Notes on Rebecca Cook

Philip Firebaugh

Notes

Listed as a "widow" in the 1881 St. Louis City Directory living at 814 Mound Street - also address of her youngest son Joseph.

Rebecca and her husband James had such opposite opinions over the War of the Rebellion - she favoring the North and he the South, that it destroyed their marriage. Rebecca would remain in St. Louis and never re-marry. James moved to Lamar Co., Texas, remarried, had one more son and adopted a daughter, Ada Cherry. (See Moore)

Obituary of Catherine (Cook) Arbaugh

Clipping found among the Moore papers in 1992 by P. Davidson-Peters

DEATH OF ANOTHER NONAGENARIAN

Catherine Cook was born Nov. 27, 1821, in Harrison county, Ohio, and died Sept. 2, 1916, aged 94 years, 9 months and 6 days. Catherine was the daughter of Martin and Elizabeth Cook and was left an orphan at the age of 8 years. She was married to James Arbaugh, July 18, 1839, and to this union were born eight children, two dying in infancy, and one daughter Rose passed away Oct. 26, 1886. Those surviving are Levi and Mary Snyder of Scio, Ohio; J.C. and S.W. of Birmingham, Iowa, and Mrs. L.M. Bennett of near Douds, at whose whom she passed away. Besides her children she leaves twelve grandchildren and one great grandchild, together with a large number of relatives and acquaintances, who will ever remember Aunt Katie as a warm friend and a good and kind neighbor.

Mrs. Arbaugh became a member of the Lutheran church sometime before her marriage, and was a faithful member till the end of life. She with her husband and children came to Iowa in 1868, and she lived on the farm where she died the remainder of her life, except two years which were spent in Birmingham, Iowa and one year in Scotland county, Missouri.

So far as known she was the oldest resident of Van Buren county and had lived a very useful and industrious life. She was always thoughtful of others and will be greatly missed by all. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, Sept. 3, in the Zion Lutheran church and burial was beside her husband in the Lutheran Cemetery. Rev. Barkley, a pastor of the Fairfield Lutheran Church was in charge of the services.

27. Susan Cook was born 27 Nov 1821 in Ohio and died Before 28 Oct 1929. She married Thomas Moore 06 Jun 1840 in Harrison Co., OH.

Notes on Susan Cook

Notes

Not yet confirmed, however, this information does seem to correspond with 1929 letter of Rachel

Philip Firebaugh

Bennett in which she states that "Aunt Susan had 8 children. Her husband ran off with a woman & left her to take care of all the children."

Date of Death

Rachel Bennett writes from Douds, Iowa in her letter to Emma (Crites) Ream, that their mother's sisters are all dead at this time (28 Oct 1929)

Marriage

Letter of Cook information from Nancy Boothe Schaar to P. Davidson-Peters dated 18 Dec 1996 indicates a marriage for Thomas Moore to Susan Cook on 06 Jun 1840 at Lutheran Church at New Philadelphia (p.8).

Notes on Thomas Moore and Susan Cook
