

THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION assembled at Charleston on Tuesday, simultaneously with the Southern Rights Convention, but would not organize till next day. One of the main objects is the elevation of the standard of the medical profession. Among the delegates present we note the following:

John A. Cleveland and H. A. D'Arques, from the Baltimore (Md.) College of Dental Surgery; P. Carbone Gooch, — Wellford, Martin P. Scott, Medical Society of Virginia; J. Wistar Walker, of the Alumni of the Medical Department of Hampden Sydney College, Virginia; C. Boile, of the Medical Society of the District of Columbia; D. H. Tucker and C. P. Johnson, Richmond, Virginia; G. W. Miltenberger, Baltimore, Md; F. W. Powell, Middleburg, Va.; J. C. Lumpkin and Hugh McGuire, of Virginia; H. C. Worsham, Dinwiddie, Va.