INTRODUCTION

Over the years, a considerable amount of genealogical research has been undertaken in an attempt to uncover the parentage of our immigrant ancestor, Johannes Stoehr, who is known to have been residing in the vicinity of Langensoultzbach in Bas-Rhin, France during the early 1700's. The Department of Bas Rhin is situated within the District of Alsace-Lorraine, France, and shares a common border with Germany. As a result of periodic conflict between France and Germany, much of the area that is now within Bas Rhin was governed at times by Germany, and at other times by France. The Stoehr surname is of German origin.

Because no documents have been found in France to suggest that our Stoehr family had been residing there for a lengthy period of time, my initial research in Germany paid special attention to the border area separating France and Germany, and in particular the German State of Rhineland-Pfalz (also referred to as the Palatinate). Almost immediately, I came across a Stoehr family that was residing in the village of Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, which appeared to be an excellent candidate to be the family of our Johannes Stoehr. The village of Rumbach is situated in the southern part of Rhineland-Pfalz in the vicinity of Landau, and is not far from Germany's border with France. Langensoultzbach, on the other hand, is situated in the northern part of Bas-Rhin near the German border, and is not too far south of Rumbach.

Aside from our immigrant ancestor, Johannes Stoehr, there were also a Nicholas Stoehr and wife, Johanna Elizabetha Weinmueller (also written Mueller), residing at Langensoultzbach. During the period 1725-1736, this couple was listed in the parish baptismal records as being the parents of several children who were christened there. This Nicholas Stoehr is believed to be the Johannes Nicholas Stoehr who was christened at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany on 6 December 1693. He had an older brother named Johannes who was born on 16 September 1687 at Rumbach. In addition, the Langensoultzbach baptismal records also revealed the christening on 31 January 1694 of a Hans George Steer [sic], and a Johann Peter Stohr [sic] who was christened on 3 November 1696. Both were listed as being sons of Hans Jacob and his wife, Elizabetha. This Hans Jacob is believed to be the Hans Jacob Stoehr who married Anna Elizabetha Minicus at Rumbach, Germany in about 1689/1690. Hans Jacob Stoehr was the Uncle of the Johannes Stoehr who was born at Rumbach in 1687.

Although additional research of German records was carried out, no other Stoehr family even came close to matching the potential of being the family of our Johannes Stoehr, as did the Stoehr family found at Rumbach. Nor could I find any other Stoehr families in Germany, other than those found at Rumbach, where a connection to the village of Langensoultzbach could be substantiated. Even though it has not been possible to verify beyond "all" doubt that our Johannes Stoehr is descended from the Stoehr family that was associated with the Village of Rumbach, I feel so strongly that this is the case that I would be totally remiss not to include the Rumbach information in the following genealogical write-up as being "our" Stoehr family. Based upon my findings, it appears that our Johannes Stoehr, and several other family members, apparently moved from Germany into the Langensoultzbach area during the latter part of the 1600's and early part of the 1700's.

It should also be pointed out that information pertaining to some of the descendants of Hans Peter Stoehr and Anna Barbara Stoehr, who remained in the Rumbach area of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany, was abstracted from the Kindelberger-Rumbach web page by Andrea Kindelberger. Unfortunately, I could not re-verify much of this information because I did not have access to the necessary records.

DATES

For the most part, many conflicting dates were easily straightened out by simply rechecking the source material or official records. In some cases, however, marriage dates may vary from other published works because the researcher used the date of a marriage bond, or the date a marriage license was issued, instead of the actual marriage date. Even though some of the source material I used did not specify the origin of the marriage date given, I have tried to differentiate the marriage dates as accurately as possible. In a number of cases an approximate date of marriage, using the abbreviation "ca." for circa (about), is shown based upon information provided in various census documents.

Another dating problem involves the recording of marriage banns. A couple's intentions to marry, or banns of marriage, were generally proclaimed in church on three consecutive Sundays, and if no legal impediments precluded the couple from being married, their marriage would be sanctioned after the third proclamation. Unfortunately, the first or second proclamation will often be cited as the marriage date instead of the third. I must admit, however, that this is difficult to avoid in some cases because of missing or damaged records.

Death dates may also vary in that the date of burial, or the date a will was written or submitted for probate, will sometimes be cited by others instead of the actual death date. In those cases where I was unable to verify which of two dates was correct, I generally went with the one that referenced the most credible source material, or simply used the year only.

One of the most common dating conflicts involves the use of the Julian Calendar versus the Gregorian Calendar. On 14 September 1752, the Gregorian Calendar was adopted in both Great Britain and its colonies in North America, and the first day of the year then became January 1. Prior to that date, the Julian Calendar was in effect and the first day of the year was March 25. As a consequence, many dates found in the 1600's and first half of the 1700's for the months of January, February, and March reflect, or should reflect, a double date, such as 15 February 1735/1736. Even though both dates may be perfectly acceptable based upon the calendar that was in use at the time, to be consistent with current dating procedures the second date is most accurate.

LOCATIONS

With respect to the location at which an event took place, there were many cases when it was not possible to find any record giving the exact location that a birth, marriage or death took place. Because I feel quite strongly that dates should always be accompanied by places, if for no other reason than to aid future research, I made a number of assumptions regarding location based upon available information. For instance, if a family is found in the Fayette County, Indiana census records for 1840 and 1850, and they also show up in the deed and tax records of that county for the same period, I did not feel that it was unreasonable to assume that any children they had during this period were probably also born in Fayette County. In some cases, however, my comfort level with assuming a possible location was limited to a state only.

5. Hans Jacob Stoehr.

Hans Jacob Stoehr, believed to be the son of Peter and Barbara Stoehr, was born in Germany. He was later married at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany to a woman named Anna Elizabetha Minicus. Anna Elizabetha, who had been born in 1670 at Rumbach, Germany, was the daughter of Hans Jacob Minicus and Johanatta Schenk.

In about 1694, Hans Jacob and Anna Elizabetha appear to have left Rumbach, Germany and moved south to the village of Langensoultzbach in Alsace-Lorraine, France. Hans Jacob was listed in the Langensoultzbach Parish records as being a cow-herdsman. Prior to 1700, however, Hans Jacob and Anna Elizabetha returned to Rumbach, where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives.

Although the date and place of Hans Jacob's death have not been determined, Anna Elizabetha died at Rumbach on 22 September 1742.

Unknown

14. Johannes Stoehr. *

Johannes Stoehr, the son of Johannes Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born on 16 September 1687 at Rumbach in the State of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. He was subsequently christened on 25 September 1687 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach. Johannes, who was a nagler (nailsmith) by trade, left Germany as a young man and moved to the vicinity of Langensoultzbach in Bas-Rhin, France. He was later married to a woman named Anna Margaretha Dock (also written Docken). Although no record of their marriage has been found, it probably took place in France. According to the Heidelberg Moravian Church records, Anna Margaretha had been born during the month of May 1688, possibly in the Alsace region of France.

