁶⁷ Joseph, who was calculated to have been born in 1854 in Pennsylvania, was the son of Martin Drebelbis and Hannah Rothermal.^{152,296}

Winona died on 24 August 1875 in Green County, Wisconsin, possibly due to complications associated with childbirth.¹⁴⁵ She was subsequently buried in the West Clarno Pioneer Cemetery in Clarno Township in Green County, Wisconsin.^{90,145} After Winona passed away, Joseph married for a second time, also in Green County, Wisconsin, to a woman named Isabelle Milliken on 17 October 1878.⁶⁷ Isabella, who was the daughter of John Milliken and Caroline Clark, died on 22 October 1926 at Cherry Valley in Winnebago County, Illinois.¹⁴⁸ Joseph died on 28 July 1931 at Oneco in Stephenson County, Illinois and was buried at Orangeville, Illinois.¹⁴⁸

177. Mary Stair.

Mary Stair, the daughter of Philip Stair and Mariah Landis, was born in Tippecanoe County, Indiana on 27 November 1828.¹⁴⁷ She was later married in Tippecanoe County to a man named Thomas P. Watson on 8 July 1847.⁹⁹ Thomas, who was a native of Ohio, was calculated to have been born there in 1817.¹⁰²

After their marriage, Thomas and Mary remained in Tippecanoe County, Indiana, where they were found on the 1850 and 1860 census enumerations residing in Washington Township.^{102,213} By 1870, however, the family had moved to Wyanet in Bureau County, Illinois, where Thomas was employed as a hotel keeper.³²⁵

Thomas appears to have died in Bureau County, Illinois prior to the 1900 census being enumerated, as Mary was shown as being a widow and residing with her son-in-law, Gaius B. Brown in that census.³²⁶ Mary died on 31 August 1904 at Wyanet in Bureau County, Illinois, and was buried in the Forest Hill Cemetery there.¹⁴⁷

178. Savannah Stair.

Savannah Stair, the daughter of Philip Stair and Mariah Landis, was born in Tippecanoe County, Indiana on 26 February 1831.¹⁴⁸ Although the 1850 census of Tippecanoe County, Indiana lists Savannah as Savannah Reed, suggesting that she had previously been married to a Mr. Reed, I believe that this was simply an error on the part of the census taker.¹⁰² When Savannah was married on 15 January 1852 in Tippecanoe County to a man named John J. Neff, her maiden name was given as Stair, not Reed.¹⁰¹ John, who was a native of Pennsylvania, had been born there during the month of December 1819.³²⁶

In about 1855/1856, John and Savannah apparently moved to Illinois, as they were found on the 1860 census residing on a farm in Huntsville Township in Schuyler County.³²⁸ By 1870, however, the family had moved to Bureau County, Illinois, settling first on a farm near Manlius, but later residing at Wyanet, where John worked as a cooper.^{325,326,329} John Neff died at Wyanet, Illinois in 1907, while Savannah died there on 6 April 1923.¹⁴⁷ Both were buried in the Forest Hill Cemetery at Wyanet, Illinois.¹⁴⁷

179. George Washington Stair.

George Washington Stair, the son of Philip Stair and Mariah Landis, was calculated from his stated age at the time of death to have been born in Tippecanoe County, Indiana on 22 March 1834. ⁸⁹ He was later married in Tippecanoe County to a woman named Theresa Arnold. ¹⁰¹ George Stair and his wife, Theresa Arnold, were named in the marriage record of their son, George L. Stair and Mary Etta Bousman. ¹⁰¹ Theresa, who was a native of Canada, had been born there in 1834. ^{89,213}

After their marriage George and Theresa were found on the 1860 census of Indiana residing on a farm in Washington Township in Tippecanoe County. ²¹³ In 1870, however, they were residing in the village of Colburn in Tippecanoe County. ²³⁰ George Stair died in Tippecanoe County, Indiana on 22 January 1873. ⁸⁹ Theresa, on the other hand, died in Washington Township in Tippecanoe County on 30 June 1917. ¹²⁷ Both were subsequently buried in the North Union Cemetery in Tippecanoe County. ⁸⁹

