
Descendancy Narrative of Isaac Ashley

I. Isaac¹ ASHLEY was born circa 1667 (I estimated Isaac's year by his eldest child's date of birth (1689), Lancaster County Virginia?).^{1,2} He married Elizabeth "Eliza" (--?--) circa 1688 Virginia? or Maryland? On 19 January 1700 Cecil County, Maryland, Isaac Ashley witnessed the will of William Hubbard (John Tweege/Twigg also witnessed). William's wife and only legatee was Eliza. Estate included 50 A on south side of Worton Creek. Was this the plantation ("that seated by Wm. Hubert") mentioned in Isaac Ashley's will? Could Isaac's wife, Eliza, have been William's daughter?³ On 6 April 1707, Land Office (Patent Record) Pt. 1, p. 243 Isaac Ashley, William Ashley and John Ashley "Ashley's Lott" Kent County Maryland. 300 acres 1744. Isaac ASHLEY had on the 6th April 1707 surveyed and laid out for him a certain tract of land called "Ashley's Lott" containing 300 acres by virtue of a special warrant for that quantity granted him the 2nd April 1707, but before he sued out patent thereon he died and his right thereto is vested in the petitioners [Isaac Ashley, Sr, William Ashley, Isaac Ashley, Jr., and John Ashley], viz 100A the right of the petitioner Isaac Ashley Sr., 100A the right of the petitioner William Ashley, 50A the right of the petitioner Isaac Ashley Jr and the remaining 50A the right of the petitioner John Ashley. Lying at the head of a creek called Whartan Creek. He died between 24 January 1709 and 29 March 1709 Kent County, Maryland (Isaac wrote his will on the 24th of January 1709 and it was probated on the 29th of March that same year. To son John and heirs, dwelling plantation, or that seated by William Hubert; Son Isaac and heirs one which son John refuses. Son Thomas and heirs 100 acres next to main road; son William 100 acres adjoining John Tweegy's [Twigg] plantation; young son Abraham 100 acres. To wife Eliza, executrix, personalty during life. Witnesses William Hopkins, John Beck, Jr., Mary Beck, Sr., Mary Beck, Jr. Isaac's will was administered again on 6 Jun 1710, extx. Elisabeth Twigg, wife of John Twigg).⁴

A. John² ASHLEY was born on 21 September 1689 (Virginia or Kent County Maryland?).⁵ He married Martha WROTH on 3 August 1714 Kent County, Maryland.⁶ He died in 1740 Kent County, Maryland (written 10th December 1739, probated 13th of April 1740. Legatees: sons Isaac, John "Ashley Lott", dau. Mary Dollerhead, Hannah, granddau. Martha Body. Witnesses: Thomas Cathling, William Bagshaw, William Ashley).⁷

He married Margaret (--?--) before 1755.⁸ He died in 1755 Kent County, Maryland.⁹ He left a will on 7 March 1755 Kent, Maryland (Legatees: wife Margaret, sons Benjamin, Isaac to divide 100A called "Ashley's Lot", daughters Pheeby, Mary, Elizabeth Bowyer, Sarah Godding, Ann Money; Rachael, alias Canady (no relation stated). a) Mary⁴ ASHLEY¹⁰

b) Elizabeth⁴ ASHLEY¹¹ married Unknown BOWYER before 1755.¹²

c) Sarah⁴ ASHLEY¹³ married Jacob? GOODING before 1755 (It is known from Isaac's will that his daughter Sarah married a "Godding" (Gooding?). Information found in "Colonial Families of the Eastern Shore of MD", states that she probably married Jacob Gooding. Jacob and Sarah Gooding were parents of: Sarah, b. 1 Jan 1728; James, b. 8 Aug 1731; Jacob, b. 8 Feb 1733; and John, b. 1 Aug 1736. KESP This is probably not the Sarah Ashley who was a daughter of Isaac & Rachel, as this Sarah Ashley could not have been old enough to have a child in 1728. Her father was born after 1714 (his parent's marriage date) and would not have married until the mid-1730's (at the earliest). Another possibility is that Isaac was not a son of John & Martha Ashley's and therefore could have been born earlier and had a daughter old enough to be married by 1728).^{14,15}