According to available parish records, Johannes and Anna Margaretha were residing in Langensoultzbach during the early 1700's, where all of their children were christened. In 1737, however, they left France and emigrated to the New World. Johannes and Anna Margaretha, along with their two sons, and most likely their three daughters, arrived at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania aboard the ship "St. Andrew Galley" on 26 September 1737.

Sometime after their arrival, Johannes and Anna Margaretha settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, where they appear to have resided for many years. Although Johannes is believed to have died in Lancaster County, the actual date of his passing has not been determined. It is known, however, that he preceded his wife in death. Anna Margaretha, on the other hand, died on 10 December 1753 in Berks County, Pennsylvania, the year after it had been formed from a portion of Lancaster County. She was subsequently buried in the Heidelberg Moravian Church Cemetery in Berks County.

15. Susanna Catharina Stoehr.

Susanna Catharina Stoehr, the daughter of Johannes Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born on 29 September 1690 at Rumbach in the State of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. She was subsequently christened in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach on 1 October 1690. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

16. Johannes Nicholas Stoehr.

Johannes Nicholas Stoehr, the son of Johannes Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born at Rumbach in the State of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. He was subsequently christened on 6 December 1693 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach. Johannes Nicholas, who was a weaver by trade, left Germany and moved to the village of Langensoultzbach in Bas Rhin, France, where he was later married on 28 November 1724 to a woman named Johanna Elizabetha Weinmueller (also written Mueller). Johanna Elizabetha, who had been christened in the Langensoultzbach Evangelisch Church on 6 April 1700, was the daughter of Johannes "Hans" Weinmueller (also written Mueller) and his wife, Susanna.

After their marriage, Johannes Nicholas and Johanna Elizabetha continued to reside at Langensoultzbach, France, where all of their children appear to have been christened. Johannes Nicholas Stoehr subsequently died on 20 September 1749 at Langensoultzbach, France, while Johanna Elizabetha died there on 16 May 1753.

18. Hans Peter Stoehr.

Hans Peter Stoehr, the son of Johannes Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar, was born at Rumbach in the State of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. He was subsequently christened on 19 March 1699 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach. Hans was later married in Germany to his cousin, Anna Barbara Stoehr. Anna Barbara, who had been christened in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany on 28 April 1708, was the daughter of Hans Christoff Stoehr and Anna Loesher.

Hans Peter Stoehr died at Rumbach, Germany during the month of February 1735, while Anna Barbara died there on 5 November 1774.

25. Hans George Stoehr.

Hans George Stoehr, the son of Hans Jacob Stoehr and Anna Elizabetha Minicus, was born at Langensoultzbach in Bas-Rhin, France. He was subsequently christened on 31 January 1694 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

26. Johann Peter Stoehr.

Johann Peter Stoehr, the son of Hans Jacob Stoehr and Anna Elizabetha Minicus, was born at Langensoultzbach in Bas-Rhin, France. He was subsequently christened on 3 November 1696 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

27. Susanna Barbara Stoehr.

Susanna Barbara Stoehr, the daughter of Hans Jacob Stoehr and Anna Elizabetha Minicus, was born in 1698 at Rumbach in the State of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. She was later married in 1717 in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany to a man named Michael Neuhart. Michael, who had been born at Rumbach on 12 October 1692, was the son of Hans Philip Neuhart and Anna Barbara Schneider. Susanna Barbara subsequently died in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany in 1737.

After Susanna Barbara died, Michael married for a second time, also in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany, to a woman named Eva Dorothea Schaub. This second marriage is believed to have taken place in 1738. Michael died in Germany in 1756.

She was subsequently christened on 25 August 1700 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

GENERATION FOUR

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings, and those other family members (cousins) who have the Stoehr / Stair surname, are covered in this generation.

33. Balthasar Stoehr.

Balthasar Stoehr, the son of Hans Christoff Stoehr and Anna Loesher, was born at Rumbach in the State of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. He was subsequently christened in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach on 1 April 1705. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

34. Anna Barbara Stoehr.

Anna Barbara Stoehr, the daughter of Hans Christoff Stoehr and Anna Loesher, was born at Rumbach in the State of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. She was subsequently christened in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach on 24 April 1708. Anna was later married in Germany to her cousin, Hans Peter Stoehr, the son of Johannes Stoehr and Catharina Margaretha Elizabetha Dithmar. Anna Barbara Stoehr died in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany on 5 November 1774.

See # 18, the Hans Peter Stoehr family write-up in Generation Three above.

35. Anna Catharina Stoehr.

Anna Catharina Stoehr, the daughter of Hans Christoff Stoehr and Anna Loesher, was born at Rumbach in the State of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. She was subsequently christened on 27 September 1711 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach. No additional information has been found concerning this individual.

36. Anna Dorothea Stoehr.

Anna Dorothea Stoehr, the daughter of Hans Christoff Stoehr and Anna Loesher, was born at Rumbach in the State of Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. She was subsequently christened on 3 June 1714 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach. Anna Dorothea Stoehr died in Germany on 12 March 1762.

42. Johann Henrich "Henry" Stoehr.

Johann Henrich Stoehr (also written Stehr), who generally went by the name of Henry Stoehr, was born at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. Henry, who was the son of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock, was christened on 6 January 1715 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Rumbach. As a young man, Henry emigrated with his parents to Pennsylvania, arriving at Philadelphia on 26 September 1737. Two years later, on 23 October 1739, Johann was married to a widow named Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher in East Cocalico Township in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Maria, who was the widow of Peter Bruecher, had been born on 16 June 1715.

Henry and Maria appear to have resided in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania throughout their married life together. Henry subsequently died in Lebanon Township in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 7 September 1781. His will, which had been written on 17 January 1780, was later probated on 15 April 1782 in Lancaster County. Maria Barbara, who survived Henry by thirteen years, died in Lancaster County on 2 February 1793. Both were buried in the Moravian Church Cemetery at Hebron in Lancaster County (now within Lebanon County, Pennsylvania).

43. Philipp Henrich Stoehr (Johann Philipp Stoehr). *

NOTE: Although Philipp Henrich Stoehr is the name that was entered in the baptismal records of the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach, I believe this was an error on the part of the person making the entry. Even though it was common for siblings to have similar given names, baptismal names were invariably different. This individual was subsequently referred to as John Philipp Stoehr in the marriage records of the Rev. John Casper Stover, and is known to have used, and been identified by, the name Philipp throughout his life. As a consequence, I believe the baptismal entry should actually have read Johann Philipp Stoehr.

Philipp Stoehr (also written Stehr), the son of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock, was born on 18 February 1716 at Langensoultzbach in the Province of Bas-Rhin, France. He was subsequently christened in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach on 20 February 1716. As a young man, Philipp emigrated with his parents to America, eventually settling in that portion of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania that is now part of Lebanon County, Pennsylvania.

44. Anna Elizabeth Stoehr.

Anna Elizabeth Stoehr, the daughter of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock, was christened on 22 April 1717 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. Although it is believed that Anna Elizabeth emigrated with the rest of the family to Pennsylvania, no additional information has been found which pertains to this individual.

