Notes for HARMON P. MATTHEWS:
Harmon was a most talented man. He could make anything from the blacksmith shop to woodwork. A most impressive item was a piece of wood carved into a wooden lock that was the size of a baseball. It actually worked!

A man of the woods, Harmon worked diligently. He cleared the land, made a road, built a log cabin, and split fence rails with single broadaxe.

There is one story about his hunting in the woods and he had his gun leaning up on a tree nearby, when all of a sudden, a deer was coming his way. He couldn't get to his gun so he stood behind a big tree and when the buck came by, he grabbed him and with his very large hands made into a tremendous fist, he hit the deer in the heart and it killed it on the spot!

He was a very religious man. When his church he went to in Copiah County decided they were going to do away with the practice of "foot washing” he got his towel and washbasin and walked out. They started another church on the other side of the Pearl River, in Simpson County, called Palestine, and that is where he, his two wives, (Mary Gates and Adeline Miller) and daughter Emaline are buried in the old section of the cemetery.

An orphan. He was raised by J. O. Fairman who died March 26, 1903 at the age of 72. Mr. Fairman is buried at New Hope.

Notes for FRANCIS EDWARD STANLEY:
The original middle name of Francis Edward Stanley was "Frederick." He changed this name in his majority after his arrival in the United States.

As he was growing up, he did not get along with his step-father, Sebastian Bassitt who was the second husband of Anna Delilah Warner. He lived at various times with his uncles, Richard Warner and John D. Warner of the Holmesville and McComb City area of Pike County until he was about 18 years of age. He then left that area on his own and settled in the Brookhaven area of Lincoln County.

Not long after arriving in Brookhaven, he met a fellow "Irishman," Daniel Falvey, who was some 30 years his senior. But the young Irishman and the middle aged Irishman became good friends and remained so until the death of Daniel Falvey.

Daniel Falvey who had a farm in the Red Star community took "Frank" Stanley into his home to help him on his farm. Several few years later, the two men went into partnership on a cotton gin and Frank married Mary Falvey, Daniel Falvey's eldest daughter. Eight children were born to Francis Edward Stanley and Mary Falvey, but only four lived to reach adulthood and to marry.

After the death of Mary Stanley, he remarried to a widow, Sophrona Ann Reed Wright and to that marriage five children lived to reach adulthood and to marry.

It is easy to see that the Stanley - Falvey relationship has been very close throughout the years.

He arrived in the States on November 20, 1866, with his mother aboard the SS Tarifa from Liverpool and Queenstown, Ireland.

He married LOUISA ELLEN FALVEY in Brookhaven, Mississippi, daughter of DANIEL FALVEY and SARAH WHITE. She was born July 11, 1877 in Brookhaven, Mississippi, and died October 15, 1966 in Kerman, Fresno, California.

Notes for LOUISA ELLEN FALVEY:
Born in 1877, Louisa Ellen was the sixth child of Daniel and Sarah Falvey. She married Russell Matthews in the early 1890's giving birth to eight children, three girls and five boys. A girl, Nan, her first born died young. She would later lose her second son and third child, Walter who also died in his youth.

After the death of her husband in December of 1912, Ellen, as many knew her, was left to care for a young family. Her eldest son was only 16 and her youngest, a daughter was nearly two. Ellen never remarried. She persevered through difficult times, raising her children to experience the love life and the reverence of God.

Ellen was a very proud woman with a pioneer spirit. Nothing really seemed to bother her tremendously. She was a fearful woman in some terms, but had a mighty spirit of love and determination. One of her most admirable traits was her strong will. Her complaints were limited. She would do what she must to get things accomplished…with assistance or without assistance.

During her last twenty years, she lived in the households of her two daughters, Dora Matthews Stanley (the youngest) and Louella Matthews Price, both who lived in Kerman, California. Most of these years were spent with the family of her youngest, Dora. It was during this time (late 1950's), that she began to lose her eyesight as a consequence of cataracts. In 1962, she moved in with her daughter Louella upon Dora's family move to Napa, California. It was the hope of Dora that her mother would move with them later after they were settled. This was not to occur however, and the family returned to Kerman a year later. However, Ellen was now settled in with Louella and her aged condition did not seem to allow the return of Ellen to live with Dora and her family.

These were the final years of Ellen. In those years, there was never a moment of complaint. Never a show of anger. Never a word of sorrow. Never a fear of her of blindness. She knew her God well.

For those who knew her personally, Ellen will always be remembered as a loyal friend, a caring mother, a loving grandmother.

Notes for William Matthews:
William was a colorful individual and liked to talk up a good story. He got the name of "Lying Bill." On one occasion, he was confronted by one of the Mississippi locals, during the time when Bill had leased a large plantation from a landowner there.

He was in town one day and the old landowner hollowed to him -- "hey, Bill, come tell me a good lie."
Bill hollowed back, "I can't now, I got to hurry back to the farm. I'm buying up all the sacks I can get to fill with sand because the levee has broken and the farm is flooded!" So, Bill jumped in his truck and took off.

The old landowner raced down there and beat Bill to the farm and there was no water in sight. He said, "Bill, there's no water down here." Bill laughed and said "well, you told me to tell you a good lie, and I was in a big hurry."

William struggled in many ways to make a living. At one time he was quite successful. He definitely had his "ups and downs."
One of those downs was when as a young man, William was held in confinement in a state penitentiary for taking a girl under 18 years of age across state boundary. He served 11 months of a 7 year sentence.

In his later life, he worked in a lumber mill near Euerka, California at Hoopa. He worked there a number of years until his death from stomach problems. He died in Fresno, California living with his sister, Dora Stanley during his final days.
