

Conrad, Plummer, Berg Earn School Board Seats; Fluoridation Failed Here

One of the big issues county-wide in this year's general election Tuesday was the filling of three Board of Education School District 63 seats. The tabulation, excluding the absentee ballots, showed that James Conrad leads the race with 598 votes. He was followed by Royce Plummer with 465 and Jack Berg with 390.

Betty Hadden was fourth in the school board race with 366 votes. The other two were Wanda Hays with 314 and Don Van Ostrand with 277.

There are over 60 absentee ballots yet to be counted.