45. Maria Margaretha Stoehr.

Maria Margaretha Stoehr, the daughter of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock, was christened on 6 July 1721 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. Although it is believed that Maria Margaretha emigrated with the rest of the family to Pennsylvania, there is considerable confusion concerning what became of her.

On 13 March 1739, the Rev. John Casper Stoeber married a woman named Margaretha Stoer [sic] to a man named Johann David Buehler in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. The children named in Johann David Buehler's will, which had been written on 3 March 1770 and probated on 2 March 1784 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, were: Henry, George, Mary, Anna, and Barbara.

Although our Margaretha Stoehr, the daughter of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock, may very well be the Margaretha Stoer [sic] named in the marriage record, Johann David Buehler's wife is generally given as Anna Margaretha Stoehr instead of Maria Margaretha Stoehr in various genealogies. Because I have not been able to sort through this confusion to my satisfaction, I have refrained from including any additional information on this family in this write-up.

46. Maria Dorothea Stoehr.

Maria Dorothea Stoehr, the daughter of Johannes Stoehr and Anna Margaretha Dock, was christened on 20 December 1722 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. Although it is believed that Maria Dorothea emigrated with the rest of the family to Pennsylvania, no additional information has been found which pertains to this individual.

47. George Daniel Stoehr.

George Daniel Stoehr, the son of Johannes Nicholas Stoehr and Johanna Elizabetha Weinmueller (also written Mueller), was christened on 29 October 1725 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. No additional information has been found which pertains to this individual.

48. Hans Jacob Stoehr.

Hans Jacob Stoehr, the son of Johannes Nicholas Stoehr and Johanna Elizabetha Weinmueller (also written Mueller), was christened on 11 March 1727 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. No additional information has been found which pertains to this individual.

49. Johann Frederick Stoehr.

Johann Frederick Stoehr, the son of Johannes Nicholas Stoehr and Johanna Elizabetha Weinmueller (also written Mueller), was christened on 6 January 1730 in the Evangelisch Lutheran at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. No additional information has been found which pertains to this individual.

50. Susanna Maria Stoehr.

Susanna Maria Stoehr, the daughter of Johannes Nicholas Stoehr and Johanna Elizabetha Weinmueller (also written Mueller), was christened on 21 January 1732 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. According to the Langensoultzbach Paris records, Susanna Maria emigrated to Pennsylvania in 1763. No additional information has been found which pertains to this individual.

51. Johann Henrich Stoehr.

Johann Henrich Stoehr, the son of Johannes Nicholas Stoehr and Johanna Elizabetha Weinmueller (also written Mueller), was christened on 5 April 1733 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. No additional information has been found which pertains to this individual.

52. Johannes Stoehr.

Johannes Stoehr, the son of Johannes Nicholas Stoehr and Johanna Elizabetha Weinmueller (also written Mueller), was christened on 30 January 1735 in the Evangelisch Lutheran Church at Langensoultzbach in the Bas-Rhin region of France. No additional information has been found which pertains to this individual.

58. George Friedrich Stoehr.

George Friedrich Stoehr, the son of Hans Peter Stoehr and Anna Barbara Stoehr, was born at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany on 1 October 1727. He was later married in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany to a woman named Elizabetha Margaretha Schaefer in about 1748. Elizabetha Margaretha, who is believed to have been born in Germany in about 1729, was the daughter of Anton Schaefer and Anna Maria Heid.

George Friedrich Stoehr died at Rumbach, Germany on 15 December 1780, while Elizabetha Margaretha died there on 2 March 1806.

GENERATION FIVE

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings, and those other family members (cousins) who have the Stoehr / Stair surname, are covered in this generation.

74. Anna Margaretha Stoehr.

Anna Margaretha Stoehr (also written Stehr, Stair, Stare, etc.), the daughter of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 2 August 1740. She was later married in Pennsylvania to a man named Joseph Sturgis. (NOTE: This may be the marriage that took place at Reading in Berks County, Pennsylvania on 4 August 1766 between a Joseph Sturgis and Anna Margaret Staehrin). Joseph, who had been born at Philadelphia in Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania on 16 March 1738, was the son of Joseph Sturgis and Jane Hatfield.

After their marriage, Joseph and Anna Margaretha resided in Lebanon Township in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (now within Lebanon County, Pennsylvania), where Joseph worked as a potter and linen weaver. Joseph later served in the Revolutionary War in a Regiment of Light Infantry from Lancaster County. In 1782, Joseph and Anna Margaretha moved to Lititz in Lancaster County. Although they later moved to York County, Pennsylvania in 1803, they returned to Lititz in about 1812 to take care of their son Samuel.

Joseph subsequently died on 9 June 1817 at Lititz in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, while Anna Margaretha died there on 1 March 1821. Both were buried in the Moravian Church Cemetery at Lititz. Although Joseph and Anna Margaretha are said to have had ten children, seven sons and three daughters, they appear to have actually had eleven children. Their first child, Elizabeth, died in infancy.

75. Philip Stoehr.

Philip Stoehr (also written Stehr, Stair, Stare, etc.), the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher, was born on 26 August 1742 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Philip, who apparently remained single throughout his life, died without issue during the month of February 1793 in Lebanon Township in Lancaster County. His will, which was written on 13 February 1793, was admitted for probate before the Lancaster County Court on 28 February 1793.

76. Anna Maria Stoehr.

Anna Maria Stoehr (also written Stehr, Stair, Stare, etc.), the daughter of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 11 July 1744. She was later married in Lancaster County to a man named Peter Schantz.

Although Anna Maria is believed to have died in Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, the actual date of her death has not been determined. Peter, on the other hand, apparently died in 1813 in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania. His will, which had been written on 27 November 1812 while he was residing in Londonderry Township in Dauphin County, was subsequently probated on 23 April 1813 in Lebanon County. Lebanon County had been created from portions of Dauphin and Lancaster Counties in 1813. The following children and their spouses were named in his will.

Issue: (Surname Schantz)

- 116. Henry ----- b. in Lancaster Co., PA.
m. (unknown).
- 117. Rosina ----- b. in Lancaster Co., PA.
m. Frederick Karper in PA.
- 118. Catherine ---- b. in Lancaster Co., PA.
m. 4 September 1804 to Philip Spitler in Lancaster Co., PA.
- 119. Margaret ----- b. in Lancaster Co., PA.
m. George Leineweber in PA.

77. Heinrich "Henry" Stoehr.

Heinrich Stoehr (also written Stehr, Stair, Stare, etc.), the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 25 November 1746. In about 1771, Henry moved to the State of North Carolina, where he settled with the Moravian colony in that portion of Surry County that was later formed into Stokes County in 1789. Henry was later married in Surry County to a woman named Anna Dorothea Schulz on 1 June 1774.

