- Julia A. Suloff; or Soulouff, was the daughter of Henry Suloff and Elizabeth Aughey. The Suloffs came from Holland. Elizabeth Aughey descended from..... Ache d'agnr, of Normandy, France, who was one of the slain in the St. Bartholemew's massacre. The mother with three sons escaped to Switzerland, where they remained until the death of the mother, when the three sons came to America, landing at Philadelphia, where they took an oath of allegiance to the British crown. The Aches were of the nobility, and had a coat of arms—a la fasce d'arg, de trois cursous d'or. The oldest son, John Ludwig Ache, was the first Professor of modern languages in the University of Pennsylvania.
