Notes on Samuel Smith

Brief Biographical Sketch

History of Pettis County, Missouri; Webster County Citizen, 1882.

Contributed by Brooke Adams (2006)

SAMUEL SMITH, Farmer; Post office Smithton. the subject of this sketch is a native of New York State and was born July 18, 1837 and he was there raised and educated until he was about sixteen years of age, when he emigrated to Warren County, IL, where he lived until 1865. He was married on the 29th day of August, 1849 to Miss Cornelia Buck. She is a native of Ohio, and their union has blessed them with thirteen children: Ryan; Roland; Mindwell; Alice; Sidney; Seth; Cora; Charles; Norman; Warren; Olive; Lucretia; and Ira Smith. In 1865 Mr. Smith became impressed with the idea that Missouri offered superior inducements to men of energy and he came to Pettis County, where he owns a fine farm of 220 acres of fine land. He is a consistent member of the Christian Church.

Obituary

Sedalia Daily Capital Newspaper: Feb 17, 1904

Contributed by Brooke Adams (2006)

AN OLD RESIDENT DEAD Samuel Smith, of Smithton, lived in Pettis since 1865.

Samuel Smith aged 76, died at his home in Smithton and was buried Sunday from the Christian Church at that place, Rev. Babbet officiating. Samuel Smith was born in New York State July 18, 1837, and there was reared and educated until the end of his 10th year. then he came to Illinois where, August 29, 1849 he was married to Miss Cornelia Buck, who has been his companion since. In 1865 th family removed to Pettis County, locating near Smithton where Mr. Smith owned, and for years, cultivated a fine farm. Of the union 13 children were born and eight of them live to comfort the mother for the death of her life companion. Samuel Smith was one of Pettis Counties substantial and well respected citizens. His was an upright light and his death will be regretted by all.