Although Henry Stoehr is not believed to have served in the Revolutionary War, his name was found on a list of "able bodied men" from Bethabara which had been compiled on 16 July 1778. Henry, who was a shoemaker by trade, died at Bethabara in Stokes County, North Carolina in 1812. (Bethabara is now within Forsyth County, North Carolina). His will, which was dated 3 August 1812, was admitted for probate before the Stokes County Court during its September 1812 term. Anna, on the other hand, died at Bethabara in 1816.

Issue: (Surname Stoehr)

120. Johanna ----- b. in Surry Co., NC.
 Elizabeth m. 14 November 1799 to Thomas Butner in Stokes Co., NC.
 d. in Stokes Co., NC.
121. Johann ----- b. 15 November 1782 at Bethabara, Surry Co., NC.
 Heinrich m. 11 April 1809 to Elizabeth Schaus in Stokes Co., NC.
 "Henry" d. 8 August 1830 at Bethabara, Stokes Co., NC.
122. Anna ----- b. in Surry Co., NC.
 Dorothea m. 22 February 1803 to Johann Christian Fogle in Stokes Co.,
 NC.

78. Elizabeth Stoehr.

Elizabeth Stoehr (also written Stehr, Stair, Stare, etc.), the daughter of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 3 March 1749. This child died on 30 September 1751 in Lancaster County. She was subsequently buried in the Heidelberg Moravian Church Cemetery in what is now Berks County, Pennsylvania.

79. Johannes "John" Stoehr.

Johannes Stoehr (also written Stehr, Stair, Stare, etc.), the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 10 March 1751. John was later married in Lancaster County to a woman named Anna Yordy. Anna was the daughter of Peter Yordy (also written Yorty) and his wife, Mary.

When John's father died in 1782, he left John and his brother, Jacob, his plantation consisting of 267 acres. This property was situated in Lebanon Township in that portion of Lancaster County that was formed into Dauphin County, Pennsylvania in 1785. When this land was later divided, John's share consisted of 128 and one half acres. John and Anna subsequently sold this property on 13 April 1790 to a Mr. George Reinel. In addition to the above property, Anna's father, Peter Yordy, also left John and Anna 50 acres of land in his will dated 12 September 1786. No settlement of Peter Yordy's estate was found in the records of Dauphin County, however.

Reference to John and Anna was last found in the Dauphin County land records under the date of April 1799 when they were found selling a 120 acre tract of land to Abraham Landis. Although this John Stoehr may be the John Stoehr who died in Newberry Township in York County, Pennsylvania in 1815, this remains to be verified.

80. Johann Jacob Stoehr.

Johann Jacob Stoehr (also written Stehr, Stair, Stare, etc.), the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 12 March 1753. He was later married in the Moravian Church in Bethel Township in Lancaster County (now within Lebanon County, Pennsylvania) to a woman named Maria Barbara Kohr on 24 June 1783. Maria Barbara, who had been born on 24 July 1766 in Lancaster County, was the daughter of George Casper Kohr and his second wife, Catherine Neff.

Jacob and Maria Barbara eventually moved to York County, Pennsylvania, where they resided on a farm on Little Conewago Creek for the remainder of their lives. Maria Barbara died in York County from "a bilious fever" on 9 June 1821, while Jacob died there on 15 November 1840 from an accidental fall as he stepped out of his house. Although Jacob and Maria are believed to have had twelve children, the identities of only ten have been determined, and one other, an unnamed son, died shortly after birth. Jacob was buried in the Moravian Cemetery at York.

81. Christian Stoehr.

Christian Stoehr (also written Stehr, Stair, Stare, etc.), the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher, was born on 13 May 1755 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Christian died in Lancaster County on 19 January 1758. He was subsequently buried in the Heidelberg Moravian Church Cemetery in what is now Berks County, Pennsylvania.

82. Anna Rosena Stoehr.

Anna Rosena Stoehr (also written Rosena, Rosina, and Rosannah Stehr, Stair, Stare, etc.), the daughter of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Maria Barbara (Frey) Bruecher, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 12 October 1757. She was later married in Pennsylvania to a man named Joseph Douglass. Although no record of their marriage has been found, it is believed to have taken place in Lancaster County in about 1777 or 1778. Joseph, who had been born in Lancaster County on 7 March 1759, was the son of James and Mary Douglass. Joseph served as a Private under Captain Peter Ensminger in the 7th Company, 2nd Battalion from Lancaster County during the Revolutionary War.

Sometime after the Revolutionary War, Joseph and Rosena, settled in that part of Pennsylvania that was formed into Mifflin County in 1789. Joseph subsequently died in Mifflin County, Pennsylvania in about 1808. After Joseph passed away, Rosena and a number of her children moved west into Ohio and then later into Indiana, where they settled in Clinton County. Rosena, or Rosannah as she was then known, died at Frankfort in Clinton County on 12 August 1831. She was buried in the Bunnell Cemetery in Center Township in Clinton County.

91. Johannes "John" Stoehr.

Johannes Stoehr (also written Stehr, Stair, Stare, etc.), who generally went by the name of John Stair, was the son of Philipp Stoehr and Anna Maria Holler. He was born on 19 March 1761 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. John was later married in Lancaster County to a woman named Maria Margaretha Greenwalt. Margaret, who was born in Lancaster County on 17 July 1765, was the daughter of Philip Lorenz Greenwalt (also written Greenawalt) and Anna Maria Foesser.

When John's father, Philipp Stoehr, died in 1781, John inherited the family gristmill and adjacent lands in the town of Lebanon in Lancaster County. After Dauphin County was split off from Lancaster County in 1785, this property was situated in that county. During the month of June 1792, John sold this property to his brother-in-law, John Schnee.

Several years later, John and Margaret moved into Franklin County, Pennsylvania, where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives. John is found in the deed records of Franklin County purchasing land on 9 April 1796 from a Mr. Alex Speer, and on 12 April 1808 from a Mr. Bernhart Poorman. John apparently died intestate in Franklin County, Pennsylvania in 1826. Letters of Administration were later granted by the Franklin County Court to Frederick Kissel and John's son, Philip Stoehr, on 10 April 1826.

95. Johann Henrich "Henry" Stoehr. *

Johann Henrich Stoehr, who generally went by the name of Henry Stair, was the son of Philipp Stoehr and Anna Maria Holler. He was born on 23 August 1769 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Henry was later married to a woman named Mary Magdalene Landis. Mary, who had been born on 13 November 1773 in Lancaster County, was the daughter of Peter Landis and Eva Byers. Although no record of their marriage has been found to date, it is believed that they were probably married in about 1792/1793 in Pennsylvania.

At about the time of their marriage, or shortly thereafter, Henry and Mary appear to have moved into Franklin County, Pennsylvania, where they are found buying and selling land in Hamilton Township. In 1800, however, Henry and Mary moved to Virginia, eventually settling near Fincastle in Botetourt County. The earliest records which were found in Botetourt County that pertained to him were a number of property deeds which were recorded in 1803. According to the legal description of some of his property, Henry and Mary settled along Looney's Mill Creek, where Henry built and operated a paper mill. Over the years, most of Henry and Mary's offspring moved from Virginia to settle in Indiana and Wisconsin.