180. William Simon Stair.

William Stair, the son of Peter Landis Stair and Mary "Polly" Beckner, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 22 June 1825.¹⁵⁴ He was later married in Botetourt County to a woman named Sarah H. Vest on 7 January 1845.⁷² Sarah, who had been born at Bunker Hill in Franklin County, Virginia on 12 October 1826, was the daughter of John Vest and Amy Andrews.^{43,333}

In about 1855/1856, William and Sarah left Virginia and moved to the state of Wisconsin, where their daughter, Emma L. Stair was born, and where they are shown on the 1860 census enumeration residing at Jefferson in Green County.^{144,334} During the Civil War, William Stair served as a Private in Company G of the Thirty-first Regiment of Wisconsin Infantry.³³⁵ He had enlisted on 10 January 1864 in the Union Army at Monroe in Green County, Wisconsin and fought in the battles of Atlanta, Georgia and of Bentonville, North Carolina, where he was captured by Confederate soldiers.³³⁵ After being held prisoner for a short period of time in the Andersonville Prison, William was mustered out of the Union Army on 12 May 1865.³³⁵

After the War, William returned to Wisconsin, where he and Sarah are found on the 1870 and 1880 censuses, and 1890 veterans schedules, residing at La Crosse in La Crosse County, Wisconsin.^{336,337,338} William, who was a carpenter by trade, and his wife, Sarah, appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives at La Crosse, Wisconsin.^{154,336,337,338} William Stair subsequently died on 23 February 1904 at La Crosse, Wisconsin, while Sarah died there in 1914.^{154,155} Both William and Sarah were buried in the Oak Grove Cemetery at La Crosse, Wisconsin.¹⁵⁵

191. Jeremiah Beckner Stair.

Jeremiah Beckner Stair, the son of Peter Landis Stair and Mary "Polly" Beckner, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 31 August 1852. ^{158,165} He was later married in Dane County, Wisconsin on 6 October 1876 to a woman named Sarah Bond "Sadie" Chambers. ^{67,158} Sarah, who had been born in Wisconsin on 22 February 1853, was the daughter of Thomas Chambers and Rebecca Maria Moore. ¹⁵⁸

After their marriage, Oscar and Margaret were found on the 1860 census of Virginia residing on a farm near Estillville in Scott County.⁴⁰⁸ When the Civil War broke out, Oscar enlisted in the Confederate Army on 15 November 1862, serving in Company E. of the Virginia 21st Infantry Battalion and later in Company E. of the 64th Regiment of Virginia Mounted Infantry.⁴⁰⁹ After the War, Oscar and his family moved to Tennessee, where they were found on the 1870 census residing at Bristol in Sullivan County.⁴¹⁰ When the 1880 federal census was enumerated, however, Oscar and Margaret were living at Tuscumbia in Colbert County, Alabama, where he and his eldest son, William, were working as saw millers.⁴¹⁰ Oscar, Margaret, and their four sons, eventually moved to Caldwell County, Texas in 1884, where they settled at Prairie Lea.¹⁸⁷

Oscar Stair died at Prairie Lea in Caldwell County, Texas on 18 September 1894, while Margaret died at Luling in Caldwell County on 1 February 1927.¹⁸⁷ Both were subsequently buried in the Prairie Lea Public Cemetery at Prairie Lea, Texas.¹⁸⁷

203. Harriet Emily Stair.

Harriet Stair, the daughter of Simon Stair and Mariah Fleager, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 7 January 1835. ¹⁸⁸ Harriet was listed in the 1860 census of Scott County, Virginia as being a weaver. ⁴⁰⁸ She was later married in Russell County, Virginia to a man named Harvey Gray on 16 May 1865. ⁷² Harvey, who was calculated to have been born in about 1835 in Virginia, was the son of Alexander McFarland Gray and Harriet A. Mason. ^{186,188,417} During the early part of the Civil War, Harvey served as a Captain of Company E2 of the 64th Virginia Mounted Infantry Regiment, but was later promoted to the rank of Major. ^{188,192,418}

After their marriage, Harvey and Harriet were found on the 1870 and 1880 census enumerations of Scott County, Virginia residing on a farm in DeKalb Township. ^{419,420} Harriet subsequently died in Virginia on 30 September 1894. ^{188,189} Although the actual date and place of Harvey's death have yet to be determined, he was last found on the 1910 census of Virginia residing with his son, Logan Gray, in the Gladeville District of Wise County. ⁴²¹ Both Harriet and Harvey were buried in the Major Harvey Gray Cemetery in Scott County, Virginia. ¹⁸⁸

