58. Last Will and Testament of Macajah Townsend, From New York City Wills, 1780-1782 (via Ancestry.com) Page 527.--In the name of God, Amen. I, MICAHAH TOWNSEND, of Oysterbay, Queens County, yeoman, being in health and of sound mind and memory, this thirtieth day of April, 1781. My just debts and funeral expenses to be paid. My executors to fulfill and perform a certain covenant which, on the nineteenth day of January, 1764, I executed to Joseph, Daniel, and Caleb Coles as Trustees for their sister, my wife Ann. I leave to my eldest son, Platt Townsend, ?210; which, with ?1,590 that I have already given him, makes $1,800. Unto my son Epenetus, ?430; which, with ?1,370 that I have already given him, makes ?1,800. If my son Epenetus shall be dead, without leaving any children, then what is given him is to go to my other sons, equally. Unto my son Micah, one feather bed and its furniture; also the choice of one negro slave (having already given my son Micah ?1,800). Unto my son Jotham, the Farm of Land where I now live (and all the buildings thereon), bounded on the west by the highway leading from Musqueto Cove to Hempstead; on the north by Hulett Townsend's land and partly by land in the possession of William Laton; on the east by the highway leading from Jericho to Mosqueto Cove; and on the south partly by John Liester's land, partly by Samuel Prier's land, partly by Albert Van Nostrand's land, and partly by Sampson Crooker's land, containing about 220 acres. Unto my son Jotham, all my salt and fresh meadow lying at a place called Beaver Swamp, on the east side of the brook in the Township of Oysterbay, the same being in two parcells or lotts, both of which were conveyed to me by my brother, John Townsend, and are particularly butted and bounded in the records of the Town of Oysterbay in Book B, page 5th. Likewise to my son Jotham all my farming utensils. Unto my four sons above mentioned all my rights in the common privileges in the Town of Oysterbay or Township and all the residue of my estate, to be equally divided. I make my four sons above mentioned, executors. Witnesses, Sampson Crooker, of Oysterbay, yeoman, William Laton, Jeremiah Tappen. Codicil. I make my nephew, John Wright, an executor of equal authority with my sons. Dated May 15, 1781. (Same Witnesses.) Proved, May 6, 1782. .

33. Last Will and Testament of Sampson Hawxhurst, Queens County Abstracts of Wills pg 421, In the name of God, Amen. I, SAMPSON HAWXHURST, of Oyster Bay, in Queens County, yeo- man, being sick in body. My wife Susannah is to have the use of houses, orchards, and 100 acres of land adjoining the same, u as it may be convenient for her, lyeing between Feeks lane and the highway that leads through Buckram, and to extend east to the brook near William Carpenter's," And J of all my mead- ow " and 6 cows, as she shall chuse," two of my best horses, sheep, hogs and movable goods ; after my daughter Amy has had as much out of it as to be equal with my daughter Johanah, she is to have these during her life, for her support, and to enable her to bring up her children. My executors may sell the rest of live stock, and all my lands lying north of the lane called Feeks lane. I leave to iny five sons, William, Sampson, Joseph, Benjamin and Daniel, all the rest of my lands and meadows. I only order that my two youngest sons, Benjamin and Daniel, shall have that 100 acres of land which I have given my wife the use of ; and they are to have as much more as will make their part of equal value with the rest. If my daughter Amy shall not be married before her mother's death, she shall have the use of my new house chamber until she be married. And my sons, William and Sampson, shall pay to their sister Jo- hanah, wife of Daniel Burdsell, 30 shillings. And my younger sons, Joseph, Benjamin, and Daniel, shall pay to her three children, Sarah, Hannah, and Mary Burdsell, <!, 10s. to buy each of them a Bible. My wife Susannah, my cousins Zacheus Dickerson, Sampson Crooker and Jarvis Mudge, and my brother, Micajah Townsend, shall be executors. Dated October 23, 1732. Witnesses, William Carpenter, Joshua Cook, Ezekiel Shadbolt. Proved, November 21, 1732. .

47. Last Will and Testament of Macajah Townsend, From New York City Wills, 1780-1782 (via Ancestry.com) Page 527.--In the name of God, Amen. I, MICAJAH TOWNSEND, of Oysterbay, Queens County, yeoman, being in health and of sound mind and memory, this thirtieth day of April, 1781. My just debts and funeral expenses to be paid. My executors to fulfill and perform a certain covenant which, on the nineteenth day of January, 1764, I executed to Joseph, Daniel, and Caleb Coles as Trustees for their sister, my wife Ann. I leave to my eldest son, Platt Townsend, ?210; which, with ?1,590 that I have already given him, makes $1,800. Unto my son Epenetus, ?430; which, with ?1,370 that I have already given him, makes ?1,800. If my son Epenetus shall be dead, without leaving any children, then what is given him is to go to my other sons, equally. Unto my son Micah, one feather bed and its furniture; also the choice of one negro slave (having already given my son Micah ?1,800). Unto my son Jotham, the Farm of Land where I now live (and all the buildings thereon), bounded on the west by the highway leading from Musqueto Cove to Hempstead; on the north by Hulett Townsend's land and partly by land in the possession of William Laton; on the east by the highway leading from Jericho to Mosqueto Cove; and on the south partly by John Liester's land, partly by Samuel Prier's land, partly by Albert Van Nostrand's land, and partly by Sampson Crooker's land, containing about 220 acres. Unto my son Jotham, all my salt and fresh meadow lying at a place called Beaver Swamp, on the east side of the brook in the Township of Oysterbay, the same being in two parcels or lotts, both of which were conveyed to me by my brother, John Townsend, and are particularly butted and bounded in the records of the Town of Oysterbay in Book B, page 5th. Likewise to my son Jotham all my farming utensils. Unto my four sons above mentioned all my rights in the common privileges in the Town of Oysterbay or Township and all the residue of my estate, to be equally divided. I make my four sons above mentioned, executors. Witnesses, Sampson Crooker, of Oysterbay, yeoman, William Laton, Jeremiah Tappen. Codicil. I make my nephew, John Wright, an executor of equal authority with my sons. Dated May 15, 1781. (Same Witnesses.) Proved, May 6, 1782. .