Henry and Mary appear to have remained in Botetourt County, Virginia for the remainder of their lives. Mary died there on 28 January 1854, while Henry died there on 12 April 1858.

102. Maria Magdalena Stoehr.

Maria Magdalena Stoehr, the daughter of Johannes Stoehr and Maria Magdalena Goerthler, was born in about 1755 at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany. She was later married in about 1778 in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany to a man named Johann Jacob Schaub. Johann Jacob, who had been born in about 1735 at Rumbach, was the son of Hans Adam Schaub and Maria Elizabetha Schaefer.

Maria Magdalena subsequently died on 4 September 1788 at Rumbach, Germany, while Johann Jacob died there on 6 July 1807.

104. (unknown) Stoehr.

Johannes Stoehr and Maria Magdalena Goerthler had a child, whose name is currently unknown, who was born in about 1760 at Rumbach in Rhineland-Pfalz, Germany.

GENERATION SIX

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings, and those other family members (cousins) who have the Stoehr / Stair surname, are covered in this generation.

120. Johanna Elizabeth Stoehr.

Johanna Stoehr (also written Stair and Starr), the daughter of Heinrich "Henry" Stoehr and Anna Dorothea Shutz, was born in that portion of Surry County, North Carolina that was formed into Stokes County, North Carolina in 1789. She was later married in Stokes County to a man named Thomas Butner on 14 November 1799. Thomas, who had been born on 6 November 1773 in Surry County, was the son of Christopher and Elizabeth Butner.

Thomas died on 5 February 1833 from consumption at Bethabara in Stokes County. His will, which was dated 7 June 1831, was admitted for probate during the March 1833 term of the Stokes County Court. Although Johanna also died in Stokes County, the date of her death has not been determined. It is known, however, that she passed away prior to Thomas as he was described in the Moravian records as being a widower at the time of his death.

121. Johann Heinrich "Henry" Stoehr.

Henry Stoehr (also written Stair and Starr), the only son of Heinrich "Henry" Stoehr and Anna Dorothea Shutz, was born on 15 November 1782 in that portion of Surry County, North Carolina that was subsequently formed into Stokes County, North Carolina in 1789. He was later married in Stokes County, North Carolina to a woman named Elizabeth Schaus on 11 April 1809. Elizabeth, who had been born at Bethania in Stokes County, North Carolina on 1 February 1792, was the daughter of Heinrich "Henry" Schaus (also written Shouse) and Elizabeth Nall.

When Henry's father died in 1812, Henry inherited the family homestead at Bethabara in Stokes County, North Carolina (now within Forsyth County, North Carolina). Henry was later found in the Stokes County deed records selling fifty-one acres of land on Muddy Creek to his father-in-law, Henry Schaus, on 16 April 1818.

Henry died at Bethabara in Forsyth County, North Carolina on 8 August 1830. He was subsequently buried on 9 August 1830. Elizabeth, on the other hand, died at Winston-Salem in Forsyth County, North Carolina on 31 December 1873. The following list of children was furnished by the Moravian Archives of Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

123. Johannes "John" Stoehr.

Johannes Stoehr (also written Stair), the son of Johann Jacob Stoehr and Maria Barbara Kohr, was born in 1784 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He was later married in Pennsylvania to a woman named Eva Pfluger. Eva, who was also a native of Pennsylvania, was calculated to have been born there in 1787.

John and Eva resided in Manchester Township in York County, Pennsylvania. On the 1850 census of York County, John and Eva were living with their son Jacob and his wife, Catherine. Although Eva shows up on the 1860 census of York County, John does not. As a consequence, it is believed that John died prior to 1860.

125. Johann Jacob Stoehr.

Johann Jacob Stoehr, the son of Johann Jacob Stoehr and Maria Barbara Kohr, was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania on 5 August 1787. He was subsequently christened on 11 August 1787 in the Moravian Church in Bethel Township in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (now within Lebanon County, Pennsylvania). Johann died on 6 October 1794 at the age of seven in York County, Pennsylvania.

126. Catherine Stoehr.

Catherine Stoehr (also written Stair), the daughter of Johann Jacob Stoehr and Maria Barbara Kohr, was born on 22 February 1789 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. She was subsequently christened on 27 February 1789 in the Moravian Church in Bethel Township in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (now within Lebanon County, Pennsylvania). (NOTE: the christening record mistakenly names Catherine's mother as being Anna Catherina). Catherine was later married in York County, Pennsylvania to a man named Peter Zorger on 4 June 1834. Peter, who had been born in York County, Pennsylvania on 2 September 1783, was the son of Frederick Zorger.

Peter and Catherine resided on a farm near the Village of Mount Pleasant in Conewago Township in York County. Peter died there in 1871. His will, which was written on 11 April 1868, was admitted for probate on 16 October 1871 before the York County Court. Although Catherine is known to have survived Peter, her date of death has not been determined.

Although Peter and Catherine did not have any children, Peter had eleven children, six sons and five daughters, from his previous marriage on 20 March 1808 to Elizabeth Miller in York County. These were: Heinrich "Henry;" Johann George; Peter who married Mary Ann Gross; Jesse; Barnhart who married Ellen; Johannes; Leah who married Philip Shindle; Elizabeth; Christiana "Diena" who married Jacob Diehl; Salome "Sally" who married Daniel Schroll; and Lydia who married Andrew Rupert. It is believed that all of these children were born in York County, Pennsylvania.

127. Maria Magdalena Stoehr.

Maria Magdalena Stoehr (also written Stair), the daughter of Johann Jacob Stoehr and Maria Barbara Kohr, was born on 16 December 1790 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. She was subsequently christened in the Moravian Church in Bethel Township in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania (now within Lebanon County, Pennsylvania) on 19 December 1790. Magdalena only lived eight days, passing away in Lancaster County on 24 December 1790.

128. Henry Stoehr.

Henry Stoehr (also written Stair), the son of Johann Jacob Stoehr and Maria Barbara Kohr, was born in York County, Pennsylvania on 27 November 1791. He was subsequently christened on 10 December 1791 in the Moravian Church of York in York County. Henry was later married in about 1825 in York County, Pennsylvania to a woman named Lydia Augenbaugh. Lydia, who was also a native of Pennsylvania, was calculated to have been born there in 1807.

Henry and Lydia resided on a farm near the Village of Mount Pleasant in Conewago Township in York County.

131. Joseph Stoehr.

Joseph Stoehr, the son of Johann Jacob Stoehr and Maria Barbara Kohr, was born in York County, Pennsylvania on 31 January 1799. He was subsequently christened in the Moravian Church of York in York County on 30 March 1799. Joseph died in York County on 7 March 1801 at the age of two.

132. Louis Stoehr.

Louis Stoehr, the twin son of Johann Jacob Stoehr and Maria Barbara Kohr, was born in York County, Pennsylvania on 16 October 1801. This child died in infancy.

133. (male) Stoehr.