204. John F. Stair.

John Stair, the son of Simon Stair and Mariah Fleager, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia during the month of November 1836. ¹⁹⁰ During the Civil War, John enlisted in the Confederate Army as a Sergeant in Company C of the 48th Regiment of Virginia Infantry. ⁴⁰⁹ At the time he was discharged, however, John held the rank of First Lieutenant. ⁴⁰⁹ After having served in the Civil War, John married on 22 June 1870 in Lee County, Virginia to a woman named Mary Elizabeth Barker. ¹⁹¹ Mary, who was also a native of Virginia, had been born there during the month of April 1846. ¹⁹⁰ According to her brother, Thomas W. Barker's Kentucky death record, she was the daughter of Charles Barker and Linnie Powers. ¹⁹⁶

When the 1880 federal census was enumerated, John and Mary were residing on a farm in the Floyd District of Scott County, Virginia. ⁴²⁰ By the time the 1900 census of Virginia was taken, however, John and his family were living on a farm in the Estillville District of Scott County, and it is here that they apparently resided for the remainder of their lives. ¹⁹⁰ John died in Scott County, Virginia on 25 November 1911, while Mary died there in 1925. ¹⁹² Both John and Mary were subsequently buried in the Stair - Stewart Cemetery in Scott County, Virginia. ¹⁹³

206. Jeremiah Stair.

Jeremiah Stair, the son of Simon Stair and Mariah Fleager, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 8 July 1840. ¹⁹⁵ Jeremiah was later married in Virginia to a woman named Melissa Jane Ramsey. ^{195,196,197} Melissa, who was born on 26 January 1844 in Virginia, was the daughter of John H. Ramsey and Francis "Fannie" Barnett. ^{195,196}

Shortly after their marriage, Jeremiah and Melissa were found on the 1860 federal census enumeration of Virginia residing on a farm at Estillville in Scott County. ⁴⁰⁸ Two years later, on 29 April 1862, Jeremiah enlisted in the Confederate Army, serving in Company E. of the Virginia 21st Infantry Battalion. ⁴³⁸ After the Civil War, Jeremiah and Melissa settled on a farm in at Lipps Township in Wise County, Virginia, where they were enumerated on both the 1870 and 1880 federal censuses. ^{197,439} Based upon the date and place of birth of their daughter, Dora Arkansas Stair, Jeremiah and Melissa had apparently moved to Clark County, Kentucky by 1881, where they settled on a farm in Wade's Mill Precinct. ^{440,441} Melissa subsequently died on 14 March 1911 in Clark County, Kentucky. ¹⁹⁵

After his first wife passed away, Jeremiah traveled to Dawson County, Montana, where he married for a second time on 5 September 1912 to a widow named Elmira (Caun) Osterbout.¹⁹⁸ Elmira was the daughter of Alex Caun.¹⁹⁸ When the 1920 census of Kentucky was enumerated, however, Jeremiah had returned to Clark County and was residing with his son-in-law and daughter, James C. and Harriet V. Wade, in the Wade's Mill Precinct.⁴⁴² Because Jeremiah was listed as being a widower in this census, it can only be surmised that Elmira must have died prior to 1920.⁴⁴²

Jeremiah died in Clark County, Kentucky on 5 January 1926, and was buried beside his first wife, Melissa, Wade Cemetery in Clark County.^{195,196} According to the 1900 census of Clark County, Kentucky, Jeremiah and Melissa were the parents of four children, three of whom were still living.⁴⁴⁰ No issue are known from Jeremiah's second marriage.

Counts and Elizabeth Smyth.¹⁹⁹

According to both the 1870 and 1880 census enumerations for Virginia, Jacob and Eliza were residing on a farm in Floyd Township in Scott County.^{419,420} Sometime after the 1880 census was enumerated, Jacob and Eliza moved into Wise County, Virginia, where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives. Jacob later died at Coeburn in Wise County, Virginia on 10 January 1886, while Eliza died there seven years later on 3 December 1893.¹⁹⁹ Both Jacob and Eliza were subsequently buried in the Old Coeburn Cemetery in Wise County, Virginia.¹⁹⁹

