RASH (RAICHE/RÊCHE/REICHE).*

Two brothers, sons of Pierre^o and Magdeleine (Fleurant) Rash of Canada East, settled in Passumpsic and Joes Brook districts of Barnet about 1855 and 1863.

Of whom no one seems to know anything, is a 1873[43?] Westmore, Vt. town clerk office record that reads: "died this year: Peter Rash (son of Jack & Rhoda)". The evidence still existent points to this being Pierre/Peter^o Rash (spelled Reiche/Rêche/Raiche in his native Canada), patriarch of the Rash families who settled in Barnet; and great-great-grandson of Louis Pinard-de-la-Rochelle, Lord's attorney and master surgeon who had first come to Quebec from France sometime before Sept. 8, 1647 [René Jetté, Dictionnaire Généalogique des Familles du Québec, p.918].

The grandfather of Peter,^o Jean-Baptiste Pinard-Beauchemin-Reiche, adopted the family's surname of "Reiche" from François Reiche of Languedoc, France. François was brother-in-law to Peter^o's father and son-in-law of his great-great-grandfather Louis Pinard-de-la-Rochelle.

Peter^o was b. ab. 1790/1800; m. Nicolet, Que. Aug. 6, 1822 his second cousin Madeleine (b. July 7, 1795 [cc]) dau. Antoine and Magdeleine (Laspron) Fleurant-Pinard [mc]; they had at least twelve children. Of the others: Marie-Magdeleine m. Alexandre Boisvert [Greenwood] and is bur. in Stanstead; Peter Jr. m.