Johann Jacob Stoehr and Maria Barbara Kohr are known to have had another male child who was born in York County, Pennsylvania on 16 October 1801. This child was a twin to Louis, but died twelve hours after birth.

165. Philip Stoehr.

Philip Stoehr (also written Stair and Stare), the son of Johannes "John" Stoehr and Margaret Greenwalt, was born in Lebanon Township in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He was later married in Pennsylvania to a widow named Isabella (Smith) Maxwell on 2 December 1852. Isabella was the daughter of James Smith and Mary Clark.

Philip subsequently died without issue in 1855 at St. Thomas in Franklin County, Pennsylvania. His will, which was written on 2 March 1855, was admitted for probate on 7 March 1855. He left his entire estate to his wife, Isabella, and his six brothers and sisters, or their heirs.

166. John Stoehr.

John Stoehr (also written Stair), the son of Johannes "John" Stoehr and Margaret Greenwalt, was born on 27 November 1790 in Lebanon Township in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. John was apparently married twice during his life. Although raised in Pennsylvania, as a young man John moved to Botetourt County, Virginia, where he married as his first wife, Elizabeth Lanius. They were married in Botetourt County by the Rev. John Helms on 22 September 1814. Elizabeth, who had been born on 28 October 1791, was the daughter of John Jacob Lanius and Sarah Catherine Spickard. She was the mother of three children by John and appears to have died prior to 1820.

Whether or not John returned to Pennsylvania prior to, or after, his first wife passed away is not known at this time. It is known, however, that John was residing in Franklin County, Pennsylvania as a widower in 1820, along with his three young children. John subsequently married for a second time to a woman named Catherine Butler on 8 November 1821 in Franklin County, Pennsylvania. Catherine, who was also a native of Pennsylvania, had been born there on 13 May 1801.

167. Catherine Stoehr.

Catherine Stoehr (also written Stair), the daughter of Johannes "John" Stoehr and Margaret Greenwalt, was born on 30 July 1796 in Franklin County, Pennsylvania. She was later married in Pennsylvania to a man named Frederick Kissel (also written Kiesel and Kessel). Frederick, who was also a native of Pennsylvania, had been born there on 9 December 1790. He was the son of Frederick Kissel and Elizabeth Grubb.

Frederick and Catherine were last found together on the 1860 census of St. Thomas Township in Franklin County, Pennsylvania. Frederick died on 26 June 1861 in St. Thomas Township. His will, which had been written on 12 June 1860, was later admitted for probate before the Franklin County Court on 1 July 1861. In his will, Frederick left his entire estate to Catherine, but upon her death, it was to be equally divided among his children. Unfortunately, Frederick did not name any of his children in his will.

Catherine was last found on the 1880 census residing with her daughter, Barbara, and her son-in-law, Labright Gelwicks, at Hamilton in Frederick County, Pennsylvania. Catherine died on 27 September 1886 at Hamilton in Franklin County. Both Frederick and Catherine were subsequently buried in the Lutheran Church Cemetery at St. Thomas in Franklin County.

170. Jacob Stoehr.

Jacob Stoehr (also written Stair), the son of Johannes "John" Stoehr and Margaret Greenwalt, was born in Franklin County, Pennsylvania on 21 January 1802. He was later married on 13 September 1825 in Pennsylvania to a woman named Susannah Poorman. Susannah, who had been born on 11 October 1807 in Franklin County, was the daughter of Peter Poorman and Anna Maria Reichard.

After their marriage, Jacob and Susannah remained in Franklin County for about one year. In the Fall of 1826, however, they moved with her father, Peter Poorman, to Starke County, Ohio. Jacob and Susannah resided on a farm in Starke County until about 1839, at which time they moved to Montgomery Township in Richland County, Ohio. Montgomery Township was situated in that portion of Richland County that was formed into Ashland County, Ohio in 1846.

Jacob and Susannah later moved to Elkhart County, Indiana, however, where they purchased 120 acres of land from Jacob Metzgar on 19 April 1851, and an additional 113 acres of land from John Wheeler on 25 April 1853. This latter parcel was located in Baugo Township in Elkhart County, and it was on this farm that Jacob and Susannah resided for the remainder of their lives.

Susannah subsequently died in Baugo Township on 19 April 1892, while Jacob died there on 15 August 1893. Both were buried in the Noffsinger Baptist Cemetery near Jamestown in Elkhart County.

171. Anna Maria Stoehr.

Anna Stoehr (also written Stair), the daughter of Johannes "John" Stoehr and Margaret Greenwalt, was born on 9 April 1806 in Franklin County, Pennsylvania. She was later married to a man named Michael Grossman on 15 August 1826 at Chambersburg in Franklin County. Michael, who was also a native of Pennsylvania, had been born there on 21 January 1800. Anna subsequently died in Franklin County on 2 November 1868.

After Anna passed away, Michael remained in Pennsylvania, where he is found on the 1870 census residing in Montgomery County. In 1871, however, Michael moved west into Indiana, where he settled just south of Wolcottville in Noble County. Although Michael Grossman died in Noble County, Indiana on 17 April 1876, his will, which had been written on 7 February 1876, was probated before the Lagrange County Court on 26 April 1876. Michael was subsequently buried in the Woodruff Cemetery in Lagrange County.

173. John Stair.

John Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in Pennsylvania in about 1794. He was later married in Botetourt County, Virginia to a woman named Elizabeth Harshbarger on 23 March 1815. Elizabeth, who was also a native of Virginia, was calculated to have been born there in 1794. She was the daughter of Christian Harshbarger and Barbara Ammen.

John and Elizabeth remained in Botetourt County for about thirteen years after their marriage. In about 1828/1829, however, they moved to the State of Indiana, where they settled along the Wabash River in Tippecanoe County. On 27 March 1829, John purchased 80 acres of land in Washington Township from David Blackburn, and in 1831 he purchased an additional 316 acres of land from a Mr. Jessie Jackson.

John appears to have died sometime in 1841 during a trip back to Virginia, where he had gone on business.

Elizabeth "Betsy" Stair, the daughter of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in Pennsylvania on 26 September 1795. She was later married in Botetourt County, Virginia on 6 March 1810 to a man named Jonathan Obenchain. Jonathan, who generally went by the name of John, was born on 26 May 1789 in Botetourt County, Virginia. John was the son of Samuel Obenchain and Phoebe Daler.

Sometime after 1836, Elizabeth and John moved to Indiana, where they settled in Tippecanoe County. Elizabeth subsequently died in Tippecanoe County in about 1839. After Elizabeth passed away, John married in Tippecanoe County for a second time on 1 March 1842 to a woman named Sarah "Sally" Johnson. Sarah was the widow of William A. Johnson. John died in 1864 in Indiana.

175. Henry Stair.

Henry Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in Pennsylvania in 1797. He was later married in Botetourt County, Virginia to a woman named Sarah "Sally" Brough (also written Brugh) on 17 June 1819. Sarah, who was also a native of Virginia, was the daughter of Daniel Brugh and Elizabeth Dierdorff.