Susan Cosbie Stair, the daughter of Simon Stair and Mariah Fleager, was born in Virginia on 4 May 1844. ²⁰⁰ She died in Scott County, Virginia on 30 May 1865 at the age of twenty, and was subsequently buried in the Porter Cemetery in Scott County. ²⁰⁰

209. Albert Polk Stair.

Albert Polk Stair, the son of Simon Stair and his wife, Mariah Fleager, was born in Virginia on 27 March 1846. ²⁰¹ Albert later served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War as a Private in both the 21st and 22nd Virginia Cavalry Regiments of Mounted Riflemen. ^{456,457} After the War, Albert returned to Virginia for a number of years, but later traveled to St. Clair, County, Alabama, where he was married on 13 April 1873 to a woman named Elizabeth Partlow. ^{202,419} Elizabeth, who was the daughter of Dempsey Winburn Partlow and Mary Catherine Beason Montgomery, had been born in Alabama on 15 January 1849. ²⁰¹

After their marriage, Albert and Elizabeth remained in Alabama until about 1887, at which time they moved west into Arkansas, where their last child, Mary M. Stair was born on 5 March 1888. ⁴⁵⁸ Albert later died on 9 April 1900 in Cleburne County, Arkansas on 9 April 1900. ^{201,459} Approximately nine years after Albert passed away, Elizabeth filed an application in 1909 for a pension based upon Albert's service during the Civil War. ⁴⁵⁹

Elizabeth died in Cleburne County, Arkansas on 17 July 1916.²⁰¹ Both Albert and Elizabeth were subsequently buried in the Friendship Cemetery at Fivemile in Cleburne County.²⁰¹ According to the 1900 census of Cleburne County, Arkansas, Albert and Elizabeth were the parents of seven children, five of whom were still living.⁴⁶⁰

210. Nathan Luck Stair.

Nathan Stair, the son of Simon Stair and Mariah Fleager, was born in Scott County, Virginia on 3 February 1848.²⁰³ Nathan was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Melissa Childress on 27 September 1871 in Scott County.⁷² Melissa, who was the daughter of James H. Childress (also written Childers) and Jeannette W. Neal, had been born on 20 April 1853 in Virginia.^{72,204,424}

Melissa (Childress) Stair subsequently died on 26 February 1895 in Scott County, and was buried in the Fincastle Church Cemetery at Dungannon, Virginia.⁹⁴ She was the mother of eleven children by Nathan Stair. After his first wife passed away, Nathan married for a second time to a woman named Maggie.¹⁹⁰ Although no record of their marriage has been found, the 1900 census enumeration for Scott County, Virginia indicates they were married in 1896.¹⁹⁰ This census also indicates that Maggie had been born in Virginia during the month of January 1862.¹⁹⁰

Nathan, who was a farmer by trade, died on 15 December 1925 in Scott County, Virginia, while Maggie died there in 1927.²⁰³ Both Nathan and Maggie were subsequently buried in the Gate City Cemetery in Scott County.²⁰⁴

213. Dovie Maria Stair.

Dovie Maria Stair, the daughter of Simon Stair and Mariah Fleager, was born in Scott County, Virginia on 6 November 1854. ²⁰⁰ She died on 18 April 1859 in Scott County. Dovie was subsequently buried in the Porter Cemetery in Scott County. ²⁰⁰

214. Cary B. Stair.

Cary Stair, the son of Simon Stair and Mariah Fleager, was born in Scott County, Virginia on 26 June 1857. ²⁰⁷ He was later married in Scott County to a woman named Alice Lake "Lakie" Richmond on 14 February 1878. ⁷² Alice, who had been born in Scott County, Virginia on 21 April 1862, was the daughter of James W. Richmond and Nancy U. Carter. ²⁰⁷

Although Cary and Alice were found on the 1880 census of Scott County, Virginia residing on a farm in Floyd Township, they later moved to Texas. ⁴²⁰ Cary died in Hunt County, Texas on 28 October 1893. ²⁰⁷ He was subsequently buried in the Dulaney Cemetery in Hunt County. ²⁰⁷ After Cary passed away, Alice married in Hunt County, Texas for a second time to a man named James A. Taylor on 6 January 1898. ⁴⁷⁷ Alice later died on 19 January 1931 at Celeste in Hunt County, Texas, and was also buried in the Dulaney Cemetery in Hunt County. ²⁰⁷

Issue: (Surname Stair)