In about 1830, Henry and Sarah moved to Tippecanoe County, Indiana, where they settled near his brother, John Stair, in Washington Township. On 1 October 1830, Henry purchased 160 acres of land from the federal government, and an additional 80 acres of land near his brother, John, from David Blackburn. Henry died in Tippecanoe County on 25 August 1855.

The child listed below as (male) was abstracted from available pre-1850 census records. This child is believed to be one of Henry and Sarah's sons, but has not been identified yet.

176. Jacob Stair.

Jacob Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born on 7 July 1800, probably in Botetourt County, Virginia. Jacob was apparently married twice during his life. He married his first wife, Elizabeth Flook, in Botetourt County on 4 January 1821. Elizabeth, who was also a native of Virginia, had been born there on 8 March 1800. She was the daughter of Peter Flook (also written Fluke).

Jacob and Elizabeth remained in Botetourt County for approximately seven years after their marriage. Sometime in 1828 they apparently moved north into the state of Indiana, where Jacob is found purchasing land in Carroll County from a Mr. Hugh Manary on 2 January 1829. He later sold this property to a man named Henry Robinson on 12 March 1831, and it is believed that he and Elizabeth may have returned to Virginia at this time. By 1837, however, Jacob and Elizabeth had apparently settled in Green County, Wisconsin, as Elizabeth is known to have died there on 27 May 1837. She was subsequently buried in the West Clarno Pioneer Cemetery.

After Elizabeth passed away, Jacob again returned to Botetourt County, Virginia where he married on 21 March 1838 for a second time to a woman named Mary Walker. Mary, who had been born in Virginia on 20 October 1819, was the daughter of Thomas and Sarah Walker. After their marriage, Jacob and Mary returned to Green County, Wisconsin, where Jacob died on 15 October 1863.

After Jacob passed away, Mary married for a second time to a man named O. H. P. Clarno at Monroe in Green County on 31 January 1878. Mary subsequently died in Green County on 27 March 1884. Both Jacob and Mary were buried in the West Clarno Pioneer Cemetery in Clarno Township.

The child listed below as (male) was abstracted from available pre-1850 census records. Although this child is believed to be one of Jacob and Elizabeth's sons, his identity has yet to be determined.

177. Philip Stair.

Philip Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in 1802 in Botetourt County, Virginia. He was later married in about 1824 in Virginia to a woman named Mariah Landis. Mariah, who was also a native of Virginia, was calculated to have been born there in 1804.

Philip remained in Botetourt County until about 1828/1829 when he moved to Tippecanoe County in the State of Indiana. On 12 May 1830, Philip purchased a 10.43 acre tract of land situated near Sugar Creek in Washington Township from a Mr. John Fisher. During the following year, 1831, Philip built a sawmill on this land. Ironically, the first election to be held in Washington Township was held during the month of April 1832 at Philip's sawmill. Philip died on 1 October 1834 in Tippecanoe County, Indiana. He was buried in the North Union Cemetery in Tippecanoe County.

Mariah subsequently married for a second time on 35 March 1839 in Tippecanoe County to a man named Jacob Bimm. Jacob, who was a native of Pennsylvania, was calculated to have been born there in 1814. Mariah had two additional children with Jacob Bimm, namely Edgar who was born about 1841 and Parker who was born in about 1844. Both were born in Tippecanoe County, Indiana.

178. Peter Landis Stair. *

Peter Landis Stair, the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born in Botetourt County, Virginia on 15 February 1805. He was later married in Botetourt County to a woman named Mary "Polly" Beckner on 6 March 1826. Mary, who had been born on 14 April 1806 in Botetourt County, was the daughter of Jonathan Beckner and Susanna Sauers (also written Sowers).

In 1828, Peter purchased a small farm in 1828 from his father which was situated along Looney's Mill Creek. In about 1830, however, Peter appears to have moved to the State of Indiana. He apparently became sick in Indiana and eventually returned to his farm in Virginia, claiming Indiana was an unhealthy place to live. Peter and Mary subsequently remained in Botetourt County until 1855 when they, along with most of their children, moved to Green County, Wisconsin. They arrived in Green County on 30 June 1855, and shortly thereafter they purchased a farm near the town of Jefferson.

In 1865, Peter and Mary moved to another farm, however. This second farm was located about one mile north of Jefferson and was said to have been more improved. They remained on this farm until age and health prohibited them from operating it any longer. At that time they retired to the town of Juda in Green County. Peter subsequently died at Juda on 15 November 1878, while Mary passed away there four years later on 9 September 1882. Both were buried in the Union Church Cemetery in Green County, Wisconsin.

NOTE: In William Beckner's manuscript "The Beckners of Botetourt," he states that Mary Beckner married (1) David Harter and (2) Peter L. Stair (Stoehr). In reality, the Mary Beckner who was married to David Harter was the daughter of Jacob Beckner, son of Nicholas Beckner. She and David had been married on 6 August 1804 in Franklin County, Virginia and moved to Montgomery County, Ohio prior to 1819. Our Mary Beckner, the daughter of Jonathan Beckner, was only married once, and that was to Peter Landis Stair in 1826.

179. Mary Stair.

Mary Stair, the daughter of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was calculated to have been born in 1807 in Botetourt County, Virginia. She was later married in Botetourt County to a man named Samuel Amen Coffman (also written Koffman and Kaufman) on 19 September 1825. Samuel, who was also a native of Virginia, had been born there on 3 January 1802. He was the son of Jacob Coffman and Anna Amen.

Samuel was a bugler in the Black Horse Cavalry of the Virginia Militia prior to his being promoted to the rank of 1st Lieutenant of the 5th Cavalry Regiment of the 15th Brigade of the 5th Division of the Virginia Militia on 14 May 1841. Although Samuel and Mary had remained in Virginia for approximately thirty years after their marriage, it appears that in about 1854 they moved to the Kansas Territory, where they settled on a farm in what is today Kaw Township in Jefferson County. Samuel subsequently died in Jefferson County, Kansas on 25 August 1875, while Mary died there in 1907.

Shortly after the 1840 census of Botetourt County was taken, Simon and Mariah moved to Scott County, Virginia, where they settled in Floyd Township. Both Simon and Mariah resided here for the remainder of their lives. Simon, who was a farmer by trade, died on 23 May 1882 in Scott County, Virginia, while his widow, Mariah, died there on 25 January 1891. Both were subsequently buried in the Fincastle Church Cemetery in Scott County.

181. Jeremiah Stair.

Jeremiah Stair (also written Jerry Stair and Starr), the son of Johann Henrich Stoehr and Mary Magdalene Landis, was born on 10 February 1814 in Botetourt County, Virginia. Jeremiah was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Sarah "Sally" Housman on 8 November 1832 in Botetourt County. Sarah, who was also a native of Virginia, had been born there on 24 April 1817.

Although Jeremiah and Sarah resided on a farm in Botetourt County for about 45 years after their marriage, they eventually moved to Salem, Virginia, an independent city within the borders of Roanoke County. Sarah later died on 4 October 1887 at Salem, Virginia.

After his first wife passed away, Jeremiah married for a second time to a woman named Mary M. Kessler in about 1888 in Virginia. Jeremiah subsequently died at Salem, Virginia on 28 September 1893. According to Jeremiah's will, which was dated 19 November 1889, Jeremiah requested that he be buried "by the side of his first wife Sally, " in the East Hill Cemetery at Salem. No issue are known from either of Jeremiah's marriages.

196. Heinrich Jacob Stoehr.

GENERATION SEVEN

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings, and those other family members (cousins) who have the Stair / Stoehr surname, are covered in this generation.

218. Ann Rebecca Stoehr.

Ann Rebecca Stoehr (also written Starr and Stair), the daughter of Johann Heinrich "Henry" Stoehr and his wife, Elizabeth Schaus, was born on 15 February 1810 at Bethabara in Stokes County, North Carolina (now within Forsyth County, North Carolina). She was later married in Stokes County to a man named Jacob Schaus (also written Schouse and Schauss). Jacob was the son of Christian Schaus and Sarah Pleasant, and the brother of the Wiley Schaus who married Ann Rebecca's sister, Louisa Matilda.

According to the records of the Moravian Church in North Carolina, Jacob Schaus died in Stokes County during the month of October 1829. His funeral was subsequently held on 19 October 1829. Whatever became of Ann Rebecca has not been determined.

Issue: (Surname Schaus)

219. Christian Heinrich "Henry" Stoehr.

Henry Stoehr (also written Starr and Stair), the son of Johann Heinrich "Henry" Stoehr and his wife, Elizabeth Schaus, was born on 22 January 1812 at Bethabara in Stokes County, North Carolina (now within Forsyth County, North Carolina). He was later married in Stokes County to a woman named Mary "Polly" Hutchins by a marriage bond dated 20 September 1835. Mary, who was also a native of North Carolina, was calculated to have been born there in 1816.

Sometime prior to 1850, Henry and Mary moved into Surry County, North Carolina, where they settled in the vicinity of Siloam. Henry was listed in the 1850 census as being a carpenter by trade, but in the 1860 census as being a miller.

Sometime prior to when the 1870 census of North Carolina was enumerated Henry appears to have died. Mary was found on the 1870 census of Winston in Forsyth County, North Carolina residing with her three youngest children in the home of her daughter, Lucinda, and her husband, John Loddrick.

For approximately 12 years after their marriage, Abraham and Elizabeth resided on a farm in Richland County. In 1852, however, they moved into Lucas County, Ohio. When the Civil War began, Abraham apparently went back to Pennsylvania where he joined the Union Army. During the War he served as a Private in Company K of the 53rd Pennsylvania Infantry. According to the 1880 Ohio census enumeration, Abraham and Elizabeth were residing at Swanton in Lucas County, Ohio during that year. This census listed Abraham's occupation as being that of a huckster (peddler). Elizabeth's father, John Stair, was also residing with the family.

Elizabeth died at Swanton in Lucas County, Ohio on 3 September 1890, while Abraham passed away there on 27 November 1905. Both were subsequently buried in the Swanton Cemetery, which was situated across the county line in Fulton County, Ohio.

Jacob Stair, the son of Jacob Stoehr and Susannah Poorman, was born in Franklin County, Pennsylvania on 24 June 1826. Jacob was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Margaret Kramer in about 1846, probably in Ashland County, Ohio. Margaret, who was also a native of Pennsylvania, had been born there on 13 February 1820.

In about 1863, Jacob and Margaret moved to Effingham County, Illinois, where they settled on a farm in Mound Township. In 1881, however, Jacob and his son, Jacob, Jr., established a furniture factory at Altamont in Effingham County. Margaret subsequently died at Altamont on 27 May 1885. She was the mother of all of Jacob's children.

After Margaret passed away, Jacob traveled to St. Joseph County, Indiana, where he married on 24 December 1886 for a second time to a woman named Sarah Jane (Proudfit) Holsinger. Sarah, who had been born in 1838, was the daughter of James and Mary Proudfit, and the widow of William Holsinger. Her first husband had died in Indiana on 10 June 1873. Shortly after their marriage, Jacob and Sarah Jane returned to Effingham County. Jacob died at Altamont on 13 March 1905.

After Jacob passed away, Sarah Jane moved back to Indiana, where she died in 1922. Sarah was subsequently buried in the Noffsinger Cemetery in Elkhart County, Indiana. Both Jacob and his first wife, Margaret, were buried in the Union Cemetery at Altamont in Mound Township in Effingham County, Illinois.

298. Charlotte "Lottie" Stair.

Charlotte Stair, the daughter of Jacob Stoehr and Susannah Poorman, was born in Richland County, Ohio on 19 December 1842. At the present time, it is not known for sure whether or not Charlotte was married two times or three times. On the 1870 and 1880 census enumerations for Elkhart County, Indiana there is a child named Carrie E. Stair living with Charlotte in the home of Charlotte's parents, Jacob and Susannah Stair. This child is listed as being a grand daughter who was born in about 1868. Although I believe this child is Charlotte's daughter, I do not know if she was born out of wedlock, or if she was from a first marriage.

What is known for sure, however, is that this child was born approximately five years prior to Charlotte's marriage to a man named Rufus Huntsinger on 6 March 1873 in Elkhart County, Indiana. In the 1870 census of Baugo Township in Elkhart County, Charlotte was listed as being single and a teacher. In the 1880 census, however, Rufus and Charlotte apparently went their separate ways, as Charlotte was listed in this census as being divorced and a dressmaker.

On 25 November 1893, Charlotte married again, also in Elkhart County, to a man named William Moyer. William, who was a native of Pennsylvania, was calculated to have been born there in 1838. Charlotte died on 12 November 1911 in Elkhart County. She was subsequently buried in the Noffsinger Cemetery in Baugo Township in Elkhart County. No issue have been found from either of Charlotte's marriages to Rufus Huntsinger or William Moyer.

312. Samuel Stair.

Samuel Stair, the son of John Stair and Elizabeth Harshbarger, was calculated to have been born in 1816 in Botetourt County, Virginia. Samuel was apparently married three times during his life. He married first to a woman named Lucinda Obenchain on 25 January 1838 in Tippecanoe County, Indiana. Lucinda is believed to have died in about 1839, possibly due to complications associated with childbirth. There are no known issue from Samuel's first marriage.

After his first wife passed away, Samuel married for a second time, also in Tippecanoe County, to a woman named Harriet Richardson on 26 March 1840. After Harriet passed away, Samuel subsequently married for a third time in Tippecanoe County to Eliza Walter on 21 August 1847. Eliza, who was a native of Indiana, was calculated to have been born there in 1826.

According to available census records, Samuel was a farmer in Washington Township in Tippecanoe County, Indiana. Samuel subsequently died in Tippecanoe County, Indiana in 1852. His will, which had been written on 17 August 1852, was probated on 8 September 1852. Three years later, on 25 September 1855, the Tippecanoe County Orphans Court appointed Robert Fisher as guardian of the four children listed below.
